Concerning Certain Relics of the Past --Dogs that have had Their Day.

George Stephenson's "Rocket," and the magnificent locomotives of to-day, are built upon the same general principle, yet the machine with which the great engineer astonished his age, is interesting now only as an illustration of the beginning of the invention. There were plasters with holes in them long before BENSON'S CAPCINE POROUS PLASTER surprised both the public and the physicians; and the triumph of the Capcine is founded upon the partial successes, or the utter failures of its predecessors. Everything of value in the old porous plaster is retained in the Capcine; but at this point all comparison ends, and contrast begins. For example:

The old plasters were slow in their action; the Capcine is quick and sure.

The old plasters lacked the power to do more than to impart slight, temporary relief in cases easy of treatment; the Capcine penetrates the system and permanently cures the troubles for which it is recommended.

The old plasters depended for any good results they might attain, upon an accident of their makers and the naked faith of their wearers; the Benson's reaches its ends by means of the scientific combination of the rare medicinal ingredients which it contains.

In brief, the old plasters, like Stephenson's discarded engine, are switched off the track, while the Benson goes on its way winning golden opinions from all sorts of people.

Yet is this very fact not the leading danger to the people who buy and use this reliable and scientific remedy. "Hypocrisy is the tribute vice pays to virtue." Imitation is the concession failure makes to success. Benson's Plasters are paroded in name and style.

Beware of swindles. The genuine have the word CAPCINE cut in the center. Price 50 cents. Seabury & Johnson, Chemists, New York.

DR. PEABODY'S LECTURE ON ITALY.

Very few of the large number of persons who go abroad are able to give such interesting and instructive accounts of sights in the old world as can Dr. Peabody. His "Reminiscences of European Travel," originally published in 1868, and of which many editions have since been issued by Houghton, Mifflin & Co., was a collection of twevle lectures, transcribed, for the most part, from letters written to his family without any idea of publication, and yet among the many books of this character they are foremost in point of interest, truthful description, and well selected subjects. Every traveller who has read this book acknowledges its superiority.

The lecture given on Monday evening at the Congregational chapel on Middle street was like all of the similar efforts of our former townsman, interesting, and was listened to with the closest attention throughout by an audience of goodly numbers. Dr. Peabody spoke of the improved condition of Italy, compared with its condition on his former visit. He referred to its agricultural and manufacturing industries, its finance, government, climate and the habits of its people, and closed with some account of the prevailing religious faith of the Italians.

The lecture had but one fault. It was far too brief, and as the good doctor gracefully suggested that he had exhausted his hour, every one regretted that he ceased speaking. The lecture was one of those highly interesting sketches of a foreign country for the composition of which the doctor seems to be unrivalled by any traveller of our day. After the lecture, a large number of the friends of the doctor, including many of his former parishioners, extended to him their congratulations.

LIEUTENANT CHARLES SEYMOUR.

Lieutenant Charles Seymour, of the United States navy, died in Charlestown on Saturday of pneumonia. He was thirty-five years old. Lieutenant Seymour was born in New York, graduated from the naval academy in 1868, and served on the Juniata, European squadron, from 1869 to 1872. He was promoted to the position of ensign in 1869, and to master in 1870, and was commissioned a lieutenant in 1874. He served on the Narragansett survey in the Pacific from 1873 to 1875, was stationed at the New York navy yard in 1876, and was on duty on the Enterprise in 1876 and 1877. Lieutenant Seymour had recently been ordered to the receiving ship Wabash at the Charlestown navy yard.

He was formerly stationed at the navy yard here, and on Dec. 26th, 1877, in this city, married Miss Annie Guest, daughter of the late Commodore John Guest, then commanding the navy yard. His wife survives him, with one child.

A NOTED SHIP.

Much attention was attracted to one of the windows of Montgomery's music and art store, Monday, by the display of a very large picture representing the famed clipper ship "Typhoon," which just thirty-two years before, on the 12th of March, 1851, went down this harbor on her way to Liverpool, under command of Capt. Charles H. Salter.

The Typhoon was a ship of about 1650 tons register, and was built by Fernald & Pettigrew. She was towed to the lower harbor on the evening of March 12th by the steamer R. B. Forbes, of Boston, and went to sea on the 13th. During the passage across the Atlantic she encountered ice, and on one day made but little progress owing to an unfavorable wind, with a severe snow storm; she was struck by lightning, and a young man named Badger, of Newmarket, killed; but she passed Queenstown on the twelfth day out, and entered Liverpool on the thirteenth—the quickest passage ever made by a sailing ship, before or since. Her best day's run was 365 miles.

Her arrival in Liverpool created much interest, and she was pronounced the finest ship that had ever entered the port; she was the first full clipper seen there, that class of ships having then but recently commenced to be built. The picture of her, mentioned above, was painted by Walters of Liverpool, an eminent marine artist of that day.

As to her ultimate fate we are informed that in 1864 the Typhoon was blockaded in Singapore by the Alabama, and was sold to English purchasers, who changed her name to "Undaunted." Several years after this a vessel bearing the latter name was lost in the China seas during a typhoon, and it is probable was the famous Portsmouth-built ship.

The winter term of school at Newington closed on Friday, the 9th inst., having been taught by Mr. George W. Libby, who was also the teacher during the winter of '81 and '82, and has gained great favor in the town as a kind and able instructor. The number of pupils at the late term was from sixty-five to seventy; and on the evening the school closed there was given by the teacher and scholars the most successful sociable of the season, with picnic-supper and games, the number of persons present reaching nearly two hundred. It is reported that some of the Newington people are in favor of two weeks more of school, the necessary funds to be raised by subscription.

Mr. H. M. Clark has made and sold over ten and one-half tons of sausages this winter; this would make about ten miles of sausages, were they placed in single line, end to end.

The graduating class of the Newmarket high school had a reception in the town hall on Friday evening of last week, from eight o'clock to ten, after which there was a dance lasting till the small hours; music was supplied by an orchestra of eight pieces, from Haverhill, Mass. Early in the evening considerable alarm was created for a few minutes, by the woodwork around a hot-air register taking fire, but a few buckets of water was all that was needed, and quiet was soon restored.

Thomas Cannon, an elderly man, fell under the wheels of an Eastern railroad train at Lynn, Mass., at noon on the 12th inst., and had both legs nearly severed. He attempted to board the train while it was in motion.

Farm help in the town of Newington was never known to be so scarce as at present, many laboring men having sought employment in other places.

A meeting of the resident members of the Rockingham bar was held on Monday, at which Hon. James W. Emery presided. The bar voted to attend the funeral of the late Wm. Russell Foster in a body.

The proceedings at the second annual festival of the New England Society of Pennsylvania at the Union League house, Philadelphia, on Forefathers' day, have been printed in pamphlet form. The address of the president, Hon. E. Ashton Rollins, formerly of Somersworth, N. H., was appropriate, witty and patriotic; it begins at Delmonico's, and ends with the loyal assertion that he "had rather live in New England than die in Arkansas!" Among the annual members we notice the names of S. A. Caldwell, formerly of Newburyport, and Dr. A. L. Elwyn, M. P. Stacey and J. Langdon Wentworth, formerly of Portsmouth.

William H. Ross, station agent at Lynn for the Eastern railroad, has resigned that position, the resignation to take effect April 1st. It is reported that he is to enter the service of the Toledo, Cincinnati & St. Louis railroad, of which E. B. Phillips, late of the Eastern railroad, is president.

MANHOOD

KNOW THYSELF.

A Book for Every Man !

Young, Middle-aged and Old.

THE untold miseries that result from indiscretion in early life may be alleviated and cured. Those who doubt these assertions should purchase the new medical work published by the PEABODY MEDICAL INSTITUTE, Boston, entitled THE SCIENCE OF LIFE, OR, SELF-PRESERVATION. Exhausted vitality, nervous and Physical debility, premature decline of man, or vitality impaired by the errors of youth, or too close application to business, may be restored and manhood regained.

Sixth edition, revised and enlarged, just published. It is a standard medical work, the best in the English language, written by a physician of great experience, to whom was awarded a gold and jewelled medal by the National Medical Association. It contains beautiful and very expensive engravings. 300 pages, more than 125 valuable prescriptions for all forms of diseases, acute and chronic, the result of many years of extensive and successful practice, either one of which is worth ten times the price of the book. Bound in beautiful French cloth, embossed, full gilt. Price only $1 25, by mail, postpaid, on receipt of price. Illustrated sample six cents. Send now.

THE SCIENCE OF LIFE; OR, SELF-PRESERVATION,

is beyond all comparison the most extraordinary work on Physiology ever published. There is nothing whatever that the married or single can either require or wish to know but what is full explained.—[London Lancet.

THE SCIENCE OF LIFE; OR SELF-PRESERVATION,

Granted to citizens of New Hampshire, for the week ending March 6th.

[Compiled weekly expressly for this paper.]

T. M. Griswold, assignor of one-half to John P. E. Parker of Nashua; whip.

From Providence, R. I., last week, came a report that on the 14th inst. Ex-Gov. Sprague was to receive the nomination of a "citizens' equal rights convention" for governor, and that a "ratification" by the regular democratic convention would follow. Some of the old democratic war horses oppose Sprague's nomination, but others are strongly supporting it. Gov. Butler of Massachusetts is greatly in favor of it; indeed it is supposed that Ben is at the bottom of the movement, believing if he can force the nomination of a man like Sprague on the Rhode Island democracy, and secure his election, it will almost assure his (Old Ben's) nomination for the presidency.

The Worcester (Mass.) Spy says that a young man named W. H. Maynard, who had a small farm in Boylston, has "gone west," after obtaining money on several forged notes in that city. He was caught in the cars, as he was leaving, and compelled to pay the amount of one for $116. He then begged off and was allowed to depart, since which time other bogus notes uttered by him have come to light.

Mrs. Eunice Beedle of West Randolph, Vt., has secured a pension of $96 per year, and $1,785 back pay. This was granted in consequence of the loss of her son, Henry A. Beedle, who died in Andersonville prison.

It's hard to believe Miss Whittier was cured of such terrible sores by Hood's Sarsaparilla, but reliable people prove it.

Margaret Clune, of Holyoke, Mass., has sued Father Harkins of St. Jerome church for $10,000, for alleged slander uttered at his altar. It is claimed that she gave up her seat in church, and that he denounced her action in terms that could not be mistaken, although no name was mentioned.

Thomas Maher, Jr., Isaac L. Street and Joseph Myers, convicted of making a fraudulent return as election officers, were each sentenced at Philadelphia Saturday to three months' imprisonment, fined $100, and disfranchised for the period of four years.

Can you find a case of Bright's disease of the kidneys, diabetes, urinary or liver complaints that is curable, that Hop Bitters has not or cannot cure? Ask your neighbors if they can.

A lodging-house at the terminus of the Black Hills & Fort Pierre railroad, Dakota, was burned on the night of March 10th. Fifteen men were sleeping in a loft, and eleven of them perished; the other four were dangerously burned, and two of them broke their legs by jumping from a window.

A specific, and the only one too for all forms and types of skin disease, is known the world over as Dr. Benson's Skin Cure. It is not a patent medicine, but a reliable, certain remedy.

THAT SETTLES IT.

Brought into Competition with the World, the Best Carries off the Honors.

At the great Centennial Exhibition of 1876, the leading products of all the branches of the World's Industry were assembled at Philadelphia. To carry off a prize in the face of that tremendous competition was a task of no ordinary difficulty. Inventions and preparations for the alleviation of pain and the cure of disease were present in the greatest possible variety, representing the skill and the profoundest study of the age, and it may be of vital importance to you, personally, to know that the highest and only medal given to rubber Porous plasters, was awarded to the manufacturers of BENSON'S CAPCINE POROUS PLASTER, by the following jury:

DR. WM. ROTH, Surgeon-General, Prussian Army.

J. H. THOMPSON, A. M., M. D., Washington, D. C.

C. B. WHITE, M. D., New Orleans.

ERNEST FLEISCH, M. D., Austria.

The decision was afterwards confirmed by the medical jury at the last Paris Exposition. Knowing the value of such high and unbiased testimony, the medical profession, both in the United States and in Europe, quickly threw aside the old, slow acting plasters they had been using, and adopted Benson's in their regular practice. That physicians and surgeons of the broadest reputations did this, distinctly proves the intrinsic merit of the article.

It is no more than just to add that the average physician of to-day is not dominated by the prejudices which retarded the progress and modified the successes of his predecessors of not more than twenty-five years ago. He accepts hints from all quarters and endorses and adopts demonstrated healing agents wherever he finds them.

Let the purchaser, however, be on his guard against imitations. The genuine has the word CAPCINE CUT in the middle.

VARIOUS QUACKS.

Who--Each with his own Pet Scheme--Cultivate the Field of Human Nature.

There have always been quacks—legal quacks, theological quacks, scientific quacks and medical quacks. Some of them are bland, oily fellows who argue and smile the world into believing in their favorite bit of humbug. Others are pompous and pretentious parasites. But they make it pay. Men seem to love to be swindled, stipulating only that it shall be neatly done.

The dear public are equally liberal to the electric and magnetic fraud. This fellow is a genius in his line. He will put a magnetic belt around your waist, a magnetic necklace under your chin, or fit you out with an entire suit of magnetic clothes, warranted to serve the purpose of ordinary garments, and at the same time to cure all diseases, from whooping-cough to hasty consumption.

Most of these have no more electric or magnetic power about them than resides in wooden blankets or in girdles of sackcloth. Only when applied by an expert is electricity of the slightest use as a medicinal agent, and even then its value is grossly over-stated. What is the strongest possible presumptive evidence in favor of a particular remedy? Clearly that it should have been prepared by responsible persons of acknowledged skill in the treatment of disease.

Squarely on this foundation stands BENSON'S CAPCINE POROUS PLASTER. Endorsed by 5,000 physicians, pharmacists, druggists and chemists, it needs no further apology nor introduction. It is the one and only true and tried external application. Quacks of all kinds pay the Capcine the compliment of their dislike, as Satan is said to hate holy water.

A man employed by T. J. Murphy, undertaker of New Bedford, Mass., a few days ago went to a house to measure a corpse, and by mistake got into the wrong room, where a living woman was asleep. He pulled out his tape and measured her length. Then he rolled her over on her face to measure across her shoulders. She awoke, and wanted to know what he was doing. He left the house in great haste, and reported at the store, half frightened to death, that there was no corpse in that house.

"Yes," was the prompt reply, "or a Buchanan's either," and he did. It may be safely assumed that the lady, to whom the gallant captain thus paid his respects, hadn't the catarrh. This malady is as loathsome as it is painful. It's cure has heretofore been considered impossible. Ely's Cream Balm, however, never fails to cure it. Mr. Nathan Fegley, with E. F. Montz, merchant, Wilkesbarre, Pa., says: "I've had catarrh for fifteen years. Ely's Cream Balm has opened my nostrils and reduced the inflammation. My eyes, too, can stand strong light." This balm is a marvel of fragrance, and curative powers,—is not a liquid or snuff, and is easily applied.

Disease of various kinds is often only the sign that nature is trying to remove the disturbing cause. A YOUNG OLD LADY.

"Yes, Sir! I'm Younger than any of my Children now," said Mrs. Sarah M. Robinson, of 61 William St., New Haven, Conn.--We read about this kind of Noble Ladies, but Seldom See them in Society.

"Yes, sir; I'm younger than any of my children now. I keep up with the times, I read the papers, applaud the victories of old Yale, and don't grow old," were the words of Mrs. Robinson to your reporter when he called at her home. Mrs. Robinson is one of the earnest, go-ahead sort of aged ladies, of whom you read, but whom you so rarely find in modern society. "I've had my share of trouble," she said, "for all my life I've been a sufferer from erysipelas. From this has resulted diseased stomach and inaction of the digestive organs. I've been troubled with dyspepsia, and have had such a weakness of the stomach it has seemed as if I needed something artificial and strengthening. I attribute this to erysipelas, which is constitutional with me. I've been under the physician's care a great deal during my life, but I never received any permanent benefit I think until I began taking Dr. Kennedy's FAVORITE REMEDY, which has proved a perfect restorative in my case. My health is better now than it has been for a long time. I consider Dr. Kennedy's FAVORITE REMEDY an excellent medicine. It is used extensively in this city. I keep it as a family medicine, and rely upon it for I know of the good results of using it."

Your reporter I ft Mrs. Robinson rejoicing in health and renewed youth, and bestowing merited praise on that which is the source of happiness to thousands, viz: Dr. Kennedy's FAVORITE REMEDY. Ask your druggist for it. Kennedy's FAVORITE REMEDY has become a household word. Everybody, sooner or later, gets sick, and sickness is both wearisome and costly. FAVORITE REMEDY stops in at this point. It is not expensive and it is efficient. For all diseases of the Blood, Bilious Disorders, Kidney Complaints, Constipation, and the aches and ills which make the domestic life of women a cross so hard to bear.

In Lumber Camp in Winter.

The men who cut and haul lumber are fearfully exposed in severe weather, and, although hardy and rugged, are sometimes laid aside from duty. Mr. Randall, of Augusta, Maine, who is extensively engaged in the lumbering business, writes that one of his men was attacked with a terrible sore throat, so that they thought he would die. They administered Perry Davis's Pain Killer, both internally and externally. In an hour the sufferer was relieved, and the next day he was at work as usual.

Buy it of your druggist or grocer.

The funeral of Deacon Timothy Colby of Hopkinton occurred Monday. There was a very large attendance. Deceased weighed over 300 pounds. The casket was too large for the hearse, and had to be taken to the grave on an express sleigh.

SELLING THE CITY FARM.

"Here you are again." "C. A. C." makes a worse muddle in his explanation, than Councilman Clough did in his speech, for now he ignores entirely the item of farm receipts, amounting to $18,248 for the five years named, and takes the expenditures for the cost of the farm and inmates, and by that astonishing system of arithmetic, runs up the cost of supporting the inmates to a fancy figure. I am bound to believe that he is honest in his statements, but unaccustomed to the analysis of accounts, and I would suggest that he confine himself hereafter to matters with which he is more familiar. But when we remember that even Wiggins found followers, we may well fear that the erroneous statements of C. A. C. may find believers. In justice therefore to the overseers and to the careful and economical superintendent, I have compiled from the city books the following brief statement of the receipts and expenditures of the city farm and almshouse for the years 1877 to 1881:

Expenditures	$4979.54
Receipts	3944.36
Net cost		$1035.18
1878.
Expenditures	$4492.01
Net cost		1411.72
1879.
Expenditures	$4657.59
Receipts	4164.28
Net cost		493.31
1880.
Expenditures	$4056.52
Receipts	3123.74
Net cost		932.78
1881.
Expenditures	$5220.88
Receipts	3885.33
Net cost		1355.55
Showing a total net cost of running the farm and supporting the inmates for the five years of		$5239.54
And an average of at for each year of		$1045.11

This last sum was stated by Mr. Clough in his speech, but entirely ignored by him in his later article. That is to say, in his speech Mr. Clough did not consider the support of the inmates, and "C. A. C." makes no account of the receipts of the farm. He takes the expenditures for the five years, $23,476.54, divides by five, and finds $4695.31 nearly, and says it costs the city $4695 per year to run the house and farm; whereas that sum represents the bills paid, and should have deducted from it the average receipts for the same time. Thus:

Total expenditures for five years	$23,476.54
Average expenditures	4,695.31
Total receipts for 5 years	18,248.00
Average receipts	3,649.60
Showing as before the average cost of the house and farm to be	$1045.11.

This has been the cost of the farm and the poor at the house each year for five years past. Just this and no more. And reckoning the number of the poor supported by the city at thirty it will give, as I said before, $34.83 for each inmate, and a weekly cost of about sixty-nine cents.

I have not considered the matter of interest on the value of the farm and stock, because this is beyond the control of the overseers or superintendent.

I care not so much whether the farm is sold to pay the city debt as I care for candor and honesty, and for a fair showing of the accounts. But if by means of the farm, well and skilfully managed as I believe it to have been, the poor can be supported at 67 cents per week, it is profitable to keep it, for in no other way can they be so well kept at so low a rate. A comfortable house, good food and water, spacious and well ventilated rooms, are secured for our unfortunate relatives and friends so long as we keep the farm. If we sell it—what? B.

Joseph Q. Rolles, a time-honored democratic sachem of Ossipee, who for twenty-five years has run his party in that town, has recently failed in business. The last we heard of this distinguished politician he failed to retain a seat in the house of representatives of New Hampshire, though his retention was advocated in a long speech by Hon. W. E. Chandler, who with combined wit and political wisdom endeavored to show the democratic friends of Rolles that what they regarded as a political irregularity was only an error of judgment, which ought not to deprive the state of the services of an experienced legislator and rapid speaker like Mr. Rolles. During this session, Mr. Chandler contrived to place himself in the minority upon several questions, and in the case of Mr. Rolles his advocacy of his retention was a damage to the Ossipee veteran, who was fired out of the house by a good majority.

One of the boilers of the Locust Spring colliery, near Locust Gap, Northumberland county, Pa., exploded on Sunday, March 11th. John Noble and Chas. Richmond, Jr., were fatally scalded. The cause of the explosion is unknown.

John McQuarter's house at New Richmond, P. Q., was burned Saturday night, March 10th. His wife and an infant were burned to death. A man named Pierre Parent, aged eighty-two years, died in a few minutes after leaving the burning house.

George A. Smith, night clerk at the American hotel, in Hartford, Conn., stopped a runaway horse on the 12th inst. by jumping into the sleigh and seizing the reins, but after stopping the horse fell forward upon the dashboard, dead, from heart disease.

Vera Phillippova, an important Nihilist, has been arrested at St. Petersburg.

Portland, Me., owes $4,549,000, and has available assets, such as gas stock, notes and trust funds on which the city pays interest only, sinking fund, building loans and Atlantic & St. Lawrence railroad bonds, in all $1,227,893. The net debt is $3,321,106, it having been reduced $71,500 the past year.

A man named C. H. Batchellor was killed by the down town passenger train on the New London Northern railroad, at Three Rivers, Vt., on the 10th inst. He stepped in front of the engine just before it entered a covered bridge, and was instantly killed.

The sea of Saturday and Sunday at Newport, R. I., washed about 200 bushels of huge beach clams, some weighing over one pound and a half each, ashore on Newport beach.

Upon the arrival at Marlboro, Mass., of the night freight for Worcester, Saturday night, Conductor Lee Hunt was missing. Search revealed his terribly mangled body attached to a car truck, in which position it had been dragged over the track for miles.

The British steamship Gardenia, from Newcastle, Eng., Jan. 22d, for New York, some time ago reported as trying to get back to England with a broken shaft, has again been spoken, about 1000 miles west of Ireland.

A number of Maine cities and towns held elections on the 12th inst. The republicans carried Augusta high and dry; in Bangor there was no choice for mayor; the "tax-payers" carried Belfast, the democrats Waterville, and the greenbackers Camden.

John Syren of Philadelphia shot his sister-in-law and then himself, on the 12th inst., while deranged; both were fatally wounded.

Mardi Gras and Its Doings in New Orleans.

New Orleans in its spring verdure clad witnessed a gay scene at its last grand day of disappointment. Never was there a Mardi Gras so beautifully observed or largely attended since the days of its Spanish founders. A few days after, on the 13th of February, another incident occurred, one now not universal, however. Over $255,000 were scattered over the world in prizes at the 13th Grand Monthly Distribution of The Louisiana State Lottery, under the sole management of Gen'ls G. T. Beauregard of La., and Jubal A. Early of Va. Ticket No. 37,625, sold in fifths for $1 each, drew the first capital, $75,000—Charles Rigney of Maysville, Ala., one-fifth; another to a well-known merchant in Louisville, Ky., collected thro. h the Second Nat'l Bank of Louisville, Ky. The second capital ($25,000) was won by No. 81,295—one-fifth held by Geo. Kohler of Zaleski, O., collected through the First Nat'l Bank of Cincinnati, O. The third capital ($10,000) was drawn by No. 22,605—one fifth went to Geo. E. Harri- of the Surgeon-Gen'ls (U. S. Army) Office, Washington, D. C.; another to L. R. Davis, No. 224½ Washington st., New Orleans, La.; another to Sam'l Cook of No. 1508 Tenth st., N. W. Washington, D. C.; and another to F. Lasey, 520 Burgundy st., New Orleans, La. Nos. 49,778 and 99,923 each drew the $5,000, the fourth prizes, and they went to Henry Menzel, collected thr ugh Messrs. Scassoni & Sons & Co., of Cincinnati, O.; another was collected through the Nodaway Valley Bank of Maryville, Mo.; G. Zeiss of Philadelphia was another. Tickets Nos. 6,661, 37,654, 65,986, 81,440, 82,274, each drew $2,000—sold to parties living in New York, New Orleans, Washington, D. C., Huntsville, Ala., Allegheny, Pa., Omaha, Neb., Prescott, Ark., and Toronto, Canada. Many parties dislike their successes published, hence they are omitted. Next opportunity will be on Tuesday, April 10th, of which any one applying to M. A. Dauphin, New Orleans, La., will be fully informed.

While near York harbor, some days ago, Mr. Herbert Banks and two ladies were thrown out of a sleigh through its being capsized, the lady who was driving failing to guide the horse clear of a slough into which one runner of the sleigh sank. Mr. Banks caught the reins and stopped the horse, and the only harm done was a sprain of one of Mr. Banks' shoulders and some slight damage to the sleigh.

A stranger rushed into a shooting gallery in the Bowery, New York, on the evening of March 10th, seized a gun from an attendant and shot himself dead. On the 12th the body was identified as that of Capt. John Hartley, formerly of the regular army. He had been in New York but two weeks, having gone there from Saco, Me., where he lived. Pecuniary embarrassment is supposed to have induced the taking of his own life.

At the municipal election in Biddeford, March 12th, the democrats made a clean sweep, electing Edmund W. Staples mayor by 200 majority, and carrying five of the seven wards of the city. The democrats held a jollification meeting that night, celebrating their victory with music and speech making. It is said this was the hardest fought election ever held in Biddeford. Mr. Staples was the democratic candidate last year, and made a good run. Three trials were had, Mayor Clark (rep.) being re-elected at the third trial by a very small majority. Since then the legislature has amended the city charter, so that now only a plurality of votes is required to elect. Mayor-elect Staples is one of the leading business men of the city, and although always an active democrat, has many times refused preferred honors from his party.

A large bowling saloon is being built at Union Bluff, York; the lumber for it is hauled from Portsmouth by Charles L. Grant.

The committee in charge of supplies for the sufferers on the Ohio river south of Evansville, Ill., report great suffering and sickness at nearly all the river towns. Thousands are destitute of clothing, and their houses were left in a shattered condition by the flood.

Monday, March 12th, while Levi Huntley, repairman for the Vermont Valley railroad at Bellows Falls, Vt., was watching the wheels of a passing train, another train backed over him, killing him instantly. He was about sixty years old, and leaves a family.

SCROFULA.

A remedy that can destroy the germs of scrofula, and when once settled has the power to root it out, must be appreciated by those afflicted. The remarkable cures of young children and the more wonderful cures of those of middle age and late in life, as illustrated by our printed testimonials, prove HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA to be a reliable remedy, containing remedial agents which do positively cure scrofula and eradicate it from the blood.

GARNER, N. H., Jan. 21, 1879.

MESSRS. C. I. HOOD & CO., Lowell, Mass.: Gentlemen—For ten years previous to the early part of 1877 I had been a constant sufferer from scrofulous blotches or sores, which had finally reduced me to a helpless condition, as described in my letter to you in September of that year. The continued excellent health which enables me to keep house for my aged father and to enjoy life, keeps alive my intense personal interest in HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA, and I cannot refrain from expressing my gratitude for the permanent cure this wonderful medicine effected in my case nearly two years ago, while living in Lowell, when all my physicians gave me up as being in an incurable condition. One thing before I close. I have recommended your Sarsaparilla to hundreds, and I think more than a thousand cases, and my faith in its invincibility in curing scrofula has become absolute by the wonderful cures it has effected aside from my own. I trust you will not be slow in making the merits of HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA known everywhere, for it is a duty you owe to mankind. With best wishes I remain very truly yours,

HEART DISEASE

IS YOUR HEART SOUND?

Many people think themselves sick and doctor for kidney or liver troubles, or dyspepsia, while if the truth were known, the real cause is at the heart. The renowned Dr. Cheinbaning, startlingly says "one-third of my subjects show signs of heart disease." The heart weighs about nine ounces, and yet man's twenty-eight pounds of blood passes through it once in a minute and a half, resting not day or night! Surely this subject should have careful attention. Dr. Graves a celebrated physician has prepared a specific for all heart troubles and kindred disorders. He is known as Dr. Graves' Heart Regulator and can be obtained of your druggists, $5 per bottle, six bottles for $25 by express. Send stamp for Dr. Graves' thorough and exhaustive treatise. (1)

CONSOLIDATION.

The agreement of consolidation between the Eastern and Boston & Maine railroads was approved by the Eastern directors at a meeting in Boston on Tuesday, and a stockholders' meeting will be called for March 28th to ratify the same. The Boston & Maine directors last week took similar action. The lease is for fifty years, on the following terms: Seven per cent to the Boston & Maine; the interest on the Eastern bonds; the fixed charges on both roads; six per cent out of the surplus, if any, to the Eastern road. So said the Boston Traveller of Tuesday evening.

PORTSMOUTH BREWING CO.

At a special meeting of the stockholders of the Portsmouth Brewing Co., held on Tuesday, Vice President Callahan presiding, Charles A. Clark was chosen clerk of the corporation, vice Wm. C. Robinson, resigned. A vote of thanks to Mr. Robinson, who has been clerk since August, 1879, was unanimously adopted, and some of the by-laws were changed.

TOWN ELECTIONS.

Tuesday, March 13th, was election day in New Hampshire, though probably very few persons in Portsmouth knew it at the time. We give below the result in a few of the neighboring towns:

RYE—Selectmen, Nathaniel Marden, Albert C. Locke, and Sylvanus W. Foss; clerk, George Walker; treasurer, C. J. Brown. All democrats.

NEWCASTLE.—Selectmen, Charles E. Whitehouse, Nathaniel Caswell, Thaddeus Carleton; clerk and treasurer, Howard M. Curtis; superintending school committee, Moses R. Curtis; prudential committee, Jesse O. White, Albert W. Hanscom, Oliver V. Randall. All republicans except Carleton and Randall.

GREENLAND—Moderator, John Hatch; clerk, Lorenzo D. Dunphy; treasurer, Edwin A. Peterson; school committee, Wm. O. Junkins; selectmen, John S. Seavey, J. Howard, George W. Weeks. All democrats except Weeks.

BRICK MAKERS AND CARRIERS.

Over 4,000,000 bricks are burned on the Dover point side of the Cocheco river yearly. Mr. Courser burns 400,000 at his yard, and Mr. Pearl 600,000 at his; Mr. Roberts runs two yards, Mr. Ford two, and Mr. Pinkham four. These yards burn over 2000 cords of wood a year, and the brickyard proprietors say that if the Eastern railroad would build a spur track from the main line of the Portsmouth & Dover road, to follow along the banks of the river, so that cars loaded with wood from the interior of the state could be switched off at the yards, and the bricks loaded on cars for Boston, that the business could be increased to an indefinite extent; they think such a spur, which would not cost much to build, would be a paying speculation for the Eastern to engage in.

The schooner Triton, Capt. Freeman, will come off the marine railway at Kittery this week, having received a new keelson, had her stern extended and modernized, been calked and painted, and otherwise put in thorough repair. She will proceed immediately up the river to load with brick for Boston, and will be the first of the brick fleet to make a start this season. She belongs to Mr. Roberts, who owns two brickyards at Dover point. The schooner Hattie Lewis, Capt. Brewster, will go on the ways as soon as the Triton comes off, and will be made ready for the season's work as quickly as possible.

GOSSIPS SAY

That a marine bicycle is to be put on the line between this city and Gerrish's island next summer.

That the lecture in the Methodist church on Monday evening by Rev. C. B. Pitblado, was in that gentleman's most humorous vein, and gave universal satisfaction.

That a number of Portsmouth subscribers to the Manchester Times would like to see either their paper or their money.

That no blame is attached to the crippled soldier who solicited the subscriptions, as he promptly remitted the money to the publishers.

That large sleighing parties will start from the Methodist parsonage on Court street this afternoon and evening.

That those who miss going to the entertainment and supper under the auspices of Strawberry Bank Lodge of Good Templars, at Temperance (formerly Grange) hall to-night, will miss the "event of the season."

The Ideal Opera Co. give "Pinafore" in Portland, Me., this week. We have no doubt that a really good Pinafore company would fill Music hall again, as full as the performance of that popular musical absurdity ever did.

The Sunday school connected with the Christian society will give a concert in their chapel on Court street this (Wednesday) evening at 7.30 o'clock; admission ten cents.

Mr. John Griffin started from this city for Minneapolis, Minn., on Monday.

The funeral of the late William R. Foster occured on Tuesday, the services being conducted by Rev. James DeNormandie. The floral tributes were profuse, among them being a wreath sent by the members of the bar. The pall-bearers were Messrs Dan'l J. Vaughan, Chas. E. Batchelder, Wallace Hackett and Arthur W. Walker. De Witt Clinton Commandery of Knights Templar was represented by Sir Knights Calvin Page, E. C., Washington Freeman, J. Horace Kent and Howe Call. The remains were interred at the South cemetery.

Mr. L. E. Staples, at No. 7 Market street, advertises extra bargains in linen towels.

The first halibut of the season, from Georges, was received at C. Sullivan & Co.'s well known and popular fish, meat and vegetable market, corner of Row and Penhallow streets, on Tuesday; the firm expect to be in receipt of halibut now right along, and have for some time been getting vegetables from Bermuda.

A horse belonging to Hon. Frank Jones was frightened on Tuesday afternoon while standing in front of his office on Market street, and started to run. The driver caught the reins and was dragged a considerable distance before letting go, but the horse kept on, ran the sleigh against a post in front of the Ladd house, cleared himself from the vehicle there and galloped home to the farm. The damage done was not great.

Mr. William Titcomb has now been in charge of the York town farm for three years, and seems to have given general satisfaction to the tax-payers, regardless of party lines. He recently sold a pair of fat cattle from the farm for $200, to a butcher in Eliot, the cattle having been purchased at a much smaller price, and fattened on the farm; another yoke was bought of James Goodwin, for $130. There are forty cords of wood piled up on the farm, ready for use. There were twenty-one inmates on the 3d inst.; next day the inmates numbered twenty-two, though nobody had entered the establishment in the meantime; most of the residents are old people, but No. 22 was very young on her arrival; all doing well.

Hon. E. C. Moody is said to be one of the most literary men in York, taking twelve papers, and reading them all; he means to keep posted on what is going on in the world.

Mr. Elbridge Brooks, a prominent young business man of Eliot, died very suddenly at the residence of a brother-in-law in Brooklyn, N. Y., a few days since, at the age of twenty-six years. Mr. Brooks was on his wedding trip, having on Jan. 25th been married in Kittery to Miss Ida M. Fernald.

Mr. Andrew Webber of York had a valuable mare seriously injured recently by her struggles to get out of a snow bank.

The Maine legislature has passed a resolution in favor of the publication of the ancient records of York county.

The genuine have cluster of GREEN HOPS (notice this) printed on the white label, and are the purest and best medicine on earth, especially for Kidney, Liver and Nervous Diseases. Beware of all others, and of all pretended formulas or recipes of HOP BITTERS published in papers or for sale, as they are frauds and swindles. HOP BITTERS MFG. CO., Rochester, N. Y.

NO USE FOR THEM.

Concerning Certain Relics of the Past --Dogs that have had Their Day.

George Stephenson's "Rocket," and the magnificent locomotives of to-day, are built upon the same general principle, yet the machine with which the great engineer astonished his age, is interesting now only as a illustration of the beginning of the invention. There were plasters with holes in them long before BENSON'S CAPCINE POROUS PLASTER surprised both the public and the physicians; and the triumph of the Capcine is founded upon the partial successes, or the utter failures of its predecessors. Everything of value in the old porous plaster is retained in the Capcine; but at this point all comparison ends, and contrast begins. For example:

The old plasters lacked the power to do more than to impart slight, temporary relief in cases easy of treatment; the Capcine penetrates the system and permanently cures the troubles for which it is recommended.

The old plasters depended for any good results they might attain, upon an accident of their makers and the naked faith of their wearers; the Benson's reaches its ends by means of the scientific combination of the rare medicinal ingredients which it contains.

In brief, the old plasters, like Stephenson's discarded engine, are switched off the track, while the Benson goes on its way winning golden opinions from all sorts of people.

Yet is this very perfection the leading danger to the people who buy and use this reliable and scientific remedy. "Hypocrisy is the tribute vice pays to virtue." Imitation is the concession failure makes to success. Benson's Plasters are parodied in name and style.

SECRET!

SALICYLICA is known as a common-sense remedy, because it strikes directly at the cause of Rheumatism, Gout and Neuralgia, while so many so-called specifics and supposed panaceas only treat locally the effects.

It has been conceded by eminent scientists that outward applications, such as rubbing with oils, ointments, liniments, and soothing lotions will not eradicate these diseases which are the result of the poisoning of the blood with Uric Acid.

SALICYLICA works with marvelous effect on this acid, and so removes the disorder. It is now exclusively used by all celebrated physicians of America and Europe. Highest Medical Academy of Paris reports 96 per cent cures in three days.

REMEMBER

that SALICYLICA is a certain cure for Rheumatism, Gout and Neuralgia. The most intense pains are subdued almost instantly.

A Book for Every Man!

Young, Middle-aged and Old.

THE untold miseries that result from indiscretion in early life may be alleviated and cured. Those who doubt these assertions should purchase the new medical work published by the PEABODY MEDICAL INSTITUTE, Boston, entitled THE SCIENCE OF LIFE; OR, SELF-PRESERVATION. Exhausted vitality, nervous and Physical debility, premature decline of man, or vitality impaired by the errors of youth, or too close application to business, may be restored and manhood regained.

Fifth edition, revised and enlarged, just published. It is a standard medical work, the best in the English language, written by a physician of great experience, to whom was awarded a gold and jewelled medal by the National Medical Association. It contains beautiful and very expensive engravings. 300 pages, more than 125 valuable prescriptions for all forms of diseases, acute and chronic, the result of many years of extensive and successful practice, either one of which is worth ten times the price of the book. Bound in beautiful French cloth, embossed, full gilt. Price only $1 25; by mail, postpaid, on receipt of price. Illustrated sample six cents. Send now.

A Wife's Duties.

A Hindoo has curious ideas as to the married state. Here is a husband's creed: A man, both day and night, must keep his wife so much in subjection that she by no means be mistress of her own actions. If the wife have her own free will, notwithstanding she be of superior caste, she will go astray. A woman shall never go out of the house without the consent of her husband, and shall act according to the orders of her husband, and shall pay proper respect to the Deity, her husband's father, the spiritual guide and her guests, and shall not eat until she has served them with victuals (if it is medicine, she may take it before they eat); a woman shall never go to a stranger's house, and shall not stand at the door, and must never look out of the window. If a woman, following her own inclinations, goes withersoever she chooses, and does not regard the words of her master, such a woman shall be turned away. If a man goes on a journey his wife shall not divert herself by play, nor see any public show, nor laugh, nor dress herself with fine jewels or fine clothes, nor see dancing, nor hear music, nor sit at the window, nor ride out, nor behold anything choice and rare; but shall fasten well the house door and remain private; and shall not eat any dainty victuals, and shall not view herself in a mirror; she shall never exercise herself in any agreeable employment during the absence of her husband."

Good health is the greatest of fortunes; no remedy has so often restored this prize to the suffering, as Hood's Sarsaparilla. Try it.

Judge Drummond of the United States circuit court at Chicago, on Saturday rendered his final decision in the case of the Mutual Union Telegraph company. He emphasized his former opinion that the mayor's action in cutting the wires was unlawful and actionable, but held that as the Mutual Union rights had terminated under the charter, the court could not order the wires repaired or prevent the city from carrying out the ordinance which prohibited the stringing of wires.

The exactions of society, added to the cares of maternity and the household, have tested beyond endurance the frail constitutions which have been granted the majority of women. They enrich the blood, perfect digestion, stimulate the liver and kidneys, arrest ulcerative weaknesses, and purify and vitalize every function of the female system.

Admiral Cooper says Santa Cruz is rapidly recovering from the effects of the insurrection of 1878. The Vandalia and Kearsarge were expected at Aspinwall on March 1st.

Answer This.

Can you find a case of Bright's disease of the kidneys, diabetes, urinary or liver complaints that is curable, that Hop Bitters has not or cannot cure? Ask your neighbors if they can.

Rear-Admiral Hughes, commanding the Pacific station, reports to the navy department, under date of Callao, February 10th, that he ordered the Wachusett to proceed from Honolula to Apia, Samoa, and thence to Callao, stopping at the Society and Marquesas islands on the way. Admiral Hughes intended starting on the Pensacola for Valparaiso; should he fall in with the Iroquois at Valparaiso he would order her to relieve the Pensacola at that port.

A specific, and the only one too for all forms and types of skin disease, is known the world over as Dr. Benson's Skin Cure. It is not a patent medicine, but a reliable, certain remedy.

THAT SETTLES IT.

Brought into Competition with the World, the Best Carries off the Honors.

At the great Centennial Exhibition of 1876, the leading products of all the branches of the World's industry were assembled at Philadelphia. To carry off a prize in the face of that tremendous competition was a task of no ordinary difficulty. Inventions and preparations for the alleviation of pain and the cure of disease were present in the greatest possible variety, representing the skill and the profoundest study of the age, and it may be of vital importance to you, personally, to know that the highest and only medal given to rubber Porous plasters, was awarded to the manufacturers of BENSON'S CAPCINE POROUS PLASTER, by the following jury:

DR. WM. ROTH, Surgeon-General, Prussian Army.
J. H. THOMPSON, A. M., M. D., Washington, D. C.
C. B. WHITE, M. D., New Orleans.
ERNEST FLEISCH, M. D., Austria.

The decision was afterwards confirmed by the medical jury at the last Paris Exposition. Knowing the value of such high and unbiased testimony, the medical profession, both in the United States and in Europe, quickly threw aside the old, slow acting plasters they had been using, and adopted Benson's in their regular practice. That physicians and surgeons of the broadest reputations did this, distinctly proves the intrinsic merit of the article.

It is no more than just to add that the average physician of to-day is not dominated by the prejudices which retarded the progress and modified the successes of his predecessors of not more than twenty-five years ago. He accepts hints from all quarters and endorses and adopts demonstrated healing agents wherever he finds them.

Let the purchaser, however, be on his guard against imitations. The genuine has the word CAPCINE cut in the middle.

IN MINNESOTA & DAKOTA

VARIOUS QUACKS.

Who—Each with his own Pet Scheme—

Cultivate the Field of Human Nature.

There have always been quacks—legal quacks, theological quacks, scientific quacks and medical quacks. Some of them are bland, oily fellows who argue and smile the world into believing in their favorite bit of humbug. Others are pompous and pretentious parasites. But they make it pay. Men seem to love to be swindled, stipulating only that it shall be neatly done.

The dear public are equally liberal to the electric and magnetic fraud. This fellow is a genius in his line. He will put a magnetic belt around your waist, a magnetic necklace under your chin, or fit you out with an entire suit of magnetic clothes, warranted to serve the purpose of ordinary garments, and at the same time to cure all diseases, from whooping-cough to hasty-consumption.

Most of these have no more electric or magnetic power about them than resides in wooden blankets or in girdles of sackcloth. Only when applied by an expert is electricity of the slightest use as a medicinal agent, and even then its value is grossly over-stated. What is the strongest possible presumptive evidence in favor of a particular remedy? Clearly that it should have been prepared by responsible persons of acknowledged skill in the treatment of disease.

Squarely on this foundation stands BENSON'S CAPCINE POROUS PLASTER. Endorsed by 5,000 physicians, pharmacists, druggists and chemists, it needs no further apology nor introduction. It is the one and only true and tried external application. Quacks of all kinds pay the Capcine the compliment of their dislike, as Satan is said to hate holy water.

A despatch of the 13th inst. from Berlin says: "The salvage steamer has returned from the scene of the wreck of the steamer Cimbria. The divers report that a number of the bodies of the victims are jammed among the gear of a lifeboat on deck. The entrances to the cabins are closed by a compact mass of bodies. To save the cargo three decks would have to be removed by explosions, and the explosions would scatter the 400 corpses in the hold."

Catarrh.

The remarkable results in a disease so universal and with such a variety of characteristics as catarrh, prove how effectually Hood's Sarsaparilla, acting through the blood, reaches every part of the human system. A medicine, like anything else, can be fairly judged only by its results. We point with pride to the glorious record Hood's Sarsaparilla has entered upon the hearts of thousands of people it has cured of catarrh.

Angina Pectoris—rheumatism or neuralgia of the heart—is a strictly nervous disease. "For this sharp anguish in my side,

"These noxious nostrums, or else you
"Will be too weak to kill a cur;
"Give up old physic, try the new,
"The very thing that's meant for you—

To Consumptives.

Reader, can you believe that the creator afflicts one-third of mankind with a disease for which there is no remedy? Dr. R. V. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery" has cured hundreds of cases of consumption, and men are living to-day—healthy, robust men—whom physicians pronounced incurable, because one lung was almost gone. Send two stamps for Dr. Pierce's pamphlet on consumption and kindred affections. Address World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, New York.

At the skating rink in Rockport, Me., March 13th, Dr. H. B. Eaton, Jr., fell down, discharging a pistol in his pocket, which struck Frank Hewett in the cheek. The ball is supposed to have passed out behind the ear. Hewett is quite seriously injured.

Important to the Sick.

To those who have used Swedish Remedies, they know full well the value of them. To those who from prejudice have not used them, we can say that they are the very best medicines for the diseases for which they are recommended. Swedish Lung Balsam cures coughs, colds, and all diseases of the lungs. When taken together with Swedish Botanic Compound (the great blood purifier), it will cure consumption in the first and second stages.

Liver, Kidney and Bright's Disease.

A medicine that destroys the germ or cause of Bright's disease, diabetes, kidney and liver complaints, and has power to root them out of the system, is above all price. Such a medicine is Hop Bitters, and positive proof of this can be found by one trial, or by asking your neighbors, who have been cured by it.

From the tone of Washington telegraphic despatches, there is some doubt whether Mr. Chandler desires to be considered as a candidate for United States senator in June. He is inclined to hedge carefully. But from the tone of the republican members of the legislature, there can be no doubt at all upon the question of his nomination.

He had better take a reef in his ears, and put his head in soak.

A YOUNG OLD LADY.

"Yes, Sir! I'm Younger than any of my Children now," said Mrs. Sarah M. Robinson, of 61 William St., New Haven, Conn.—We read about this kind of Noble Ladies, but Seldom See them in Society.

"Yes, sir; I'm younger than any of my children now. I keep up with the times, I read the papers, applaud the victories of old Yale, and don't grow old," were the words of Mrs. Robinson to your reporter when he called at her home. Mrs. Robinson is one of the earnest, go-ahead sort of aged ladies, of whom you read, but whom you so rarely find in modern society. "I've had my share of trouble," she said, "for all my life I've been a sufferer from erysipelas. From this has resulted diseased stomach and inaction of the digestive organs. I've been troubled with dyspepsia, and have had such a weakness of the stomach it has seemed as if I needed something artificial and strengthening. I attribute this to erysipelas, which is constitutional with me. I've been under the physician's care a great deal during my life, but I never received any permanent benefit. I think until I begun taking Dr. Kennedy's FAVORITE REMEDY, which has proved a perfect restorative in my case. My health is better now than it has been for a long time. I consider Dr. Kennedy's FAVORITE REMEDY an excellent medicine. It is used extensively in this city. I keep it as a family medicine, and rely upon it for I know of the good results of using it."

Your reporter left Mrs. Robinson rejoicing in health and renewed youth, and bestowing merited praise on that which is the source of happiness to thousands, viz; Dr. Kennedy's FAVORITE REMEDY. Ask your druggist for it. Kennedy's FAVORITE REMEDY has become a household word. Everybody, sooner or later, gets sick, and sickness is both wearisome and costly. FAVORITE REMEDY stops in at this point. It is not expensive and it is efficient. Concerning Certain Relics of the Past --Dogs that have had Their Day.

George Stephenson's "Rocket," and the magnificent locomotives of to-day, are built upon the same general principle, yet the machine with which the great engineer astonished his age, is interesting now only as an illustration of the beginning of the invention. There were plasters with holes in them long before BENSON'S CAPCINE POROUS PLASTER surpassed both the public and the physicians; and the triumph of the Capcine is founded upon the partial successes, or the utter failures of its predecessors. Everything of value in the old porous plaster is retained in the Capcine; but at this point all comparison ends, and contrast begins. For example:

The old plasters lacked the power to do more than to impart slight, temporary relief in cases easy of treatment; the Capcine penetrates the system and permanently cures the troubles for which it is recommended.

The old plasters depended for any good results they might attain, upon an accident of their makers and the naked faith of their wearers; the Benson's reaches its ends by means of the scientific combination of the rare medicinal ingredients which it contains.

In brief, the old plasters, like Stephenson's discarded engine, are switched of the track, while the Benson goes on its way winning golden opinions from all sorts of people.

Yet is this very fact lies the leading danger to the people who buy and use this reliable and scientific remedy. "Hypocrisy is the tribute vice pays to virtue." Imitation is the concession failure makes to success. Benson's Plasters are parodied in name and style.

A Woman's Experiance.

(Boston Globe.)

On a recent trip by a representative of this paper to the city of Haverhill, Mass., a most important incident occurred, which cannot fail to be of the greatest interest to all, and especially to our lady readers. The newspaper man met a lady a trifle past middle age with luxurious white hair that contracted strikingly with piercing black eyes. She possessed a straight, full habit, womanly, but commanding, combined with manners wholly lady-like, and yet pronounced. Any acute judge of human nature could see at once that he was in the presence of an unusual personage—one destined to accomplish more than most of her sex, and to exert an influence far reaching in its power. This lady was Mrs. M. W. Wingate. Almost from childhood she has taken a special interest in the bodily troubles of her sex and has probably been more successful in relieving suffering and saving lives than any other woman in America. Indeed, she seems to have been to women what Florence Nightengale and Dorothy Dix were to the suffering soldiers. The instances of women who were in the greatest agony and apparently beyond the reach of human aid, that she has restored to health and happiness, are almost innumerable, and it was only natural that the scribe should become specially interested and wish to converse with her more in detail.

"How long have you been engaged in the practice of medicine, Mrs. Wingate?"

"For more than 25 years.

"A long time certainly. How did you happen to enter the field at that early day when women in the professions were specially frowned down upon?"

"I think I must have inherited a taste from my Father, Professor J. C. Wood, of Harvard college. He was eminent in the profession, a hard worker, and equally earnest in his recreations. He hunted considerably and I remember when only nine years old I used to dissect the birds and animals he had killed. I felt infatuated with medical science, even then, and the infatuation has continued up to the present time."

"And did you begin your studies so early in life?"

"I can hardly say when I began, for I cannot remember when I did not read medical literature. You would scarcely believe it, but I was a slender girl and did not weigh over 120 pounds, but I used to set up night after night until 2 o'clock in the morning pouring over my studies and never dreaming of the flight of time. It seemed as though calls for my attendance on the sick always came unsolicited. I certainly cannot fix the date when I first began practicing. Of course most of my patients were women, and the natural sympathy I felt for my sex has increased during all these years where I have been brought so closely in contact with them and have learned to anticipate their needs and sympathize with their sufferings. After the opening of the Boston Medical College I appeared before the faculty; passed examination and received a diploma. I had practiced for years previous to that time but thought it desirable to receive another diploma, which I did without any effort."

"Your experience with the many and serious diseases of women having been so extensive must also be valuable? Can you give me some facts regarding them?"

"I find that woman seems born to suffering, and where she avoids it, it is by reason of some care on her part or owing to some special renewing power. It is true some women go through life without unusual suffering, but they are none the less in danger, for there are critical periods all along their pathway when the utmost precaution is required. The innumerable complaints called female weaknesses; the irregularities of life and changes of the system all indicate the perils which hang over every woman's career, and which, unless attended to, may result disastriously."

"But is there no way by which these terrible troubles can be avoided?"

"That has been the problem for years. The habits of life and the demands of fashion are clearly at war with the health of women. I have been, perhaps unusually successful in my treatment of their troubles, but there have been many cases that seemed specially stubborn. I recall one in particular. I had exhausted all the usual expedients and the results were not satisfactory. I became worried over the case and really did not know what to do, but finally thought I would try something out of the usual line. I had heard a certain remedy recommended very highly and so I procured some and made a chemical analysis of it. I found it was perfectly pure, and that the ingredients were unusually valuable. So I began giving it to my patient, changing it however into a bottle of my own. To my great joy it seemed to have an almost immediate effect, and a complete cure was the result. Since then I have used it constantly in my practice and have cured every form of female weakness, as well as displacements, dropsical tumors, cellu dropsy and all such troubles. I have also used it with the best of results in cases of pregnancy and gestation. Indeed, I have found it of untold value and benefit.

Have you any objection to giving me the name of this remedy of which you speak?"

"None whatever. It is Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Cure."

"Why, that is a proprietary medicine!"

"Certainly, but what of that? I have but one end in view in the treatment of my patients namely—their restoration to health. In the accomplishment of this end I prescribe what I believe to be beneficial, no matter what the professional consequences may be."

"I notice in the New York papers that Doctors Hammond, Agnew and other prominent physicians are taking a similar stand, Mrs. Wingate."

"Yes, and all independent thinkers in the profession are bound to do so. I am, however, on the best of terms with my professional brethren as you can see," and the lady produced a beautiful gold medal mounted in the form of a badge which had been presented to her by the medical society, known as the Ensign of the Humble Family, of which she is a prominent member. After Examining it closely, the reporter remarked that the medical profession evidently were proud of what she had done, as she might well be, in the possession of such a medal.

"I am proud of that," she replied, "and I was also pleased a short time since to receive an offer of a large salary to take the professorship in the new medical college at Walla Walla, on the Pacific coast. I do not know how they heard of me out there, but I was obliged to decline their offer."

"And so in your experience with the diseases of women, you have found success, and that Warner's Safe Cure has been a most efficient remedy."

"Yes, I have had unusual success and the remedy of which you speak has been proven of great benefit. There are, however, some base imitations of it to be found in the market; these are bad and should be avoided, but the genuine remedy is one of the very best."

"And has not the practice of your profession injured your health?"

"No, I am better now than ever before in my life. I froze my limbs last Winter, while riding one cold night to see a patient and was obliged to remain indoors for over two months. Otherwise I am healthy, as you can see by looking at me."

"And may I publish this interview, Mrs. Wingate?"

"Yes. If what I have told you should be the means of assisting any women who may be suffering, I shall be perfectly willing to have it published."

Dr. H. L. Bowker, Massachusetts state assayer, purchased himself from several wholesale druggists the samples he analysed of "G. O. Taylor Old Bourbon" whiskey. It cannot, therefore, be said that the samples were different from the article sold by Chester H. Graves & Sons, Boston. He pronounced it of remarkable purity and excellence. Buy it of your druggist or grocer.

TERRIBLE RESULT.

The very worst result of the successful attempt of "Prof." E. Stone Wiggins, A. M., LL. D., to hoist himself into notoriety by proclaiming that he knows more than all the rest of the world, is that it has driven "Nat," formerly our valued Rye correspondent but now of Andover, Mass., and always hitherto a respectable man and good citizen, into writing poetry? Yes; Nat has written a sonnet to Wiggins, and sent it to us. He signs himself "yours, much exhausted;" he wasn't any more exhausted in writing it than we were in reading it. If we could be certain that Wiggins would read it in case we sent him a marked copy of the paper containing it, we would publish it; that would make Wiggins sorry he ever was born. We give a verse or two as a sample:

Mr. Wiggins, E. Stone Wiggins,
How the aggravated Dickens
Could you get up such
An awful, awful scare,
And frighten all creation,
As well as our relations
On the planets, as they're Jogging thro' the air?

Was a little flake of snow,
And a very gentle blow,
The commotion you did mean
By all your clatter?
For that was all that came
On that very date you named
For everything on earth
To "up and scatter!"

Oh! Wiggins! E. S. Wiggins,
By the humbug hating Dickens
You had better stir around
And dig a hole;
Then drop yourself right in it,—
Don't delay another minute,
Or for certain you'll be

The above is all of Nat's "poem" we can find room for to-day. We propose to send Wiggins a paper having a red-ink circle drawn around this poem, so if he should blow out the place where his brains ought to be, the public will know what ailed him.

AROUND HOME.

Pat Rooney's Star Combination will give a variety show in Music hall on Monday evening, March 19th. Rooney's company appeared here about two years ago, and though they had a small audience, gave an excellent entertainment. They played in Newburyport, a few evening ago, and the Herald next morning gave especial praise to Pat Rooney, little Kate Rooney and the bicycle riders, and spoke very commendingly of the performance as a whole.

WEDNESDAY, March 14th.

After having been idle for nearly two weeks, probably owing to a strike on the part of the druukards or other operatives, the judicial mill was started up on Wednesday. Robert C. Kenney, one of Uncle Sam's marines, John Hurley and Gilbert Patterson, three "simple drunks," were assessed $9 90 each, fine and costs, with the alternative of going to the county farm. McKenney paid.

A Boston paper of March 14th says: "A well-known sea captain of Portsmouth, N. H., says he has lost some $20,000 on account of the damage done his business by Wiggins' predictions about the great gale. He owns eight fishing vessels." This is as ridiculous as Wiggins' balderdash about the planets and their influence on the weather. There is no sea captain in Portsmouth who owns eight fishing vessels; there are no eight vessels fishing out of this port whose gross stock during the time covered by Wiggins' prophecy would have been likely to reach anything near $20,000; and all the Portsmouth fishermen went out during the "danger period," just the same as though Wiggins had not spouted.

Work on the iron pier at Concordville, York beach, is being hurried up as much as possible, it being desired to get the materials all on the ground before the sleighing disappears. There was a hitch reported in the operations some time ago, it being stated that no arrangements had been made by the steamboat company with the owner of the land (a son of Mr. George Bowden, who took up a mortgage of $2400 on the place, and received a deed of it) where the pier is located; but an understanding appears to have been reached in the matter.

SCROFULA.

A remedy that can destroy the germs of scrofula, and when once settled has the power to root it out, must be appreciated by those afflicted. The remarkable cures of young children and the more wonderful cures of those of middle age and late in life, as illustrated by our printed testimonials, prove HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA to be a reliable remedy, containing remedial agents which do positively cure scrofula and eradicate it from the blood.

WARNER, N. H., Jan. 21, 1879.
MESSRS. C. I. HOOD & CO., Lowell, Mass.:
Gentlemen—For six years previous to the early part of 1877 I had been a constant sufferer from scrofulous ulcers or sores, which had finally reduced me to a helpless condition, as described in my letter to you in September of that year. The continued excellent health which enables me to keep house for my aged father and to enjoy life, keeps alive my intense personal interest in HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA, and I cannot refrain from expressing my gratitude for the permanent cure this wonderful medicine effected in my case nearly two years ago, while living in Lowell, when all my physicians gave me up as being in an incurable condition. One thing before I close. I have recommended your Sarsaparilla to hundreds, and I think more than a thousand cases, and my faith in its invincibility in curing scrofula has become absolute by the wonderful cures it has effected aside from my own. I trust you will not be slow in making the merits of HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA known everywhere, for it is a duty you owe to mankind. With best wishes I remain very truly yours,
SARAH C. WHITTIER

MILITARY INSPECTION.

The inspection of the Portsmouth Cavalry company was made on Tuesday of this week by Gen. Elbert Wheeler, and the members of the command were examined by Major Sturgis, brigade surgeon, who pronounced the appearance and physical condition of the men the best he had ever seen. The steadiness and drill of the company were highly commendde by the inspecting officer.

After the inspection Gen. Wheeler went to Dover, accompanied by Capt. Coffin and many of the cavalrymen, to inspect the Strafford Guards, who made a fine appearance, and proved themselves second to no company in the state. At the close of this company's inspection a competitive drill for a prize medal was ordered, which was interesting to the many visitors, and highly creditable to Capt. DeMerritt and his command.

TOWN ELECTIONS.

RYE. Moderator, G. Harrison Jenness; town clerk, George S. Walker; selectmen, Albert C. Locke, Nathaniel Marden, Sylvanus W. Foss; treasurer, Charles J. Brown; superintendent of schools, G. Harrison Jenness; town auditors, Emery C. Jenness, Orin Drake; fish and game warden, Aaron Rand. Amount of money to be raised by taxation, $5000; amount appropriated for schools, $1300; amount of highway tax, $1500. The meeting voted to have a committee of three appointed to look after the town's interest in the legacy of the late Oliver Sleeper, and the moderator appointed as said committee Emmons B. Philbrick, David Jenness and Daniel M. Foss. The meeting was the shortest annual meeting on record—being in session only one hour and fifty minutes. All the officers were unanimously elected, and no opposition was made to any measure adopted. Nobody was drunk, and an "era of good feeling" prevailed.

NEWINGTON. Louis L. de Rochment, republican, was chosen 1st selectman; W. H. Badger and Clarence de Rochment, democrats, 2d and 3d selectman; Frank M. Hoyt, republican, town clerk. The town is out of debt, and has $150 in the treasury.

SOUTH NEWMARKET. Moderator, H. J. Paul; clerk, Albert H. Varney; selectmen, Daniel G. Neal, Daniel C. Wiggin, Samuel P. Badger; treasurer, George O. Paul; school committee, James H. Fitts.

NORTH HAMPTON. Moderator, Eben L. Dalton; clerk, Jonathan Rollins; selectmen, Albert Bacheldor, John W. Berry, Morris H. Smith; treasurer, John Bachelder; collector, Abbott Norris. The treasurer, collector, and selectmen Bachelder and Smith, are republicans. The republican party were successful, as every man they put up for office was elected—doing pretty well, for this old democratic town.

HAMPTON. Moderator, William H. Blake; clerk, John M. Akerman; selectmen and assessors, Wm. E. Lane, John W. Towle, Warren M. Bachelder; treasurer George W. Lane; school committee, H. M. Lane. The selectmen were instructed to prosecute, at the expense of the town, every person detected in selling intoxicating liquors in violation of the statutes.

HAMPTON FALLS. Moderator, Frank Green; clerk, George Clifford Haley; selectmen, Henry H. Knight, Samuel L. Fevear, George B. Sanborn; school committee, Joseph Sanborn, Charles T. Brown, Miss H. M. Sanborn.

SEABROOK. Moderator, John M. Weare; clerk, James M. S. Tucker; selectmen, David F. Boyd, Jeremiah B. Green, William H. Walton; auditors, William A. Rand, Albert J. Sanborn; constables, Calvin Eaton, Francis Beckman. Only 149 votes were cast, with 456 names on the checklist. It was voted to sell the pound, to raise $3000 toward paying the town debt, $500 for highways, and $1500 for schools, an increase of $250 from last year.

GOSSIPS SAY

That the local politicans are discussing the advisability of holding a special election in ward two, to fill the vacancy existing in the representative delegation to the general court from that ward.

That Peter Pray, an ex-policeman,—and a good officer he was, too,—is a candidate for the position of assistant marshal, new vacant.

That Miss Norah Bartlett, our talented young actress, scored another triumph in the portrayal of the character of Florence St. Vincent Brown in the "Banker's Daughter" at the Boston Museum on Monday evening.

That there are nearly one hundred soldiers living in this city and its immediate vicinity who are receiving pensions from the United States government.

That the amount drawn annually amounts to nearly $12,000.

That quite a sprinkling of local politicians went to Boston on Wednesday of this week.

That George A. Jackson, of Christian Shore, has the finest aquarium of fresh-water fish in New Hampshire.

That the same gentleman also has a splendid collection of living birds native to this climate.

That Hon. Marcellus Eldredge, who is with the Hot Springs party, is suffering from a severe cold.

That our young friend Chas. A. Shillaber is not overwhelmingly in love with Arkansas climate and Arkansas customs.

That Wm. H. Badger, a Portsmouth boy, was one of the selectmen elected in Newington on the 13th inst.

That City Marshal Entwistle, wearing a very summerish-looking hat, went to Boston on the 14th to spend a few days.

That Miss Morgan's scholars were at the depot in large numbers on the afternoon of the 14th inst., to bid good bye to some of their school mates who went west on the three o'clock train.

That there is likely to be a still further reduction in the force on the navy yard.

That the amateur theatricals at Odd Fellows' hall this evening will be very fine.

AT LAST.

At last the city fathers have been relieved of moving the Wilson ranche. It is not by the aid of Wiggins' tidal wave or the carpenter's saw that this obstruction to the solution of the problem which perplexed the late administration is removed. The owner of adjoining property, with patriotic enterprise, and with a desire to do some good for her country, has purchased the property, and has given the present occupant of the old house a week's time to vacate, after which the building will, we understand, be torn down and the lot graded. The city government should, we think, pass a vote of thanks to the purchaser, for having taken the job off their hands.—Times, March 13th.

We hope our neighbor's information is correct, and that at last, after all the talk in the board of aldermen, and all the orders passed by the board but never carried out, the historic "Vaughan street obstruction" is to be taken out of the highway, whence it would have been removed at the time the street was built had it not been for the previous commission of one of the most absurd blunders ever perpetrated by any city government.

PRESENTATION.

At the meeting of Strawberry Bank Lodge of Good Templars, on Tuesday evening, March 13th, Mrs. R. D. Smart was presented with an elegant Grand Lodge regalia, she having recently retired from the office of Worthy Financial Secretary, which she had held for twenty-one months, the usual term being three months. The presentation speech was made by Mr. William A. Plaisted, as follows:

Worthy Chief Templar, sisters and brothers of this lodge, it is my privilege this evening to perform a very pleasant duty. You will all agree with me that our former worthy financial secretary, Sister Smart, served us faithfully and devotedly. In view of this fact her friends in the lodge desire to manifest their appreciation of her long and arduous services, and in their behalf I now invite Sister Smart to step this way, that I may present her this token, a Grand Lodge regalia. [Mrs. Smart stepped forward and was presented with the regalia, after which Mr. Plaisted concluded as follows:] Hoping, sister, that you will accept and wear it, as a constant and perpetual reminder of their love and gratitude; and their sincere wishes are that prosperity and happiness may ever attend you.

Mrs. Smart then responded as follows:

Worthy Chief Templar, sisters and brothers, the presentation of this beautiful Grand Lodge regalia to me is a complete surprise, and all I can say is that I thank you all for this token of love and esteem, and shall try to keep them, as seems I have in the past. As for the regalia, I shall always wear it in remembrance of the kind wishes expressed here to-night.

Eastern railroad stock jumped up in Boston on the 14th inst., over 600 shares being sold at the brokers' board at from $51 to $52 per share. Portsmouth, Gt. Falls & Conway brought $41; Portland, Saco & Portsmouth $112,25; and Maine Central, $85 a share. Eastern railroad bonds went up to 113 1-2.

The schooner Mary E. Smith, Capt. Short, came in on the 14th inst. with 5000 lbs. of fish.

Rev. Mr. Hovey, rector of St. John's church, on Sunady evening, March 11th, made known to the congregation in Christ church the bishop's desire that the male worshippers in that church meet as soon after Easter as may be convenient, for purpose of organizing a parish. The acoustic properties of the new church are said to be excellent—far superior to those of St. John's.

A grand ball was held in the town hall at Newington on the night of the 13th inst., under the management of Capt. E. O. Garland.

Osgood Lodge will have another of their popular entertainments in the hall this (Thursday) evening, the principle feature of which will consist of two laughable farces in which Mr. Charles E. Hatch will assume the leading characters.

Persons who move into the city from various neighboring towns on Wednesday, the 14th inst., reported the sleighing as excellent in all directions.

[For other local matter see second page.]

The Government Chemist Analyzes two of the Leading Baking Powders, and what he finds them made of.

I have examined samples of "Cleveland's Superior Baking Powder" and "Royal Baking Powder," purchased by myself in this city, and I find they contain:

"Cleveland's Superior Baking Powder."
Cream of Tartar,
Bicarbonate of Soda,
Flour.

Available carbonic acid gas 12.61 per cent, equivalent to 118.2 cubic inches of gas per oz. of Powder.

"Royal Baking Powder."
Cream of Tartar,
Bicarbonate of Soda,
Carbonate of Ammonia,
Tartaric Acid,
Starch.

Available carbonic acid gas 12.40 per cent, equivalent to 116.2 cubic inches of gas per oz. of Powder.

Ammonia gas 0.43 per cent, equivalent to 10.4 cubic inches per oz. of Powder.

NOTE.—The Tartaric acid was doubtless introduced as free acid, but subsequently combined with ammonia, and exists in the Powder as a Tartrate of Ammonia. E. G. LOVE, Ph. D.
NEW YORK, Jan'y 17th, 1881.

The above shows conclusively that "Cleveland's Superior" is a strictly pure Cream of Tartar Baking Powder. It has also been analyzed by Professor Johnson of Yale College; Dr. Genth of the University of Pennsylvania; President Morton of the Stevens Institute; Wm. M. Habirshaw, F. C. S., Analyst for the Chemical Trade of New York, and other eminent chemists, all of whom pronounce it absolutely pure and healthful.—Hall's Journal of Health for April, 1882.

SECRET!

THE ONLY DISSOLVER OF THE POISONOUS URIC ACID WHICH EXISTS IN THE BLOOD OF RHEUMATIC AND GOUTY PATIENTS.

SALICYLICA is known as a common-sense remedy, because it strikes directly at the cause of Rheumatism, Gout and Neuralgia, while so many so-called specifics and supposed panaceas only treat locally the effects.

In has been conceded by eminent scientists that outward applications, such as rubbing with oils, ointments, liniments, and soothing lotions will not eradicate these diseases which are the result of the poisoning of the blood with Uric Acid.

SALICYLICA works with marvelous effect on this acid, and so removes the disorder. It is now exclusively used by all celebrated physicians of America and Europe. Highest Medical Academy of Paris reports 95 per cent. cures in three days.

In Lumber Camp in Winter.

The men who cut and haul lumber are fearfully exposed in severe weather, and, although hardy and rugged, are sometimes laid aside from duty. Mr. Randall, of Augusta, Maine, who is extensively engaged in the lumbering business, writes that one of his men was attacked with a terrible sore throat, so that they thought he would die. They administered Perry Davis's Pain Killer, both internally and externally. In an hour the sufferer was relieved, and the next day he was at work as usual.

A student in the Harvard law school, named J. H. Atwood, was badly punished in an encounter with a negro waiter on the 11th inst. While Atwood was taking breakfast in Memorial Hall he had some words with the waiter, relative to the rolls he had ordered. Atwood attempted to strike the negro with a chair, which the latter prevented him from doing. Both became excited, and adjourning to the transept "had it out." A physician's attendance was required on Atwood next day. Atwood is of a quarrelsome disposition, very heavily built, and usually comes out victorious in the quarrels he inaugurates. The students, while deprecating the affair, express pleasure at the result.

An agreement has been entered into between the city of Chicago and the Mutual Union Telegraph company, by which the latter will be permitted to reunite its severed wires. The agreement stipulates that the mayor shall have the right at his option to cut them again; that the company shall apply to the city council for an extension of its privileges, and shall proceed to gather its wires into cables and string them on short poles pending preparations to put them under ground.

A Generous Firm.

We are informed that the proprietors, Messrs. A. P. Ordway & Co., recently sent three dozen of their reliable medicine, Sulphur Bitters, to the Catholic home for the aged, which is highly appreciated by the directors and the inmates. "As ye sow so shall ye reap."—Editor Catholic Union.

Under the direction of the naval advisory board, circulars are now being prepared at the navy department giving the dimensions and general description of three new cruisers and a despatch boat, the construction of which was authorized by the recent act of Congress, and inviting proposals from all American shipbuilders. Proposals are also to be invited to finish the machinery and turrets for the three iron clad monitors, for which a million dollars was appropriated by the navy appropriation acts.

Fear Not.

All kidney and urinary complaints, especially Bright's disease, diabetes and liver troubles, Hop Bitters will surely and lastingly cure. Cases exactly like your own have been cured in your own neighborhood, and you can find reliable proof at home of what Hop Bitters has and can do.

The total number of persons arrested in Andalusia, Spain, for complicity in the anarchist movement is 1200. Of this number 300 are charged with murders, agrarian outrages and with being abettors of the "Black hand" Society. Sixty of the prisoners have confessed their complicity in four murders.

THAT SETTLES IT.

Brought into Competition with the World, the Best Carries off the Honors.

At the great Centennial Exhibition of 1876, the leading products of all the branches of the World's Industry were assembled at Philadelphia. To carry off a prize in the face of that tremendous competition was a task of no ordinary difficulty. Inventions and preparations for the alleviation of pain and the cure of disease were present in the greatest possible variety, representing the skill and the profoundest study of the age, and it may be of vital importance to us, personally, to know that the highest and only medal given to rubber Porous plasters, was awarded to the manufacturers of BENSON'S CAPCINE POROUS PLASTER, by the following jury:

DR. WM. ROTH, Surgeon-General, Prussian Army.
J. H. THOMPSON, A. M., M. D., Washington, D. C.
C. B. WHITE, M. D., New Orleans.
ERNEST FLEISCH, M. D., Austria.

The decision was afterwards confirmed by the medical jury at the last Paris Exposition. Knowing the value of such high and unbiased testimony, the medical profession, both in the United States and in Europe, quickly threw aside the old, slow acting plasters they had been using, and adopted Benson's in their regular practice. That physicians and surgeons of the broadest reputations did this, distinctly proves the intrinsic merit of the article.

It is no more than just to add that the average physician of to-day is not dominated by the prejudices which retarded the progress and modified the successes of his predecessors of not more than twenty-five years ago. He accepts hints from all quarters and endorses and adopts demonstrated healing agents wherever he finds them.

Let the purchaser, however, be on his guard against imitations. The genuine has the word CAPCINE CUT in the middle.

VARIOUS QUACKS.

Who--Each with his own Pet Scheme--

Cultivate the Field of Human Nature.

There have always been quacks:—legal quacks, theological quacks, scientific quacks and medical quacks. Some of them are bland, oily fellows who argue and smile the world into believing in their favorite bit of humbug. Others are pompous and pretentious parasites. But they make it pay. Men seem to love to be swindled, stipulating only that it shall be neatly done.

The dear public are equally liberal to the electric and magnetic fraud. This fellow is a genius in his line. He will put a magnetic belt around your waist, a magnetic necklace under your chin, or fit you out with an entire suit of magnetic clothes, warranted to serve the purpose of ordinary garments, and at the same time to cure all diseases, from whooping-cough to hasty consumption.

Most of these have no more electric or magnetic power about them than resides in wooden blankets or in girdles of sackcloth. Only when applied by an expert is electricity of the slightest use as a medicinal agent, and even then its value is grossly over-stated. What is the strongest possible positive evidence in favor of a particular remedy? Clearly that it should have been prepared by responsible persons of acknowledged skill in the treatment of disease.

Squarely on this foundation stands BENSON'S CAPCINE POROUS PLASTER. Endorsed by 5,000 physicians, pharmacists, druggists and chemists, it needs no further apology nor introduction. It is the one and only true and tried external application. Quacks of all kinds pay the Capcine the compliment of their dislike, as Satan is said to hate holy water.

Senator Blair Explains His Position—A Manly Letter.

A gentleman of this city, noticing the paragraphs going the rounds of the New Hampshire press that Senator Blair and Hon. E. H. Rollins had combined their forces in the senatorial struggle pending in this state, and believing that Senator Blair was being misrepresented, wrote that gentlemen on the subject, and received promptly the following manly reply, in which Senator Blair states squarely his position on the senatorial question, and clears away any doubts on the public mind as to that gentleman's political purposes. We give the letter verbatim:

BOSTON, March 13th, 1883.

Friend ——; I came here to attend to private business which I have neglected for eight years until I am obliged to give some attention to it, because longer delay is impossible; I am here all the time, and cannot well go to Portsmouth.

I never have and I never shall form any alliance for or against Mr. Rollins or Mr. Briggs, Mr. Chandler or any other person, with reference to the Senatorship. Nothing has been done by me to change the status since I saw you at Portsmouth last autumn.

I consider it very important for the state, the country and the party that my successor be chosen next June. The substantially unanimous opinion of the Senate and the Supreme Court are the same way. The principle involved is that between national and state sovereignty. I cannot for any personal advantage have ought to do with the responsibility which attaches to our present unconstitutional and dangerous attitude in our federal relations. A wrong precedent inevitably works ruin in the end. The time will come when our case will be quoted as a precedent acquiesced in, and therefore approved by the government and people and binding upon them to justify peaceable secession of the states—and that war is right to enforce it if resisted. It is the issue of the late rebellion. It may be as you say that in all human probability I shall be stronger in two years than now, —in fact I know very little of the feeling toward me among members of the legislature, but I do know that my successor ought to be chosen next June. I am for it, whoever he may be.

If either friends or enemies of Mr. Rollins or any other candidate are for me, I am glad of it; there is no reason for it because of any understanding of co-operation between us. I have no doubt that it is becoming apparent all round that I have friends in the state, and that they are not willing to see me pushed aside. I have no doubt either, that Mr. Rollins finds as he goes along that he has sometimes relied on broken reeds. He knows that I have never wronged him or any of his friends, and they know it, and I think there is a better feeling among some of them towards me, but I have not changed and shall not, nor have I ever in the least forgotten my old friends, though in the nature of things I have not been able to do anything as much for them as I would have been glad to.

I know nothing of the origin of the article in the Dover Enquirer in favor of the election of Mr. Rollins and myself. Capt. Libbey, the editor, has been my fast friend for years.

I have not exchanged a word with Mr. Chandler upon the senatorship since last —well, I think not for a full year, and I know nothing of his purposes. I shall not bother myself with the combinations of others. I am not going into any fight for my re-election, and the story you mention to that effect is without foundation. I must return to Washington soon, as I have very much to do in the departments and am preparing for a prolonged, difficult and important enquiry by our committee into the Labor question—much the most important matter committed to a committee of the senate for many years. It will cover my two remaining years in public life.

Now, once for all, my friend, believe me that until the end there will be no trades or combinations so far as I am concerned, and I am prepared for any fate. If a man isn't any bigger than the senatorship he is unfit for it, and I shall survive whether I win it or lose it.

Truly your friend, H. W. BLAIR.

Humor in the Stomach.

Much of the distress and sickness attributed to dyspepsia, chronic diarrhœa and other causes is occasioned by humor in the stomach. Several cases, with all the characteristics of these complaints, have been cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla. Other cures effected by this medicine are so wonderful that the simplest statement of them affords the best proof that it combines rare curative agents and when once used secures the confidence of the people.

A YOUNG OLD LADY.

"Yes, Sir! I'm Younger than any of my Children now," said Mrs. Sarah M. Robinson, of 61 William St., New Haven, Conn.--We read about this kind of Noble Ladies, but Seldom See them in Society.

"Yes, sir; I'm younger than any of my children now. I keep up with the times, I read the papers, applaud the victories of old Yale, and don't grow old," were the words of Mrs. Robinson to your reporter when he called at her home. Mrs. Robinson is one of the earnest, go-ahead sort of aged ladies, of whom you read, but whom you so rarely find in modern society. "I've had my share of trouble," she said, "for all my life I've been a sufferer from erysipelas. From this has resulted diseased stomach and inaction of the digestive organs. I've been troubled with dyspepsia, and have had such a weakness of the stomach it has seemed as if I needed something artificial and strengthening. I attribute this to erysipelas, which is constitutional with me. I've been under the physician's care a great deal during my life, but I never received any permanent benefit I think until I began taking Dr. Kennedy's FAVORITE REMEDY, which has proved a perfect restorative in my case. My health is better now than it has been for a long time. I consider Dr. Kennedy's FAVORITE REMEDY an excellent medicine. It is used extensively in this city. I keep it as a family medicine, and rely upon it for I know of the good results of using it."

Your reporter i s Mrs. Robinson rejoicing in health and renewed youth, and bestowing merited praise on that which is the source of happiness to thousands, viz; Dr. Kennedy's FAVORITE REMEDY. Ask your druggist for it. Kennedy's FAVORITE REMEDY has become a household word. Everybody, sooner or later, gets sick, and sickness is both wearisome and costly. FAVORITE REMEDY steps in at this point. It is not expensive and it is efficient. For all diseases of the Blood, Bilious Disorders, Kidney Complaints, Constipation, and the many ills which make the domestic life of women a cross so hard to bear.

Concerning Certain Relics of the Past --Dogs that have had Their Day.

George Stephenson's "Rocket," and the magnificent locomotives of to-day, are built upon the same general principle, yet the machine with which the great engineer astonished his age, is interesting now only as an illustration of the beginning of the invention. There were plasters with holes in them long before BENSON'S CAPCINE POROUS PLASTER surprised both the public and the physicians; and the triumph of the Capcine is founded upon the partial successes, or the utter failures of its predecessors. Everything of value in the old porous plaster is retained in the Capcine; but at this point all comparison ends, and contrast begins. For example:

The old plasters lacked the power to do more than to impart slight, temporary relief in cases easy of treatment; the Capcine penetrates the system and permanently cures the troubles for which it is recommended.

The old plasters depended for any good results they might attain, upon an accident of their makers and the naked faith of their wearers; the Benson's reaches its ends by means of the scientific combination of the rare medicinal ingredients which it contains.

In brief, the old plasters, like Stephenson's discarded engine, are switched off the track, while the Benson goes on its way winning golden opinions from all sorts of people.

Yet is this very fact lies the leading danger to the people who buy and use this reliable and scientific remedy. "Hypocrisy is the tribute vice pays to virtue." Imitation is the concession failure makes to success. Benson's Plasters are parodied in name and style.

Beware of swindles. The genuine have the word CAPCINE cut in the center. Price 25 cents. Seabury & Johnson, Chemists, New York.

In Lumber Camp in Winter.

The men who cut and haul lumber are fearfully exposed in severe weather, and, although hardy and rugged, are sometimes laid aside from duty. Mr. Randall, of Augusta, Maine, who is extensively engaged in the lumbering business, writes that one of his men was attacked with a terrible sore throat, so that they thought he would die. They administered Perry Davis's Pain Killer, both internally and externally. In an hour the sufferer was relieved, and the next day he was at work as usual.

The United States senate committee on rules, composed of Messrs. Frye, Sherman, Harrison, Gorham and Harris, will meet in June at Bar Harbor, Mount Desert, Me., to revise and reconstruct the rules of the senate.

"G. O. Taylor Old Bourbon" whiskey was introduced by Chester H. Graves & Sons six years ago, when it was approved by S. Dana Hayes, state assayer, Massachusetts. It at once established a reputation as a perfectly pure whiskey, and we learn it has just received a fresh endorsement from the present state assayer of Massachusetts. Leading druggists and grocers sell it.

Portsmouth Chronicle.

The Eastern and Boston & Maine Nuptials.

A glance at the proposed agreement for lease between these coquetting corporations would indicate that in the proposal for a marriage settlement the Maine, as usual, takes the turkey, and the Eastern will have to be content with the crow.

As an abstract proposition, any one who recalls the prodigal war in the unjustifiable building of the Maine extension by the Boston & Maine, and the extravagant running of passenger trains at the same hours over the Boston & Maine and the Portland, Saco and Portsmouth railroads during certain months in the year, can have but one opinion, and that is that the public must pay for this unwarranted outlay. The Boston & Maine, instead of reaching forth and developing business, has always shown the more narrow policy of attempting to obtain the business belonging legitimately to other lines, after those lines have secured it, or built it up. The history of the road is full of these instances. The Eastern management with a liberal foresight, has secured a route to the far east and west; it has provided the shortest and pleasantest route to the mountain regions of New Hampshire, and has the best sea-coast travel of any route in the United States; and now, with its superb equipment, its extended mileage, its large business, to have it pass under the control of the superintendent of the Boston & Maine, would seem like the tail wagging the dog!

Shall it come to this pass, that the mogul of the Boston & Maine shall control the railway accomodations of the city of Portsmouth, a place which he declared on a recent occasion "ought to be fenced in?" Shall the splendid rolling stock of "the old line" be turned over to the upper route, and the rickerty, moth-eaten, ancient coaches of that line be provided for the transportation of our summer guests who visit the beaches and the Shoals? Shall we have to establish new lines of steamers to protect our freight business, and extend the narrow gauge road from Lynn to Portsmouth to recover our wonted passenger accomodations? If we could be served in the future by such gentlemen as President Jackson, Manager Tucker and Superintendent Sanborn of the Conway branch, gentlemen who are alive to the interests of this section of the country, and who have long been familiar with its wants and its capacities,—if these men were to be the directing power in the premises, we should have no fears; but the Eastern is to be used under the proposed contract, as it now appears, to bolster up the failing fortunes of the Boston & Maine.

The latter is not, and since its Maine extension has not been, the proud paying-ten-per-cent-and-taxes investment of its earlier and more prosperous days. Its bonds and stock capital, to keep up its dividends require additional sources of supply; and the bond-holders of the Eastern, for the sake of a rise in the market price of their securities, say "Come and take the road, pay us our interest and satisfy yourselves, and if there is anything over, pay it to the shareholders of the Eastern and the Portsmouth, Great Falls & Conway roads." So it seems, from a glance at the proposed contract.

The fact is, the running of this large additional line of road by the Boston & Maine management is too much of a job for the breadth of ideas possessed by the officials of Haymarket Square, and it is for the public, whose rights are sought to be invaded, that the lawmakers of New Hampshire will be called upon to declare that the law of the state shall not be either violated or repealed. We have not much apprehension that the present administration of the Boston & Maine road would be kept in power after their present term of service should expire, as new men would probably take their places at the next annual meeting; but in the meantime much mischief might be consummated, and much wrong perpetrated. It is for this reason that we regard it as far safer for the large number of the patrons of the Eastern, as well as for its shareholders and the holders of stock in roads leased to it, that the Eastern, which in its present condition can pay from its surplus earnings all interest on its indebtedness, all dividends due on stock of leased roads, and provide for its sinking fund, and ere long pay its stockholders a dividend, should run its own road.

But as we understand it, this is not a question of what is for the interest of the Eastern. Its mortgagees, to get an advance on their bonds, propose to hitch up with the Boston & Maine, and make an April fool of the Eastern stockholder. The combined interests will then go to the Legislature and argue the proposition that in the economical results which will follow consolidation, the public will be the gainers. Should the legislature be induced to sanction the contract, a rise in the bonds will be the result, and by-and-by some Jay Gould will become the potent magnate of the combination and turn the tables upon the great industrial interests which are now served by these lines, and then the people of eastern New Hampshire and Maine will be able to discover, by a dearly-obtained experience, what it is to be at the mercy of a monopoly.

It is fair to say that if the Boston & Maine policy of having local directors upon their line was adopted, there would be at least an opportunity to have complaints made known, and other benefits would be derived which cannot be had if ever needed, on the Eastern, which does not have a local director on the line of its one hundred and eighty miles of main track. The policy of New Hampshire always has been, that New Hampshire people should either manage or at least have a part in the management of railway corporations in the state. But in the case of the Eastern it is a foreign corporation which, while like the Boston & Maine corporation it sometimes wants the aid of the people of New Hampshire, does not regard itself as bound by the laws of the state in regard to many of its proceedings.

AROUND HOME.

The state Grand Commandery of Knights Templar made an official visit to St. Paul's Commandery of Dover on the evening of the 14th inst. Eminent Commander Sawyer, of the Dover commandry, extended to De Witt Clinton Commandry of this city an invitation to be present, and Eminent Commander Calvin Page and several Sir Knights attended.

Capt. Garland, of the schooner D. K. Ham, expects to bend the sails of his vessel about the 26th inst., and immediately start in the brick-transportation trade.

Four platform cars arrived in this city on Thursday morning last over the Portsmouth & Dover railroad, bringing the old boilers from the Dover Print Works, into which new boilers have recently been put; the old boilers were on their way to Boston, having been purchased by parties there.

The schooner Gulnare, Goodwin master, was lying in York harbor on the 15th inst., loaded with pressed hay for Boston.

A Saco grocer has at some distance from his shop a store-house in which, among other things, he has a lot of empty flour barrels. On the 12th inst. a Saco man aged six years carried into the grocery an empty barrel, which the same he did sell to the grocery man, and after receiving his pay retired, soon to re-appear with another barrel, which he also sold. This was kept up all the afternoon, until the apparent exhaustlessness of the boy's stock aroused suspicion, and investigation showed that he was selling the grocer his own barrels, stolen from the store-house! The young speculator was ruthlessly deprived of the proceeds of his transactions, and locked up in a cell for an hour or so. What a stir that boy will make one of these days, when he gets to be cashier of a bank.

Alway Gets 'Em.

"I sent you a statement of account, the other day," said a Detroit tailor as he met one of his poor-pay customers on the street.

"Did you? Sent it by mail, I presume?"

"Yes."

"Put on a two-cent stamp?"

"Of course."

"And directed the envelope to my street and number?"

"Yes, sir."

"Ah! Well, all right—it was probably delivered all safe. All letters properly directed to my address come right through. Good day, sir!"

Advice to Mothers.

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth? If so, send at once and get a bottle of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Sy up for Children Teething. Its value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers, there is no mistake about it. It cures dysentery and diarrhœa, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures wind colic, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething is pleasant to the taste, and is the pr scription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price 25 cents a bottle. eodjan23,s8

For the responsible position of keeper of the city hall, the democratic members of the Brooklyn board of aldermen have selected one James Dunne, who began life as a bartender, and had risen to eminence as a slugger. He once floored Jimmy Elliott, whose remains were recently followed to the grave by about all the professional rascals in New York city. He has been indicted for manslaughter once, was tried for a violation of the election laws once and escaped through a technicality, and not long ago made a murderous assault upon Ex-Judge Morris. He was Barney Aaron's second when Aaron fought Sam Collyer, and many honors of the fistic arena, of the gin mill and of ward politics have been thrust upon him. It will, therefore, be seen that Mr. Dunne has fairly earned his intended promotion, and we join with the New York World in congratulating both Mr. Dunne and the democracy of Brooklyn, particularly the latter.—Boston Post.

SCROFULA.

A remedy that can destroy the germs of scrofula, and when once settled has the power to root it out, must be appreciated by those afflicted. The remarkable cures of young children and the more wonderful cures of those of middle age and later life, as illustrated by our printed testimonials, prove HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA to be a reliable remedy, containing remedial agents which do positively cure scrofula and eradicate it from the blood.

FARMER, N. H., Jan. 21, 1879.

MESSRS. C. I. HOOD & CO., Lowell, Mass.: Gentlemen—For ten years previous to the early part of 1877 I had been a constant sufferer from scrofulous ulcers or sores, which had finally reduced me to a helpless condition, as described in my letter to you in September of that year. The continued excellent health which enables me to keep house for my aged father and to enjoy life, keeps alive my intense personal interest in HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA, and I cannot refrain from expressing my gratitude for the permanent cure this wonderful medicine effected in my case nearly two years ago, while living in Lowell, when all my physicians gave me up as being in an incurable condition. One thing before I close. I have recommended your Sarsaparilla to hundreds, and I think no more than a thousand cases, and my faith in its invincibility in curing scrofula has become absolute by the wonderful cures it has effected aside from my own. I trust you will not be slow in making the merits of HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA known everywhere, for it is a duty you owe to mankind. With best wishes I remain very truly yours.

MUNICIPAL AFFAIRS.

In Board of Mayor and Aldermen, Thursday evening, March 15th, Mayor Treat in the chair:

Present the full board.

The records of the last meeting were read and approved.

Ex-Collector Shannon appeared before the board in accordance with a vote of the board at the previous meeting, to give information regarding the taxes uncollected during his incumbency; and he showed by a comparison of the accounts that his percentage of collections compared favorably with the work of previous collectors; he said he thought taxes due for the years 1873 and '74, to the amount of $1000, could be collected. Ald. Caswell moved that the taxes still due for the years 1871 and '72 be abated this year.

A recess of five minutes was taken, to await any message from the council, at the end of which time the board adjourned for two weeks.

In Common Council an ordinance was passed regulating the crying of goods on the street, and the encumbering of streets.

THE OVERSEERS' ACCOUNT.

The total cost to the city for the support of the poor was $5736.69, divided as follows: For the poor at the almshouse, including all expenses of the farm, $1225.88; for the insane at Concord and Brentwood, $308.97; for outdoor pensioners in the city, $4201.84.

The farm account is as follows: Receipts from the products of the farm, etc., $3894.96; which are accounted for by payments for labor, utensils and manure, $2025.25, and cash paid overseers, $1869.71.

The bills paid by superintendent and overseers for the farm and house were, by superintendent, $2025.25; by overseers for the inmates, $3392.59; total, $5417.84; and the receipts were, by superintendent $3894.96, and by overseers for board $297.00; total $4191.96. Deducting the receipts from the expenditures, the net cost to the city for support of the farm and almshouse is shown to be $1225.88.

The average number of inmates, less superintendent's family, was thirty-six, and the cost of each was $34.05 for the year, or sixty-five and one-half cents per week.

FRANCIS SETH EASTMAN,

Whose death is recorded in the usual place, was a young man of rare talents, being a civil engineer of fine reputation, and an accomplished artist. He was employed by Professor Baird, of the Smithsonian Institute, as a civil engineer in erecting new government buildings on the grounds adjacent, and he was the sole inventor and builder of the cars for transporting the live fish with which the government, under the direction of Prof. Baird, is stocking the waters of our land.

As an artist he was employed in illustrating the work on the fish of the United States by Prof. Baird, soon to be published by the government. He had no superior known at the difficult work of making the original plates of the different fish, and preparing them for the engraver. His desire to excel, and gain for his wife and children, and make his family proud of him, caused him to overwork himself, and from this excessive labor he died. What more can a man do than to give his life for his friends? and Frank gave it cheerfully.

His charming and affectionate disposition cheered those around him, and made happy the mother whom he loved so dearly all his life. His sweet young wife and two little children have the sympathy of all who knew Frank Eastman. COM.

A NOTABLE FAMILY.

The Boston Advertiser of the 12th inst. contained a brief but exceedingly well written sketch of the notable Thayer family. John E. Thayer, Christopher Tappan Thayer and Nathaniel Thayer were sons of Rev. Nathaniel Thayer of Lancaster, Mass. Their mother was Sarah Tappan Thayer, a woman described as possessing remarkable attainments in many respects, "and whose early life had been passed among persons of intellect, cultivation and character." Dr. Nathaniel Thayer was the son of Rev. Ebenezer Thayer of Hampton, who was minister of the Congregational church in that town from 1766 until his death in 1792. This Congregational church is claimed to be the oldest existing church in the state. It was the seventeenth formed in the colony of Massachusetts. Rev. Christopher Tappan Thayer was settled over the Unitarian church in Beverly for over thirty years, and frequently exchanged pulpit services with his intimate friend, Rev. A. P. Peabody, during his pastorate in Portsmouth. The brothers John E. and Nathaniel Thayer engaged in business in Boston. Their banking house, now succeeded by Messrs. Kidder, Peabody & Co., achieved a repute for ability, mercantile honor and substantial condition second to none, we might perhaps safely say, in the world. If they had not the accumulated millions of some of the famous bankers of the old world, they possessed a wealth of reputation not only for sound judgment, honest dealing and judicious investments, but for the highest mercantile and financial honor known to either hemisphere. The munificence of the Banker Thayers, their well selected endowments, and their broad and generous appreciation of objects worthy of their bestowal, have long been appreciated throughout the country, and these traits we opine were derived from their New Hampshire ancestor in a great degree. Rarely have shrewd and well directed efforts in attaining wealth been succeeded by such satisfactory results, accompanied at the same time by such a discriminating knowledge of its proper purposes and uses, as have been seen in the cases of the brothers Thayer.

GOSSIPS SAY

That robins appeared in the suburbs on Thursday in large numbers.

That the New Hampshire legislature ought not to ratify the lease of the Eastern railroad to the Boston & Maine, should the former's stockholders be so blind to their own interests as to do so.

That the ice in the north millpond was rapidly breaking up on Thursday.

That a large force of city workmen, aided by a fire engine, did good work on Thursday at clearing sidewalks of ice, cutting gutters and thawing out the entrances to sewers that the surplus water occasioned by the thaw might run off.

That a second instalment of politicians went to Boston on Thursday, and that they all paid their fare.

That they were met by our genial city marshal at Young's hotel.

The Portsmouth, Eliot and York commanderys of the United Order of the Golden Cross, will be the guests of the Rising Sun Commandery of Kittery this (Friday) evening.

It is said that parties from this city are making efforts to hire a house in the vicinity of the Dover Point hotel, to be opened to the public as a summer resort. Other parties are prospecting Rye and York, for a similar purpose.

The schooner Charles A. Briggs, in getting clear of the Concord railroad wharf on Thursday last, had the end of her jibboom broken off by getting it foul with a stage: the stage was knocked over, one of the chains supporting it being broken.

The police were on the 15th inst. looking after a man about twenty-eight years old, supposed to be a stranger in the city, who was seen on the street the day previous apparently under the influence of liquor, and later decoyed a six-years-old daughter of Mr. Joseph Taylor into an unoccupied building near the Kearsarge mill lot, and attempted a felonious assault, which was frustrated by the prompt response of the neighbors to the child's outcry, though they were unfortunately too late to catch the scoundrel.

The wharf belonging to Hon. Frank Jones, in the rear of his office-building on Market street, is undergoing extensive repairs.

Of Miss Norah Bartlett's performance in the "Banker's Daughter" at the Boston Museum this week, the Boston Globe spoke as follows after her first appearance in it: "Surprisingly bright and clever was Miss Norah Bartlett's performance as Florence St. Vincent Brown. The lady seems to be nerved to accomplish the best results when the task before her is difficult, and she certainly gave last evening one of her very best pieces of character acting. In the scene where she bluntly disclosed to Strebelow the fact of his wife's early love for Routledge, we think she was even better than Maud Harrison, whose impersonation of the character, however, still remains, as was to be expected, unique and unequalled in its way."

The schooner Chilion, Call master, has lately been fitted with an Edison free pump and a fog bell.

Capt. W. F. Shields will take charge of the schooner Julia A. on the first of April.

Mr. H. C. Barnabee made a flying visit to this city on Wednesday night, the 14th inst.

Messrs. John Handy Robinson and Charles W. Robinson will go to the Shoals this spring to engage in the lobster fishery.

Business was very lively at the Eastern railroad station in this city on Thursday of this week, the arrival of extra freights at the time of the coming in of the regular trains making matters interesting for a short time. The proposed consolidation of the Eastern with the Boston & Maine road was the subject of earnest conversation among the Eastern employees on that day.

The schooner W. B. Keen has just completed her repairs and alterations; her masts have been shortened three feet and her rigging cut down in proportion, and she has received a general overhaul.

Mr. Brillante, the Cuban pedestrian, who was announced to walk against time in Franklin hall on Wednesday evening, the 14th inst., made a start, and walked his first mile in eight minutes and twenty seconds; owing to the slim attendance the walk was not finished, and was announced to take place Saturday evening.

Rev. James DeNormandie was on the 14th inst. installed as pastor of the First Religious society of Roxbury, Mass., in presence of a large audience, including many prominent clergymen of Boston. After singing by the choir, Rev. Wm. H. Lyon of Roxbury delivered the invocation, which was followed by reading of scripture selections; Rev. James Freeman Clark, D. D., preached the sermon; Rev. Edward H. Hall, D. D., of Cambridge, extended to the new pastor the right hand of fellowship; Rev. Edward E. Hale made the address to the people and pastor; and the exercises closed with the singing of "Old Hundred," and the benediction by Rev. Mr. DeNormandie.

Sunday, the 11th inst., being Palm Sunday, Rev. Father O'Callaghan, pastor of the Church of the Imaculate Conception, (Catholic,) on that day will distribute to the congregation at high mass palms procured from Florida, and consecrated with the blessings of the church.

The schooner Addie & Hattie has been hauled off from winter fishing. She will go to Portland for repairs before commencing her trips to the eastward after lobsters.

The Government Chemist Analyzes two of the Leading Baking Powders, and what he finds them made of.

I have examined samples of "Cleveland's Superior Baking Powder" and "Royal Baking Powder," purchased by myself in this city, and I find they contain:

"Cleveland's Superior Baking Powder."
Cream of Tartar,
Bicarbonate of Soda,
Flour.
Available carbonic acid gas 12.61 per cent, equivalent to 118.2 cubic inches of gas per oz. of Powder.

"Royal Baking Powder."
Cream of Tartar,
Bicarbonate of Soda,
Carbonate of Ammonia,
Tartaric Acid,
Starch.
Available carbonic acid gas 12.40 per cent, equivalent to 116.2 cubic inches of gas per oz. of Powder.
Ammonia gas 0.43 per cent, equivalent to 10.4 cubic inches per oz. of Powder.

NOTE.—The Tartaric acid was doubtless introduced as free acid, but subsequently combined with ammonia, and exists in the Powder as a Tartrate of Ammonia.

E. G. LOVE, Ph. D.
NEW YORK, Jan'y 17th, 1881.

The above shows conclusively that "Cleveland's Superior" is a strictly pure Cream of Tartar Baking Powder. It has also been analyzed by Professor Johnson of Yale College; Dr. Genth of the University of Pennsylvania; President Morgan of the Stevens Institute; Wm. M. Habirshaw, F. C. S., Analyst for the Chemical Trade of New York, and other eminent chemists, all of whom pronounce it absolutely pure and healthful.—Hall's Journal of Health for April, 1882.

SECRET!

THE ONLY DISSOLVER OF THE POISONOUS URIC ACID WHICH EXISTS IN THE BLOOD OF RHEUMATIC AND GOUTY PATIENTS.

SALICYLICA is known as a common-sense remedy, because it strikes directly at the cause of Rheumatism, Gout and Neuralgia, while so many so-called specifics and supposed panaceas only treat locally the effects.

In has been conceded by eminent scientists that outward applications, such as rubbing with oils, ointments, liniments, and soothing lotions will not eradicate these diseases which are the result of the poisoning of the blood with Uric Acid.

SALICYLICA works with marvelous effect on this acid, and so removes the disorder. It is now exclusively used by all celebrated physicians of America and Europe. Highest Medical Academy of Paris reports 95 per cent. cures in three days.

Senator Jones' Poker Game.

George L. Waters, the colored janitor of the city hall, related an incident to-day to a Mail reporter concerning a big poker game in which Senator John P. Jones of Nevada was a player. Waters had been in the employ of certain congressman around the Capitol at Washington for many years, and his statement may be accepted as true.

It was several years ago, before the millionaire had become thoroughly posted in the ways of Washington society. Almost before he had comfortably settled in his seat in the senate he was introduced into the District Club, of which Boss Shepherd was a prominent member. Poker at that time was the prominent recreation of the club, and Jones was induced to take a hand. Although a good poker player, he retired from the game a loser to the amount of $70,000. The senator, having a few silver mines at his back for pocket money, was game, and did not allow the least expression of chagrin or distrust to escape him.

The next morning he telegraphed to one of the most expert card sharps in Virginia City. Eight days afterward the gambler arrived in Washington, dressed in a very expensive suit of clothes and sporting a small fortune in the way of diamonds. Jones introduced him to the club as a mining millionaire from Nevada and the star route frauds and navy-yard thieves immediately made arrangements to pluck him. He accepted an invitation to play. The stakes ran high, and the spurious millionaire was well supplied with Jones' money. At the end of the tournament the stranger rose from the table the winner of $800,000 of the club. It was a severe blow to the ringsters, but they made the people of the United States pay it back to them indirectly and in short order. Jones divided the swag with his friend, and never set foot in the clubrooms again.—Stockton Mail.

Picking up News.

A Washington correspondent writes that the journalists at the Capitol are enjoying a story that is told at the expense of a New England congressman, a country lawyer, one of the class of people who imagine that the function of every newspaper man, whether he be reporter, correspondent, editor, proprietor or stockholder, is to "pick up items." This gentleman was introduced some time ago to Mr. Haskell of the Boston Herald. "Ah," said he, benevolently, "glad to see you, Mr. Haskell. You're down here, I suppose, picking up a few items for your paper?"

"Solid comfort" can be realized by those suffering from all forms of scrofula, if they will take Hood's Sarsaparilla and be cured.

A Calcutta despatch says it is intended to reduce railway rates in order to enable the growers of wheat in India to compete on more equal terms with American producers.

Fear Not.

All kidney and urinary complaints, especially Bright's disease, diabetes and liver troubles, Hop Bitters will surely and lastingly cure. Cases exactly like your own have been cured in your own neighborhood, and you can find reliable proof at home of what Hop Bitters has and can do.

At Uniontown, Pa., March 14th, the trial of Dukes for the murder of Nutt resulted in a verdict of "not guilty." The presiding judge expressed the utmost amazement at the verdict, but of course had to order the prisoner's discharge. The most intense excitement prevailed, and Dukes and the twelve jurymen were hung in effigy that night, almost the entire populace being on the streets. Dukes had seduced Nutt's daughter, and the evidence indicated that he deliberately planned the dispute which resulted in Nutt's murder. Both the men stood high in the community.

Don't Die in the House.

An official notice has been issued by the Northern and Concord railroads relative to the transportation of dead bodies, to take effect April 1st. After that date no bodies of persons dying of contagious diseases will be transported, except in hermetically sealed cases, and all other bodies will be required to be accompanied by a health officer's or physician's certificate that they did not die of any contagious disease.

A Miss Buchanan, once rallying a brave soldier on his courage, said: "Now, Captain Johnson, do you really mean to tell me you can walk up to the cannon's mouth without fear?" "Yes," was the prompt reply, "or a Buchanan's either," and he did. It may be safely assumed that the lady, to whom the gallant captain thus paid his respects, hadn't the catarrh. This malady is as loathsome as it is painful. It's cure has heretofore been considered impossible. Ely's Cream Balm, however, never fails to cure it. Mr. Nathan Fegley, with E. F. Montz, merchant, Wilkesbarre, Pa., says: "I've had catarrh for fifteen years. Ely's Cream Balm has opened my nostrils and reduced the inflammation. My eyes, too, can stand strong light." This balm is a marvel of fragrance, and curative powers,—is not a liquid or snuff, and is easily applied.

Dr. George E. Walton, in the Popular Science Monthly, advises persons afflicted with pulmonary complaints not to go to Florida on account of the warm, humid, relaxing and enervating character of the atmosphere.

A specific, and the only one too for all forms and types of skin disease, is known the world over as Dr. Benson's Skin Cure. It is not a patent medicine, but a reliable, certain remedy.

THAT SETTLES IT.

Brought into Competition with the World, the Best Carries off the Honors.

At the great Centennial Exhibition of 1876, the leading products of all the branches of the World's industry were assembled at Philadelphia. To carry off a prize in the face of that tremendous competition was a task of no ordinary difficulty. Inventions and preparations for the alleviation of pain and the cure of disease were present in the greatest possible variety, representing the skill and the profoundest study of the age, and it may be of vital importance to you, personally, to know that the highest and only medal given to rubber Porous plasters, was awarded to the manufacturers of BENSON'S CAPCINE POROUS PLASTER, for the following jury:

Dr. WM. ROTH, Surgeon-General, Prussian Army.

J. H. THOMPSON, A. M., M. D., Washington, D. C.

C. B. WHITE, M. D., New Orleans.

ERNEST FLEISCH, M. D., Austria.

The decision was afterwards confirmed by the medical jury at the last Paris Exposition. Knowing the value of such high and unbiased testimony, the medical profession, both in the United States and in Europe, quickly threw aside the old, slow acting plasters they had been using, and adopted Benson's in their regular practice. That physicians and surgeons of the broadest reputations did this, distinctly proves the intrinsic merit of the article.

It is no more than just to add that the average physician of to-day is not dominated by the prejudices which retarded the progress and modified the successes of his predecessors of not more than twenty-five years ago. He accepts hints from all quarters and endorses and adopts demonstrated healing agents wherever he finds them.

The right of Benson's Capcine Porous Plaster to stand at the head of all external applications whatsoever, for the mitigation or cure of disease, is no longer questioned.

Let the purchaser, however, be on his guard against imitations. The genuine has the word CAPCINE cut in the middle.

In Lumber Camp in Winter.

The men who cut and haul lumber are fearfully exposed in severe weather, and, although hardy and rugged, are sometimes laid aside from duty. Mr. Randall, of Augusta, Maine, who is extensively engaged in the lumbering business, writes that one of his men was attacked with a terrible sore throat, so that they thought he would die. They administered Perry Davis's Pain Killer, both internally and externally. In an hour the sufferer was relieved, and the next day he was at work as usual.

Of eleven applicants for admission to the bar of the supreme court of this state on the 15th inst., eight pulled through. Among them was Herbert J. Taft, with seventy-six per cent, and Henry D. Yeaton of Dover, a student from S. M. Wheeler's office, with 73 8-9 per cent.

I have had a troublesome cough for more than five years, and have had advice of three of the most skilled physicians, but I found nothing to relieve and cure me till I used Adamson's Botanic Cough Balsam. Mrs. Geo. A. Robbins, Riverside, Me.

Ruell Durkee, who has been first selectman of Croyden for thirty-one years in succession, was defeated on Tuesday, March 13th, by two majority. As Ruell used to say, he "hain't chose."

Frank S. West, a native of Concord, who learned the printer's trade in the Statesman office, died at Washington, D. C., March 14th. He was a brother of Mrs. E. H. Rollins.

"G. O. Taylor Old Bourbon" whiskey was introduced by Chester H. Graves & Sons six years ago, when it was approved by S. Dana Hayes, state assayer, Massachusetts. It at once established a reputation as a perfectly pure whiskey, and we learn it has just received a fresh endorsement from the present state assayer of Massachusetts. Leading druggists and grocers sell it.

Paul H. Stevens, aged sixty-four years and unmarried, living at Laconia with his sister, was found hanging in his barn, dead, Thursday afternoon. Despondency, caused by ill health, was the probable incentive. He was a mason by trade, and a member of the G. A. R.

A Concord girl recently began the week as the affianced of a young man; the next Sunday evening the lovers quarrelled, and the engagement was broken. The following Tuesday the girl met another young man, and before they parted the two were engaged to be married. The next night the happy couple hugged and kissed and talked it all over, and the next night they were married, the ceremony taking place within three days after the introduction.

AROUND HOME.

Spring has come, and the house cleaning season is at hand. Mr. John P. Sweetser advertises a full line of carpet sweepers, feather dusters, step ladders and window brushes, and all other appliances for making the work easy. Call and inspect his stock, at No. 46 Market street.

There is very little floating ice on the river as yet. In Great bay the ice is from two to three feet thick. An experienced fisherman caught three dozen smelts on the bay last Thursday.

The sensation about town on Thursday afternoon last was the ancient two-seated sleigh (said to be over a hundred years old) owned by James W. Goodwin, which was drawn around by four black horses driven by William H. Dennett, three of the four occupants of the sleigh being disguised as old settlers. The turnout, which caused considerable merriment, was photographed on Market square by L. V. Newell.

Mr. George L. Smith, representing the Madison Square theatre of New York, will visit this city shortly to arrange for the presentation of the great metropolitan success, "Esmeralda," which has had a run of over three hundred nights in New York, and was the dramatic success of the past year.

In reference to the railroad consolidation project the Boston Advertiser remarks: "It is necessary to remember that however ready the stockholders in the two companies may be to agree to the union, the legislature of New Hampshire, which is the most conservative body, when railroad questions are before it, on the continent, must be a consenting party before the union can be made. That the best interest of all concerned will be promoted by putting an end forever to the rivalry of the two corporations, we entertain no doubt. But New Hampshire may think otherwise." We think New Hampshire does, and will.

The announcement in the CHRONICLE that there would be an entertainment and supper under the auspices of Strawberry Bank Lodge of Good Templars at Temperance hall, on Wednesday evening of this week, had the effect of drawing a large audience. The supper and ice cream were excellent, as also was the entertainment, the singing of Miss Lizzie Brown being well rendered and highly enjoyed, as were also the stereoptican views by Prof. McIntire; the readings, recitations and orchestral selections were also finely given and taciturnly appreciated. The schooner Wachusett arrived at Gloucester on March 15th from the Western banks, with 80,000 lbs. of split codfish and 5000 lbs. of fresh halibut—the best fare of the season, so far.

Loss by Floods, $30,000,000.

When the total loss by recent floods in the Ohio and Mississippi Valleys have been approximated, $30,000,000 will hardly cover it. The brightest feature amongst such misery and ruin has been the spontaneous charity shown by our people. None have contributed more generously than the Commonwealth Distribution Co. To those who have given, to those who have lost and to all others this Company offers another grand drawing in Louisville, Ky., March 31-1, 1883. $112,400 distributed in 1969 prizes. Capital prize, $20,000. Tickets only $2. Send your orders to R. M. Boardman, Louisville, Ky.

Whence Comes the Name

OF SOZODONT? It is derived from two Greek words signifying "to preserve the teeth;" and it deserves its title, for there is no preparation which will do this more rapidly, surely, and pleasantly. The consumption of SOZODONT is immense.

A $10,000 Romance!

I met a romance in real life recently took place in Louisville, Ky. The circumstances were these: Miss Alcene Vanderoupt, the beautiful and accomplished daughter of our well known and esteemed druggist, D. H. Vanderoupt, had many admirers, also of Louisville, paying her attentions, and both being possessed of speculative spirit, and unknown to the old er, purchased a $1 ticket in the Commonwealth Distribution Company. It so happened that each took a half ticket with the same number, and when the drawing terminated they had drawn $5,000 each, their number having drawn the $10,000 prize. When the young gentleman called to tell his good fortune, surprise was great to find his sweetheart was also entitled to congratulations. Of course, a wedding soon followed, for it was self-evident they were intended for each other, and the young gentleman is now the happy possessor of a prosperous business, and at his request we refrain from giving his name also. Now let all young gentlemen and ladies go and do likewise. Next drawing, Saturday, March 31st. 1,060 prizes, $112,400. Capital prize, $20,000. Tickets, only $2. Send your orders immediately to R. M. Boardman, Louisville, Ky.

The cattle from the west were all owned by two firms this week, several dealers not entering into the trade as all this week.

SCROFULA.

A remedy that can destroy the germs of scrofula, and when once settled has the power to root it out, must be appreciated by those afflicted. The remarkable cures of young children and the more wonderful cures of those of middle age and late in life, as illustrated by our printed testimonials, prove HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA to be a reliable remedy, containing curative agents which do positively cure scrofula and eradicate it from the blood.

WARNER, N. H., Jan. 21, 1879.

MESSRS. C. I. HOOD & CO., Lowell, Mass.: Gentlemen—For ten years previous to the early part of 1877 I had been a constant sufferer from scrofulous ulcers or sores, which had finally reduced me to a helpless condition, as described in my letter to you in September of that year. The continued excellent health which enables me to keep house for my aged father and to enjoy life, keeps alive my intense personal interest in HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA, and I cannot refrain from expressing my gratitude for the permanent cure this wonderful medicine effected in my case nearly two years ago, while living in Lowell, when all my physicians gave me up as being in an incurable condition. One thing before I close, I have recommended your Sarsaparilla to hundreds, and I think more than a thousand cases, and my faith in its invincibility in curing scrofula has become absolute by the wonderful cures it has effected aside from my own. I trust you will not be slow in making the merits of HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA known everywhere, for it is a duty you owe to mankind. With best wishes I remain very truly yours,

SARAH C. WHITTIEF

FREE THE BRIDGE.

Mr. Editor: Our legislature next June, it is now hinted, will be asked to allow the Boston & Maine railroad to lease the Eastern for a term of years under certain conditions. Now this is a matter of vital importance to our city, and should be well discussed before next June, so that our representatives can vote for what will be for the best interests of our city and the public generally.

It seems to me that no advantage will accrue to either Dover or Portsmouth by such a lease; these cities were in part induced to take hold and build the Portsmouth & Dover railroad for almost the sole reason of opposing the Boston & Maine; certainly so, and almost wholly, in the case of Dover. Under the proposed lease, what is to become of the Portland & Dover road? During the litigation between the two cities and the Eastern road, in the endeavor on the part of that road to break the lease, it was often and confidently asserted that in case the lease was broken the Boston & Maine would be glad to take it on the same terms. What has caused this change of front? Surely no wish on the part of either road to accommodate the public better, by more trains or lower rates for fares or freights.

It does not seem to me to be for the interest of this city to favor such a lease. What friendship the Eastern has shown for us has mostly been when it was more to the road's advantage than to ours; they compelled us to build the Vaughan street extension; have kept us in the courts for three years, in an endeavor—and up to the present time a futile one—on our part to make them, for the safety of the public, erect and maintain gates at the grade crossings on Vaughan and Green streets; did their best to break the lease of the Portsmouth & Dover railroad; and they compel our neighbors in Maine, if they wish to come across the "King's highway," our noble river, to pay a burdensome toll; and for this we allowed them to obstruct navigation with a bridge, owned by a corporation, which if not now rich, has been so. Before we do anything more for the Eastern railroad, let us demand of them a free bridge. S.

PAT ROONEY.

Pat Rooney's Star Combination, which will appear in Music hall on Monday evening, played in Concord last Thursday evening, and the Monitor says the company is the best Mr. Rooney has ever travelled with, the performance being "first class in its line," and making the audience "very demonstrative." Rooney and his daughter Katie were heartily applauded, the bicycle riders made a great hit, the club-swinging was the best ever seen in Concord, "knock about song and dance artists" aroused uproarious enthusiasm, the musical part of the entertainment was far better than is usual with variety shows, and the whole gave marked satisfaction. Tickets at Goodrich's.

GOSSIPS SAY

That Capt. Redford W. Sargent of Kittery, master of the steamship Indiana, running between Philadelphia and Liverpool, has been offered the command of Jay Gould's big steam yacht during her voyage around the world.

That the basement of house No. 25 Dennett street was flooded on the 15th inst. by the overflowing of the street sewer.

That the oldest naval commission issued in America is in possession of a Portsmouth gentleman, is dated August 16, 1776, and bears the signature of John Hancock, president of the Continental Congress.

That the Hot Springs party will leave Arkansas next week for the east, and will tarry a week in Washington, arriving home about April 1st.

That the worst sidewalk in the city, Friday, was in front of the Rundlett mansion on Middle street.

That the house on Vaughan street recently purchased by Mr. Henry R. Stoddard is being handsomely painted in æsthetic colors.

That the railroad lobby at Concord next June promises to organize such a "third house" as for power was never before known.

That all the legislative Batkinses that can be discovered will be retained as "counsel for the roads," with fees away up.

That Richard Roberts, of Christian Shore, long known as a hand-cart peddler of Yankee notions, will hereafter transport his goods by horse-power.

That the family of Thomas Glazebrook, of Newington, were considerably startled the other evening, when their attention being attracted by a pecking on the window pane they discovered a huge horned owl gazing at them through the glass.

That his owlship, who was not captured, had killed and eaten a number of fancy pigeons belonging to Mr. Glazebrook before calling upon the family to tender his thanks.

THE CITY FARM--NOT SOLD.

"Here I am again," B. In reply to the sarcastic item in the CHRONICLE of the 14th inst., with the above letter attached, I would say there is room in the lunatic asylum for one more victim; and judging by the item referred to above, which was so thoroughly mixed up, I should say medical treatment in an asylum was needed, where he will not harm a fellow citizen.

In your statement you admit that Mr. Clough is honest, and wind up by saying "you care for candor and honesty." God forbid I should say anything but what is candid and honest. I am well aware I do not know as much as some people, and it is not my aim to make the public think I do, but I do not like to be told of it, Brother "B," so do have a little mercy for one's feelings.

However, the matter of selling that portion of the farm which is not paying property is what we want fully discussed by honest and clear-headed citizens; we do not want to do anything that will deprive the unfortunate of a home, and I can with assurance safely say Mr. Clough had no such thought or intention when he presented his report and statement to the city council.

But when you come to consider the matter of expense of running the city farm it will not do to cut off figures at both ends of the line, as it will not be a fair and "honest" showing of accounts. The statement presented by "B" I believe to be "honest" as far as he went, and "he may find followers," as his analysis of the accounts looks very plausible. But for all that I do not retract from my statement that the city farm is an expensive luxury, and in so speaking I do not wish to be understood that I have any reference as to the capabilities of our "careful and economical superintendent," in justice to whom I will say he is doing just as well as he or any other person could do under the circumstances. The resolution presented to the city council was to the effect that "such portions of the farm be sold, at such rates and upon such terms, as in the committee's judgment would be for the best interest and in furtherance of the true welfare of the city." It does not say we shall sell "the farm," but "such portions."

When "B" makes the public believe it does not cost the city but nine cents a day to support the inmates at the farm, it will be sometime after Wiggins' next blow. "Fancy figures," indeed! Brother "B," the farm is not sold yet; the subject matter still lies on the table, and we hope its weight will bring no disastrous results to your "unfortunate relatives and friends." C. H. C.

This is St. Patrick's day.

The passenger train from Boston due in this city at 10:55 o'clock Friday forenoon was forty minutes late, owing to a collison between two trains at the "know-nothing" crossing of the Eastern and Boston & Maine roads in Somerville, Mass., an eastward bound train on the latter road, and an Eastern railroad train from Lynn, coming together with force enough to smash the cowcatchers and otherwise damage the engines, stopping traffic along both lines for about an hour. The blame is laid on Engineer Judkins of the Eastern road, the signals giving the right of way to the Boston & Maine.

Free lunch at Newman's on Vaughan street, and clam chowder at Garrity's on Daniel street, and White's on Fleet street, this evening.

A freight train which left this city for Dover at five o'clock Friday morning, the 16th inst., broke a centre pin of one of the cars, causing a short delay. There now run over the Portsmouth & Dover road daily between thirty and forty cars loaded with freight.

In another column will be found an advertisement announcing a wonderful spiritualistic performance at Music hall on Sunday evening, by Carrie Edwards and three other materializing mediums.

Mr. John Griffin, who left here for the west on Monday morning of this week, arrived safely in St. Paul, Minn., Thursday, after a very pleasant trip.

The Government Chemist Analyzes two of the Leading Baking Powders, and what he finds them made of.

I have examined samples of "Cleveland's Superior Baking Powder" and "Royal Baking Powder," purchased by myself in this city, and I find they contain:

"Cleveland's Superior Baking Powder."
Cream of Tartar,
Bicarbonate of Soda,
Flour
Available carbonic acid gas 12.61 per cent, equivalent to 118.2 cubic inches of gas per oz. of Powder.

"Royal Baking Powder."
Cream of Tartar,
Bicarbonate of Soda,
Carbonate of Ammonia,
Tartaric Acid,
Starch.
Available carbonic acid gas 12.40 per cent, equivalent to 116.2 cubic inches of gas per oz. of Powder.

Ammonia gas 0.45 per cent, equivalent to 10.4 cubic inches per oz. of Powder.

NOTE.—The Tartaric acid was doubtless introduced as free acid, but subsequently combined with ammonia, and exists in the Powder as a Tartrate of Ammonia. E. G. LOVE, Ph. D.
NEW YORK, Jan'y 17th, 1881.

The above shows conclusively that "Cleveland's Superior" is a strictly pure Cream of Tartar Baking Powder. It has also been analyzed by Professor Johnson of Yale College; Dr. Genth of the University of Pennsylvania; President Morton of the Stevens Institute; Wm. M. Habirshaw, F. C. S., Analyst for the Chemical Trade of New York, and other eminent chemists, all of whom pronounce it absolutely pure and healthful.—Hall's Journal of Health for April, 1882.

SECRET!

THE ONLY DISSOLVER OF THE POISONOUS URIC ACID WHICH EXISTS IN THE BLOOD OF RHEUMATIC AND GOUTY PATIENTS.

SALICYLICA is known as a common-sense remedy, because it strikes directly at the cause of Rheumatism, Gout and Neuralgia, while so many so-called specifics and supposed panacees only treat locally the effects.

It has been conceded by eminent scientists that outward applications, such as rubbing with oils, ointments, liniments, and soothing lotions will not eradicate these diseases which are the result of the poisoning of the blood with Uric Acid.

SALICYLICA works with marvelous effect on this acid, and so removes the disorder. It is now exclusively used by all celebrated physicians of America and Europe. Highest Medical Academy of Paris reports 95 per cent. cures in three days.

Wednesday, March 14th, at eleven o'clock, at Tokay, the residence of Wharton J. Green, four miles from Fayetteville, N. C., Judge David Davis was married to Miss Addie Burr. It was a quiet wedding with but few guests. Rev. J. C. Huske officiated with the Episcopal service. The presents were numerous and costly. At one o'clock the happy couple left on the steamer Murchison, specially prepared and beautifully decorated, for Wilmington. The bride is a native of Massachusetts, but her parents have resided in Illinois. Miss Burr is a most accomplished and elegant lady thirty-five years of age, and has made her home chiefly with Mr. Green.

A Miss Buchanan, once rallying a brave soldier on his courage, said: "Now, Captain Johnson, do you really mean to tell me you can walk up to the cannon's mouth without fear?" "Yes," was the prompt reply, "or a Buchanan's either," and he did. It may be safely assumed that the lady, to whom the gallant captain thus paid his respects, hadn't the catarrh. This malady is as loathsome as it is painful. It's cure has heretofore been considered impossible. Ely's Cream Balm, however, never fails to cure it. Mr. Nathan Fegley, with E. F. Montz, merchant, Wilkesbarre, Pa., says: "I've had catarrh for fifteen years. Ely's Cream Balm has opened my nostrils and reduced the inflammation. My eyes, too, can stand strong light." This balm is a marvel of fragrance, and curative powers,—is not a liquid or snuff, and is easily applied.

The successor to the title of the late earl of Stamford lived long at a place about ten miles from Cape Town, Cape of Good Hope, but for some time past he has resided at Wynberg, on the sandy flats, in an iron house of two rooms. By his first wife he had no issue. By his second wife he had issue, a daughter. On this wife's death he married a Hottentot, by whom he had three children. He insists upon being called "my lord," but passes his time picking up fir cones and bits of sticks in the woods to keep the domestic fire burning, while his children run about the flats barefooted and only partially clad.

Use it as an advance guard—either in dry or liquid form—it is efficient.

A YOUNG OLD LADY.

"Yes, Sir! I'm Younger than any of my Children now," said Mrs. Sarah M. Robinson, of 61 William St., New Haven, Conn.—We read about this kind of Noble Ladies, but Seldom See them in Society.

"Yes, sir; I'm younger than any of my children now. I keep up with the times, I read the papers, applaud the victories of old Yale, and don't grow old," were the words of Mrs. Robinson to your reporter when he called at her home. Mrs. Robinson is one of the earnest, go-ahead sort of aged ladies, of whom you read, but whom you so rarely find in modern society. "I've had my share of trouble," she said, "for all my life I've been a sufferer from erysipelas. From this has resulted diseased stomach and inaction of the digestive organs. I've been troubled with dyspepsia, and have had such a weakness of the stomach it has seemed as if I needed something artificial and strengthening. I attribute this to erysipelas, which is constitutional with me. I've been under the physician's care a great deal during my life, but I never received any permanent benefit I think until I began taking Dr. Kennedy's FAVORITE REMEDY, which has proved a perfect restorative in my case. My health is better now than it has been for a long time. I consider Dr. Kennedy's FAVORITE REMEDY an excellent medicine. It is used extensively in this city. I keep it as a family medicine, and rely upon it for I know of the good results of using it."

Your reporter left Mrs. Robinson rejoicing in health and renewed youth, and bestowing merited praise on that which is the source of happiness to thousands, viz; Dr. Kennedy's FAVORITE REMEDY. Ask your druggist for it. Kennedy's FAVORITE REMEDY has become a household word. Everybody, sooner or later, gets sick, and sickness is both wearisome and costly. FAVORITE REMEDY stays in at this point. It is not expensive and it is efficient. For all diseases of the Blood, Bilious Disorders, Kidney Complaints, Constipation, and the aches and ills which make the domestic life of women a cross so hard to bear.

Couldn't Speak Above A Whisper.

This was Captain Harding's experience after exposure in a violent storm off the Cape of Good Hope. Inflammation settled in his throat, and for a while it seemed as if he would die of diphtheria. As the captain never goes to sea without a supply of Perry Davis's Pain Killer, he knew just what to do. A dose of it gave immediate relief.

"G. O. Taylor Old Bourbon" whiskey was introduced by Chester H. Graves & Sons six years ago, when it was approved by S. Dana Hayes, state assayer, Massachusetts. It at once established a reputation as a perfectly pure whiskey, and we learn it has just received a fresh endorsement from the present state assayer of Massachusetts. Leading druggists and grocers sell it.

THAT RAILROAD LEASE.

Under the above heading, the Manchester Mirror makes a few remarks concerning the proposed lease of the Eastern railroad to the Boston & Maine, from the tone of which we infer that the influence of the Mirror will not be wielded in favor of the consolidation should the question come before the legislature. It talks as follows:

It is announced that the directors of the Boston & Maine and Eastern railroads, the two lines which compete for the overland business between Boston and Portland, have come to an agreement, under the terms of which the Eastern is to be leased for fifty years to the Boston & Maine. This, of course, is a virtual consolidation of the two roads, and as both of them run for a long distance through New Hampshire, the arrangement is one in which the people of this state have a deep interest. Whether they are to be asked to ratify it through their legislature, which meets in June, is not certain, but it would seem that the sanction of our general court must be obtained before any such lease as is proposed can be valid. The Boston & Maine is a corporation trinity chartered by Maine, Massachusetts and New Hampshire, and the section in this state is, of course, subject to the control of our legislature and courts. The Eastern proper, is wholly outside of this state, but it operates the Eastern in New Hampshire, and several branches which are to all intents and purposes parts of it, and these, at least, are the creatures of our laws, and should be compelled to conform to them. In some way or other the question will probably find its way to Concord in June, and if it does there is music ahead for the boys. We can scarcely imagine a carcass which would furnish more fat to the lobby than this, for to begin with, the traditions, prejudices and convictions of the people of New Hampshire are strongly against the consolidation of railroads, especially of competing lines such as the Boston & Maine and Eastern; and in the next place, there is a very strong feeling against the B. & M., which is not only a foreign corporation, but so far as this state knows it a very hoggish one, which people will not readily trust with any more power than it has now. Love may not be a very important factor in a railroad fight, but we have noticed that a road which is represented and managed by a man like John E. Lyon, whom everybody liked and had confidence in, generally gets what it asks for in a legislature, while the one whose figure head is a hog, and a mean one at that, gets very little and takes that by sheer force.

AROUND HOME.

On Friday evening of last week the members of Col. Sise engine company thought they heard the cry of fire, and soon had their hose carriage and engine outside the house, and the fire lighted; the alarm proved a false one, and the boys as they returned their machines to the house expressed fervent wishes that they could get hold of the "feller that hollered," to caress him for a brief period.

Brillante, the pedestrian, made his walk of fifteen miles in Franklin hall on Saturday evening, in two hours, twenty minutes and forty-five seconds.

The schooner J. & L. Bryan arrived on the 18th with 570 tons of Cumberland coal. Part of her cargo goes to the navy yard, furnished on a contract by C. E. Walker & Co.

Pedestrians were numerous in the outskirts of the city on Sunday.

The channel of the Cocheco river was on Saturday last reported to be open as far up as Gage's, about four miles this side of Dover; above that point the ice was heavy, and for a long distance below it there was much ice along the shores on either side of the channel.

Coastwise freights are reported way down; from Baltimore, $1.12 to New York, $1.40 to Boston; from New York to this port, $1.25.

The schooner Annie F. Conlon, Seaward master, arrived at Baltimore on the 15th inst., seventy-two hours from Charleston, S. C.

The bell of the Christ church chime which has been out of pitch from the first, was on Saturday taken down and sent to the manufacturers in Baltimore, Md., and will be replaced by a new one. The chimes will continue to be rung as heretofore until the new bell arrives, when they will be rung better than ever—that is, if the new bell proves to be in tune with its mates, which the old one has never been.

Miss Frances A. Mathes of this city lectured in the chapel of the First church at Dover on the evening of the 14th inst., giving "a very entertaining lecture" to a good sized audience. Her subject was "British colonies," and the local papers say she held the attention of her audience from the beginning to the end of her lecture.

Thomas Ryan, alias Thomas Buchanan, who was held in the police court in this city under the tramp law on the 1st inst., and committed to jail in default of bail, and who was sent to Rockland, Me., on the 14th inst., being wanted there for a murderous assault, was on the 15th sentenced to three years in the Maine state prison.

A married couple hailing from Maine put up at the Gibson house one night last week, the man registering their names as "Mr. Pierre Therault and Mrs. Femme," intending the latter to represent his wife. They were evidently French Canadians.

The wild geese are beginning to fly northward.

The largest run made in the pool tournament at White's saloon on Fleet street last week was eleven balls.

Several persons were overhauled by the police on Saturday, in their search for the fellow who assaulted the little Taylor girl last week. One of them was a young man who professed to be deaf and dumb; at the Eastern railroad station he gave his name as D. Clushole, and stated that he had been a committee of one to collect money for the sufferers by the great fire in St. John, N. B., in 1877—that he has been collecting for this purpose for three years, and keeping an accurate account of his weekly receipts. A pretended deaf and dumb man was hunted out of Manchester one day last week, having been shown up as a first-class fraud and bummer; possibly Mr. Clushole may be the same, and keeps all his receipts, as well as the accounts of them.

Chief Engineer Macomb on Saturday finished taking account of stock in the department of steam engineering at the navy yard, the total value of the machinery, stores, etc., amounting to upward of $225,000.

Shortly after five o'clock last Saturday morning the Eastern railroad station in Eliot was discovered to be in flames, the hands of a passing freight train being the first to see it; the structure was soon destroyed, but the loss was small, there being no freight or baggage stored in it. The post-office was located in the building, and some letters and papers were burned, as were also some tickets and documents belonging to the railroad. The fire is supposed to have been caused by an incendiary.

"Reminiscences and Memorials of Men of the Revolution, and their families;" by A. B. Muzzey; illustrated. Boston; Estes & Lauriat.

Mr. Muzzey, who will be remembered as a clergyman formerly settled in Newburyport, has here undertaken to produce recollections of men of the Revolution and members of their families with whom he has had personal acquaintance, and to give records of these men in their public positions and in their family relations. Of course this plan brings to our notice many incidents not before seen in print. The prominent Massachusetts families, such as the Otis, Adams, Quincy, Lincoln, Parker and other well remembered patriots, are described.

A chapter is devoted to the Society of the Cincinnati, and among the members is a mention of Daniel Webster, with a well related reminiscence of the great lawyer. There is also an interesting account of the Pickerings of Salem, and of Gen. Henry Knox, as well as the naval record of his grandson, Henry Knox Thacher, whom the printer makes a post admiral at Portsmouth, instead of a port admiral. There are many pages of interest to persons of historic taste. There is an index of names, with diagrams of Lexington and Concord, and a plan of Boston in 1775. The omission of certain inappropriately-added wood-cuts, serving as tail-pieces, would have rendered the book more in keeping with the ordinary issues from the University press, as some of the "illustrations" can boast only of their antiquity, and are not germane to the subject treated in the chapters at the close of which they are found.

By an explosion of gas in a house on Appleton street, Boston, on the 17th inst., the basement and ground floor of the building were wrecked, windows blown out, walls shattered, furniture destroyed, etc., the damage amounting to $2000. The street and sidewalk in front of the building were thrown into the air, and a number of passers-by severely injured, one man having a leg broken.

Secretary Chandler has invited proposals for building the steam ships for the navy provided for by the recent act of Congress. Now we shall probably hear from the late Commander Gorringe.

Nine boys escaped from the Massachusetts state reform school at Westboro', during Thursday night, the 15th, but they have all been captured and will be returned to the institution.

Obey E. Owen, the teller of the Third national bank of St. Louis, Mo., has been sent to the penitentiary for stealing $209,000 of the bank's funds.

SCROFULA.

A remedy that can destroy the germs of scrofula, and when once settled has the power to root it out, must be appreciated by those afflicted. The remarkable cures of young children and the more wonderful cures of those of middle age and late in life, as illustrated by our printed testimonials, prove HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA to be a reliable remedy, containing remedial agents which do positively cure scrofula and eradicate it from the blood.

WARNER, N. H., Jan. 21, 1879.

MESSRS. C. I. HOOD & CO., Lowell, Mass.: Gentlemen—For the two years previous to the early part of 1877 I had been a constant sufferer from scrofulous ulcers or sores, which had finally reduced me to a helpless condition, as described in my letter to you in September of that year. The continued excellent health which enables me to keep house for my aged father and to enjoy life, keeps alive my intense personal interest in HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA, and I cannot refrain from expressing my gratitude for the permanent cure this wonderful medicine effected in my case nearly two years ago, while living in Lowell, when all my physicians gave me up as being in an incurable condition. One thing before I close. I have recommended your Sarsaparilla to hundreds, and I think more than a thousand cases, and my faith in its invincibility in curing scrofula has become absolute by the wonderful cures it has effected aside from my own. I trust you will not be slow in making the merits of HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA known everywhere, for it is a duty you owe to mankind. With best wishes I remain very truly yours,

THE WEATHER.

U. S. SIGNAL OFFICE, WASHINGTON, D. C. March 19, 12:00 A. M.

Probabilities for New England:—Occasional rains changing to snow; cloudy or partly cloudy weather, much colder and high northerly winds, rapidly rising barometer.

Sky clear.

PAT ROONEY.

The star combination which is to appear in Music hall this evening has been on the road for several seasons, and has established a high reputation. The combination this year is the best that Rooney has ever travelled with, and one that gives a first-class performance. The Detroit Free Press says of the show: "The entertaining gentleman who heads and owns the show bearing his name is more popular now as a performer than at any other time in his career. Besides, he has a combination of specialty talent under his management equalled by few and surpassed by fewer." Tickets can be secured at Goodrich's.

THE "GOSSIPS" NOT IN FAULT.

RYE, March 15th.

Mr. Editor: I am much pleased with your lively paper, which has many readers in Rye. Readers, yes; for it is borrowed from house to house in some neighborhoods. I have a weekly visitor who makes a call regularly to see the GAZETTE. "There," said she recently, "I do wish father would stop that horrid old —— and take the GAZETTE; but if he will not I must come and read it at your house."

The danger of believing all the "gossips say" is my excuse for thus occupying your space. The "gossips say" that the Portsmouth savings bank has the largest deposits of any savings bank in the state. The gossips are badly in error in this respect, and must have *forgotten the Manchester savings bank, which has deposits of over four millions of dollars, which beats your Portsmouth bank by considerably over a million. OCEAN SPRAY.

*No; the "gossips" did not forget, for the item referred to by "Ocean Spray," as originally written, ended with the words "excepting two banks in Manchester;" and it was the accidental omission of these words which made the "gossips say" something not intended.—Ed.

BARK "FURNESS ABBEY."

Mr. Editor: The following advertisement appeared in the Evening Times of the 16th inst.:

NOTICE.—Bark "Furness Abbey." I would respectfully advise the owners of the "Furness Abbey" not to sign any receipts for dividends (if any) until the accounts have been thoroughly examined and audited by a competent accountant.
ONE OF THE OWNERS.

We desire through the medium of your paper to inform the public that every owner of the bark Furness Abbey, save the author of the cowardly and insinuating advertisement referred to, have the utmost confidence in the ability, probity and trustworthiness of the present agent of said bark, and in his management of their trusts committed to his hands; also that all the books and accounts of the present agent, who has nothing to conceal, are accessible and open to the closest inspection of any owner or interested person who may choose to examine them.
SEVERAL OF THE OWNERS.

POOR ECONOMY.

Owing to the lack of appropriations, Chief Signal Officer Hazen has ordered the discontinuance of thirty cautionary-display stations, one of the thirty being the station in this city. The telegraphing of the special bulletin to printing stations is stopped; also the weather reports from Mount Washington, from Eagle rock, Idaho, and Fort Washakie, Wyoming. New cautionary-display stations will be established at New London, Conn., and Newport, R. I., while those at Boothbay and Rockland, Me.; Gloucester, Hyannis and Wood's Hole, Mass.; Block island, R. I., and Fire island, N. Y., are among those discontinued. This cheese-paring policy with the signal service may prove economical, but we do not think it will; we are certain it will not be popular along the sea coast.

LAW QUESTIONS DECIDED.

At the adjourned law term of the Supreme court held at Concord last week, on the Rookingham docket, in the case of the Eastern Railroad in New Hampshire against Portsmouth, the court held that the Eastern and not the Concord road was the proper party to erect and maintain gates at the crossings in this city. The Eastern had been allowed damages for this right of way enjoyed now by the Concord, and the expenses of gates were not to be apportioned to either, but to be borne by the Eastern. Hatch and Frink for Eastern railroad; Wallace Hackett for the city of Portsmouth; Fellows for the Concord railroad; W. H. Hackett for the Concord & Portsmouth railroad.

In Albert C. Pickering vs. Elias Frink, transferred from the October trial term, judgment was rendered on the verdict for the plaintiff. Page for Pickering; Hatch and Emery for Frink.

GOSSIPS SAY

That Senator Blair showed good sense in not being inveigled into the New Hampshire club dinner at Young's hotel in Boston on the 14th ult.

That Secretary Chandler wishes the club had been in Halifax before he and Senator Frye had been induced to partake of its "taffy."

That Wm. B. Rand of this city had a bone tumor removed from his left side on the 15th inst. by Dr. Parsons.

That there was a good deal of fun at a "pie sociable" in Mechanics' hall on Friday evening, engineered by some of the young lady pupils of Smith's academy.

That the saw-dust pie intended for a joke was really better than some of those suposed to be good.

That Martin V. B. Stimson, formerly of Kittery, Me., has recently purchased a house in Concord, this state, for $6100.

That efforts are being made to secure a tug boat to wait upon the brick fleet, and expedite the passage of those vessels up and down the river.

That the brick business is really booming, and some say the bricks are. [See late reports from London.]

That the ordinance passed by the common council under suspension of the rules at the meeting last Thursday evening should be carefully considered before it receives the sanction of the board of aldermen.

That any attempt to restrict our citizens in their right to purchase fruits, vegetables, fish or any of the necessaries of life, whether from resident or non-resident venders, is wrong and should be opposed.

That if the fishermen and farmers are disallowed the privilege of selling their products in our streets the old town would be well named the "sleeping beauty."

That a partridge hant adjacent to Lafayette road has been discovered by Portsmouth sportsmen, and many of them bagged.

That large quanities of seaweed, which have accumulated on the beaches at Rye during the winter months, are being hauled inland by the thrifty farmers of that town, Greenland and Exeter.

That the schooner yacht Una will probably not make a cruise this summer.

That an exhibition of roller skating by experts will soon be given in this city.

That the proposition to sell a portion of the city farm was indefinitely postponed by the common council at their meeting last week.

RAILROAD NOTES.

Engineer Judkins, who had charge of the Eastern railroad locomotive that was in the collision at East Somerville, Mass., March 16th, had been in the employ of the company for many years, and had never before met with an accident. The railroad commissioners made an investigation, and found that the collision was the result of his negligence.

The Boston & Maine railroad stockholders will meet on the 28th inst. to act upon the proposed lease of the Eastern railroad.

It is rumored that the stockholders of the Eastern railroad in New Hampshire threaten to fight the lease of the Eastern road to the Boston & Maine, unless the rental of the New Hampshire line is raised from the present rate of 4 1-2 per cent to the six per cent paid before the bankruptcy of the Eastern.

The Concord railroad announces that on and after April 1st it will carry coal at reduced rates, as follows: Per ton of 2240 pounds, from this city, of not less than 100 tons at each shipment, to Epping, at sixty-five cents per ton; to Manchester, at $1.05; to Hooksett, Suncook and Concord, at $1.35; and to Pittsfield, at $2.

President Jackson, General Manager Tucker, Directors Sewall, Hyde and Strickland of the Maine Central railroad, and J. Murray Ray and Superintendent McLeod of the St. John & Maine railway, and other parties from St. John and St. Andrews held a consultation in Bangor on the 16th inst. The proposed railroad bridge at St. John, N. B., was given consideration, and it was determined to commence building the bridge at once. The cost is estimated to be about $600,000.

TOWN ELECTIONS.

NEWMARKET. Moderator, Lafayette Hall; clerk, Andrew J. Watterson; treasurer, Frank H. Pinkham; selectmen, Charles E. Tasker, A. T. Gilman, George O. Hodgdon.

STRATHAM. Moderator, George A. Wiggin; clerk and treasurer, J. S. Staples; school committee, Richard N. Scammon; selectmen, J. E. Odell, J. W. Rollins, G. W. Chase. The treasurer's report shows a balance of $816.66 after all bills are paid.

In many towns of this state, at the elections on the 13th inst., party lines were set aside, and a ticket made up of candidates from both parties elected. In Newcastle one selectman and one school committeeman are democrats; Greenland elected one republican selectman; in Newington, where a republican stands a much better chance of being struck by lightning than of being successful in a contested election, the first selectman and town clerk are republicans; in North Hampton, a strongly democratic town, the treasurer, collector and two selectmen are republicans; in Seabrook several republicans were elected; and in Newmarket the moderator, collector, keeper of hearse and two of the selectmen are democrats, the clerk, treasurer and one selectman being republicans.

About 25,000 lbs. of fish were received on Thursday and Friday; some of the fishermen made good fares last week, the total receipts being about 50,000 lbs.

The schooner Mary Willey is being overhauled and painted, preparatory to starting on her spring trips to the eastward after lumber.

The Government Chemist Analyzes two of the Leading Baking Powders, and what he finds them made of.

I have examined samples of "Cleveland's Superior Baking Powder" and "Royal Baking Powder," purchased by myself in this city, and I find they contain:

"Cleveland's Superior Baking Powder."
Cream of Tartar,
Bicarbonate of Soda,
Flour

Available carbonic acid gas 12.61 per cent, equivalent to 118.2 cubic inches of gas per oz. of Powder.

"Royal Baking Powder."
Cream of Tartar,
Bicarbonate of Soda,
Carbonate of Ammonia,
Tartaric Acid,
Starch.

Available carbonic acid gas 12.40 per cent, equivalent to 116.2 cubic inches of gas per oz. of Powder.

Ammonia gas 0.43 per cent, equivalent to 10.4 cubic inches per oz. of Powder.

NOTE.—The Tartaric acid was doubtless introduced as free acid, but subsequently combined with ammonia, and exists in the Powder as a Tartrate of Ammonia. E. G. LOVE, Ph. D.
NEW YORK, Jan'y 17th, 1881.

The above shows conclusively that "Cleveland's Superior" is a strictly pure Cream of Tartar Baking Powder. It has also been analyzed by Professor Johnson of Yale College; Dr. Genth of the University of Pennsylvania; President Morton of the Stevens Institute; Wm. M. Habirshaw, F. C. S., Analyst for the Chemical Trade of New York, and other eminent chemists, all of whom pronounce it absolutely pure and healthful.—Hall's Journal of Health for April, 1882.

SECRET!
THE ONLY DISSOLVER OF THE POISONOUS URIC ACID WHICH EXISTS IN THE BLOOD OF RHEUMATIC AND GOUTY PATIENTS.
SALICYLICA is known as a common-sense remedy, because it strikes directly at the cause of Rheumatism, Gout and Neuralgia, while so many so-called specifics and supposed panaceas only treat locally the effects.
It has been conceded by eminent scientists that outward applications, such as rubbing with oils, ointments, liniments, and soothing lotions will not eradicate these diseases which are the result of the poisoning of the blood with Uric Acid.
SALICYLICA works with marvelous effect on this acid, and so removes the disorder. It is now exclusively used by all celebrated physicians of America and Europe. Highest Medical Academy of Paris reports 95 per cent. cures in three days.

HEART DISEASE

Nervous

IS YOUR HEART SOUND?

Many people think themselves sick and doctor for kidney or liver troubles, or dyspepsia, while if the truth were known, the real cause is at the heart. The renowned Dr. Clendinning, startlingly says "one-third of my subjects show signs of heart disease." The heart weighs about nine ounces, and yet man's twenty-eight pounds of blood passes through it once in a minute and a-half, resting not day or night! Surely this subject should have careful attention.

Dr. Graves a celebrated physician has prepared a specific for all heart troubles and kindred disorders. His known as Dr. Graves' Heart Regulator and can be obtained at your druggists, $1. per bottle, six bottles for $5 by express. Send stamp for Dr. Graves' thorough and exhaustive treatise. (1)

Liver, Kidney and Bright's Disease.

A medicine that destroys the germ or cause of Bright's disease, diabetes, kidney and liver complaints, and has power to root them out of the system, is above all price. Such a medicine is Hop Bitters, and positive proof of this can be found by one trial, or by asking your neighbors, who have been cured by it.

VARIOUS QUACKS.

Who--Each with his own Pet Scheme--

Cultivate the Field of Human Nature.

There have always been quacks:—legal quacks, theological quacks, scientific quacks and medical quacks. Some of them are bland, oily fellows who argue and smile the world into believing in their favorite bit of humbug. Others are pompous and pretentious parasites. But they make it pay. Men seem to love to be swindled, stipulating only that it shall be neatly done.

The dear public are equally liberal to the electric and magnetic fraud. This fellow is a genius in his line. He will put a magnetic belt around your waist, a magnetic necklace under your chin, or fit you out with an entire suit of magnetic clothes, warranted to serve the purpose of ordinary garments, and at the same time to cure all diseases, from whooping-cough to hasty consumption.

Most of these have no more electric or magnetic power about them than resides in wooden blankets or in girdles of sackcloth. Only when applied by an expert is electricity of the slightest use as a medicinal agent, and even then its value is grossly over-stated. What is the strongest possible presumptive evidence in favor of a particular remedy? Clearly that it should have been prepared by responsible persons of acknowledged skill in the treatment of disease.

Squarely on this foundation stands BENSON'S CAPCINE POROUS PLASTER. Endorsed by 5,000 physicians, pharmacists, druggists and chemists, it needs no further introduction. It is the one and only true and tried external application. Quacks of all kinds pay the Capcine the compliment of their dislike, as Satan is said to hate holy water.

Couldn't Speak Above A Whisper.

This was Captain Harding's experience after exposure in a violent storm off the Cape of Good Hope. Inflammation settled in his throat, and for a while it seemed as if he would die of diphtheria. As the captain never goes to sea without a supply of Perry Davis's Pain Killer, he knew just what to do. A dose of it gave immediate relief.

Luther Tucker, a carpenter of Northwood, was found dead at the Kimball house, Dover, on Saturday, having blown out the gas on retiring the previous night. He was sixty-four years old, and leaves a widow. Thirty years ago he was in business in Great Falls, and leaves an estate valued at $60,000.

"G. O. Taylor Old Bourbon" whiskey was introduced by Chester H. Graves & Sons six years ago, when it was approved by S. Dana Hayes, state assayer, Massachusetts. It at once established a reputation as a perfectly pure whiskey, and we learn it has just received a fresh endorsement from the present state assayer of Massachusetts. Leading druggists and grocers sell it.

Another Entry Murder.

A strange and brutal murder, recalling to mind that of Harriet Bell in Boston, took place in East Watertown, Mass., early Sunday evening. Mrs. Etta G. Carleton, a young married woman of pleasing appearance and good character, after putting to bed her two children, aged five and three years, answered a call of the bell, there being no other persons in the house than those mentioned. The eldest child, a girl, thinking her mother long absent, went down stairs, and tumbled over her mother's prostrate body, which was lying at the foot; she ran to a house opposite for help, and Mrs. Carleton was taken up, her injuries being found to consist of a number of terrible bruises about the head, and a fracture of the frontal bone. A large paving stone was found in the entry beside the body. The injured woman lived about two hours after the assault, and spoke several times, but gave no information. A man was seen to call at the house by several persons, but none of them can give any precise description of him. A gold locket and chain worn by Mrs. Carleton were not touched, and nothing was stolen from the house. The murder at present seems hidden in impenetrable mystery.

A special meeting of the stockholders of the Eastern railroad is called, to be held at the Meionaon in Boston on the 28th inst., "To see if the stockholders will accept an act of the legislature of Massachusetts, approved May 22d, 1882, and will authorize the directors to issue preferred stock under and in pursuance of the provisions of said act," and also "To see if the stockholders will approve a lease of their road to the Boston & Maine railroad of such tenor and upon such terms as have been agreed to by the directors, and will authorize the president and treasurer to execute and deliver such indenture as may be necessary and proper to carry said lease into full effect."

Mr. David K. Manson, of Kittery, gives notice that he shall pay no debts contracted by Charles H. Manson, his minor son, who recently eloped in company with the old man's best coat and $18 of his money.

Mr. Charles Cottle of Kittery, while making a payment of $25 to Mr. Oliver Bracy of York a few days ago, gave him by mistake two $20 bills, instead of a twenty and a five as both supposed. On discovering the error Mr. Bracy promptly returned the portion of the money to which he was not entitled.

On Friday evening, March 16th, Portsmouth Commandery, U. O. G. C., visited Rising Star Commandery of Kittery Point, going down and returning in the steamer James Sampson, which was specially chartered for the purpose. Large delegations from the commanderies in Eliot and York, and the commandery at the navy yard village, also visited the Rising Star the same evening. Six new members were initiated, after which the party, to the number of about sixty, adjourned to the vestry of the Freewill Baptist church, where an excellent supper was served, after paying due attention to which the brethren again repaired to their hall, where toasts and speeches ended the affair, which was one of much interest and enjoyment to all the participants.

Some of the Kennebunkport people were considerably frightened during the severe storm of the 10th inst., fearing that Wiggins' tornado was indeed close at hand; one old lady walked to Kennebunk landing through the worst of the storm, determined to escape the tidal wave if possible. A fisherman named Henry Eldredge, living near the river, took the painter of his dory in at the second story window, so that in case the tide did rise over the house he could easily embark his family.

The graduating class of the Kennebunk high school treated Prof. E. Stone Wiggins and his predictions with contempt, not only appointing the evening of March 10th as the time for having the graduating exercises, but carrying out the programme in spite of the storm which raged on that date.

Capt. Frank Emerson has succeeded in damming the sea water out of his ice pond at York harbor, but owing to the drought the supply of fresh water in the pond failed, which of course made ice cutting out of the question. To prevent such an occurence in the future, Capt. Emerson has procured legislative permission to construct an aqueduct, and will lead water from Scituate pond to his pond at the harbor, a distance of several miles, using a line of bored logs for the purpose.

A first-class schooner of about 100 tons, built on contract for Mr A. M. Smith, of Portland, and to be commanded by Capt. John S. Seavey of Boothbay, was launched at Kennebunkport on the 15th inst. by Geo. Christenson. She will fit for mackereling as soon as possible.

News and Notes.

A despatch from Little Rock, Ark., dated March 17th, says "The train robbers who murdered Conductor Cain, of the Fort Smith railroad, have been pursued to Washington county, where they separated and are going north into Missouri. A. W. Cray, a railroad mail clerk between Albany and Syracuse, N. Y., has been arrested for robbing the mails. He confesses his guilt.

Lady Florence Dixie was attacked by two men disguised as females, while walking in a secluded spot near the woods at Windsor, Eng., on the 17th inst. Her gloves were cut, and a steel corset-rib broken by a stab with a knife. She fainted, and her life was saved by her St. Bernard dog. The outrage is laid to the Irish Invincibles.

A law passed by the Vermont legislature four years ago has decidedly reduced the number of divorces. In 1879 the divorces were one to every fourteen marriages, and in the two succeeding years the proportion was one to twenty-one.

Down with the Blind Bridle.

The American Farmer, in speaking against the use of the blind bridle, says: "We know not who invented this instrument of horse torture, but we know that he did not understand the anatomy and physiology of the eye of a horse. Human vision is binocular—that is, we see the same object with both eyes—and so adjust the axis of vision that the object appears single, though seen with both eyes. But the eyes of the horse are placed on the side of the head, and the axis of each eye is nearly at right angles with the longitudinal line of the body, so that is impossible that the same object can be distinctly seen with two eyes. Now, by blinding the eye in the direction in which it was intended in its construction that it should see, it is forced to use an oblique vision, as if we should cover the front of our optics and be compelled to see only by the corner of our eyes. This unnatural and constrained use of the eye must, to a greater or less extent, impair vision, if not entirely destroyed. The object for which the blind bridle is used is not accomplished by it. A horse is more readily frightened when he cant not see the object of his dread than if he can have a fair view of it. But it is surprising to observe with what tenacity men hold on to an absurd and cruel practice, when a moment's reflection would teach them better. Nineteen out of twenty horses you see in harness have a blind bridle on, and if you ask the owner to explain its benefits, or why he uses it, he will be utterly unable to give a rational answer. We are not surprised that draught horses are subject to diseased eyes—we wonder that they are not all blind."

A Claim for Toll.

During the war, while Sheridan was making his raid through the Shenandoah valley, an old woman who kept a toll-gate on the turnpike tried to collect fares from the whole army, and became very indignant at the jeers and shouts of the boys. She is so much encouraged by the success of other claims that she proposes to have a bill introduced into Congress to pay that toll with interest to date. She sincerely believes that Sheridan swindled her out of a small fortune, and threatens to get even with him yet.

SCROFULA.

A remedy that can destroy the germs of scrofula, and when once settled has the power to root it out, must be appreciated by those afflicted. The remarkable cures of young children and the more wonderful cures of those of middle age and late in life, as illustrated by our printed testimonials, prove Hoon's SARSAPARILLA to be a reliable remedy, containing remedial agents which do positively cure scrofula and eradicate it from the blood.

FARMER, N. H., Jan. 21, 1878.

MESSRS. C. I. HOOD & Co., Lowell, Mass.: Gentlemen—For ten years previous to the early part of 1877 I had been a constant sufferer from scrofulous ulcers or sores, which had finally reduced me to a helpless condition, as described in my letter to you in September of that year. The continued excellent health which enables me to keep house for my aged father and to enjoy life, keeps alive my intense personal interest in HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA, and I cannot refrain from expressing my gratitude for the permanent cure this wonderful medicine effected in my case nearly two years ago, while living in Lowell, when all my physicians gave me up as being in an incurable condition. One thing before I close. I have recommended your Sarsaparilla to hundreds, and I think more than a thousand cases, and my faith in its invincibility in curing scrofula has become absolute by the wonderful cures it has effected aside from my own. I trust you will not be slow in making the merits of HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA known everywhere, for it is a duty you owe to mankind. With best wishes I remain, very truly yours,

Concerning Certain Relics of the Past --Dogs that have had Their Day.

George Stephenson's "Rocket," and the magnificent locomotives of to-day, are built upon the same general principle, yet the machine with which the great engineer astonished his age, is interesting now only as an illustration of the beginning of the invention. There were plasters with holes in them long before BENSONS CAPCINE POROUS PLASTER surprised both the public and the physicians; and the triumph of the Capcine is founded upon the partial successes, or the utter failures of its predecessors. Everything of value in the old porous plaster is retained in the Capcine; but at this point all comparison ends, and contrast begins. For example:

The old plasters lacked the power to do more than to impart slight, temporary relief in cases easy of treatment; the Capcine penetrates the system and permanently cures the troubles for which it is recommended.

The old plasters depended for any good results they might attain, upon an accident of their makers and the naked faith of their wearers; the Benson's reaches its ends by means of the scientific combination of the rare medicinal ingredients which it contains.

In brief, the old plasters, like Stephenson's discarded engine, are switched off the track, while the Benson goes on its way winning golden opinions from all sorts of people.

Yet is this very fact lies the leading danger to the people who buy and use this reliable and scientific remedy. "Hypocrisy is the tribute vice pays to virtue." Imitation is the concession failure makes to success. Benson's Plasters are parcelled in name and style.

Beware of swindles. The genuine have the word CAPCINE cut in the center. Price 25 cents. Seabury & Johnson, Chemists, New York.

THE VALVE SUITS.

Before Judge Lowell of the Circuit court of the United States, in Boston on Monday, the application for an injunction to restrain Marcus P. Norton from prosecuting his five suits at law in the circuit court of the United States for New Hampshire was heard. George L. Roberts, Esq., argued the motion in support, and Hon. Bainbridge Wadleigh in opposition.

The mayors of Portsmouth, Manchester and Nashua, and the city solicitors of those cities, were present, as was also J. C. Caverly, Esq., counsel for Norton.

The question whether the court will restrain the plaintiff from maintaining these suits, involving claims to the amount of $365,000, is of course an important one. Judge Lowell took the papers, and his decision will be rendered some time previous to the May term of the court to be held in this city.

POLICE COURT--BATCHELDER, J.

Horace Spinney, for an assault on Frank Horton, was fined $3, costs $7.67.

Frank Lefavre, a French Canadian, for an assault on his wife was fined $3, costs $6.90. Brentwood in default of payment.

Joseph Hussey, who was out on probation, having been before the court for drunkenness a month or so ago, was brought in again on a similar charge. Sixty days at Brentwood, costs $6.

THE STREET TRADERS.

To the Editor: I hear that a petition was last week presented to the common council signed by numerous traders, for an ordinance to be passed by the city councils to restrain fish-dealers from blowing horns or street dealers from crying their wares, because the afternoon naps of some of these traders who were unmolested by calls in their shops, may perhaps be disturbed by any business which makes a noise. Now, do we want trade restrained in this manner, and have we not law enough now on the statute book which is a dead letter because not endorsed by local public sentiment?

Some of the signers of this petition, which the common council so hurriedly suspended their rules to enact into an ordinance, (and as I am told adjourned without sending the bill to the upper house,) every one knows are doing a daily business in violation of the law of the state. Let the aldermen pass the ordinance, possibly to oblige some dealer who thinks he is undersold by some rival who runs a wagon full of oranges three or four times a year through some of our streets, it will prove a dead letter; some one may be prose u d but it will be only to spend the city's money in law suits, in testing the constitutionality of such a law. And will not the poor fish dealers, and the tinmen who sell them their horns, and the blacksmiths who shoe the horses and repair the wagons of farmers who come to town with produce and must dispose of it only in a gentle whisper,—will not all of these retaliate some day, and perhaps think that the sale of fluids prohibited by law might as well be stopped as the traffic in fish and oranges? "What is sauce for the goose," etc.

OSGOOD LODGE ENTERTAINMENT.

The closing entertainment of Osgood Lodge, I. O. O. F., took place Thursday evening last, before a crowded audience, and was pronounced a grand success. The exercises of the evening comprised the farces of "Dunducketty's Picnic" and "Teddy Rowe" (the latter by request,) together with some very fine music by the trio — Miss Hanscom, pianist, Mr. McIntire, cornetist, and Mr. Ayres, violinist. We cannot speak in terms of too great praise of these artists, whose musical talent has lent such a charming influence to these sociables. Mr. Chas. Hatch as Dunducketty seemed to be in trouble continually, he assuming his character to perfection; the telephone scene was full of mirth, and created great amusement for the audience. Mrs. Geo. Philbrick, Miss T. Mason, Mr. F. H. Moses and Mr. E. H. Green all sustained their characters admirably; the play was well spiced with fun, which was heartily enjoyed by all. "Teddy Rowe" was the closing piece of the evening, and was as full of real fun as can be imagined, each character being finely rendered. These sociables during the past season have been well attended, and when we consider the fine talent that has been produced by the committee of arrangements under the management of the efficient supervisor Mr. M. Betton, there is no reason to believe their efforts to please could be otherwise than successful, and we conclude that the Osgood Dramatic company cannot be excelled as amateur performers.

GOSSIPS SAY

That J. Albert Walker has leased of Hon. Frank Jones for a term of years the old Cushing wharf, now being rebuilt, to accommodate his increasing coal business.

That much more coal will go over the Concord & Portsmouth railroad during the next twelve months than for any like period in its history.

That Frank B. Randall of this city, first assistant engineer in the revenue marine service, is ordered before the examining board which will meet in New York on the 26th inst., to be examined for promotion.

That the Newcastle bridges, which have never in modern times been kept in so good condition as under the present management, will be closed to public travel on the 26th inst., to enable Major Urch to entirely rebuild the third bridge.

That a dozen oak piles which for forty years have been lying in the dock of the Newcastle Bridge Co., imbedded in mud, were last week dug out, and found to be as sound as when put in the dock.

That local money bags have recently invested heavily in Union Pacific railroad stock.

That the ladies of the Methodist society have made up a very handsome lot of fancy work for their Easter sale in Congress hall on Wednesday evening.

That a portion of Woodbury street was impassable on Sunday, rendered so by a brook ten feet wide and two feet deep running through that portion of the street known as "the hollow," a result of the thaw.

That "Put's boy" is in receipt of some direful threatening letters from certain navy yard employees.

That in consequence the price of horse pistols has advanced.

That the receipts of the York stage coaches during last summer were over $6000.

That several thousand dollars, the regular monthly dividend on certain mining stocks, are being distributed in this city this week.

That several of the young men who left this city not long ago, and went west to grow up with the country, have arrived home again.

That the great mediumistic show in Music hall on Sunday evening was not even a medium affair of the kind, the only satisfaction it gave being to the performers, who were much pleased at the pecuniary results.

That the Maine legislature at its recent session passed a law prohibiting the killing of game on Sunday.

That this law will not operate very heavily against the "hunters of Pocahontas point," as they were never known to kill anything on Sunday or any other day, except cats.

That the fishing junket to Councillor Jameson's pickerel ponds in Great Falls last Thursday, participated in by a dozen prominent politicians from different parts of the state, resulted in the distribution of about ten pounds of frogs' legs among the fish, and the capture of one six-inch pickerel, which was taken by an ex-deputy collector of internal revenue residing in this city.

The schooner Fred Gray, which sailed from this port for Portland on Saturday, in going down the harbor got ashore in the cove on the Kittery side, just above the narrows, and remained there about half an hour, when she drifted off, having received no damage. The schooner B. Frank Nealley, which arrived from Hoboken on Sunday with 357 tons of coal for J. Albert Walker, in coming up the river touched bottom in the cove on the Kittery side just below the narrows, but backed off without sustaining any injury.

Eight fine pigs belonging to Mr. Timothy Reagan, of Deer street, broke out of their pen on Mouday evening, and departed for localities unknown. Anybody who may happen to see a flock of pigs adrift, or a single pig cruising around on his own hook, will know where to return the same.

Mrs. Eliza W. Warren, widow of Alonzo K. Warren, was found dead in bed on Monday morning at her home, No. 5 Dennett street, Christian Shore. She had a fall not long ago, from the effects of which she never fully recovered, and which may have hastened her death. She was in her 74th year, and had long been a prominent member of the Advent church.

The police went to Chapel street about ten o'clock Monday night with a wheelbarrow, picked up a Mrs. Crowley who was lying there dead drunk, and transported her to the lockup. She would have died before morning, had she not been discovered.

A prominent citizen who is desirous that there should be a "return of the sons and daughters" on the coming 4th of July, says the expenses need not exceed $2000; this estimate dispenses with a collation, and other costly features which were prominent in the reception tendered the "sons" by the city at the last "return," ten years ago.

Quite a delegation from this city visited Boston on Monday, to attend the John L. Sullivan testimonial that evening.

This (Tuesday) evening we are to be favored with a genuine first-class "Roller Skating Carnival" on a grand scale, conducted in a first-class manner, and promising to be the social event of the season. An excursion party of two hundred skaters from Dover, accompanied by the favorite Sawyer's band, will arrive on a special train at eight o'clock. Mr. Stavers' knowing the party to be first-class, has let the elegant Franklin (lower) hall for the "carnival." Admission to our citizens, 25 cents; music for skating by Sawyer's band; objectionable people not admitted.

B. F. Mugridge, at No. 31 Market street, is selling creamery butter at thirty cents a pound, eggs at twenty cents a dozen, and other provisions proportionately cheap.

At the Easter sale in Congress hall, Wednesday evening, 21st inst., there will be tableaux, readings, singing, etc.; supper from six to eight o'clock. Admission, adults fifteen cents, children ten cents.

Two well dressed tramps passed through this city on Monday morning, bound westward. Though their raiment was gorgeous their faces certified that they belong to the order of hard citizens, and it is probable that they bought their fine clothes when the storekeeper wasn't in. They will be heard of somewhere else.

The Government Chemist Analyzes two of the Leading Baking Powders, and what he finds them made of.

I have examined samples of "Cleveland's Superior Baking Powder" and "Royal Baking Powder," purchased by myself in this city, and I find they contain:

"Cleveland's Superior Baking Powder."
Cream of Tartar,
Bicarbonate of Soda,
Flour

Available carbonic acid gas 12.61 per cent, equivalent to 118.2 cubic inches of gas per oz. of Powder.

"Royal Baking Powder."
Cream of Tartar,
Bicarbonate of Soda,
Carbonate of Ammonia,
Tartaric Acid,
Starch.

Available carbonic acid gas 12.40 per cent, equivalent to 116.2 cubic inches of gas per oz. of Powder.

Ammonia gas 0.43 per cent, equivalent to 10.4 cubic inches per oz. of Powder.

NOTE.—The Tartaric acid was doubtless introduced as free acid, but subsequently combined with ammonia, and exists in the Powder as a Tartrate of Ammonia. E. G. LOVE, Ph. D.

NEW YORK, Jan'y 17th, 1881.

The above shows conclusively that "Cleveland's Superior" is a strictly pure Cream of Tartar Baking Powder. It has also been analyzed by Professor Johnson of Yale College; Dr. Genth of the University of Pennsylvania; President Morton of the Stevens Institute; Wm. M. Habirshaw, F. C. S., Analyst for the Chemical Trade of New York, and other eminent chemists, all of whom pronounce it absolutely pure and healthful.—Hall's Journal of Health for April, 1882.

SECRET!

SALICYLICA is known as a common-sense remedy, because it strikes directly at the cause of Rheumatism, Gout and Neuralgia, while so many so-called specifics and supposed panaceas only treat locally the effects.

In has been conceded by eminent scientists that outward applications, such as rubbing with oils, ointments, liniments, and soothing lotions will not eradicate these diseases which are the result of the poisoning of the blood with Uric Acid.

SALICYLICA works with marvelous effect on this acid, and so removes the disorder. It is now exclusively used by all celebrated physicians of America and Europe. Highest Medical Academy of Paris reports 95 per cent. cures in three days.

The heart weighs about nine ounces, and yet man's twenty-eight pounds of blood passes through it once in a minute and a-half, resting not day or night! Surely this subject should have careful attention.

Dr. Graves a celebrated physician has prepared a specific for all heart troubles and kindred disorders. This is known as Dr. Graves' Heart Regulator *and can be obtained at your druggists, $1. per bottle, six bottles for $5 by express. A Specimen Reformer.

Under the above heading the New York Commercial Advertiser thus alludes to Gen. Burt, late naval officer at New York, for not reappointing whom President Arthur has been roundly censured by certain so-called civil service reformers. Gen. Burt was offered the position of examiner to the civil service commission, but would not take the place, the salary of commissioner being less than that of naval officer, whereupon the Commercial Advertiser says:

The Times and Tribune both speak of Mr. Burt as a man specially qualified for a civil service reformer. They object, however, to transferring Mr. Burt from the naval office to the civil service commission, because one pays better than the other. It is the salary after all that the reformers and the opponents of the administration are looking after. The Blue Book will show that the Burt family have been in office under every administration since the days of Jefferson. The father of the present naval officer was a follower and office holder under Jackson, Van Buren, Polk, and Pierce, and the Burt appointed examiner to the civil service commission has held office in the state and federal service for nearly thirty years. The Burts are of the genuine barnacle family. They never had any visible support except office. And of such are the reformers.

Another paper thus refers to Gen. Burt's pretence of being a "reformer:"

In a recent interview, Naval Officer Silas W. Burt, of New York, says: "The objections to my reappointment are my unwillingness to submit to political assessments and my civil service reform views. These are, I believe, my only weaknesses." As civil service reform is the uppermost topic, a few facts concerning Mr. Burt's administration may be in order. The naval officer is second in authority to the collector of the port. Mr. Burt was nominated by President Hayes to be naval officer in 1878, and the nomination was confirmed by the senate the following February. On taking the position he found himself the superior officer over seventy-five men. He reorganized the force. Some were dropped, a favored few were placed at the heads of the various departments, and examinations made the test of admission and promotion thereafter. Tenure of office had no support until favorites had been admitted and rapidly promoted over the more experienced and valuable officials. Witness the result: Of eighty-nine subordinates in the naval office on the 1st of December last, forty-six were men of many years' experience, and forty-three were taken into the service with no notion of the duties they were to perform. Of these forty-three, twenty-three have been rapidly promoted, absorbing forty-six separate promotions, and only one of the more experienced men who taught the newcomers the rudiments of the business has been promoted! This is not the kind of civil service reform that the country wants.

Liver, Kidney and Bright's Disease.

A medicine that destroys the germ or cause of Bright's disease, diabetes, kidney and liver complaints, and has power to root them out of the system, is above all price. Such a medicine is Hop Bitters, and positive proof of this can be found by one trial, or by asking your neighbors, who have been cured by it.

IN MINNESOTA & DAKOTA

VARIOUS QUACKS.

Who--Each with his own Pet Scheme--

Cultivate the Field of Human Nature.

There have always been quacks:—legal quacks, theological quacks, scientific quacks and medical quacks. Some of them are bland, oily fellows who argue and smile the world into believing in their favorite bit of humbug. Others are pompous and pretentious parasites. But they make it pay. Men seem to love to be swindled, stipulating only that it shall be neatly done.

The dear public are equally liberal to the electric and magnetic fraud. This fellow is a genius in his line. He will put a magnetic belt around your waist, a magnetic necklace under your chin, or fit you out with an entire suit of magnetic clothes, warranted to serve the purposes of ordinary garments, and at the same time to cure all diseases, from whooping-cough to hasty consumption.

Most of these have no more electric or magnetic power about them than resides in wooden blankets or in girdles of sackcloth. Only when applied by an expert is electricity of the slightest use as a medicinal agent, and even then its value is grossly over-stated. What is the strongest possible presumptive evidence in favor of a particular remedy? Clearly that it should have been prepared by responsible persons of acknowledged skill in the treatment of disease.

Squarely on this foundation stands BENSON'S CAPCINE POROUS PLASTER. Endorsed by 5,000 physicians, pharmacists, druggists and chemists, it needs no further apology nor introduction. It is the one and only true and tried external application. Quacks of all kinds pay the Capcine the compliment of their dislike, as Satan is said to hate holy water.

Couldn't Speak Above A Whisper.

This was Captain Harding's experience after exposure in a violent storm off the Cape of Good Hope. Inflammation settled in his throat, and for a while it seemed as if he would die of diphtheria. As the captain never goes to sea without a supply of Perry Davis's Pain Killer, he knew just what to do. A dose of it gave immediate relief.

The Boston & Maine and Eastern Alliance.

There can be but one result of the meetings of the Eastern and Boston & Maine railroad stockholders, on Wednesday of next week. The proposed union secures to the Maine road a permanency in its dividends which its shareholders will be only too ready to welcome. With the Eastern, it is simply a question of how great a figure the vote will command, as a majority of the stock is in favor of the project for which every director in the board, save one, voted.

If these roads, with a capital and debt aggregating over thirty millions of dollars, shall conclude to join hands, bury the hatchet and operate conjointly, they will probably succeed in doing so. They will operate the roads,—legally if possible, but at all events they will operate,—in some mode advantageous to the combined property. This will be done under legal advice, probably under the best legal opinions afforded by the Suffolk bar; and as the penalty for disregarding the injunction of the Supreme court by a railway corporation in New Hampshire, when operated "under advice," is a fine of one dollar for each director, it is not difficult to foresee that these roads will doubtless be able to accomplish their purpose in one way or another.

Now let us see what is claimed as a public advantage in this co-operative plan. The Boston & Maine road is simply a union of detached portions of a line built at different periods. At one time, when the Eastern in New Hampshire was building its line to Portsmouth, it was suggested that the road at the Hussey (now Hayes) farm should keep on its straight line and go to Dover, with a branch to Portsmouth from the Plains. After reaching Portsmouth, if the Eastern had stuck to the sea coast line and gone direct to Portland, it would have, as the sequel proved, been much better; but a compromise or understanding was had by which the Portland, Saco & Portsmouth railroad was turned toward a spot afterward known as South Berwick junction, where the B. & M. met the P., S. & P., and on the same iron their cars and the Eastern's were drawn to Portland. The history of these lines since then is interesting, but not pertinent to the present article. The Boston & Maine directors, thinking that their road did not receive fair usage from the Eastern, which controlled the P. S. & P. R. R., built their line into Portland, thus duplicating over forty miles of road for protection of its business. The people of Maine welcomed this additional outlay within its borders as a gain to the wealth of the state, without stopping to think that an interest must be earned upon the expenditure which would come from the business of Maine and places beyond.

Now what is the result? The 9:00 A. M. and 12:30 P. M. trains from Boston, and the 8:45 A. M. and 1:00 P. M. trains from Portland, are duplicate trains, running over each road six days in the week. The costs of running these trains in Maine, where one engine, one set of train hands, and in some instances—save perhaps in the summer months—one set of cars could as well accommodate this through business, must be paid from some source. Then again as to freight. Competing lines may establish an agreed tariff, and perhaps adhere to the rates therein designated, but with commissions, rebates, time lost in the delay of discharging cars, and shippers know how to take advantage of these matters with parallel roads, consume much of the income.

The argument of the financiers who for thirty years have predicted the ultimate union of these roads, the usual result everywhere in similar cases, is that what can be saved by an economical, fair, judicious and honest conduct of the business without raising one iota of the rates for passengers or freights is that the people will be better accommodated by the union, and as far as the public generally are concerned, be used with more uniform justice than as at present.

To the saving in expense of running through trains will be added the economy of using the roads as an entire double track for freight trains, by running all outward through freight over one line and the inward freight over the other. It is contended that as far as Portsmouth is concerned, we shall be the gainer. The through trains of the Eastern will be run over the Portsmouth & Dover road, having a junction with the B. & M. at that point and passing over the B. & M. line to Portland, where of course there will be but one station, saving in that outlay alone from two to three thousand dollars per month.

There will probably be new accommodations from Portsmouth in the way of an early train eastward, leaving here in season to meet the train from Alton Bay at 7:45 A. M. This train will take passengers from the Dover & Winnepiseogee railroad and from the Portsmouth, Great Falls & Conway road, and from Dover, Great Falls, Salmon Falls, South Berwick and that region, at about eight o'clock in the morning, transporting such passengers east, affording increased facilities for visiting Saco, Biddeford and Portland, and returning the same day. This certainly would be an improved facility, for Portsmouth and Kittery people at least.

The theory of the unionists is, if the business of these roads in competition is now done at the cost of a large annual outlay, which might, by consolidation, be saved, and the cost of which of course is borne by the patrons of the roads, it will be for the advantage of the people and corporations doing business with each of these lines, that economy should succeed waste, and the saving thus benefit the patrons. As a business proposition, this of course can have but one aspect.

Again, it is urged that the Boston & Maine, with the Eastern leased will be bound to develope business on its line, and that the great outlay on Noble's island will be utilized in increased coal receipts for distribution on the line of the Dover & Winnepiseogee railroad, which will be connected with the Portsmouth & Dover road at Dover, and with the Portsmouth, Great Falls & Conway road at Great Falls. The question seems to become one of economy, and we have endeavored to ascertain as far as we have been able, without having even heard a word from a director in either corporation, what are the purposes, promises and prospects of the proposed plan.

She wants her body taken to Barre for burial. Her husband and daughter will not visit her, nor remove her body for burial.

Franklin E. Perham, of the senior class of Bowdoin college, has been fined $10 and costs for stealing a diploma and selling it to M. McMonagle of Ogdensburg, N. Y. The woman Kate Judd and the man Rounds, who escaped from the Newport, R. I., jail a week or more ago, were caught in that city on the 19th inst.

But still our latest information is that the union of the two roads will probably be accomplished, and nothing can prevent it. If present comprehensive plans succeed, the consent of the New Hampshire legislature can easily be secured. We are told that another extensive scheme of consolidation is to go with it, namely, the union of the Concord, the Northern, and the Boston, Concord & Montreal roads under one management. If that be so, it is easy to see that about all the railroad interests of the state will be solid for consolidation, and will help each other to bring it about, and such a power will find not much difficulty in carrying the legislature. Our Portsmouth neighbors may as well prepare for the transfer of pretty much all thro' traffic between Boston and Portland and farther east, from the Eastern to the Boston & Maine, as the latter will have the control and will do as seemeth it good.—Dover Democrat.

New Yorkers complain that lobsters are very high, costing twenty-four cents a pound by the barrel, and that they are of very mean quality at that. In Boston the price is about twelve cents a pound, the lobsters being generally small and poorly filled out, but there are enough of them to supply the market fairly.

A Big Streak of Luck for Mayville.

Charles D. Rigney, an industrious, worthy young gentleman, and Mrs. Henrietta Burns of Mayville, were so fortunate as to be the holders of one-fifth of ticket No. 57,012, in the February Louisiana State Lottery drawing, the number that won the capital prize. Mr. Rigney and Mrs. Burns are each of them richer by $7,500 than they were the day before the drawing. The money has been collected through the bank of Messrs. W. R. Rison & Co. This was our first investment of the kind made by either party. A fourth of a $2,000 prize was also won by a Huntsville party.—Huntsville (Ala.) Independent, Feb. 22.

SCROFULA.

A remedy that can destroy the germs of scrofula, and when once settled has the power to root it out, must be appreciated by those afflicted. The remarkable cures of young children and the more wonderful cures of those of middle age and late in life, as illustrated by our printed testimonials, prove HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA to be a reliable remedy, containing remedial agents which do positively cure scrofula and eradicate it from the blood.

FARMER, N. H., Jan. 21, 1879.

MESSRS. C. I. HOOD & CO., Lowell, Mass.: Gentlemen—For ten years previous to the early part of 1877 I had been a constant sufferer from scrofulous ulcers or sores, which had finally reduced me to a helpless condition, as described in my letter to you in September of that year. The continued excellent health which enables me to keep house for my aged father and do all my work, keeps alive my intense personal interest in Hood's SARSAPARILLA, and I cannot refrain from expressing my gratitude for the permanent cure this wonderful medicine effected in my case nearly two years ago, while living in Lowell, when all my physicians gave me up as being in an incurable condition. One thing before I close. I have recommended your Sarsaparilla to hundreds, and I think more than a thousand cases, and my faith in its invincibility in curing scrofula has become absolute by the wonderful cures it has effected aside from my own. I trust you will not be slow in making the merits of HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA known everywhere, for it is a duty you owe to mankind. With best wishes I remain very truly yours,

DOWNS' ELIXIR.

N. H. DOWNS' Vegetable Balsamic ELIXIR

For the cure of Consumption, Coughs, Colds, Catarrh, Croup, Asthma, Pleurisy, Hoarseness, Influenza, Spitting Blood, Bronchitis, and all diseases of the Throat, Throat, and Lungs. In all cases where this Elixir is used its efficacy is at once manifested, convincing the most incredulous that is not incurable, if properly attended to. At its commencement it is but a slight irritation of the membrane which covers the Lungs; then an inflamation, when the cough is at times dry, local fever, and the pulse more frequent, the cheeks flushed and chills more common. This Elixir in curing the above complaints, operates so as to remove all morbid irritations and inflamation from the lungs to the surface, and finally expel them from the system. It facilitates expectoration.

It heals the ulcerated surfaces and relieves the cough and makes the breathing easy. It supports the strength and at the same time reduces the fever. It is free from strong opiate and astringent articles, which are of so drying a nature as to be in great danger of destroying the patient; whereas this medicine never dries or stops the cough, but, by removing the CAUSE, consequently, when the cough is cured the patient is well. Send address for pamphlet giving full directions.

Price 35 cts., 50 cts., and $1.00 per bottle.

POLICE COURT--BATCHELDER, J.

TUESDAY, March 20th.

Mary Crowley, for drunkenness, was fined $8, costs being taxed at $5.76. This woman was picked up in Chapel street on the previous night, dead drunk; and the Times, in its police court record, remarks: "The CHRONICLE says she would have died before morning if the police had not discovered her. So it seems that she had to pay $8.76 for having her life saved by the city authorities." But she didn't have to pay anything; she went to Brentwood.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT.

[CLARK J.]

The court came in on Tuesday morning. There were but three actions on the docket, and as no counsel appeared in either suit they were continued, and the court at once adjourned. J. Horace Kent was sworn as deputy United States marshal.

In the Circuit court, in the case of Huntress vs. Epsom, the judge handed down an opinion upon the taxation of costs. The court allows as costs the expense paid by the defendant for carriage hire and car fare to and from the place of view. The court limits the docket fee of $20, disallowing the fee at the first trial, when the jury disagreed; and also disallows the sum paid for the jurors' entertainment, on the ground that this expenditure should have been borne by the jurors. Copeland & Edgerly for pliff.; W. L. Foster and T. J. Smith for deft.

GOSSIPS SAY

That E. P. Kimball, Esq., president of the First national bank, returned on Tuesday from a brief trip to the south and west.

That the railroad trains out of this city Thursday morning experienced much difficulty in getting headway, owing to the very slippery condition of the rails.

That a course of private assemblies is being held in the cavalry hall at the arsenal on South street.

That the discussion as to the propriety of abolishing the common council has revived.

That Sheriff Kent and City Marshal Entwistle on Tuesday afternoon raided the Wilson house—the famous "obstruction of the Vaughan street extension"—and found half a dozen north-end rangers and brazen Amazons there, most of them in a beastly state of intoxication.

That four of the party, viz., Abby Holmes, Nellie May, Michael Reagan, and Albert Fitzgerald alias Dixon, were taken to the station and locked up.

That the Wilson woman was ordered to vacate the ranche by one o'clock Wednesday, (the 21st,) or be taken to the lockup.

That the house itself will be torn down and moved off the line of the street within four days from this official visit.

That persons in from the country adjacent to Portsmouth on Tuesday reported the sleighing as having gone up.

That after the fish peddlers are stopped from blowing their horns and other street dealers from crying their wares, the bells should be taken off the bakers' carts, so that the morning naps of citizens may not be disturbed.

The death of Miss Charlotte Sheafe, which occurred recently at the residence of her sister, Mrs. John Hale Sheafe, in New York, recalls the fact that of this once large family in Portsmouth, this is the third member who has recently passed away, the deaths of William and John Fisher Sheafe having been previously announced in our columns. These, with the late Mrs. Joshua Winslow Peirce and the late Mrs. Jacob S. Pickering were the children of Ann Wentworth and William Sheafe. Ann Wentworth was the daughter of Thomas Wentworth, a graduate of Harvard college, and one of the wealthy and influential men of Portsmouth many years since. He built the Manning house in Gardner street, and was the son of Mark Hunking Wentworth, a celebrity of his time, who did much to add to the wealth and importance of Portsmouth a century ago.

The schooner Active, which has been lying at the wharf in the rear of Boynton's bottling establishment during the winter, is being fitted for sea.

It is said that the pedestrian Brillante, who walked against time in Franklin hall last Saturday evening, has only one competitor in this country for a fifteen-mile walk, and that his exhibition was the best thing of the kind ever given in this city. In Eastport, Me., he made fifteen miles in one hour, fifty-two minutes and forty-five seconds; and in Hallowell he walked sixteen miles in two hours, one minute and thirty seconds. Had his audience on Saturday evening been a good one he would have walked his fifteen miles within the time advertised.

The crew of the schooner J. & L. Bryan left her on Monday, and went to Boston.

The Tucker house, on the South road, has been raised, and another story will be added to it. The Jenness house adjoining is to be thoroughly repaired, and the old chimneys, which measure thirteen feet square at their foundations, are to be taken down and smaller ones built.

The schooner Olive Horwitz is on her way to this port from Baltimore, with 1000 tons of coal. Several other vessels of about the same tonnage will follow her.

It is estimated that the reduction of coal freights to take effect on the Concord & Portsmouth railroad April 1st, will save the people living on the line of the road $40,000 a year. The reduction of the rate from $1.20 to $1.05 a ton between this city and Manchester will result in the railroad receiving an even $1 for the freightage, as it has to pay the Eastern railroad five cents for every ton of material carried over its tracks, which have to be used in taking freightage from the wharf to the rails of the Concord & Portsmouth road.

The schooner Charles A. Briggs, Hammond master, which sailed from this port last week, bound for a coal port, when off Block island on the 17th inst. was in collison with the schooner Harold B. Cousins; the latter lost jibboom and head gear, and had her rail on port bow stove and anchor stock broken; the Briggs had her quarter damaged and boat smashed, and put into Fall River to procure another boat, proceeding the same day. The Briggs misstayed, and struck the Cousins stern foremost.

An announcement was placarded in one of the store windows in this city on Tuesday, "Last day"—yet we still live.

The schooner George L. Treadwell, once owned at this port but late of Baltimore, and which was sunk some weeks ago off the Wolf-trap rocks in Chesapeake bay, has been abandoned by the wreckers; the materials saved from her were sold in Norfolk, Va., March 15th. She was an unlucky craft from the first, and was twice wrecked before finally hitting the Wolf-trap.

There was another roller-skating entertainment in the town hall at Newington on Monday evening of this week; the attendance was not large, but those who did attend enjoyed it.

While James Haley was skylarking with another man on Saturday evening, in a saloon at the foot of State street, he was thrown in such a manner as to fracture a bone in one of his legs. He was taken to the Seamen's Home, where he now remains, and we understand a subscription is being made to aid him in his time of misfortune.

Mr. R. E. Rider, who for many years has been organist at the Catholic church in this city, will officiate in that capacity for the last time next Sunday.

About 4000 lbs. of fish arrived at this port on Monday and Tuesday. The fishing fleet is now reduced to about eight vessels.

WEST END, March 20th.

Mr. Editor; "Lone Fisherman" has my thanks for his effect in behalf of the poor venders of fruit, fish, etc., who in their labors are of so much real service to poor housewives who, like myself, have too little leisure to go down town to secure their supplies, and have come to look upon these people, not with the eyes of common councilmen, as vagrants and brawlers, but as worthy people seeking an honest livelihood, who are a benefit to the community. I do not believe I would have had one half the fruit I did have last summer, if it had not been for these same laborious venders. And how, pray, could I get a mackerel or any kind of a fish for breakfast, if I had to run down town for it? As to the noise, even it does grate a little upon the nerves of some, it certainly is very cheery to others, and serves to break the humdrum of existence at this part of the city. By all means give these people, buyers as well as sellers, a chance.

OLD HOUSEKEEPER.

The Boston Post says "Miss Norah Bartlett has had several advantageous offers of engagements for next season, but has not accepted any, as she contemplates going abroad to study."

The schooner G. W. Raitt, which has wintered at Call's wharf, inside of Noble's island bridge, is being fitted with a new rudder, having her windlass overhauled and receiving all other needed repairs, preparatory to starting in the brick-carrying trade; she will go up river in about a week, to load at Mathes' brickyard, Dover point, for Boston. Mr. Daniel Littlefield is doing the carpenter work, and Mr. James W. Raitt the blacksmithing, for the vessel.

Mr. James W. Ricker, the new collector of the city of Boston, was in this city for a few hours on Tuesday.

The people of York talk of endeavoring to so work on the feelings of the next Congress that an appropriation will be put in the river and harbor bill for the improvement of York harbor by the removal of some of the most dangerous obstructions.

The tug Ann came off the marine railway at Kittery on Tuesday forenoon, having been on long enough to have her bottom painted; she will be ready to start towing as soon as up-river navigation opens.

The feasibility of building a narrow gauge railway between York beach and Kittery Point is being seriously discussed by some of the more go-ahead people of York. It is said that such a road could be very cheaply constructed, and that as it would command a sea view throughout almost the whole distance it would be largely patronized in the summer season by beach visitors, excursion parties from inland towns, and others who desired a breath of sea air.

Easter sale and entertainment at Congress hall this (Wednesday) evening. A superb hanging lamp, beautiful vases, elegant steel engraving, quilts and other articles will be desposed of in a way novel and unobjectionable. Mr. Charles A. Hatch will appear in the entertainment. Supper from 6 to 8. Admission, adults 15 cts., children 10 cts.

The Government Chemist Analyzes two of the Leading Baking Powders, and what he finds them made of.

I have examined samples of "Cleveland's Superior Baking Powder" and "Royal Baking Powder," purchased by myself in this city, and I find they contain:

"Cleveland's Superior Baking Powder,"
Cream of Tartar,
Bicarbonate of Soda,
Flour.

Available carbonic acid gas 12.61 per cent, equivalent to 118.2 cubic inches of gas per oz. of Powder.

"Royal Baking Powder."
Cream of Tartar,
Bicarbonate of Soda,
Carbonate of Ammonia,
Tartaric Acid,
Starch.

Available carbonic acid gas 12.40 per cent, equivalent to 116.2 cubic inches of gas per oz. of Powder.

Ammonia gas 0.13 per cent, equivalent to 10.4 cubic inches per oz. of Powder.

NOTE.—The Tartaric acid was doubtless introduced as free acid, but subsequently combined with ammonia, and exists in the Powder as a Tartrate of Ammonia. E. G. LOVE, Ph. D.
NEW YORK, Jan'y 17th, 1881.

The above shows conclusively that "Cleveland's Superior" is a strictly pure Cream of Tartar Baking Powder. It has also been analyzed by Professor Johnson of Yale College; Dr. Genth of the University of Pennsylvania; President Morton of the Stevens Institute; Wm. M. Habirshaw, F. C. S., Analyst for the Chemical Trade of New York, and other eminent chemists, all of whom pronounce it absolutely pure and healthful.—Hall's Journal of Health for April, 1882.

SECRET!

SALICYLICA is known as a common-sense remedy, because it strikes directly at the cause of Rheumatism, Gout and Neuralgia, while so many so-called specifics and supposed panaceas only treat locally the effects.

In has been conceded by eminent scientists that outward applications, such as rubbing with oils, ointments, liniments, and soothing lotions will not eradicate these diseases which are the result of the poisoning of the blood with Uric Acid.

SALICYLICA works with marvelous effect on this acid, and so removes the disorder. It is now exclusively used by all celebrated physicians of America and Europe. Highest Medical Academy of Paris reports 95 per cent. cures in three days.

HEART DISEASE

IS YOUR HEART SOUND?

Many people think themselves sick and doctor for kidney or liver trouble, or dyspepsia, while if the truth were known, the real cause is at the heart.

The renowned Dr. Cheesbrough, startlingly says "one-third of my subjects show signs of heart disease." The heart weighs about five ounces, and yet man's twenty-eight pounds of blood passes through it once in a minute and a-half, resting not day or night! Surely this subject should have careful attention.

Dr. Graves a celebrated physician has prepared a specific for all heart troubles and kindred disorders. It is known as Dr. Graves' Heart Regulator and can be obtained at your druggists, $1. per bottle, six bottles for $5 by express. Send stamp for Dr. Graves' thorough and exhaustive treatise. (1)

The Hands.

Hands are divided into three different kinds: Those with round-pointed fingers, those with square tips, and those that are spade-shaped, with pods of flesh each side of the nail.

The first type, with the round pointed fingers, belongs to characters with perceptions extra sensitive, to very pious people, to contemplative minds, to the impulsive, and to all poets and artists, who have ideality as a prominent trait.

The second type, those that are square shaped, belongs to scientific, self contained characters, and to the class of professional men who are neither visionary nor altogether sordid.

The third type, those that are spade-shaped, with pods of flesh at the side of the nail, indicates people whose interests and instincts are mostly material, people who have a great genius for business, and who have a high appreciation of everything that pertains to bodily use and comfort.

Each finger, no matter what kind of a hand it is, has a joint representing each of these types. The division of the finger nearest the palm stands for the body, the middle division represents mind, and the highest joint spirit or soul.

If the top joint is longer than the others it denotes a character with too much imagination, great ideality, and of leaning toward the theoretical rather than the practical. When the middle joint of the finger is long, it promises a logical, calculating mind—a very common-sense kind of a person; and when the lowest joint is longest it indicates a nature that clings more to the luxuries than to the refinement of life, a mind that looks for utility before beauty If they are nearly alike, and especially if the length of the fingers equals the length of the palm, it indicates a well-balanced hand.

No molasses and water mixture, but a concentrated extract of the active medicinal properties of roots, barks, &c., is Hood's Sarsaparilla.

The autopsy on the body of Mrs. Carlton, of East Watertown, Mass., showed that her skull was terribly shattered, and marks of heavy blows were found upon the abdomen, probably made with the paying stone found near the body; these blows alone would have caused death, without the wounds in the head. Had she lived she would have given birth to a child in about three months.

Delicate Females.

The exactions of society, added to the cares of maternity and the household, have tested beyond endurance the frail constitutions which have been granted the majority of women. To combat this tendency to premature decline, no remedy in the world possesses the nourishing and strengthening properties of Malt Bitters. They enrich the blood, perfect digestion, stimulate the liver and kidneys, arrest ulcerative weaknesses, and purify and vitalize every function of the female system.

William H. Haverstick, a New York broker, was shot dead in an apartment house in that city on the 19th inst., by George W. Conkling, a United States surveyor on the government survey in Nevada. Conkling's sister, Mrs. Uhler, some time ago left her husband in the west, and has since lived with Haverstick; Conkling came on to endeavor to induce her to return, and this caused the quarrel.

No family dyes were ever so popular as the Diamond Dyes. They never fail. The black is far superior to logwood. The other colors are brilliant.

Levi Peavey of Dayton, Me., committed suicide March 18th by diving in a spring of water.

Catarrh of the Bladder

By a collision of the Glasgow express with a train from Edinburg, in London on the 19th inst., four persons were killed and many injured.

Liver, Kidney and Bright's Disease.

A medicine that destroys the germ or cause of Bright's disease, diabetes, kidney and liver complaints, and has power to root them out of the system, is above all price. Such a medicine is Hop Bitters, and positive proof of this can be found by one trial, or by asking your neighbors, who have been cured by it.

Five cars of a freight train on the Canadian Pacific railway went through a bridge near Calumet station, Ontario, March 19th; the train hands all escaped.

VARIOUS QUACKS.

Who--Each with his own Pet Scheme--

Cultivate the Field of Human Nature.

There have always been quacks:—legal quacks, theological quacks, scientific quacks and medical quacks. Some of them are bland, oily fellows who argue and smile the world into believing in their favorite bit of humbug. Others are pompous and pretentious parasites. But they make it pay. Men seem to love to be swindled, stipulating only that it shall be neatly done.

The dear public are equally liberal to the electric and magnetic fraud. This fellow is a genius in his line. He will put a magnetic belt around your waist, a magnetic necklace under your chin, or fit you out with an entire suit of magnetic clothes, warranted to serve the purpose of ordinary garments, and at the same time to cure all diseases, from whooping-cough to hasty consumption.

Most of these have no more electric or magnetic power about them than resides in wooden blankets or in girdles of sackcloth. Only when applied by an expert is electricity of the slightest use as a medicinal agent, and even then its value is grossly over-stated. What is the strongest possible presumptive evidence in favor of a particular remedy? Clearly that it should have been prepared by responsible persons of acknowledged skill in the treatment of disease.

Squarely on this foundation stands BENSON'S CAPCINE POROUS PLASTER. Endorsed by 5,000 physicians, pharmacists, druggists and chemists, it needs no further apology nor introduction. It is the one and only true and tried external application. Quacks of all kinds pay the Capcine the compliment of their dislike, as Satan is said to hate holy water.

Look in the middle of the plaster for the word "CAPCINE." Price 25 cents.

THE LOST CHILD.

A Fate Worse than Abduction

How Parents, by a Lack of Precaution and Care, are Responsible for the Death of their Children.

(Camden, Me., Herald.)

The moral and legal responsibility of parents, in the care of their children is, fortunately, attracting the serious attention of the better portion of the entire country. The many instances of child beating, oppression and other forms of cruelty, which have come to light, demand that something be done: and it is gratifying to know that the people are becoming thoroughly aroused. Whether the cruelty be in the form of physical violence or physical neglect matters not —the principle in both cases is the same. The man or woman who neglects his or her own health may be pardoned, as the consequences fall upon the individual alone: but the parent or guardian who permits the inroads of disease upon the innocent ones dependent upon him for protection, is criminally liable in the sight of God, however he may appear in the eyes of men. There are, however, parents who intend to care for their children, but, who through carelessness or the urgency of other duties, permit them to become the innocent victims of disease. Such parents may be guiltless of intentional wrong, but the disastrous results upon their children are just as great.

These are truths which must be manifest to every worthy parent and especially in a vicinity where the unknown effects of the atmosphere, the water and the general tendency to malaria are so great. There are many families in this locality who have been called upon to mourn untimely losses, even when the greatest care was exercised; but the experience of one only will be given: It is that of the late W. O. Thomas. The children were all most promising, but for some unexplained reason their health and strength seemed to gradually lessen until their friends feared they were the victims of consumption. One by one, they sickened and died until three had departed and two of the surviving brothers were also taken ill. Their names were Hermon and Edward. Hermon, however, seemed the stronger of the two: and, while his younger brother was confined to the house constantly, and to his bed much of the time, Hermon was able to be about but in so weak a condition that he had no desire to play. Eddie's symptoms were terrible! He found difficulty in retaining food upon his stomach, was restless and irritable, and out of his head frequently. At various times three different physicians visited him; and each one told his friends he could not live. He finally got so low that death was only considered a matter of a few days. At that critical time his elder brothers, aroused almost to the pitch of desperation by the three deaths that had so recently occurred, and the other one staring them in the face, resolved to take the case into their own hands. They accordingly did so, and secured a remedy that was then being universally used, and began giving it to him. Its effect at first was slight, but any improvement was considered a good symptom. By degrees his strength returned; he was able to eat with relish, then walk about the house; and finally he regained complete health and strength. The boy was so rejoiced over his recovery that, accompanied by the editor of this paper, he went before Justice Charles K. Miller and made oath to the facts of his sickness as above related, and that he was restored to perfect health by the use of Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Cure.

Now, Edward Thomas' parents, while they lived, undoubtedly provided faithfully for the wants of all their children: and yet the seeds of disease had taken deep root. Their care in one direction had been counteracted by unknown carelessness in another. Their love was sincere, but wholly misdirected. They should have known that children are just as liable to kidney and liver diseases as grown up people; and that the fatality of Bright's disease of the kidneys is just as great among little children as with adults. This is a serious subject. Hereditary traits: the after consequences of measles and scarlet fever, diphtheria and the passing troubles which so easily become chronic, all demand the greatest care and caution. No case of cholera infantum, measles, scarlatina, or diphtheria was ever virulent while the child's kidneys and liver were healthy. It would simply be an impossibility. These important organs of the body are just forming within the child and growing with its growth; and they can be trained to strength and health as readily as the little mind can be trained to truth and uprightness.

The importance of carefully watching the slightest troubles of the child, and especially those affecting the kidneys and liver, cannot be too strongly emphasized. Children respond so readily to the proper remedies and are so sensitive to disease, that it is a sin to deprive them of one at the risk of incurring the other. By a judicious treatment those essential organs can be developed so that a strong constitution, able to resist the inroads of disease through coming years, shall be the result.

Couldn't Speak Above A Whisper.

This was Captain Harding's experience after exposure in a violent storm off the Cape of Good Hope. Inflammation settled in his throat, and for a while it seemed as if he would die of diphtheria. As the captain never goes to sea without a supply of Perry Davis's Pain Killer, he knew just what to do. A dose of it gave immediate relief.

The New Jersey Fire Insurance company of Newark has decided to retire from business.

"G. O. Taylor Old Bourbon" whiskey was introduced by Chester H. Graves & Sons six years ago, when it was approved by S. Dana Hayes, state assayer, Massachusetts. It at once established a reputation as a perfectly pure whiskey, and we learn it has just received a fresh endorsement from the present state assayer of Massachusetts. Leading druggists and grocers sell it.

SPRING MATERIALS.

At the basis lie a variety of light wools, such as sheer diagonals, cassimirs, veilings, thick and thin, while more dressy styles are wrought with open mesh. Grenadines are extremely handsome, being heavily covered with rich brocaded designs; summer silks are in stylish gingham patterns or in small and more familiar checks, and distinguished costumes will be made of plain wools united with figured wools, which show geometrical blocks and circles. Transparent cottons are bestrewn with silken figures in contrasting colors; fine cottons are in small checks combined with embroidery or plain material to match, and with both we find embroidery quite a feature. Much of this embroidery is in applique, and it is safe to predict something of an embroidered summer. Cashmeres are heavily imported this season, and satins are again seen; yet are scarcely so safe a choice as gros grain silks, among which the cachemire Marguerite is especially worthy of notice, since it does not turn gray, and being made in Genoa of the soft Italian silk, is not liable to crack. Now, when the natural query arises as to how these goods should be made up, I can do no better than refer you to Lord & Taylor's catalogue, sent free on application, which gives fine illustrations not only in this but in all departments of dress, while in connection with each is a carefully prepared fashion article.

MILLINERY.

The perpetual flatness and closeness of winter capotes will be relieved by bonnets on the capote order, but larger, higher, and often showing either a garland of flowers about the face, or those frillings which will be a feature in new millinery. Already, even in velvet, we see a few of them, and any prophet may prophesy a successful summer's campaign. Recall, if you can, an antique cap, such as your grandmother or great-grandmother might have worn. These bonnets befrilled are almost exact reproductions, a band or double band of ribbon passing around and apparently binding the whole thing together. Straws will be befrilled with lace, or we shall have entire bonnets of lace and other light materials. Nor must the new "cockscomb bows" be forgotten, for they are a veritable novelty. Made of narrow satin ribbon, with ends sawed in imitation of a rooster's comb and set on top of the bonnet, where with rooster-like effect they will flourish. Poke bonnets will be quite as fashionable as the larger capotes just mentioned, and for them likewise the cockscomb bow, or a bunch of flowers just in front, will be popular. Velvet ribbon is stylish, but will not be light enough for these peculiar bows, which are composed of satin ribbon from an inch to two inches in width. Immense numbers of straws colored to match costumes are imported, but there are gilt, silver or bronze straws, or more quiet styles, such as Milan braids, English split straws or chips. Hats are both narrow and broad brimmed, trimmed in any way to suit the fancy, and oftener trimmed with flowers than feathers. Small flowers massed in bunches or prolonged in garlands will frequently take the place of frillings about the face, although by no means so safe a choice, because frills are becoming to everybody, while it is not everyone who can wear flowers.

PARASOLS.

The lace cover is a marked and most pleasing feature. Either black or white, and placed over a plain silk or satin parasol of the same or contrasting color. Less expensive parasols are of plain silk or satin, without the lace cover, with linings set under the ribs, or without linings, and with or without an edging of white Spanish lace. Sizes are large, and ten ribs a fashionable number. Handles are very pronounced, showing birds' or animals' heads, shepherds' crooks, etc., noticeably akin to the heads of feminine walking sticks, which are destined to a great run this summer. They are much longer than the masculine walking stick, often finished in imitation of a shepherd's crook, and tied with a cord passing several times around and ended by tassels.

TRIMMINGS.

Buttons are less of buttons than formerly, and now chiefly used for the purpose of buttoning only; not as hitherto, for trimmings. Even for their legitimate office of fastenings, they are frequently replaced by passementerie frogs and cords, and here quite favorite designs are palm leaves, or oblong shaped ornaments. A unique idea to fasten the neck of a dress, is a clasp with two animal heads set in a metal frame, and skirt draperies are also stylishly caught by one or more as convenient. If buttons are less lavishly used than of yore, however, the variety of material is as great as ever, yet just now, great preference is given to hammered metal. Embroidery is very prominent as a finish, and much favor is shown towards applique of something different from the dress, set in soutache braid, velvet on cashmere, etc. Of material we find box plaits, flounces and facings, largely employed; velvet ribbon is very fashionable in rows, and vies with gros grain ribbon in bows.

The escape of N. L. Dukes from punishment for the brutal murder of Capt. Nutt, in the face of overwhelming evidence, is explained on the ground that Dukes is a highly popular democratic politician, and his counsel managed to get a jury composed wholly of democrats. A despatch of March 16th from Uniontown, Pa., was as follows: "Nicholas L. Dukes, the murderer of Capt. Nutt, is at his mother's home in German township. A reporter visited him this afternoon, to whom he expressed great satisfaction at the verdict. He stated that he contemplates claiming his seat in the state legislature. Jacob A. Amalong, one of the jurors in the Dukes trial, was assaulted on the streets of Belle Vernon this evening, and was so badly beaten that his life is despaired of."

In February, 1882, the dry goods store of Edward Malley of New Haven, Conn., father of Walter Malley and an uncle of James Malley, the notorious defendants in the Jennie Cramer murder case, was burned. The insurance on the premises amounted to $140,000, and the loss was estimated at $200,000. The insurance companies, with few exceptions, refused to pay the losses, and evinced a determination to resist the payment of the claims, as they believe they were justified in so doing. The companies, thirty in number, have been brought into court by Malley, and their cases set for trial.

SCROFULA.

A remedy that can destroy the germs of scrofula, and when once settled has the power to root it out, must be appreciated by those afflicted. The remarkable cures of young children and the more wonderful cures of those of middle age and late in life, as illustrated by our printed testimonials, prove HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA to be a reliable remedy, containing remedial agents which do positively cure scrofula and eradicate it from the blood.

WARNER, N. H., Jan. 21, 1879.

MESSRS. C. I. HOOD & Co., Lowell, Mass.: Gentlemen—For ten years previous to the early part of 1877 I had been a constant sufferer from scrofulous ulcers or sores, which had greatly reduced me to a helpless condition, as described in my letter to you in September of that year. The continued excellent health which enables me to keep house for my aged father and to enjoy life, keeps alive my intense personal interest in HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA, and I cannot refrain from expressing my gratitude for the permanent cure this wonderful medicine effected in my case nearly two years ago, while living in Lowell, when all my physicians gave me up as being in an incurable condition. One thing believe I close. I have recommended your Sarsaparilla to hundreds, and I think more than a thousand cases, and my faith in its invincibility in curing scrofula has become absolute by the wonderful cures it has effected aside from my own. I trust you will not be slow in making the merits of HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA known everywhere, for it is a duty you owe to mankind. With best wishes I remain very truly yours,

CONSUMPTION

is not incurable, if properly attended to. At its commencement it is but a slight irritation of the membrane which covers the Lungs; then an inflamation, when the cough is rather dry, local fever, and the pulse more frequent; the cheeks flushed and chills more common. This Elixir in curing the above complaints, operates so as to remove all morbid irritations and inflamation from the lungs to the surface, and finally expel them from the system. It facilitates expectoration.

It heals the ulcerated surfaces and relieves the cough and makes the breathing easy. It supports the strength and at the same time reduces the fever. It is free from strong opiate and astringent articles, which are of so drying a nature as to be in great danger of destroying the patient; whereas this medicine never dries or stops the cough, but, by removing the cause, consequently, when the cough is cured the patient is well. Send address for pamphlet giving full directions, free.

Price 35 cts., 50 cts., and $1.00 per bottle.

That the city fathers received invitations to attend the colored people's ball in the south wardroom this evening.

THE RAILROAD CONSOLIDATION.

The Bangor (Me.) Commercial promulgates certain arguments against consolidating the Boston & Maine and Eastern railroads, and shows why the union is desired by the Boston & Maine railroad for the reason that that road, "after last year's dividend of eight per cent, as per the Massachusetts railroad commissioners' report, had a surplus of only $9515.-42, and had it not been for the $46,722.53 received from the Eastern railroad for excess of pool earnings, would only have paid a dividend of 7 3-10 per cent. The average dividend paid by the Boston & Maine for the last five years has been 6 9-10 per cent. Now, by the proposed consolidation, the stockholders are to have at once nine per cent, and an additional one per cent before the Eastern stock receives any part of the earnings as dividends. The Eastern has one per cent, but this is set apart for a sinking fund. The bonded debt of the Eastern is $14,000,000, and the Eastern stock is to receive no dividends until this debt is reduced to $10,000,000. From this showing it looks as if it will be a long time under the present plan of consolidation before the Eastern will be a dividend-paying stock. Many of our best business men believe that if the present scheme is carried out the stock of the Boston & Maine will rule at higher prices, and that as soon as all of the facts are learned by investors the Eastern stock will decline in price. The Eastern, for the last five months, in addition to the extra interest paid of $83,000, shows a net gain of something over $100,000. This large increase of net earnings has been brought about by a decrease of operating expenses and an increase of business. Taking this as a basis, it would seem that the Eastern would be able at once to add $100,000 a year to the sinking fund, and if so, its stock would be dividend-paying sooner without than with consolidation under the present plan."

A "WHOLESOME RULE" DISREGARDED.

Some time ago, during the excitement over the stopping of the nine o'clock bell, was copied from the Manchester Mirror a satirical but amusing article on the curfew question. A week or two later the Journal (which also had copied "Put's" article) published a communication from "Son of Portsmouth," commencing as follows:

MR. Editor: Of late some of our local papers, and others in different sections of the state, have published sundry articles about the decay of our city. It seems to me that it would be more to the credit of our local papers if, in their columns, they would endeavor to inform the public how much our city has improved and enlarged in its area during the past forty years.

This communication was introduced by the Journal with a preface in which it said:

We often wonder if we are not all a set of idiotic ninnies to encourage and abet the prevailing disposition to look at our good city through the bluest kind of blue goggles. We give as our candid opinion that such vampires as the writer of the article in the Manchester Mirror and others, who are doing their best with facile pens to write down the character and progress of Portsmouth, are deserving the whipping post instead of the good natured giggle with which their ugly thrusts are received. It is not becoming Portsmouth people to stand and give tacit assent, if not even decided affirmation, to the sayings and writings of those who wish to injure us.

This introduction was copied by the Times, which proceeded to comment thereon as follows:

The Journal now expresses just the opinion we entertained of the Mirror's caricature at the time it was copied into the CHRONICLE, the GAZETTE and the Journal. We did not think it becoming in Portsmouth papers to copy such "ugly thrusts" at our city and its people, and thereby give a "tacit assent" or "even decided affirmation to the sayings and writings of those who wish to injure us." But our neighbors did so. * * We agree with the Journal's correspondent that it is more profitable to hold up the bright side than to be forever crying down our city and caricaturing its people; and we are not aware that we have departed from this wholesome rule in the conduct of our paper.

On the 16th inst. the Times, having apparently mislaid its "wholesome rule" about "holding up the bright side," gave to the world a piece of information implying that the city had so far retrograded that it was proposed to abandon the present form of government in the hope of saving $10,000 annually! It said:

We understand that a petition is to be circulated asking that the city charter may be given up. The projectors of the scheme claim that $10,000 can be saved annually thereby.

Just how the Times measures the publication of such a statement as the foregoing, with its "wholesome rule" to say nothing calculated to injure the city's reputation, we do not know; but we are certain that nothing could be more injurious to the city's credit than to have it believed in other places that there was any thought of going back to a town government, or any need of doing so in order to save so small a sum as that mentioned. The Boston Post noticed the statement, and remarks:

The Portsmouth, N. H., Times says a petition will be circulated among the taxpayers of that city, praying the legislature to annul the city charter and remand the community to the old-fashioned town government. It is doubtful if the prayer of these petitioners would be granted right away, but there are, in our small New England cities, many people who sympathize with them. The villagers at Laconia and Lake Village acted wisely the other day when they sat down upon the proposition to petition for a city charter. A community of from 5,000 to 10,000 people can be more cheaply and just as well cared for under the town system of government. Such a community has no need of a mayor, aldermen, councilmen, and the score of other officials which it is thought necessary for every little city to have. Portsmouth is a very ancient city, and a wealthy one. It can afford to pay for the luxury of a large retinue of public servants.

We assure our Boston contemporary that there is no more thought among our tax-payers of going back to a town government, than there is in the Post office of giving up its daily edition and confining it to a weekly issue. Portsmouth is not a large city, but it is a seaport; its citizens appreciate the difference between the ordinarily prompt and efficient government it enjoys under a city charter, and the feeble government—or lack of government—it formerly "enjoyed" as a town; and no person unless of the Wiggins variety would think of circulating any such petition as the Times speaks of, or of getting reputable signers to it if it was circulated.

Work was this week commenced at clearing out the store on Market street formerly occupied by D. J. Lynch, preparatory to its being rebuilt.

The shoe factory shut down on Wednesday, the 21st inst., in consequence of the giving out of the boiler, necessitating repairs which it was supposed would take several days to accomplish.

A valuable locket presented to Pat Rooney by the members of his company, and lost by him in this city on the 19th inst., was found by Mr. Henry O. Batten, assistant janitor at Music hall, who delivered it to Mr. Rooney at the Eastern railroad station on the 21st, as he passed through the city on his way to Gloucester with his troupe. Mr. Batten received $5 as a reward.

The crew of the schooner G. W. Raitt has been made up for a start at the season's work, as follows: Thomas Coleman, master; Wm. Brownling of Dover, mate; Eddie Magraw of Dover and Wm. H. Clark of Portsmouth, seamen: Frank Place of Dover, cook.

At the chapel on Middle street, on the evening of the 20th inst., Miss Mathes explained views in Rome, Naples, Venice and other parts of Italy, exhibited by Mr. McIntire with the stereoptican. The entertainment was in aid of the Children's Rogers mission circle.

There was a large attendance at the Easter sale, supper and dramatic entertainment in Congress hall on Wednesday evening of this week, and its patrons were greatly pleased, the Osgood dramatic club contributing largely to the interest of the occasion. By special request the entertainment will be repeated, with a change of programme, this evening.

One of the carpenters employed in repairing the old Cushing wharf had a foot badly jammed on the 21st inst. through a pile rolling upon it.

The Government Chemist Analyizes two of the Leading Baking Powders, and what he finds them made of.

I have examined samples of "Cleveland's Superior Baking Powder" and "Royal Baking Powder," purchased by myself in this city, and I find they contain:

"Cleveland's Superior Baking Powder."
Cream of Tartar,
Bicarbonate of Soda,
Flour

Available carbonic acid gas 12.61 per cent, equivalent to 118.2 cubic inches of gas per oz. of Powder.

"Royal Baking Powder."
Cream of Tartar,
Bicarbonate of Soda,
Carbonate of Ammonia,
Tartaric Acid,
Starch.

Available carbonic acid gas 12.40 per cent, equivalent to 116.2 cubic inches of gas per oz. of Powder.

Ammonia gas 0.43 per cent, equivalent to 10.4 cubic inches per oz. of Powder.

NOTE.—The Tartaric acid was doubtless introduced as free acid, but subsequently combined with ammonia, and exists in the Powder as a Tartrate of Ammonia. E. G. LOVE, Ph. D.
NEW YORK, Jan'y 17th, 1881.

The above shows conclusively that "Cleveland's Superior" is a strictly pure Cream of Tartar Baking Powder. It has also been analyzed by Professor Johnson of Yale College; Dr. Genth of the University of Pennsylvania; President Morton of the Stevens Institute; Wm. M. Habirshaw, F. C. S., Analyst for the Chemical Trade of New York, and other eminent chemists, all of whom pronounce it absolutely pure and healthful.—Hall's Journal of Health for April, 1882.

SECRET!

SALICYLICA is known as a common-sense remedy, because it strikes directly at the cause of Rheumatism, Gout and Neuralgia, while so many so-called specifics and supposed panaceas only treat locally the effects.

It has been conceded by eminent scientists that outward applications, such as rubbing with oils, ointments, liniments, and soothing lotions will not eradicate these diseases which are the result of the poisoning of the blood with Uric Acid.

SALICYLICA works with marvelous effect on this acid, and so removes the disorder. It is now exclusively used by all celebrated physicians of America and Europe. Highest Medical Academy of Paris reports 95 per cent. cures in three days.

HEART DISEASE

IS YOUR HEART SOUND?

Many people think themselves sick and doctor for Kidney or liver troubles, or dyspepsia, while if the truth were known, the real cause is the heart.

The renowned Dr. Clendinning, startingly says "one-third of my subjects show signs of heart disease."

The heart weighs about nine ounces, and yet man's twenty-eight pounds of blood passes through it once in a minute and a-half, resting not day or night! Surely this subject should have careful attention.

Dr. Graves a celebrated physician has prepared a specific for all heart trouble and kindred disorders. It is known as Dr. Graves' Heart Regulator and can be obtained at your druggists, $1. per bottle, six bottles for $5 by express. Send stamp for Dr. Graves' thoughtful and exhaustive treatise. (1)

Beware of Swindlers.

We have exposed during the last year, many swindlers who advertise under the name of medicine, vile compounds which only increase human suffering. To all who need a pure medicine and blood purifier, we can honestly recommend Sulphur Bitters.—Editor Sun.

At Waterbury, Conn., on Sunday, March 18th, Father Walsh introduced Patrick Egan to a large audience as the "little man who made the British lion tremble," whereat there was great applause.

Rev. Robert Scott, East Hebron, Penobscot Co. Me., writes: "I am a strong believer in the Wheat Bitters, being fully satisfied from experience of their virtues."

Carl Schurz sent a pair of $3.50 fowls to his residence for his Sunday dinner, but a thief got away with them before they were cooked. Then Mr. Schurz turned around and cooked the thief's goose in the police court.

Mrs. S. E. Wing of Hampden, Me., writes: "I have used several bottles of your Wheat Bitters and think them an excellent remedy."

The Gloucester (Mass.) Temperance Union propose to erect a building to contain a hall for temperance and other meetings, a free reading room, and rooms for other social purposes, designed to improve the morals of the fishermen of that port. The expense of the building will be paid by subscription, and aid is invited from all the towns along shore for this worthy and commendable object.

Mrs. I. S. Livingston, of Contoocook, N. H. writes: "I have used your Wheat Bitters and highly recommend them to all."

A photograph of Jessie Ace, the Welsh heroine, was sent to Queen Victoria by royal request. Jessie is a daughter of the keeper of the Mumbles lighthouse, and she saved the lives of two Prussian seamen during the gale on Jan. 27th, a storm so terrible that the life-boat from Mumbles was wrecked and four of its crew perished.

Rev. Melville Smith, of the Second Presbyterian church of Newburyport, has caused the arrest of four men connected with what is called the "Jesse James combination," on a charge of posting immoral papers and pictures in public places, and having such in possession. The pictures alluded to are the show bills of the company, which tend to make a great hero of the cut-throat thief Jesse James. It is to be hoped the reverend gentlemen will manage to get the fellows all hung.

How my throat hurts! Then why don't you use Hale's Honey of Horehound and Tar? Pike's Toothache Drops cure in one minute. Colden's Liquid Beef Tonic will cure indigestion, and perpetuate bodily vigor; no other. Of druggists.

In the supreme court in Newport, R. I., the grand jury found an indictment for arson and one for grand larceny against Katie Judd, and an indictment for burglary in the daytime, and another for grand larceny, against George Rounds. The grand jury also had these culprits before it, and began the investigation as to their place and manner of life during ten days of hiding, after their escape from jail.

Water in the Heart-case.

This is a common attendant of general dropsy. The heart appears, to the patient, to float; the pulse is frequent and irregular. Dr. Graves' Heart Regulator will not only bring relief, but will cure this and all other forms of heart disease.

Mrs. Etta G. Carlton's life was insured for $5000 in favor of her husband, who is a bartender in Casey's saloon on Cambridge street, Boston, a place of rather low order. A depraved woman called Ida Raymond, with whom Carleton is known to have been intimate, was arrested on the 20th inst. on suspicion that she might know something of the murder. The town of Watertown has offered a reward of $500, the largest sum allowed by law, for the discovery of the assassin.

If you fail to receive benefit from other preparations, try Hood's Sarsaparilla; it's the strongest, the purest, the best, the cheapest.

A long-standing feud between Walter Sherman and George B. Hazard, two prominent and wealthy citizens of Newport, R. I., over the dividing line of their neighboring estates, culminated Tuesday morning, the 20th inst., in the arrest of Hazard for assault committed on the highway. Hazard was fined $10 and costs, was released, and renewed his attack on the fence amid great excitement.

Liver, Kidney and Bright's Disease.

A medicine that destroys the germ or cause of Bright's disease, diabetes, kidney and liver complaints, and has power to root them out of the system, is above all price. Such a medicine is Hop Bitters, and positive proof of this can be found by one trial, or by asking your neighbors, who have been cured by it.

During an altercation in a store at Machias, Me., on the evening of the 19th inst., John Ramsdell of York, a seafaring man, was severely wounded by James Trim of Machias, who stabbed him in the abdomen with a jackknife. Trim fled, and Ramsdell was taken to the marine hospital.

Nature.

There have always been quacks:—legal quacks, theological quacks, scientific quacks and medical quacks. Some of them are bland, oily fellows who argue and smile the world into believing in their favorite bit of humbug. Others are pompous and pretentious parasites. But they make it pay. Men seem to love to be swindled, adulating only that which is all be neatly done.

The dear public are equally liberal to the electric and magnetic fraud. This fellow is a genius in his line. He will put a magnetic belt around your waist, a magnetic necklace under your chin, or fit you out with an entire suit of magnetic clothes, warranted to serve the purpose of ordinary garments, and at the same time to cure all diseases, from whooping-cough to hasty consumption.

Most of these have no more electric or magnetic power about them than resides in wooden blankets or in girdles of sackcloth. Only when applied by an expert is electricity of the slightest use as a medicinal agent, and even then its value is grossly over-stated. What is the strongest possible presumptive evidence in favor of a particular remedy? Clearly that it should have been prepared by responsible persons of acknowledged skill in the treatment of disease.

Squarely on this foundation stands BENSON'S CAPCINE POROUS PLASTER. Endorsed by 5,000 physicians, pharmacists, druggists and chemists, it needs no further apology nor introduction. It is the one and only true and tried external application. Quacks of all kinds pay the Capcine the compliment of their dislike, as Satan is said to hate holy water.

A Strange History.

Ex-Gov. Sprague's new wife, says the Cleveland Plain Dealer, is the daughter of a poor shoemaker, and, like her husband, was separated by divorce from her first conjugal partner. Here we have a good illustration of the ups and downs of life. Between the meeting of Gov. Sprague and the lovely daughter of Salmon P. Chase, at the Angier house in Cleveland twenty-three years ago, and this second marriage, runs a sad story of incompatibility and misfortune. Who among those privileged to meet and observe that young couple in Cleveland, and who marked their subsequent marriage amid so much of beauty and promise, imagined it was to end in misery and unsavory notoriety? Not one. The 16th of September, 1860, was the greatest gala day Cleveland has ever witnessed, and the central figures in its festivities were Kate Chase and Rhode Island's young and knightly governor. Years passed on. There were a palace home, beautiful children, brilliant and aristocratic surroundings, and what promised to be a perennial shower of happiness and prosperity. Then the scene was reversed. Domestic jealousies and quarrels; disgraceful reports, though believed to be unfounded so far as the fair wife was concerned; bankruptcy, a palace in ruins, wife and children fleeing from home, a divorce, and now this second and humbler wedding. Whether there is to be a restoration of the Sprague seat to something of its old glory we are unable to say. It is of some interest to recall that the first scene of "this strange, eventful history" was laid in Cleveland.

A western editor has spent six years writing a book entitled, "How to test glue." An easy subject to stick to; but in the preface he says however he knows no better remedy for coughs and colds produced by sedentary habits, than Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup.

The 220 girls who were announced as having sailed from Limerick, Ireland, arrived at Nashua on the 21st inst., all well. They will be employed in the cotton mills. They were cordially received, and provided with good homes and boarding places.

Catarrh.

The remarkable results in a disease so universal and with such a variety of characteristics as catarrh, prove how effectually Hood's Sarsaparilla, acting through the blood, reaches every part of the human system. A medicine, like anything else, can be fairly judged only by its results. We point with pride to the glorious record Hood's Sarsaparilla has entered upon the hearts of thousands of people it has cured of catarrh.

Rev. Dr. Wild of Toronto, Ont., succeeded in filling his church Sunday evening, March 18th, by announcing previously that Mrs. Langtry would be present. The Lily, however, disappointed the reverend gentleman and the audience.

"Trying to do business without advertising," remarks an exchange, "is like winking at a girl in the dark. You may know what you are doing but nobody else does." Trying to cure catarrh by the use of snuffs and irritating liquid injections is the height of folly also. The disease will never be cured by such treatment. Moreover, the delicate lining membranes of the nasal organs will, sooner or later, become inflamed and diseased by such irritants. Ely's Cream Balm is not a snuff or liquid, and is easily applied. It's effects are pleasant, rapid and thorough. No case of catarrh or cold in the head can withstand its effects. "I could scarcely speak," says J. O. Tichenor, dealer in boots and shoes, Elizabeth, N. J., "It was almost impossible to breathe through my nostrils, on account of catarrh. Ely's Cream Balm cured me in a short time." All druggists sell it at fifty cents.

The jury of inquest into the death of Mary Barry, a domestic burned at Newport, R. I., added to their verdict of death by fire that in their opinion there was too much carelessness in placing furnaces in that city.

A YOUNG OLD LADY.

"Yes, Sir! I'm Younger than any of my Children now," said Mrs. Sarah M. Robinson, of 61 William St., New Haven, Conn.—We read about this kind of Noble Ladies, but Seldom See them in Society.

"Yes, sir; I'm younger than any of my children now. I keep up with the times, I read the papers, applaud the victories of old Yale, and don't grow old," were the words of Mrs. Robinson to your reporter when he called at her home. Mrs. Robinson is one of the earnest, go-ahead sort of aged ladies, of whom you read, but whom you so rarely find in modern society. "I've had my share of trouble," she said, "for all my life I've been a sufferer from erysipelas. From this has resulted diseased stomach and inaction of the digestive organs. I've been troubled with dyspepsia, and have had such a weakness of the stomach it has seemed as if I needed something artificial and strengthening. I attribute this to erysipelas, which is constitutional with me. I've been under the physician's care a great deal during my life, but I never received any permanent benefit I think until I began taking Dr. Kennedy's FAVORITE REMEDY, which has proved a perfect restorative to my constitution. My health is better now than it has been for a long time. I consider Dr. Kennedy's FAVORITE REMEDY an excellent medicine. It is used extensively in this city. I keep it as a family medicine, and rely upon it for I know of the good results of using it."

Your reporter I. ft Mrs. Robinson rejoicing in health and renewed youth, and bestowing merited praise on that which is the source of happiness to thousands, viz: Dr. Kennedy's FAVORITE REMEDY. Ask your druggist for it. Kennedy's FAVORITE REMEDY has become a household word. Every body, sooner or later, gets sick; and sickness is both wearisome and costly. FAVORITE REMEDY stays it at this point. It is not expensive and it is efficient. For all diseases of the Blood, Bilious Disorders, Kidney Complaints, Constipation, and the aches and ills which make the domestic life of women a cross so hard to bear.

Couldn't Speak Above A Whisper.

This was Captain Harding's experience after exposure in a violent storm off the Cape of Good Hope. Inflammation settled in his throat, and for a while it seemed as if he would die of diphtheria. As the captain never goes to sea without a supply of Perry Davis's Pain Killer, he knew just what to do. A dose of it gave immediate relief.

Eight Hours a Day's Work.

Perhaps some of the unemployed, as are seen the toil-worn mechanics and laborers returning from the navy yard, after eight hours devotion to public labor, may envy the men for whose welfare a kind and considerate government has laws abridging the hours of toil.

But "all that glitters is not gold." The present able head of the navy was many years ago, we are told, professionally employed by a wealthy and powerful contractor for building iron ships, and even now has great respect for the opinion of his quondam client. The latter is shrewd, potent and all permeating in his efforts to do the work heretofore performed upon navy yards, in his private ship-yards. It may be that by some indirect process he has managed to have the ingenuous and unsuspecting secretary filled with the idea of committing the administration to the eight-hour-law policy, so far as navy yard employees are concerned.

Result, increased costs of repairs and construction in government dock-yards, big argument in favor of having work done by contractors, — further results, navy yards gone to seed, contractors have their own prices for building and repairing ships, and large extra bills succeeding in an almost unlimited extent. It is said that Mr. Chandler had much difficulty in persuading the president to lose his head upon this subject, but has at last succeeded.

Politics in Rhode Island.

Certain politicians in Rhode Island who are impatient of remaining among the "outs," seek to copy the result of last fall in Massachusetts, by a revolution that shall wrest the governorship from the republicans and pass it over—not to the democrats, but to poise it in the air for future purposes. To accomplish this result, Wm. Sprague, formerly a governor and United States senator, but of late years divorced from his wife, his principles, his high estate, and with ideas upon the liquor question sufficiently satisfactory to the handful of democracy in the Providence plantations, is to be used to bring about a change. To aid in the result Mr. Benj. F. Butler, the de jure governor of Massachusetts, will as soon as he can be spared from his professional duties as a lawyer engaged in defending persons indicted by the grand jury of the United States Circuit court in his own commonwealth, take a brief leave of absence to cross the line and tell the honest voters of Rhode Island how much better it would be to have a man like Sprague, who cannot successfully manage his own affairs, or keep from waste the property given him by his ancestors, care for the interest of the state, than it would be to have some republican chosen governor. It is not expected that Mr. Sprague will be chosen, but that on the first Wednesday in April, when the vote is telephoned to Providence, there will be a fright at the narrow escape of the republicans in the contest.

News and Notes.

It is now reported from London that Lady Florence Dixie's story about the attack upon her is discredited.

A despatch from Decatur, Wise county, Texas, says Jerome Schoonmaker, a well-to-do and highly-respected farmer, was shot dead by James Savage, a desperado whom Schoonmaker assisted the sheriff to arrest a few days before. S. J. Ritchie, a friend of the dead man, then sprang at Savage, terribly carving him with a butcher knife, and was in turn shot dead. Savage is out on bail.

George Goppert, a man of Norwich, Conn., who enticed two Boston girls to a house of ill-fame in Norwich, has been fined $200, and sent to jail for six months. He was also ordered to furnish sureties of the peace in $200. He appealed.

The largest attachment against the Augustinian society at Lawrence, Mass., yet made, was put off Monday forenoon, March 19th, the plaintiff being Bridget Murphy, otherwise known as Bridget McGowan. The attachment is for $12,000, and the sum claimed to be due is $9,550. The writ is not against the archbishop as well as the society, as the others have been.

John Cloarch, a Portuguese sailor, on the 21st inst, entered the house of Charles H. Dougity at Portland, Me., and finding him asleep on a lounge stabbed him in the eye, severing the nerve, so that the eye was lost, and making a serious wound. Doughty was taken to the hospital and Cloarch was arrested. He quarrelled with Doughty the previous night, and says he meant to kill him.

In consequence of an accident to the hydraulic apparatus in the Cleveland Rolling Mill company's Bessemer steel works at Cleveland, Ohio, a huge converter containing several tons of melted metal was overturned on the 21st inst., spilling the contents into the pit. The hot metal on striking the damp sand exploded with violence and scattered widely, fatally burning Patrick Foley and another. A dozen others were badly scalded.

Brooks Johnson, a negro who has been arrested on suspicion of being concerned in the murder of the Misses Judson in East Hartford, Conn., showed no surprise on being arrested, and is cool and self-possessed. In a search of his house the front part of a shirt was found which had been recently washed, and extensive stains of some sort were not wholly effaced. Johnson was a servant for the murdered women.

There are two cases of smallpox at Holyoke, Mass. Precautions are taken to keep it from spreading.

Freeman D. Worcester was found dying in the boiler house of a mill in Milbury, Mass., on the morning of the 20th inst., with a fractured skull, ruptured kidney, etc. His injuries are wholly unexplained.

The case of Simeon F. Gibbs and wife against Rev. H. W. Worthen came up in county court at Montpelier, Vt., March 20th. Mr. Worthen is charged with having attempted to estrange the affections of Mrs. Gibbs from her husband. He has been exonerated by an ecclesiastical council.

An eruption of Mount Etna has occurred, accompanied by an earthquake, causing a panic in the vicinity. Several houses have fallen.

In the supreme court at Newport, R. I., March 21st, Kate A. Judd was sentenced to twenty-five years in state prison for arson, and her paramour, George Rounds, got three years for larceny from a dwelling.

Mrs. Blake accompanied one of the Raymond excursion parties of 1882 across the continent, and through Colorado and California, and has recorded her impressions in a series of graphic and brilliantly written sketches. The articles first appeared in the columns of the Boston Journal, and attracted great attention. They are now collected in handsome book-form, after careful revision by the author. With the same brilliant powers which have made her treatment of the most commonplace subjects so entertaining in her newspaper sketches and essays, and which have made her poems so much admired, the writer describes some of the grandest scenery in America. The vastness of the great western plains, the picturesque canons and high mountain passes of Colorado, the Yosemite and other wonders of the Sierra Nevada, the quaint sights of the Mexican border-land, the beauty and attractiveness of southern California, and the strange phases of life met with in San Francisco, in the mining towns, in the capital of Mormondom and among the aborigines, are some of the interesting topics treated upon; and through the entire work one reads the impressions of a close and intelligent observer. To persons who have made the journey to the Pacific coast, or who intend going, and in a no less degree to the general reader, "On the Wing" will be at once entertaining and instructive.

So many books have been written upon European travel and so few upon the great sights in our own land, that we are glad to welcome Mrs. Blake's book as an important means of acquiring information as to much which we all ought to know.

"On the Wing" is issued in handsomely illuminated cloth covers, and the price is one dollar. Sent post-paid on receipt of price. Lee & Shepard, publishers, Boston.

SCROFULA.

A remedy that can destroy the germs of scrofula, and when once settled has the power to root it out, must be appreciated by those afflicted. The remarkable cures of young children and the more wonderful cures of those of middle age and late in life, as illustrated by our printed testimonials, prove HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA to be a reliable remedy, containing remedial agents which do positively cure scrofula and eradicate it from the blood.

WARNER, N. H., Jan. 21, 1879.

MESSRS. C. I. HOOD & CO., Lowell, Mass.: Gentlemen—For ten years previous to the early part of 1877 I had been a constant sufferer from scrofulous ulcers or sores, which had finally reduced me to a helpless condition, as described in my letter to you in September of that year. The continued excellent health which enables me to keep house for my aged father and to enjoy life, keeps alive my intense personal interest in HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA, and I cannot refrain from expressing my gratitude for the permanent cure this wonderful medicine effected in my case nearly two years ago, while living in Lowell, when all my physicians gave me up as being in an incurable condition. One thing before I close. I have recommended your Sarsaparilla to hundreds, and I think more than a thousand cases, and my faith in its invincibility in curing scrofula has become absolute by the wonderful cures it has effected aside from my own. I trust you will not be slow in making the merits of HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA known everywhere, for it is a duty you owe to mankind. With best wishes I remain, very truly yours,

NO USE FOR THEM.

Concerning Certain Relics of the Past --Dogs that have had Their Day.

George Stephenson's "Rocket," and the magnificent locomotives of to day, are built upon the same general principle, yet the machine with which the great engineer astonished his age, is interesting now only as an illustration of the beginning of the invention. There were plasters with holes in them long before BENSON'S CAPCINE POROUS PLASTER surprised both the public and the physicians; and the triumph of the Capcine is founded upon the partial successes, or the utter failures of its predecessors. Everything of value in the old porous plaster is retained in the Capcine; but at this point all comparison ends, and contrast begins. For example:

The old plasters lacked the power to do more than to impart slight, temporary relief in cases easy of treatment; the Capcine penetrates the system and permanently cures the troubles for which it is recommended.

The old plasters depended for any good results they might attain, upon an accident of their makers and the naked faith of their wearers; the Benson's reaches its ends by means of the scientific combination of the rare medicinal ingredients which it contains.

In brief, the old plasters, like Stephenson's discarded engine, are switched off the track, while the Benson goes on its way winning golden opinions from all sorts of people.

Yet in this very fact lies the leading danger to the people who buy and use this reliable and scientific remedy. "Hypocrisy is the tribute vice pays to virtue." Imitation is the concession failure makes to success. Benson's Plasters are parodied in name and style.

Beware of swindles. The genuine have the word CAPCINE cut in the center. Price 25 cents. Seabury & Johnson, Chemists, New York. feb21,was&gtsep93

THE WEATHER.

U. S. SIGNAL OFFICE,
WASHINGTON, D. C.
March 23, 12:00 A. M.

Probabilities for New England:—Fair weather followed by increasing cloudiness and occasional light rain or snow, variable winds shifting to southerly, stationary or higher temperature, followed by falling barometer.

The Thermometer at the CHRONICLE Office, at 4:00 o'clock this morning, indicated 12 degrees above zero.

Sky clear.

THE LOST JEWEL.

So it seems Mr. Riley,
Whom all enjoyed highly
He sang and acted so well,
Lost out of his pocket
A very rare locket
On his way to the Gibson hotel.

So, says Mr. Riley, says he,
I'll advertise in the DAILY CHRONICLE as to my loss;
And as Mr. Riley again
Came on the Portland train
He soon found his lost diamond cross.

N. B. The advantages of the CHRONICLE as a means of advertising cannot be overstated.

CONSOLIDATION AGAIN.

Mr. Editor: I have received, and I suppose just as likely as not others have, a printed letter from Henry J. Stevens of Boston, who informs me that if I cannot attend the railroad meeting of the Eastern road in Boston on the 28th inst. he will give for me a vote for approval of the proposed lease. Mr. Stevens thoughtfully sent a stamped envelope for my proxy. This is kind in Mr. Stevens, but bless his heart, I shall go to the meeting; that's what I own a share for. But what I want to know is, if the Eastern can afford to do business on its own account, and pay its interest and reduce its debt, and one day pay a dividend to its stockholders, why does it want, or rather why do the men who control the stock want, to give it up to the Boston & Maine, after it has attained such advantages for prosperous operation? There can be but two reasons, viz.: The men in control do not know how to manage property, or else they may have been, like the polite Boston lawyer, "retained," (I think that is what it is called when a lawyer is asked to do in his profession what he would not approve as an individual,) to help the Boston & Maine to possess the advantages which its rival, "the poor bankrupt concern," (as the upper route people always call the Eastern,) in its attemps to get upon its feet has in times past secured in the way of business connections.

STOCKHOLDER.

Mr. Editor: I learn that circulars are being sent out from Boston by parties interested in leasing the Eastern railroad to the Boston & Maine, asking the stockholders to sign a proxy empowering some one to vote for them at the meeting on the 28th inst., to lease the road to the B. & M. on the terms proposed by the directors. Before stockholders sign any proxies it would be well for them to ascertain what will be the benefit to them from such a lease; and as citizens, what will be its effect on our city. For my part I see no good results for stockholders or city; we do not want more monopolies; we have enough. We are now shut in by toll bridges and the B. & M. R. R. We want free bridges, and a freight tariff so we can send heavy goods pro rata to any place on the line of any railroad in the state; to-day it would cost to send a car load of merchandise from this port to Exeter by rail more than it would to send the same by some roads from Boston to Great Falls. Let us vote understandingly. It is reported that the next legislature will be asked for a charter for a railroad from this place to Exeter, and thence to some point on the Nashua & Rochester road. S.

GOSSIPS SAY

That Mr. Adams postponed the calico ball until Thursday evening, March 29th, on account of the 22d being in Lent.

That a masquerade ball will be given in Congress hall early next month, under the management of the young gentlemen who conducted the recent very successful apron-and-necktie party.

That William Knowlton, son of Mr. John Knowlton of this city, is a partner in a Saginaw (Michigan) lumber company—the largest in America.

That the company owns thirty miles of railroad and four hundred million feet of lumber on the stump, employs seven hundred men in logging camps, saws forty million feet of lumber annually, finds a ready market for all its products, and best of all, is doing business on its own capital.

That Capt. "Rashe" Trefethen, of the steamer Mystic, is so pleased with the music of his new chime whistles that he intends to add a third one to the other two as soon as he can make it convenient.

That not a vestige of snow was remaining on any of the Isles of Shoals on the 22d inst.

That young ladies clothed in rubber boots and Gainsborough hats were scouring the woods in the suburbs last Thursday in search of the fragrant arbutus.

That few buds and no blossoms were found.

That the smelt fishers of Great bay have housed their gear, and hauled off until next season.

That the Wilson house disappeared on the 22d inst.

That thereby an unsightly obstruction was removed from the New Vaughan street, and a most annoying stumbling-block from the pathway of the city fathers.

That numerous cakes of ice with from six inches to a foot of black, filthy-looking mud attached to their under sides, went down river with the tide on Thursday, supposed to have come from the north millpond.

MEMORIAL DAY.

By order of Commander M. M. Collis, of Storer Post, No. 1, G. A. R., Adjutant George E. Hodgdon on the 21st inst. promulgated General Orders No. 1, as follows:

The following committees are hereby announced to make the necessary arrangements for a proper observance of Memorial day for the year 1883, who will act in conjuction with similar committees appointed by the citizens of Portsmouth.

On Invitations, Route, Procession and selection of Chief Marshal, Comrades George E. Hodgdon, Daniel J. Vaughan, James E. Ford, William H. Smith, David Urch, William Y. Evans, Thomas J. Mitchell;

On Flowers, Comrades Abel Jackson, M. H. Bell. Jr., Dr. James R. May, Robert E. Rich, John H. Hutchinson, Joseph F. Moore, Charles F. Goodwin, George L. Hersey, Charles L. Hoyt, Walter S. Grey;

On Decoration of Graves, for Portsmouth, Comrades John H. Locke, Charles W. Shannon, Samuel Taylor, Michael E. Long; for Newcastle, Comrades Edwin D. Rand, Charles E. Whitehouse; for Kittery, Comrades Charles Chickering, Calvin L. Hayes, Thomas J. Billings, Charles M. Prince, Isaac H. M. Pray; for Rye, Comrades Joseph W. Berry, George B. Caswell, Joseph J. Seavey;

On Evening Exercises, Comrades O. M. Knight, Simon R. Marston, Joseph H. Thatcher, William H. Lovell, D. Webster Barnabee, Dr. J. W. Parsons, Dr. D. W. Jones;

On Finance, Comrades Thomas Entwistle, J. Horace Kent, John W. Young, Martin Gartity;

On Carriages, etc., Comrades Charles H. Bessellievre, James R. Morrison, John L. Randall;

On Printing, Comrades Willard J. Sampson, Edward B. Prime, William Critchley.

POLICE COURT--BATCHELDER, J.

THURSDAY, March 22d.

Michael Macmahah, a marine, and Joseph J. Morrison, a transient person, were each assessed $9.90 for drunkenness. Morrison will work his assessment out at the county farm.

The Christ church choir, to the number of sixteen, came together in the church for the first time on Thursday evening, and sang a few familiar hymns.

A photograph representing the eight sons of Mr. Charles N. Osgood in a group caused many persons to look through the window of Goodrich's bookstore, corner Daniel and Market streets, on Wednesday afternoon of this week. On Thursday a very fine likeness of Chief Engineer Marston of the fire department was placed in the window of the same store.

Lieut. George B. Haycock, U. S. M. C., formerly on duty at the marine barracks at this navy yard, has been placed on the retired list by reason of ill health.

The first dramatic entertainment after the close of the Lenten season will be on Monday evening, April 2d, when Margaret Mather is to play Pauline in the "Lady of Lyons" at Music hall. Our readers know that Miss Mather has already become a celebrity; the critics all agree that she has the talent and capability of becoming a most famous artiste, and our citizens will have a rare treat on the occasion of her appearance in Portsmouth. Reserved seats will be on sale on Monday at Goodrich's book store. "They come high, but we must have them." It is better to pay well for a high order of enjoyment now and then than to waste money on cheap entertainments which never satisfy our tastes.

There was a meeting of milk producers on the evening of the 20th inst. in North Hampton, which town supplies a large amount of milk for the Boston market. The meeting was addressed by Mr. French, who runs a milk car between North Hampton and Boston.

The petition of the New Hampshire cities for an injunction to restrain Marcus P. Norton from continuing his action for damages on account of an alleged infringement of an alleged patent valve for steam fire engines which Norton is alleged to hold, is based on the ground that he silently let the cities use the valve for years, never notifying them of his intention to sue for infringement. This view of the matter is certainly a just and common-sense one, but the law may regard it in a very different light, the law not being always in unison with either common sense or justice.

The sale of goods in Rider & Cunningham's store closed on Tuesday of this week, and on Wednesday the work of boxing up what remained unsold was commenced, for transportation to St. Paul, Minn., where Mr. Cunningham has been for some time, and where he will be joined by Mr. Rider next week.

As a Mr. Hobbs of North Hampton, a trader in produce, was driving through Rye on Monday of this week, when near Foss' beach his horse took fright at a boy who was sliding along on a sled propelled by a sail, and ran away, capsizing the vehicle and breaking nearly every one of 100 dozen eggs Mr. Hobbs had gathered from the farmers.

The Government Chemist Analyizes two of the Leading Baking Powders, and what he finds them made of.

I have examined samples of "Cleveland's Superior Baking Powder" and "Royal Baking Powder," purchased by myself in this city, and I find they contain:

"Cleveland's Superior Baking Powder."
Cream of Tartar,
Bicarbonate of Soda,
Flour.
Available carbonic acid gas 12.61 per cent, equivalent to 118.2 cubic inches of gas per oz. of Powder.

"Royal Baking Powder."
Cream of Tartar,
Bicarbonate of Soda,
Carbonate of Ammonia,
Tartaric Acid,
Starch.
Available carbonic acid gas 12.40 per cent, equivalent to 116.2 cubic inches of gas per oz. of Powder.

Ammonia gas 0.43 per cent, equivalent to 10.4 cubic inches per oz. of Powder.

NOTE.—The Tartaric acid was doubtless introduced as free acid, but subsequently combined with ammonia, and exists in the Powder as a Tartrate of Ammonia. E. G. LOVE, Ph. D.
NEW YORK, Jan'y 17th, 1881.

The above shows conclusively that "Cleveland's Superior" is a strictly pure Cream of Tartar Baking Powder. It has also been analyzed by Professor Johnson of Yale College; Dr. Genth of the University of Pennsylvania; President Morton of the Stevens Institute; Wm. M. Habirshaw, F. C. S., Analyst for the Chemical Trade of New York, and other eminent chemists, all of whom pronounce it absolutely pure and healthful.—Hall's Journal of Health for April, 1882.

SECRET!

SALICYLICA is known as a common-sense remedy, because it strikes directly at the cause of Rheumatism, Gout and Neuralgia, while so many so-called specifics and supposed panaceas only treat locally the effects.

In has been conceded by eminent scientists that outward applications, such as rubbing with oils, ointments, liniments, and soothing lotions will not eradicate these diseases which are the result of the poisoning of the blood with Uric Acid.

SALICYLICA works with marvelous effect on this acid, and so removes the disorder. It is now exclusively used by all celebrated physicians of America and Europe. Highest Medical Academy of Paris reports 95 per cent. cures in three days.

KNOW THYSELF.

A Book for Every Man!

Young, Middle-aged and Old.

Those who doubt these assertions should purchase the new medical work published by the PEABODY MEDICAL INSTITUTE, Boston, entitled THE SCIENCE OF LIFE; OR, SELF-PRESERVATION. Exhausted vitality, nervous and Physical debility, premature decline of man, or vitality impaired by the errors of youth, or too close application to business, may be restored and manhood regained.

Fifty-fifth edition, revised and enlarged, just published. It is a standard medical work, the best in the English language, written by a physician of great experience, to whom was awarded a gold and jewelled medal by the National Medical Association. THE ART DISEASES

IS YOUR HEART SOUND?

Sour stomach

Many people think themselves only suffering for kidney or liver troubles, or dyspepsia, while if the truth were known, the real cause lies at the heart.

The renowned Dr. Cundlands, startlingly says "one third of my patients are victims of heart disease." The heart weighs about nine ounces, and yet man's twenty-eight pounds of blood passes through it once in a minute and a-half; resting not day or night! Surely this subject should have careful attention.

Dr. Graves a celebrated physician has prepared a specific for all heart troubles and kindred disorders. It is known as Dr. Graves' Heart Regulator and can be obtained at your druggists, $1. per bottle, six bottles for $5 by express. Send stamp for Dr. Graves' thorough and exhaustive treatise. (1)

Wiggins Refuted.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 13th.

Dear Sir: As per request I send you my opinion of the predictions of Wiggins (please excuse me for omitting the title of professor to that would-be popular humbug.) In the first place, the storm predicted to cross the continent, to be due on the Atlantic coast on the 10th, is in no way in accord with any known astronomic nor scientific deductions, viz.: The simultaneous eruption of volcanoes on the northern tropic occurs more uniformly at the time of the sun's crossing the line, consequently there is a circle of vacuum around the earth at that time caused by the devouring flame of volcanoes, and as a matter of course the atmosphere follows the earth's motion east in pursuit of the vacuum-forming flames of each volcano; but the atmosphere acts and re-acts from the mountains of the eastern to the mountains of the western hemispheres, in like manner as the waters of the ocean act and re-act from the shores of each continent and island. We have no knowledge of unusual eruption of volcanoes, not even in an individual case, and have no earthly right to assume that they have or will co-operate in action earlier this year than usual; and even if they did, all modern scientists agree that the culminating of the gale-force is deferred until the vacuum in the atmosphere has formed a circle around the earth, which in nine cases out of tenhap happens after the 20th of March and after the 20th of September; and sometimes, though seldom, twelve months pass without the culmination of the equinoctial gale; the cycle or apparent spiral course of the vacuum preventing the locating of gale-force which only occurs when a sufficient number of volcanoes on the northern tropic are in action to cause a circle of vacuum around the earth.

As a law of nature, the winds are most required in the temperate zones, where the trees and shrubs have been asleep all winter; they loosen the roots and bark, causing the sap to flow, and together with the spring shower, cause the bark to expand and buds to swell. These winds are all that give healthy exercise to the vegetable creation. I deem this explanation necessary to quiet the nerves of women who seem to think something dreadful is about to transpire.

I suppose Wiggins' idea of a tidal wave being in the bay of Bengal on the ninth may have been deduced from the annual overflow of the river Nile and the waters surrounding in the spring of the year.

I gave as an opinion that the comet of five or six months ago, being a stalactite broken from the sun, and being of sufficient size to cause another black spot to be seen on its disk. When a prophecy came from them that the comet would fall on the earth, at about the time it became subdivided about a month previous to its disappearance, many women and school children were fearful that they would be struck by it. Please excuse the defects of haste, and oblige yours truly,

LIEUT. NATH'L J. COFFIN,
Professor of Physics of the Globe.

Diphtheria poisons the blood. Convalescents should take Hood's Sarsaparilla to neutralize and eradicate the poison matter.

The accident to Queen Victoria, by slipping on the stairs at Windsor palace, was more severe than at first reported. One of her knees was so sprained as to become badly swollen and inflamed, and all the court doctors were called.

Catarrh of the Bladder

In Calais, Me., on the evening of the 20th inst., Samuel Kelley, Jr., Herbert W. Eaton and Joseph E. Eaton were in the latter's stable office, when Herbert suddenly drew a revolver and shot both the others, wounding them severely, and Kelley probably fatally. The two Eatons are brothers. No cause for the act has been stated.

☞ No family dyes were ever so popular as the Diamond Dyes. They never fail. The black is far superior to logwood. The other colors are brilliant.

Liver, Kidney and Bright's Disease.

A medicine that destroys the germ or cause of Bright's disease, diabetes, kidney and liver complaints, and has power to root them out of the system, is above all price. Such a medicine is Hop Bitters, and positive proof of this can be found by one trial, or by asking your neighbors, who have been cured by it.

The ice on the Cocheco river at the Fourth street bridge in Dover, on the 20th inst., was four feet five inches thick.

Says the Boston Post: "Unless something breaks, and very likely something will, the great East River bridge will be opened to travel on Decoration day, and the first body of citizens to pass over it will be the veterans of the Grand Army of the Republic. If we were the veterans we should prefer that some other body of citizens try their luck first."

The great superiority of DR. BULL'S COUGH SYRUP over all other cough remedies is attested by the immense popular demand for that old established remedy.

VARIOUS QUACKS.

Who--Each with his own Pet Scheme--

Cultivate the Field of Human Nature.

There have always been quacks:—legal quacks, theological quacks, scientific quacks and medical quacks. Some of them are bland, oily fellows who argue and smile the world into believing their favorite bit of humbug. Others are pompous and pretentious parasites. But they make it pay. Men seem to love to be swindled, stipulating only that it shall be neatly done.

The dear public are equally liberal to the electric and magnetic fraud. This fellow is a genius in his line. He will put a magnetic belt around your waist, a magnetic necklace under your chin, or fit you out with an entire suit of magnetic clothes, warranted to serve the purpose of ordinary garments, and at the same time to cure all diseases, from whooping-cough to hasty consumption.

Most of these have no more electric or magnetic power about them than resides in wooden blankets or in girdles of sackcloth. Only when applied by an expert is electricity of the slightest use as a medicinal agent, and even then its value is grossly over-stated. What is the strongest possible presumptive evidence in favor of a particular remedy? Clearly that it should have been prepared by responsible persons of acknowledged skill in the treatment of disease.

Squarely on this foundation stands BENSON'S CAPCINE POROUS PLASTER. Endorsed by 5,000 physicians, pharmacists, druggists and chemists, it needs no further apology nor introduction. It is the one and only true and tried external application. Quacks of all kinds pay the Capcine the compliment of their dislike, as Satan is said to hate holy water.

This was Captain Harding's experience after exposure in a violent storm off the Cape of Good Hope. Inflammation settled in his throat, and for a while it seemed as if he would die of diphtheria. As the captain never goes to sea without a supply of Perry Davis's Pain Killer, he knew just what to do. A dose of it gave immediate relief.

Humor in the Stomach.

Much of the distress and sickness attributed to dyspepsia, chronic diarrhœa and other causes is occasioned by humor in the stomach. Several cases, with all the characteristics of these complaints, have been cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla. Other cures effected by this medicine are so wonderful that the simplest statement of them affords the best proof that it combines rare curative agents and when once used secures the confidence of the people.

The Circumlocution Office.

Commissioner of Pensions Dudley is failing to fulfill his predictions in regard to pension payments. The prospect is that they will again be comparatively light. Last summer he assured Congress that if his clerical force should be increased by the addition of 800 or 900 new clerks he would be able to settle claims with rapidity sufficient to bring the total pension payments up to $100,000,000. Congress gave him the clerks he asked for, but the indications are that the payments this year will not go beyond $75,000,000. The additional force of clerks has made an additional expense of over a million dollars, but the pension office is falling far behind the amount of work promised by the commissioner. The inaccuracy and uncertainty of Dudley's predictions have thrown the treasury department estimates of expenditures into great confusion, and treasury officials have been in a quandary as to what the outcome of the fiscal year will be.—Washington Dispatch.

Commissioner Dudley perhaps is not wholly to blame for these results. If the commissioner could select his examiners and clerks; if, instead of having to take briefless barristers and broken down business men, he could have as his aids men who would be of use, possessing some knowledge of the rules of evidence, and withal a trifle of practical wisdom, the results would be different.

The average "clerk" is apt to be indolent and inefficient. His chief joy is to get through the day or month with as little mental exertion as possible, save the calculation entered into as to the advent of pay-day. The first important lesson to be mastered is the time-honored rule of "how not to do it." Nothing should be done promptly or prematurely in this department. Everything should be well considered. The presumption is that every claim made or enquired about is a fraud. If a civil letter of enquiry as to the construction of the law, or any information is sought by means of correspondence, the reply, if ever made, should always be "Remote, unfriended, melancholy, slow."

The next duty to be learned is the process by which members of Congress who are urged by constituents to look after pending cases, should receive a combined official recognition, and personal snub. Under the administration of "your Uncle Dudley" this is done to perfection. Every senator and representative will confess that there is no department of the government which he visits so reluctantly as the pension office. Here he is switched off upon a side track of unimportant requirements or inconsequential details, while the milk in the cocoa-nut is carefully concealed.

If members of Congress are ever to be indulged in the use of explotives, it is concerning this conservative bureau. What with impatient claimants, persistent attorneys, and persevering friends of soldiers and heirs on the one hand, and on the other the polite but politic chief clerks who know how to get rid of a congressman, and at the same time, by an evasive answer, let him go just as wise as he came, a pardonable indulgence in emphatic language should be permitted.

And yet this it seems, is now and ever shall be, because the clerical force is incompetent; and for the reason, too, that this great office, even when filled by a man of the ability of Ex-Com. Bentley, is hampered with subordinates who are a hindrance to the despatch of business. The reception of claims which are at once, by a general rule, set down as fraudulent; their adjudication by persons at a distance from the witnesses, for the most part upon affidavits taken ex parte; the opportunities for fraud under the present system of examining claims, no less than upon the plan of diminishing agencies for payment of pensions, is all wrong. The representative of the government in the proof, as well as the payment of a pension, and the claimant, should be brought in closer relation, and thereby fraud be prevented and honest claimants protected.

A Courageous Clergyman.

Rev. S. J. Stewart, minister of the Unitarian church at Bangor, Me., is a modern hero. Certain gossippy stories concerning his domestic relations were set afloat in the Penobscot region, and Mr. Stewart sought to relieve his society from any embarrassment, by tendering his resignation as their pastor.

The society regarded the charges as malicious, declined to accept the resignation, and gave their pastor an opportunity to expose the falsity of the allegations. The result is a most thorough vindication of Mr. Stewart, who instead of bowing before the squall, stimulated by the encouragement of his parish met the charges and abundantly demonstrated his good character and honorable conduct.

If clergymen and others against whom the frequent voice of calumny is uttered would have the courage to stand up and vindicate themselves, it would be the performance of one of their most important obligations, — often, however, sought to be avoided, from the fear of undue publicity. Of course, every decent man shrinks from contests of this nature, but the man who courageously stands forth in his conscious rectitude, instead of ignominiously half-acknowledging by a retreat the insinuations against his character, is entitled to the respect and gratitude of every reputable person.

A Bad One.

Mrs. Meaker, whose execution will take place at the Vermont state prison on the 30th inst., begins to realize her position, and has quieted down during the last few weeks. She still protests her innocence of the terrible crime for which she is to suffer. She is closely guarded by a special officer detailed for that purpose. The same gallows will be erected for her that was used for Phair, Gruvelin, Magoon, Tatro, Carr and Hayden. This will be the seventh execution in Vermont within the last six years, and the first instance of a woman being executed in the history of the state. So atrocious was her crime, and so utterly repulsive and tigress-like has her subsequent conduct been, that the mawkish sentimentalists have not been able to get up the least sympathy for her, even in their own ranks, and nobody remonstrates against her being put out of the world she has contaminated by living in it.

SCROFULA.

A remedy that can destroy the germs of scrofula, and when once settled has the power to root it out, must be appreciated by those afflicted. The remarkable cures of young children and the more wonderful cures of those of middle age and late in life, as illustrated by our printed testimonials, prove HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA to be a reliable remedy, containing remedial agents which do positively cure scrofula and eradicate it from the blood.

CARNER, N. H., Jan. 21, 1879.

MESSRS. C. I. HOOD & CO., Lowell, Mass.:

Gentlemen—For ten years previous to the early part of 1877 I had been a constant sufferer from scrofulous ulcers or sores, which had finally reduced me to a helpless condition, as described in my letter to you in September of that year. The continued excellent health which enables me to keep house for my aged father and to enjoy life, keeps alive my intense personal interest in HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA, and I cannot refrain from expressing my gratitude for the permanent cure this wonderful medicine effected in my case nearly two years ago, while living in Lowell, when all my physicians gave me up as being in an incurable condition. One thing before I close. I have recommended your Sarsaparilla to hundreds, and I think more than a thousand cases, and my faith in its invincibility in curing scrofula has become absolute by the wonderful cures it has effected aside from my own. I trust you will not be slow in making the merits of HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA known everywhere, for it is a duty you owe to mankind. With best wishes I remain very truly yours,

Public Benefactress. Mrs. S. A. ALLEN has justly earned this title, and thousands are this day rejoicing over a fine head of hair produced by her unequaled preparation for restoring, invigorating, and beautifying the Hair. Her World's Hair Restorer quickly cleanses the scalp, removing Dandruff, and arrests the fall; the hair, if gray, is changed to its natural color, giving it the same vitality and luxurious quantity as in youth.

COMPLIMENTARY. "My hair is now restored to its youthful color; I have not a gray hair left. I am satisfied that the preparation is not a dye, but acts on the secretions. My hair ceases to fall, which is certainly an advantage to me, who was in danger of becoming bald." This is the testimony of all who use Mrs. S. A. ALLEN'S WORLD'S HAIR RESTORER.

"One Bottle did it." That is the expression of many who have had their gray hair restored to its natural color, and their bald spot covered with hair, after using one bottle of MRS. S. A. ALLEN'S WORLD'S HAIR RESTORER. It is not a dye.

THE WEATHER.

U. S. SIGNAL OFFICE,
WASHINGTON, D. C.
March 24, 12:00 A. M.

Probabilities for New England:—Fair weather, northwest winds, stationary or lower temperature, higher pressure.

The Thermometer at the CHRONICLE Office, at 4:00 o'clock this morning, indicated 10 degrees above zero.

Sky clear.

THE SIGNAL SERVICE.

The action of Gen. Hazen, chief signal service officer, in stopping the display of the cautionary signals at thirty stations, as a measure of economy rendered necessary by the failure of Congress to appropriate all the money asked for, appears to be ill advised and injudicious; in fact, it looks as though Gen. Hazen, incensed by the action of Congress, aimed to make the retrenchment in the quarter where it would cause the most annoyance and possible loss to the public.

The cost of the "cautionary-display" stations is trifling—trifling in itself, as well as relatively to the entire cost of the weather bureau; and the abolition of the whole number (there are but seventy-three of them) would not result in a saving of $10,000! The cost of the display service in this city, for instance, is twenty-five cents a day; and the whole expense of carrying on the seventy-three stations of this class last year was $5931. We do not believe that any other similar sum was last year expended by the government to so good advantage; and it would seem that Gen. Hazen might have squeezed enough out of the very respectable sum ($1,024,000) granted the weather bureau for the current year, to have kept these stations going, even though he had been obliged to curtail somewhere else. There is no doubt that more floating property—not to mention lives—was saved last year by the warnings of a single storm given along the coast, than the entire weather bureau cost for the whole year; and why Gen. Hazen should thus strike at the feature of the service most valuable to the general public and to commerce, is inexplicable.

And why the chief signal officer, at the same time that he abolishes the important display-stations at Gloucester, Cape Cod, Block island, the shelter ports on the Maine coast, and others, should find it necessary to establish such stations at Newport, R. I., and New London, Conn., is another mystery. There has been a good deal of growling in certain quarters about the way in which Hazen has managed the service; and his action in the matter under consideration looks as though the complaints might be better founded than the public has hitherto believed

CONSOLIDATION TALK.

Hon. Z. S. Wallingford, of Dover, who owns 100 shares in the Boston & Maine railroad, in a letter published in the Dover Democrat takes strong ground against the proposed consolidation of the Eastern with that road, on the ground that while it would no doubt be a good thing for the Boston & Maine, it would be prejudicial to the best interests of the people of the state, and to the manufacturing and commercial interests of the cities and towns served by the two roads. Col. Charles H. Sawyer of Dover is also strongly opposed to the proposed union.

The boom in Eastern railroad stock which was expected by the large speculative holders as a consequence of the proposed consolidation has not been realized. The stock went down to forty-seven on Friday. It would seem that if the stockholders of the Eastern wish to make their stock dividend-paying the better way for them would be to dissolve the "pooling" arrangement with the Boston & Maine, and thus derive the full benefit of their close connection with the Maine Central.—Bangor Commercial, 20th.

The Eastern and Boston & Maine officials are in conflict as to whether the $100,000 to be paid into the sinking fund by the Boston & Maine Company is to be set apart before, or after, the dividend on the preferred stock of the Eastern is paid. The Boston & Maine people claim that the sinking fund is entitled to precedence while, on the other hand, the Eastern officials say that the terms of the agreement were originally understood to be that the preferred stock should be first, and must so be construed. It is possible that this question may yet prove fatal to the proposed reduction of the Eastern company's debt to $10,000,000.—Boston Traveller, 22d.

There are rumors that a New York railway magnate, named Gould, has been giving his attention to the subject of the lease of the Eastern to the Boston & Maine railroad. The management of railways is quite in Mr. Gould's line, and he is a director in the Mercantile Trust Co., a financial corporation of New York which holds $80,000 of the bonds of the Portland & Ogdensburg railroad, and which for some time past has had a suit in equity in the United States Circuit court for New Hampshire to obtain possession of that part of the P. & O. R. R. which is in New Hampshire and is of the most value, between the boundary lines of the states of Maine and Vermont. We are not authorized to state where the influence of Mr. Gould will be found when the next legislature begins to wrestle with the railway problem; it is only safe to conjecture that his influence will be a felt presence at the capitol, and that none but first-class helpers need apply.

GOSSIPS SAY

That since the 1st of January, this year, $250,000 in government bonds and stocks have been purchased by individuals in this city.

That visitors to Newcastle the coming summer will appreciate the change in the appearance of the surroundings of Fort Constitution; nearly all of the old and weather-beaten buildings have been torn down and removed during the winter months.

That Capt. Duncan, of the steamer James Sampson, will have charge of the tug Naumkeag this season.

That two gunning parties in boats secured a number of sea birds among the islands at the mouth of the harbor on Wednesday, the 21st inst.

That Miss May Davenport will succeed Miss Norah Bartlett at the Boston Museum.

That a fine likeness of Hon. Thomas L. Tullock has been placed in the office of the secretary of state at Concord.

That a curious spectacle was witnessed at the house of a deceased old lady on Christian Shore one day this week, the grasping heirs being engaged in moving the furniture out of the house at the same time the undertaker was carrying in the casket.

That the U. S. S. Constitution when completed will be the finest fitted up receiving ship in the United States navy.

That the public library on Friday last received from Senator Blair twenty-two bound volumes of the proceedings of the 46th and 47th Congresses.

That Charles W. Taylor of this city, tinsmith for Dearborn & Co., has received letters patent for a unique cooking utensil.

That Charlie Hart, the affable captain of the steamer Fearless last year, has been engaged by the Laighton Bros. to run the steamer Pinafore this season.

That preparations are being made to put down near Pocahontas point the Harding weir, the new netting for which arrived on Thursday last.

That a young man while standing in front of a hat store on Congress street, Friday, lost his footing and fell through one of the big panes of glass, knocking down the handsome neck-wear just arranged by the ingenious salesman.

The Northern railroad filed a cross bill in the office of the clerk of the United States Circuit court on Friday, which seeks to reform the contract between the Ogdensburg & Lake Champlain, Vermont Central, Concord, Northern and other railroads forming the line from Ogdensburg to Boston, with the Northern Transportation Co. Josiah H. Benton, Jr., of Boston, is counsel for the Northern railroad in this suit.

The next convention of the Rockingham County Temperance association will be held in North Hampton on Thursday, March 29th, in the Congregational church, commencing at ten o'clock in the forenoon. A collation will be furnished.

In Portland, March 22d, in the freight yard of the Eastern railroad station, John Bartlett fell between a car and a locomotive, and had an arm so badly crushed as to necessitate amputation. He died in a short time from the shock.

Perhaps the CHRONICLE thinks its article of to-day will atone for the publication of "Put's" caricature of Portsmouth and its people—Times, 22d inst.

No; the CHRONICLE never thought of "atoning" for that publication, nor of apologising for it either, to the Times, or to the Journal's "Son of Portsmouth" who took the famous "Walk up State street," or to anybody else.

On Thursday, the 22d inst., twenty-eight men in the department of construction at the navy yard were suspended for the remainder of the month, owing to lack of funds. The suspended workmen included machinists, blacksmiths, pattern makers and one joiner.

Mr. Frank W. Grogan, draughtsman in the department of construction and repair at the yard, has been called to Washington by Chief Constructor Wilson, for duty in the draughting room of the bureau.

The picking up of money between the tracks at the Eastern railroad station is of frequent occurrence; a five dollar gold piece was picked up there a few days ago, but such a "find" as this is rare, dimes and quarters being more numerous than gold coins. This money is no doubt dropped by passengers as they leave the cars to go to the refreshment room, or on their return; during the days of fractional currency there was more of it found then now, as the man who drops a silver quarter will very likely hear it strike, and hunt for it, whereas he could have dropped a peck of paper quarters without having his attention attracted by the noise.

It is said that Mr. Winn of Cape Neddick, who was injured by the accident on the Boston & Maine railroad at Cole's corner in Wells last year, has not settled with the road, but has secured the services of Benjamin F. Butler to take charge of his case.

Miss Rachel White died in Kittery on the 20th inst., at the age of fifty-three years. She was the daughter of Mrs. Nancy White, who was buried on the 14th inst.

A son of Capt. Amee of Kittery Point, master of the schooner Golden Gate, while sliding down hill on a sled some days ago ran into a stone wall, and injured one of his knees so badly that he will probably be a cripple for life. Capt. Amee himself was this week reported to be very ill with typhoid fever.

The board of appraisers of which Commodore Semmes is chairman will shortly revisit this navy yard, to estimate the value of the several hulks in "rotten row" which have been stricken from the navy list and ordered to be sold.

The CHRONICLE of this morning indulges in some doggerel rhymes, which tell of the loss of Pat Rooney's diamond locket, and claims that it was found because it was advertised in that paper. Now, according to the CHRONICLE's own statement of yesterday, the locket was found on the afternoon before the advertisement appeared in its columns next morning.—Times 23d inst.

Neighbor, when you undertake to make a point you should be careful not to make a blunder instead. Pat Rooney's advertisement appeared in the CHRONICLE on the morning of the 21st, and "according to the CHRONICLE's own statement" the locket was delivered to him that same day as he passed through the city on the way to Gloucester. We said not a word as to when it was found, as we did not and do not know.

F. S. James, alias Charles Ware, alleged to be a well-known horse thief, was captured by the police of Bangor, Me., on the 22d inst. He is believed to have stolen teams in different parts of the state during the past few years, and had a team in his possession when arrested.

The Government Chemist Analyzes two of the Leading' Baking Powders, and what he finds them made of.

I have examined samples of "Cleveland's Superior Baking Powder" and "Royal Baking Powder," purchased by myself in this city, and I find they contain:

"Cleveland's Superior Baking Powder."
Cream of Tartar,
Bicarbonate of Soda,
Flour

Available carbonic acid gas 12.61 per cent, equivalent to 118.2 cubic inches of gas per oz. of Powder.

"Royal Baking Powder."
Cream of Tartar,
Bicarbonate of Soda,
Carbonate of Ammonia,
Tartaric Acid,
Starch.

Available carbonic acid gas 12.40 per cent, equivalent to 116.2 cubic inches of gas per oz. of Powder.

Ammonia gas 0.43 per cent, equivalent to 10.4 cubic inches per oz. of Powder.

NOTE.—The Tartaric acid was doubtless introduced as free acid, but subsequently combined with ammonia, and exists in the Powder as a Tartrate of Ammonia. E. G. LOVE, Ph. D.
NEW YORK, Jan'y 17th, 1881.

The above shows conclusively that "Cleveland's Superior" is a strictly pure Cream of Tartar Baking Powder. It has also been analyzed by Professor Johnson of Yale College; Dr. Genth of the University of Pennsylvania; President Morton of the Stevens Institute; Wm. M. Habirshaw, F. C. S., Analyst for the Chemical Trade of New York, and other eminent chemists, all of whom pronounce it absolutely pure and healthful.—Hall's Journal of Health for April, 1882.

Concerning Certain Relics of the Past --Dogs that have had Their Day.

George Stephenson's "Rocket," and the magnificent locomotives of to-day, are built upon the same general principle, yet the machine with which the great engineer astonished his age, is interesting now only as an illustration of the beginning of the invention. There were plasters with holes in them long before BENSON'S CAPCINE POROUS PLASTER surprised both the public and the physicians; and the triumph of the Capcine is founded upon the partial successes, or the utter failures of its predecessors. Everything of value in the old porous plaster is retained in the Capcine; but at this point all comparison ends, and contrast begins. For example:

The old plasters lacked the power to do more than to impart slight, temporary relief in cases easy of treatment; the Capcine penetrates the system and permanently cures the troubles for which it is recommended.

The old plasters depended for any good results they might attain, upon an accident of their makers and the naked faith of their wearers; the Benson's reaches its ends by means of the scientific combination of the rare medicinal ingredients which it contains.

In brief, the old plasters, like Stephenson's discarded engine, are switched off the track, while the Benson goes on its way winning golden opinions from all sorts of people.

Yet is this very fact lies the leading danger to the people who buy and use this reliable and scientific remedy. "Hypocrisy is the tribute vice pays to virtue." Imitation is the concession failure makes to success. Benson's Plasters are parroted in name and style.

Beware of swindles. The genuine have the word CAPCINE CUT in the center. Price 25 cents. Seabury & Johnson, Chemists, New York.

SECRET!

SALICYLICA is known as a common-sense remedy, because it strikes directly at the cause of Rheumatism, Gout and Neuralgia, while so many so-called specifics and supposed panaceas only treat locally the effects.

In has been conceded by eminent scientists that outward applications, such as rubbing with oils, ointments, liniments, and soothing lotions will not eradicate these diseases which are the result of the poisoning of the blood with Uric Acid.

SALICYLICA works with marvelous effect on this acid, and so removes the disorder. It is now exclusively used by all celebrated physicians of America and Europe. Highest Medical Academy of Paris reports 95 per cent. cures in three days.

Dr. Grave, a celebrated physician has prepared a specific for all heart troubles and kindred disorders. It is known as Dr. Graves' Heart Regulator *and can be obtained at your druggists, $1. per bottle, six bottles for $5 by express. VARIOUS QUACKS.

Who--Each with his own Pet Scheme--

Cultivate the Field of Human Nature.

There have always been quacks:—legal quacks, theological quacks, scientific quacks and medical quacks. Some of them are bland, oily fellows who argue and smile the world into believing in their favorite bit of humbug. Others are pompous and pretentious parasites. But they make it pay. Men seem to love to be swindled, stipulating only that it shall be neatly done.

The cigar public are equally liberal to the electric and magnetic fraud. This fellow is a genius in his line. He will put a magnetic belt around your waist, a magnetic necklace under your chin, or fit you out with an entire suit of magnetic clothes, warranted to serve the purpose of ordinary garments, and at the same time to cure all diseases, from whooping-cough to hasty consumption.

Most of these have no more electric or magnetic power about them than resides in wooden blankets or in girdles of sackcloth. Only when applied by an expert is electricity of the slightest use as a medicinal agent, and even then its value is grossly over-stated. What is the strongest possible psychic evidence in favor of a particular remedy? Clearly that it should have been prepared by responsible persons of acknowledged skill in the treatment of disease.

Squarely on this foundation stands BENSON'S CAPCINE POROUS PLASTER. Endorsed by 5,000 physicians, pharmacists, druggists and chemists, it needs no further apology for its introduction. It is the one and only true and tried external application. Quacks of all kinds pay the Capcine the compliment of their dislike, as Satan is said to hate holy water.

They Ran For The Doctor.

Some people are always running for the doctor when the least thing is the matter with themselves or their children. Of course, the doctor likes this, for he gets well paid for it. But there are many occasions when the judicious use of Perry Davis's Pain Killer will do all the doctor can. Mr. R. V. Miller, of Syracuse, N. Y., says he has for twenty years used Pain Killer for miscellaneous family sicknesses; and that it is so valuable that it ought to be kept in every house.

—An innocent young couple at Chagrin Falls, Ohio, supposed that a marriage license was all that was necessary, and kept house several weeks before discovering that they had not been married.

General Grant has visited every civilized country, yet in all his travels he has never seen a more effectual remedy for coughs and colds than Adamson's Botanic Balsam. Sold by druggists and dealers at thirty-five cts. Trial size, ten cts. Large bottles, seventy-five cents.

Newspaper Change.

The Messrs. Hackett announce in the last number of the Belknap Tocsin that on the account of ill health they have transfered their interest in the Tocsin to Messrs. Wilcomb and Philbrick. The Tocsin has been published for nearly two years. It has been ever respectable in tone, enterprising in spirit and candid in its discussions of topics. It has proved to be just the kind of a paper which a live community like that in and around Laconia should properly sustain. To make the Tocsin what it is, the retiring partners have expended liberally of their capital, time, talents, health and energy, all for the good of the readers of the paper and the people of Belknap county and the state. Indeed, they have done just what every zealous newspaper man always does,—much for the public, and far less for Number One. The Tocsin has shown no little ability in its editorials, and its columns have ever given proof that the pen as well as the scissors has been in use at the editors' table. We trust that the excellent start given to the Tocsin by its founders will enable it to maintain its headway among the papers of the state, and continue to be a respected and influential journal.

The Raymond California Excursion.

An advertisement of the Raymond Colorado and California tours will be found in another column. There are to be two more parties from Boston, one of which will leave April 12th, and the other April 26th. These are rapidly being filled, and as soon as the limit is reached, the lists will be promptly closed, as was the case with the first party. The arrangements for these excursions are very elaborate, and insure great enjoyment to the participants. Each party will be in charge of a conductor and two assistants, special trains will be provided, and everything will be carried out in first-class style. The route has been planned with great care, so as to include the greatest possible amount of profitable sight-seeing along the different routes going and returning, and especially in Colorado (in the canons, gorges, parks and high passes of the Rocky mountains,) New Mexico, Arizona, California and Utah. At the same time the journey will be taken leisurely, and with frequent opportunities for rest. The regular trip will occupy fifty-nine days, and the return tickets are good for a much longer period. Ladies who join these parties require no special escort. Send to W. Raymond, 240 Washington street, Boston, for an 80-page descriptive circular.

News and Notes.

Charles H. George, nominated as lieutenant governor by the democrats of Rhode Island, to run on the ticket with Wm. Sprague, declined the nomination, and Ziba O. Slocum of Providence was put on in his stead.

The London Times says the new tariff law in the United States is only a step towards free trade, the prospects for which might be clouded if the prosperity of America were checked, or if the democrats were to shrink from their position on the question. The alarm of the protectionists indicates how the prospect for free trade is at present brightened. The disinterested anxiety of the British manufacturers and their organs that the United States should enjoy the benefits of free trade is touching in the extreme.

The Winchester Arms company of New Haven, Conn., whose artesian well is dry at a depth of 1,500 feet, have contracted for 1,000 feet more of boring. The well is said to have already cost $10,000.

Rev. J. A. Princen, a Catholic priest of Danielsonville, was attacked with congestion while on his way to Hartford, Thursday morning. He stopped at Willimantic, Conn., and died at the Catholic parsonage in the afternoon.

The London Standard's Varna correspondent says: "Business at Erzeroum is at a standstill, consequent on the movement of the Russians in the Caucasus. The growing opion is that a Russo-Turkish conflict is imminent. The Armenians are wearied with the indifference shown by Great Britain to their wrongs, and would welcome Russion occupation, The Russians along the frontier number 100,000."

Messrs. William Basset, R. S. Whitney and John H. Whitney, whose advertisement appears in another column and who are well known in Boston business and financial circles, have just entered into a copartnership under the firm name of Basset, Whitney & Co., for the purpose of doing a general banking and brokerage business. They have leased rooms on the Devonshire street side of the new Advertiser building. Mr. Basset is well known in connection with the old house of Brewster, Basset & Co. Mr. R. S. Whitney has until recently been a member of the shoe firm of Stowe, Bills & Whitney, and his brother, Mr. John H. Whitney, has for many years been identified with the banking interests of the city.

It is announced from London that the accident to Queen Victoria was trifling; that no excitement was occasioned in England, and no bulletins were issued. The startling despatches "per cable" were made up in New York.

The London Telegraph disposes of Alexander H. Stephens with the remark that much of his eminence was due to the fact that his contemporaries were intellectual pigmies.

The governor of Montana sent the following despatch to the post-office department on the 22d inst.: "The vigilantes at Greenhorn, Montana, have removed the postmaster by hanging. The government fuel must be scarce, as he was caught barn burning. The office is now vacant." The postmaster's sureties have been notified to take charge of the office.

Bernard Gilfoy, of Buffalo, N. Y., who left San Francisco on Aug. 19th, 1882, for Australia, in an eighteen-foot dory, has arrived at Maryborough, Queensland. He got along all right until about 200 miles off the Queensland coast, when he was twice capsized, lost his instruments and had his provisions damaged. He was picked up by a coaster Jan. 29th, 160 miles from the shore, and much exhausted.

Miss Mary I. Gidding of Hartland, Conn., died in Torrington, Dec. 18th, at the house of Dr. Tiffany. Recent developments indicate that death was the result of malpractice. Dr. Tiffany has disappeared, and Alton E. Holcomb of Granville, Mass., is under arrest under charge of being accessory to the crime. Holcomb is a married man, but guilty intimacy with deceased has been shown.

That admirable ladies' illustrated magazine, "The Season," for April, has been received. It is filled with plans, patterns, engravings, and instructions for all styles of female attire and house ornamentation. This magazine is marvellously cheap considering the great amount of information it contains, the price being only thirty cents per number or $3.50 per annum. "The Season" can be procured of any bookseller or newsdealer.

The Sprague boom in Rhode Island is booming the other way. The "straight democrats" will nominate a candidate of their own.

A gentleman named Stickney, said to be the last of the grandsons of Major-Gen. Stark, died on Feb. 27th at Toledo, Ohio, at eighty years of age. His father, John Stickney, who married a daughter of Gen. Stark, was a very eccentric man, and named his three sons, respectively, One Stickney, Two Stickney and Three Stickney.

The expenses of the New Hampshire cities on account of the valve suits are said to aggregate nearly $4,000.

Gilsum being out of debt, and having $800 in its treasury, voted to take its savings bank revenue and pay state and county taxes, and to raise $1 for town charges.

Miss Hattie Stevens of Enfield, an employe in Dodge, Davis & Co.'s woolen mill, had the flesh torn off the under side of her right arm, in some places clean to the bone, by being drawn into the finisher in the card room last Thursday afternoon. By the slipping of a belt she extricated her arm, or her injuries might have been much worse.

A Haunted Desk.

A mysterious desk has for some time been an object of great solicitude in the office of the Pacific Coast railway, says the San Louis Obispo Tribune. Several months ago Freight Agent Haskins observed a singular rapping and rattling noise in the desk at which he was writing, and endeavored to ascertain the cause. After a careful examination no cause could be found, and work was resumed. At very inopportune times this noise would be repeated, and a belief was aroused that spirits had taken possession of the desk, and it was placed in another room. But even from there it continued its annoyance, and it was sent down to the depot without any intimation of its tricks. But at the depot it continued its rappings and the clerk to whom it was assigned chose boxes or tables or other desks to write upon rather than confess his fright at the haunted object which was his companion. Luckily a desk was wanted in the depot at Los Alamos. The clerk recommended that the one which had been assigned to him be sent, as he thought he could get along without it, and the officers of the company relieved him of the object of terror. The haunted desk was sent to Los Alamos, bearing a good character and a fresh coat of varnish. It was thought so great a removal would dislodge the troubled and troublesome spirit and give the clerks a rest. But now comes the complaint from Los Alamos of mysterious noises from that same desk.

The recent discussion of Mr. James, Mr. Howells, and other American writers, in the "Quarterly Review" and "Blackwood's Magazine," lends special interest to an article by Mr. Warner on "Modern Fiction" in the April "Atlantic." The same number contains the first act of Mr. James' dramatization of "Daisy Miller," which will include many characters and incidents not embraced in the original story; and "A New Parishioner," a New England story, by Sarah Orne Jewett.

SCROFULA.

A remedy that can destroy the germs of scrofula, and when once settled has the power to root it out, must be appreciated by those afflicted. The remarkable cures of young children and the more wonderful cures of those of middle age and late in life, as illustrated by our printed testimonials, prove HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA to be a reliable remedy, containing remedial agents which do positively cure scrofula and eradicate it from the blood.

WARNER, N. H., Jan. 21, 1879.

MESSRS. C. I. HOOD & CO., Lowell, Mass.: Gentlemen—For ten years previous to the early part of 1877 I had been a constant sufferer from scrofulous ulcers or sores, which had finally reduced me to a helpless condition, as described in my letter to you in September of that year. The continued excellent health which enables me to keep house for my aged father and to enjoy life, keeps alive my intense personal interest in HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA, and I cannot refrain from expressing my gratitude for the permanent cure this wonderful medicine effected in my case nearly two years ago, while living in Lowell, when all my physicians gave me up as being in an incurable condition. One thing before I close. I have recommended your Sarsaparilla to hundreds, and I think more than a thousand cases, and my faith in its invincibility in curing scrofula has become absolute by the wonderful cures it has effected aside from my own. I trust you will not be slow in making the merits of HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA known everywhere, for it is a duty you owe to mankind. With best wishes I remain very truly yours,

SARAH C. WHITTIER

LORY ODELL.

The oldest member of the bar of this city, died at Portland, Me., on Saturday.

He some time ago left this city to pay a visit to his sister, Mrs. Joel Eastman, at Conway, and stopping on the way at Portland, where he was accustomed to make occasional visits, was taken sick and confined to his room for several months, the final result being his death as stated.

Judge Odell was the son of the late Richard Odell of Conway. He was graduated at Bowdoin college in the class with the late Wm. Pitt Fessenden, and came to Portsmouth, where he read law with Jeremiah Mason; and after his admission to the bar in 1826, practiced law in this city. He was collector of the port from July 1st, 1844, to April 9th, 1845, and from June 28th, 1849, to April 27th, 1853.

He was appointed justice of the police court in July, 1855, as the successor of the late Wm. P. Parker, who had been removed by an address of the legislature of that year, which position he held until he reached the age of seventy years, when by the constitutional provision he was no longer eligible to serve in that office.

He was admitted to the bar of the United States Circuit court on Oct. 9th, 1826, and was appointed a commissioner of the court May 9th, 1842.

The judge was never in large professional practice, though he was a well-read lawyer. Of late years he devoted much time to general literature; he was extremely fond of historial researches, and was an habitual frequenter of the library room of the Portsmouth Athenæum. He was unmarried. His age was eighty-one years.

On Sunday Mr. R. Edwin Rider, who for over eighteen years has been organist of the Catholic church in this city, was presented by the choir with a silver-mounted writing desk, the occasion being the close of his service as organist there.

The Manchester Mirror of the 23d inst. said: "A trip of the 'City of Bangor,' the steamer on the new York beach line, which Manchester parties are interested in, will be made from Boston to Portsmouth next Tuesday if the weather is favorable, and a party of gentlemen from here will accompany Mr. S. C. Forsaith, one of the leading spirits in the enterprise, on the excursion. The steamer has only been run three seasons, and is the one which will make daily trips next summer."

Two gentlemen, residents of Montreal, Canada, who were in this city on Thursday night of last week, stated that the project was strongly talked of in that city by persons interested, of making this port the winter terminus of the Allan line of steamships, instead of Portland. Better facilities, and an unobstructed entrance to the harbor in winter, were points spoken of as being advantageous to the interests of the company.

Next Monday evening, at Music hall, our theatre-going population will have an opportunity of seeing Miss Margaret Mather, the young actress who has won such enthusiastic commendation from the dramatic critics wherever she has appeared, and who rouses the coldest audiences to enthusiasm. Reserved seat tickets, at seventy-five cents or $1 each, according to location, will go on sale this morning at Goodrich's Congress block bookstore.

The Newmarket Advertiser of last week said that "There is more sickness in and about town at the present time than for many years. One of our physicians has between sixty and seventy patients, and one day last week made forty-three professional calls. The principal diseases are throat and lung troubles, and the measles, the latter being especially prevalent among the children; hardly a family in town but has one or more cases."

Skating rink in Franklin hall on Wednesday and Thursday, afternoon and evening, just the place for beginners; G. H. Vittum manager.

About forty cars loaded with coal were on the Eastern railroad tracks on Noble's island, Sunday, waiting to be hauled to Dover. Three vessels loaded with coal, bound for Dover, are expected to arrive immediately, and unless the Cocheco river opens, their cargoes will have to be transported by rail. Extra freight trains over the Portsmouth & Dover railroad are run daily, mostly with coal to supply the mills at Dover.

Parties from out of town have recently been examining the site of the Kearsarge mills, to decide upon the fitness of the location for the establishment of locomotive works.

Clarence A. Jenness was arrested at the navy yard on Friday, while attempting to carry a quantity of copper off the yard. On Saturday he was taken to Portland by Deputy United States Marshal W. H. Smith of that city, and arraigned before a United States commissioner; and pleading guilty to the charge, he was held in $500 for trial at the April term of the United States Circuit court. His intellect is below the average, and it would be an easy matter for a person more responsible mentally to make a cat's-paw of him.

Mr. George B. Wallace, day telegraph operator at the Eastern railroad station in this city, is temporarily acting as ticket agent in place of Mr. Smith, who is absent on a short vacation.

There was a large attendance at the various churches on Sunday. The floral displays, though none of them elaborate, were all in good taste, and included crosses, wreaths, bouquets, baskets of flowers, and a profusion of calla lilies.

The steamer Harrisburg arrived at the Concord railroad wharf on Sunday morning. In coming through the narrows the pilot's skiff was caught by the steamer's propeller, and ground up. The boat was valued at $90.

About 20,000 lbs. of fish was received at this port during the week ending March 24th.

Washington was visited by a snow storm on Friday, the 23d inst., and there were on that day vigorous snow storms in North Carolina and at Halifax, N. S. We have every reason to be satisfied that though with cold weather that day, we enjoyed clear skies while other localities suffered from the effects of a spring snow storm.

Mr. George F. Plaisted of York has been commissioned a coroner for York county.

Mr. Fred S. Moore was left alone on Smuttynose island at the Shoals for eleven days during Wiggins' "danger period," having no one except a cow to talk to during that time, another man who had been on the island having departed for the main land with his family before the "danger period" sat in, to escape the tidal wave. When Mr. John Hall, from Star island, called at Smuttynose, Mr. Moore assured him he was welcome.

Messrs. Joseph Caswell and John Stover go out to the Shoals this week, to engage in the lobster fishery, with headquarters on Cedar island. They have had a hundred lobster pots made for them in Eliot.

At Kittery, on Sunday last, the Second Christian Church Bible school gave an Easter concert, the programme for which consisted of thirty-one numbers, including five "symbol movements," whatever they may have been.

Rules for Milking.

The following rules are issued from a New York cheese factory for the use of its patrons:—

1. Milch cows should have free access, at all times, to running water.
2. They should never be heated by being run, stoned or dogged.
3. The utmost cleanliness should be observed in milking, and by no means wet the hands in the milk while milking.
4. No can of milk should stand where it will absorb stable odor, or any scent.
5. The milk should be strained and well aired immediately after having been drawn from the cows.
6. The bag of the cow, especially in the winter season, being kept in a stall bedded nights, should be carefully wiped before milking, in order that all chaff or other dirt that might adhere, be removed, and thus prevented from falling into and injuring the milk.
7. Never allow yourself, if milking into a strainer pail, to use one after it should by any accident have lost the lid that covers the nose of the strainer, for dirt is liable to collect therein, and on the milk being strained carried, if not before noticed, with the milk into the pan.

Before "stirring the froth in," which the housewife or maid should never fail to do, as it is as rich as any part of the milk, and will not strain through unless stirred into the "milk" proper, it should be let stand a few minutes, for by so doing the froth and the denser portion of the milk will mix much more readily and thoroughly.

The Government Chemist Analyzes two of the Leading Baking Powders, and what he finds them made of.

I have examined samples of "Cleveland's Superior Baking Powder" and "Royal Baking Powder," purchased by myself in this city, and I find they contain:

"Cleveland's Superior Baking Powder."
Cream of Tartar,
Bicarbonate of Soda,
Flour.

Available carbonic acid gas 12.61 per cent, equivalent to 118.2 cubic inches of gas per oz. of Powder.

"Royal Baking Powder."
Cream of Tartar,
Bicarbonate of Soda,
Carbonate of Ammonia,
Tartaric Acid,
Starch.

Available carbonic acid gas 12.40 per cent, equivalent to 116.2 cubic inches of gas per oz. of Powder.

Ammonia gas 0.43 per cent, equivalent to 10.4 cubic inches per oz. of Powder.

NOTE.—The Tartaric acid was doubtless introduced as free acid, but subsequently combined with ammonia, and exists in the Powder as a Tartrate of Ammonia. E. G. LOVE, Ph. D.

NEW YORK, Jan'y 17th, 1881.

The above shows conclusively that "Cleveland's Superior" is a strictly pure Cream of Tartar Baking Powder. It has also been analyzed by Professor Johnson of Yale College; Dr. Genth of the University of Pennsylvania; President Morton of the Stevens Institute; Wm. M. Habirshaw, F. C. S., Analyst for the Chemical Trade of New York, and other eminent chemists, all of whom pronounce it absolutely pure and healthful.—Hall's Journal of Health for April, 1882.

THE Admiration OF THE WORLD.
Mrs. S. A. Allen's WORLD'S Hair Restorer
IS PERFECTION!

Public Benefactress. Mrs. S. A. ALLEN has justly earned this title, and thousands are this day rejoicing over a fine head of hair produced by her unequaled preparation for restoring, invigorating, and beautifying the Hair. Her World's Hair Restorer quickly cleanses the scalp, removing Dandruff, and arrests the fall; the hair, if gray, is changed to its natural color, giving it the same vitality and luxurious quantity as in youth.

COMPLIMENTARY. "My hair is now restored to its youthful color; I have not a gray hair left. I am satisfied that the preparation is not a dye, but acts on the secretions. My hair ceases to fall, which is certainly an advantage to me, who was in danger of becoming bald." This is the testimony of all who use Mrs. S. A. ALLEN'S WORLD'S HAIR RESTORER.

"One Bottle did it." That is the expression of many who have had their gray hair restored to its natural color, and their bald spot covered with hair, after using one bottle of MRS. S. A. ALLEN'S WORLD'S HAIR RESTORER. It is not a dye.

SECRET!

THE ONLY DISSOLVER OF THE POISON, URIC ACID WHICH EXISTS IN THE BLOOD OF RHEUMATIC AND GOUTY PATIENTS.

SALICYLICA is known as a common-sense remedy, because it strikes directly at the cause of Rheumatism, Gout and Neuralgia, while so many so-called specifics and supposed panaceas only treat locally the effects.

In has been conceded by eminent scientists that outward applications, such as rubbing with oils, ointments, liniments, and soothing lotions will not eradicate these diseases which are the result of the poisoning of the blood with Uric Acid.

SALICYLICA works with marvelous effect on this acid, and so removes the disorder. It is now exclusively used by all celebrated physicians of America and Europe. Highest Medical Academy of Paris reports 95 per cent. cures in three days.

HEART DISEASE

A NOTED BUT UNTITLED WOMAN.

[From the Boston Globe.]

Messrs. Editors:—

The above is a good likeness of Mrs. Lydia E. Pinkham, of Lynn, Mass., who above all other human beings may be truthfully called the "Dear Friend of Woman," as some of her correspondents love to call her. She is zealously devoted to her work, which is the outcome of a life-study, and is obliged to keep six lady assistants, to help her answer the large correspondence which daily comes in upon her, such bearing its special burden of suffering, or joy at release from it. Her Vegetable Compound is a medicine for good and not evil purposes. I have personally investigated it and am satisfied of the truth of this.

On account of its proven merits, it is recommended and prescribed by the best physicians in the country. One says: "It works like a charm and saves much pain. It will cure entirely the worst form of falling of the uterus, Leucorrhœa, Irregular and painful Menstruation, all Ovarian Troubles, Inflammation and Ulceration, Floodings, all Displacements and the consequent spinal weakness, and is especially adapted to the Change of Life."

It permeates every portion of the system, and gives new life and vigor. It removes faintness, flatulency, destroys all craving for stimulants, and relieves weakness of the stomach. It cures Bloating, Headaches, Nervous Prostration, General Debility, Sleeplessness, Depression and Indigestion. That feeling of bearing down, causing pain, weight and backache, is always permanently cured by its use. It will at all times, and under all circumstances, act in harmony with the law that governs the female system.

It costs only $1. per bottle or six for $5., and is sold by druggists. Any advice required as to special cases, and the name of many who have been restored to perfect health by the use of the Vegetable Compound, can be obtained by addressing Mrs. P., with stamp for reply at her home in Lynn, Mass.

For Kidney Complaints of either sex this compound is unsurpassed as abundant testimonials show.

"Mrs. Pinkham's Liver Pills," says one writer, "are the best in the world for the cure of Constipation, Biliousness and Torpidity of the liver. Her Blood Purifier works wonders in its special line and bids fair to equal the Compound in its popularity."

All must respect her as an Angel of Mercy whose sole ambition is to do good to others.

"On The Wing."

Persons intending to visit California, and all who enjoy well-written books of travel, should read "On The Wing; Rambling Notes of a Trip to the Pacific," by Mary E. Blake, whose "Rambling Talks" in the Boston Journal are widely known and as generally admired. The author was a member of one of the Raymond California travelling parties of last year, and as such enjoyed unusual opportunities for study and observation amid the wonderful scenery and strange border or mining life of Colorado, New Mexico, Arizona and California. She has recorded her impressions in her own charmingly fresh and entertaining manner, and the reader sees with her eyes some of the grandest scenery upon the continent. The book is published by Messrs. Lee & Shepard, Boston, and is sold for one dollar.

The court of inquiry which was appointed some time ago to investigate charges against Passed Assistant Paymaster Stephen Rand, Jr. stationed at Newport, R. I., has found him innocent. Secretary Chandler has approved the verdict, and the official order exonerating him from the charges preferred has been promulgated. Paymaster Rand was charged by the commanding officer at Newport with making purchases at higher prices than the regular market or wholesale rates, and with dealing almost exclusively with one firm.

Mrs. David Coburn, wife of a farmer living near Richford, Vt., was badly burned on the 20th inst. by her clothes taking fire, and came near being destroyed with the house. She was in her room, sick, and could not help herself, but her screams attracted her husband, who ran and found her enveloped in flames. He succeeded in extinguishing the fire, and saved the house from being burned. The doctors think Mrs. Coburn cannot live.

The eruption of Mount Ætna is increasing in violence. A new crater has opened. The lava from the volcano threatens to overwhelm Nicolosi and other villages. The people living in the threatened places are fleeing from their homes. Troops are assisting them. There are eleven fissures in the mountain; the central opening is active, but there is no discharge of lava.

—Col. Higginson thinks that George Elliot, if she had ever held a dead babe in her arms, would have wanted something more to console her than the philosophy of Herbert Spencer.

Mrs Cole of Windham, N. H., declares that her life was saved by Hood's Sarsaparilla. She had 37 terrible scrofulous sores.

—The negro ministers of New Orleans have induced their parishioners to be vaccinated after the board of health had employed every means except force in vain.

Liver, Kidney and Bright's Disease.

A medicine that destroys the germ or cause of Bright's disease, diabetes, kidney and liver complaints, and has power to root them out of the system, is above all price. Such a medicine is Hop Bitters, and positive proof of this can be found by one trial, or by asking your neighbors, who have been cured by it.

—In old times Italian money brokers had benches on the change. When one came to grief his bench was broken up, hence banco rotto, which was then perverted into bankerout, and finally into bankrupt.

—A lady saw one-half the show at the Opera house in Pittsburg the other night, then went into an ante-room and gave birth to a bouncing boy. The father could not see the whole of the piece upon the stage, but he will probably never forget being present.

☞ Millions of packages of the Diamond Dyes have been sold without a single complaint. Everywhere they are the favorite Dyes.

—A certain little Pharisee, who was praying, for his big brother, had a good deal of human nature in him, even if he was only six years old. He prayed, "O Lord bless brother Bill and make him as good a boy as I am."

IN MINNESOTA & DAKOTA

VARIOUS QUACKS.

Who--Each with his own Pet Scheme--

Cultivate the Field of Human Nature.

There have always been quacks:—legal quacks, theological quacks, scientific quacks and medical quacks. Some of them are bland, oily fellows who argue and smile the world into believing in their favorite bit of humbug. Others are pompous and pretentious parasites. But they make it pay. Men seem to love to be swindled, stipulating only that it shall be neatly done.

The dear public are equally liberal to the electric and magnetic fraud. This fellow is a genius in his line. He will put a magnetic belt around your waist, a magnetic necklace under your chin, or fit you out with an entire suit of magnetic clothes, warranted to serve the purpose of ordinary garments, and at the same time to cure all diseases, from whooping-cough to hasty consumption.

Most of these have no more electric or magnetic power about them than resides in wooden bankets or in girdles of sackcloth. Only when applied by an expert is electricity of the slightest use as a medicinal agent, and even then its value is grossly over-stated. What is the strongest possible presumptive evidence in favor of a particular remedy? Clearly that it should have been prepared by responsible persons of acknowledged skill in the treatment of disease.

Squarely on this foundation stands BENSON'S CAPCINE POROUS PLASTER. Endorsed by 5,000 physicians, pharmacists, druggists and chemists, it needs no further apology nor introduction. It is the one and only true and tried external application. Quacks of all kinds pay the Capcine the compliment of their dislike, as Satan is said to hate holy water.

Joseph F. Benjamin of Sheffield, Mass., has been fined $350 for liquor selling, on four counts. Two other cases against him have not been decided.

It is important to know, that if kid gloves are laid upon a damp towel for two or three minutes, they will go on with less chance of tearing; but it is more important to know that Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup is a sure cure for coughs and colds.

Barney Coswell, living in Taunton, Mass., was found in his cellar, Sunday, hanging by the neck from a beam, dead. Melancholia supposed to be the cause.

"Rough on Corns."

The tragedy at Calais, Me., last week, seems to have been a queer affair all around. Herbert Eaton, who wounded his brother, and fatally shot Samuel Kelly, Jr., was released on bail after it became certain that Kelly would die; and when, after Kelly's death, the officers went to arrest Eaton on a charge of murder, he could not be found, and the authorities, while professing to do all that was possible to catch him, offered no reward for his arrest. It was further stated that Kelly, before he died, refused to make any statement regarding the affair.

Test a man's profession by his practice. Physician, heal thyself!" Physicians not only heal themselves with Kidney-Wort, but prescribe it for others for the worst cases of biliousness and constipation, as well as for kidney complaints. If you feel out of sorts and don't know why, try a package of Kidney-Wort and you will feel like a new creature.

Edwin A. Gerry, senior member of the firm of Gerry & Son, provision dealers of Lowell, Mass., shot himself at his residence, Sunday noon, and died in half an hour. He has been ill for some time, and the deed was done in a fit of despondency. Aged fifty-three years.

*Druggists say that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the best remedy for female complaints they ever heard of.

Patrick Connelly, a wealthy and prominent resident of Troy, N. Y., had a quarrel with his wife on March 24th, and threw her out of the second-story window. Her skull was fractured, and nearly every bone in her body broken. Connelly was arrested.

Why do you suffer with back ache, pain in the chest, rheumatism, or lameness anywhere when a Hop Plaster will surely give you relief? Druggists sell them, 25 cts.

Lawyer Sam. Jones of New Haven, Conn., will defend Brooks Johnson, the alleged murderer of the Judson sisters. He will also defend Jere Dunn, the murderer of Jim Elliott, at Chicago.

"I'm happy to say Dr. Benson's Skin Cure has cured my Eczema of the scalp, of four years standing." Jno A. Andrews, att'y at law, Ashton, Ill. $1 at druggists. Endorsed by physicians

J. A. Blackman, an old postal clerk on the Missouri Pacific railroad, was arrested March 24th for robbing the mails. Blackman is an ex-member of the Kansas legislature.

"Trying to do business without advertising," remarks an exchange, "is like winking at a girl in the dark. You may know what you are doing but nobody else does." Trying to cure catarrh by the use of snuffs and irritating liquid injections is the height of folly also. The disease will never be cured by such treatment. Moreover, the delicate lining membranes of the nasal organs will, sooner or later, become inflamed and diseased by such irritants. Ely's Cream Balm is not a snuff or liquid, and is easily applied. It's effects are pleasant, rapid and thorough. No case of catarrh or cold in the head can withstand its effects. "I could scarcely speak," says J. O. Tichenor, dealer in boots and shoes, Elizabeth, N. J., "It was almost impossible to breathe through my nostrils, on account of catarrh. Ely's Cream Balm cured me in a short time." All druggists sell it at fifty cents.

The wife of Damond Chapman of North Attleboro, Mass., has been a sufferer from ill health, and became despondent. Saturday morning, after her husband had departed to his barber shop, Mrs. Chapman bade her children good-bye, and pressing a revolver to her forehead, fatally shot herself. She leaves three children. Saturday was Mrs. Chapman's 23d birthday.

A GOOD INVESTMENT. — One of our prominent business men said to us the other day: "In the spring my wife got all run down and could not eat anything; passing your store I saw a pile of Hood's Sarsaparilla in the window, and I got a bottle. After she had taken it a week she had a rousing appetite, and did her everything. She took three bottles, and it was the best three dollars I ever invested." C. L. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass

The coroner's jury at Calais, Me., found that Samuel Kelley, Jr., was killed by Herbert Eaton. "Herb" has disappeared, and it is openly said that he is too rich and his family too influential for him to be punished. He has been notorious in his neighborhood for his "fast" life, having nothing to do but to spend money. He appears to have been about as utterly worthless as it was possible for a human being of fair intellect to be.

Terrible Sufferings.

Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.:—I have a friend who suffered terribly. I purchased a bottle of your "Favorite Prescription," and as a result of its use, she is perfectly well. J. Bailey, Burdett, N.Y. Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery" and "Pleasant Purgative Pellets" purify the blood and cure constipation. a

The first English edition of Mr. Bosworth Smith's "Life of Lord Lawrence" was exhausted a few days after its publication. It is a long time since any book has been so enthusiastically received by the newspapers and reviews. Mr. Andrew Lang's fine poem, "Helen of Troy," has also gone into a second edition.

A YOUNG OLD LADY.

"Yes, Sir! I'm Younger than any of my Children now," said Mrs. Sarah H. Robinson, of 61 William St., New Haven, Conn.—We read about this kind of Noble Ladies, but Seldom See them in Society.

"Yes, sir; I'm younger than any of my children now. I keep up with the times, I read the papers, applaud the victories of old Yale, and don't grow old," were the words of Mrs. Robinson to your reporter when he called at her home. Mrs. Robinson is one of the earnest, go-ahead sort of aged ladies, of whom you read, but whom you so rarely find in modern society. "I've had my share of trouble," she said, "for all my life I've been a sufferer from erysipelas. From this has resulted diseased stomach and inaction of the digestive organs. I've been troubled with dyspepsia, and have had such a weakness of the stomach it has seemed as if I needed something artificial and strengthening. I attribute this to erysipelas, which is constitutional with me. I've been under the physician's care a great deal during my life, but I never received any permanent benefit I think until I began taking Dr. Kennedy's FAVORITE REMEDY, which has proved a perfect restorative in my case. My health is better now than it has been for a long time. I consider Dr. Kennedy's FAVORITE REMEDY an excellent medicine. It is used extensively in this city. I keep it as a family medicine, and rely upon it for I know of the good results of using it."

Your reporter left Mrs. Robinson rejoicing in health and renewed youth, and bestowing merited praise on that which is the source of happiness to thousands, viz; Dr. Kennedy's FAVORITE REMEDY. Ask your druggist for it. Kennedy's FAVORITE REMEDY has become a household word. Everybody, sooner or later, gets sick, and sickness is both wearisome and costly. FAVORITE REMEDY steps in at this point. It is not expensive and it is efficient. For all diseases of the Blood, Bilious Disorders, Kidney Complaints, Constipation, and the aches and ills which make the domestic life of women a cross so hard to bear.

They Ran For The Doctor.

Some people are always running for the doctor when the least thing is the matter with themselves or their children. Of course, the doctor likes this, for he gets well paid for it. But there are many occasions when the judicious use of Perry Davis's Pain Killer will do all the doctor can. Mr. R. V. Miller, of Syracuse, N. Y., says he has for twenty years used Pain Killer for miscellaneous family sicknesses; and that it is so valuable that it ought to be kept in every house.

Two thousand infantry have been ordered to protect public buildings in London. The Coldstream Guards have been posted in the parliament buildings and Buckingham palace.

General Grant has visited every civilized country, yet in all his travels he has never seen a more effectual remedy for coughs and colds than Adamson's Botanic Balsam. Sold by druggists and dealers at thirty-five cts. Trial size, ten cts. Large bottles, seventy-five cents.

Another Good Thing.

Another good deed, about which nothing particular has been said, although it is of much interest to shippers, shipowners, mariners and marine insurance companies, was done by the 47th Congress in its last hours, on March 3d, 1883. It will be remembered that early in 1882 the lighthouse board issued an order announcing a change in the character of the important lights at Cape Elizabeth, Me., by which it was proposed to discontinue one of the two lights there. This change was strongly remonstrated against by the boards of trade of the maritime cities of New England, by ship masters, and by merchants interested in coastwise commerce; but the eminently respectable though stubborn—not to say pigheaded—old naval officers who control the lighthouse board, stuck to it that they know better what was suited to the wants of commerce than did the maritime interests of the country all put together, and issued another order (No. 1 of 1883) proclaiming their intention to change the distinctive character of the Cape Elizabeth lights on a date mentioned. Congress, however, seems to have thought it possible that the captain of a first class ocean steamer might know as much about what was for the benefit of navigation as a naval officer, and passed an act prohibiting any change in the character of the lights; and the lighthouse board accordingly issued on the 17th inst. an order announcing that the lights will remain as at present. Good enough.

News and Notes.

Charles H. Currier of Newburyport, formerly a well known ship-builder on the Merrimac, died on Saturday of consumption, aged fifty-three years. He was formerly the senior partner of the firm of C. H. Currier & Co., composed at one time of the deceased, Geo. E. Currier, John Currier, 3d, and John T. Filmore. He was a good mechanic, and a man much respected in his native city. For some time past he had been in declining health. He at one time was interested in vessels and possessed quite a handsome property, which became materially reduced by the decline in American ship owning.

Susan and Anna Dalton, under arrest at Holyoke, Mass., are very aristocratic for shoplifters. Susan is aged twenty-two, and has been attending the Westfield normal school. Anna is eighteen, and has been taking music lessons at Hartford. They were arrested at Westfield, and were committed for trial. A trunk full of cashmeres, silks, satins, flannels and shawls were found in their room.

Nugent and twelve other members of the Armagh (Ireland) assassination society were on the 23d inst. found guilty by a jury. A man named Hadnett has been indicted for sending a dynamite package to Earl Spencer through the mail.

In a Philadelphia club room, one evening last week, Mr. Scott, son of the late Tom Scott, the railroad king, lost $43,000 on one hand at draw poker, his antagonist being John Turner. Scott held four queens, but Turner scooped the stakes with a "straight flush."

The March number of the "Granite Monthly" contains a well written sketch of Hon. James F. Briggs, late representative in Congress from this state and a member-elect of the New Hampshire house of representatives, from the pen of Henry M. Puntey, with a fine steel plate engraving. "The Dartmouth College association of Washington," prepared by Wm. H. Gardiner of this city, is of much historical interest. Judge Nesmith contributes some reminiscences of Jeremiah Mason's law arguments. The editor threatens to publish a "biographical account of the legislature," and ere long the men who will find themselves famous will be plenty in the state.

Hon. Timothy O. Howe, postmaster general of the United States, died in Kenosha, Wis., on the 25th inst., after a brief illness of pneumonia. He was born in Livermore, Me., and has been prominent in public life for many years.

AROUND HOME.

Wednesday being "railroad day," the Eastern road will run an extra train for stockholders, leaving this city at 6:55 o'clock A. M., and Boston at 4:45 P. M.

The schooner Christie Campbell, Jameson master, is fitting out for fresh fishing from Boston.

There have been no bass caught in the Newmarket and Exeter rivers this spring, a very unusual occurrence, as ordinarily many tons of these fish are taken in those streams each year. As the ice is breaking up and leaving the bay, the owners of weirs will probably reap the benefit of the failure of the winter fishery for bass, by catching the fish themselves.

The treasury department has issued a statement showing the receipts and disbursements by districts (customs and internal revenue) for the year ending June 30th, 1882. The receipts from the Portsmouth customs district amounted to $85,051, and from the New Hampshire internal revenue district to $352,394.

The schooner A. C. Newhall, of 37.31 tons register, built at Salisbury, Mass., in 1858, has been purchased of parties in Gloucester for $2755, by Solomon H. White and Albert H. White of Newcastle, and arrived at this port last week. She will fish out of this port the coming season.

Some of the parents who are sending children to the Franklin school on Christian Shore, think there should be some additional means of escape from the second floor, as there is now only one way of exit, and in case of the stairs catching fire a jump of twenty-five feet would be the only chance of getting out of the building.

The schooner Good Templar, which wintered in "the pool" below the second Newcastle bridge, was last week hauled out and taken to Doane's wharf to fit for the Western banks. She will be commanded by Capt. Elias Tarlton.

The schooner Mary Eleanor, from La Have, Nova Scotia, arrived at the Eastern railroad wharf on Monday with 2700 ties for the road, which will be treated to the wood-preserving process at the works on Noble's island before being distributed along the line.

The coal scow belonging to the Dover Navigation Co. was on Monday taken from her winter quarters at Call's wharf, and hauled alongside the steamer Harrisburg to load with one hundred and twenty tons of coal for Dover.

Persons interested in the organization of a new Episcopal parish are requested to meet in Christ church on Wednesday afternoon, when the bishop will be present.

The schooner Hattie Lewis came off the marine railway on Monday, and the Emily A. Staples will go on the ways today to be caulked and painted. The latter vessel was hauled out through the Noble's island bridge on Monday, the draw being kept open nearly an hour to allow her to pass, to the great inconvenience of travel. The schooner James W. Raitt is being rapidly made ready for business; and the schooner Chilion is receiving repairs and a coat of paint, preparatory to carrying bricks to Boston or going east for lumber, as the chances may offer.

About 8,000 lbs. of fish arrived on Monday.

Mr. R. Edwin Rider left this city for St. Paul, Minn., on Monday. Mr. John Canty starts for Minneapolis to-day.

Mr. George B. French on Monday bought the sloop yacht "Bertha G.," for $200, of the estate of the late Thomas H. Odion. Mr. French has sold the boat which he has sailed for a number of years past to Mr. Alfred R. Goodwin for $100. Both the boats are good ones.

Twenty car-loads of potatoes went through this city over the Eastern railroad on one freight train Monday evening, bound west.

The people of South Eliot who had the courage to venture out in the wet, rough and slippery travelling of Wednesday evening, the 21st inst., had the pleasure of listening to one of the best entertainments ever given in the town. The programme consisted of selections on the violin by Miss Fannie Hoyt of Newington, solos by Miss Flora Hayes of Kittery, and quartette and chorus singing by Mrs. W. H. Staples, Miss Ella Dame, Miss Gracie M. Remick, Mr. Chas. R. Littlefield, Mr. J. Wesley Remick, Mr. Augustus Paul and Mr. J. W. Wherren. Miss Hoyt, who is so well known and whose playing is so much admired in this vicinity, delighted the audience whenever she appeared upon the stage. Miss Hayes rendered some very pleasing compositions, in a voice soft and sweet, particularly when confined to notes written on the staff. The quartette and chorus singing was generally excellent, nearly all the participants appearing in unusually fine voice. Mrs. J. C. Lydston played the accompaniments with her usual exactness. The entertainment was held in the Methodist Episcopal church, and was a decided success. QUILL.

At the town election in Kittery, Monday, the officers of last year were re-elected throughout, and the same amounts were appropriated as last year, with $200 additional for a road on Cutts' island. The town refused to appoint inspectors of buildings, or to endorse a petition to the legislature for a charter for a steam ferry between Kittery and Portsmouth.

Piscataqua Commandery, U. O. G. C., of Eliot, was presented last Thursday evening by Sir Knight and Lady Mary F. Athorne with a costly and handsome Bible. Lady Athorne presented the book with appropriate remarks, which were responded to by the noble commander.

The steamer James Sampson, in making her landing at Kittery Point, Monday, ran against the pier, breaking some of the iron work connecting the timbers.

Though pure and simple, and so mild,
It might be used by any child,
Yet SOZODONT'S so swift and sure
That mouth and teeth with wondrous speed
From tartar and from taint are freed
Till they become sweet, white and pure.

SCROFULA.

A remedy that can destroy the germs of scrofula, and when once settled has the power to root it out, must be appreciated by those afflicted. The remarkable cures of young children and the more wonderful cures of those of middle age and late in life, as illustrated by our printed testimonials, prove HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA to be a reliable remedy, containing remedial agents which do positively cure scrofula and eradicate it from the blood.

WARNER, N. H., Jan. 21, 1873.

MESSRS. C. I. HOOD & CO., Lowell, Mass.: Gentlemen—For ten years previous to the early part of 1877 I had been a constant sufferer from scrofulous ulcers or sores, which had finally reduced me to a helpless condition, as described in my letter to you in September of that year. The continued excellent health which enables me to keep house for my aged father and to enjoy life, keeps alive my intense personal interest in HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA, and I cannot refrain from expressing my gratitude for the permanent cure this wonderful medicine effected in my case nearly two years ago, while living in Lowell, when all my physicians gave me up as being in an incurable condition. One thing before I close. I have recommended your Sarsaparilla to hundreds, and I think more than a thousand cases, and my faith in its invincibility in curing scrofula has become absolute by the wonderful cures it has effected aside from my own. I trust you will not be slow in making the merits of HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA known everywhere, for it is a duty you owe to mankind. With best wishes I remain very truly yours,

SARAH C. WHITTIEF

MARGARET MATHER.

Of this young actress, who has so suddenly stepped to the front rank on the American stage, the Boston Sunday Herald of the 18th inst. said:

Miss Margaret Mather concluded her very brilliant and successful engagement at the Park theatre yesterday, playing Pauline in the afternoon and Rosalind in the evening, before two of the largest and most enthusiastic audiences of the season. Her success here might be termed phenomenal, were it not that she has earned it honestly. She came an utter stranger; she departs holding high rank among the stars whom Boston playgoers delight to honor; and whenever she chooses to return, she is sure of a warm welcome. It is gratifying to learn that her health is firmly re-established, and that she is not likely to suffer from a recurrence of the severe illness which so suddenly interrupted her season here. She will, during the next three weeks, visit the principal cities of New England, and reports from all directions indicate that she will play to crowded houses, for the advance sales have thus far been the largest of the season.

Miss Mathes will appear in Music hall on Monday evening of next week, as Pauline, in the charming drama "The Lady of Lyons." Seats can now be secured at Goodrich's bookstore in Congress block.

THE POOL TOURNAMENT.

The contest at the Eureka pool rooms, No. 31 Congress street, for the possession of an elegant meerschaum pipe and cigar-holder to be awarded to the persons making the highest runs at the game, will be decided on Saturday evening next; the best run yet made is thirteen balls, two gentlemen having that record to their credit. The interest evinced when the room was opened continues unabated, the patronage being undiminished; the superiority of the table is acknowledged by all who have tried it, and there are no objectionable accessories connected with the room. Mr. Preble and his assistant, Mr. Hersey, continue to perform all the major and minor operations of hair dressing in the best manner, as heretofore.

WHO PULLED THE STRING?

There has been a good deal of talk in some of the papers for a week or more past about who pulled the lanyard which exploded the torpedo under the rebel ram Albemarle, the honor of having done this being claimed by a New Hampshire man called by his friends "Dan the Brave," while others maintain that Lieut. Cushing, who commanded the expedition, himself pulled the lanyard which made the dreaded ironclad a wreck. Concerning this matter the following was telegraphed from Washington last week:

Daniel G. George, having publicly advertised himself as the man who exploded the torpedo which sunk the rebel ram Albemarle, the navy department, at the request of Paymaster Francis H. Swan, furnishes the official report of the late Commander Cushing of the destruction of the Albemarle, and an extract from sworn testimony of his, given in Washington in 1873, some nine years later. The report of Commander Cushing is dated Albemarle Sound, N. C., Oct. 30th, 1864, and contains details showing that Commander Cushing placed the torpedo under the rebel ram and exploded it himself. His report is corroborated by Paymaster Swan and Engineer Stivers, the only survivors.

No more recklessly-daring deed was planned on either side during the great civil war than the torpedo-launch expedition against the Albemarle, and there is no need for any one of the survivors of that expedition to claim the performance of any special service above the others; but the dispute as to who pulled the lanyard is of interest as illustrating the difficulty of securing absolute accuracy in matters of history, even when the incident under discussion is of recent occurrence. If we recollect aright (we have only our memory to go by) the Cushing expedition was composed of but seven men; of these seven, four are still living, for the Washington despatch is wrong in stating that Paymaster Swan and Engineer Stivers are the only survivors; and yet there is an acrimonious dispute now going on as to who it was that pulled a certain line on that occasion. Mr. Thomas S. Gay of this city, who was one of the torpedo-launch's crew, has always, so far as we are aware, said that Lieut. Cushing himself exploded the torpedo; and this has been accepted as unquestioned "history" until within a few days past.

POLICE COURT--BATCHELDER, J.

MONDAY, March 26th.

John Cunningham and and John Crowley, brought up on a charge of brawl and tumult, were discharged. Another complaint against the same persons, for an assault on Frank Foster, was also dismissed, the evidence going to show that Foster was drunk at the time of the alleged assault, and was himself the aggressor.

Frank Foster, for drunkenness, was fined $3, costs being taxed at $6.90; paid.

GOSSIPS SAY

That the three-masted schoonor Orville Horwitz, which arrived at this port last week with over a thousand tons of coal on board, is one of the handsomest specimens of marine architecture seen in the river for many a day.

That she entered the harbor with a stiff nor'wester blowing, with every sail set, and although deep loaded and obliged to make short tacks, behaved like a yacht.

That Mr. John H. Flagg has bought the house of Mr. George E. Stackpole on Miller avenue, and will occupy it this spring.

That Gunner Eugene Mack, U. S. N., for several years past stationed at this navy yard, having been placed on the retired list will remove to Somerville, Mass., next month, with his family,—a departure that will be regretted by very many persons.

That "Duke" Peverly, well known for many years as the manufacturer of home-brewed spruce and root beers at the south end, is seriously ill at his home on Newcastle street.

That the most salable edibles at the Easter sale in Congress hall last week were the big doughnuts,—reminders of our grandmother's days, — made by a northend lady.

That Major Urch had a gang of fifteen men at work on Monday tearing up the third Newcastle bridge, preparatory to the rebuilding of that structure.

That the major during the past ten days has had one hundred and seventy applications from different men desiring work on the bridges.

That this shows a state of affairs that should not exist in a city of so much wealth and so many natural advantages for industrial pursuits.

That the public schools close on the 31st inst. for two weeks.

That with the "Lady of Lyons" at Music hall on the 2d of April, "Esmeralda" on the 3d, Camilla Urso and a grand concert company on the 5th, and Joe Proctor as "Nick of the Woods" on the 6th, there will be no lack of entertainments next week.

That the stable keepers have washed up their sleighs, and stored them for the summer.

That the Portsmouth Roller Skating club will have a "carnival" in Franklin hall on Thursday evening, the 29th inst., with music by the Dover cornet band.

The company which is to present "Esmeralda," in this city next week comes to us direct from the Madison Square theatre of New York. Every actor is claimed to be a worthy artist; the original scenery, too, from New York, will be an attractive feature. The play ran 350 nights in New York city, and is the third of the great Madison Square theatre successes. The public may be assured of a fine performance.

Mr. William M. Paul of South Newmarket died at his residence in that town a little after midnight on Sunday. Deceased was for many years foreman of the machine shop of the Swamscott Machine Co., and for several years had been the treasurer of the company. He was a brother of Amos Paul, and the son of Nathaniel Paul, who was a native of Eliot, Me., and removed to Newmarket when a young man. Mr. Wm. M. Paul was an excellent mechanic and a good citizen, and his death will be greatly regretted by his townsmen and his associates in the company.

James M. Robertson, employed to run the saloon on Pleasant street opposite the post-office, left town by the Pullman train, Monday morning, without going through the formality of settling up with his principal, who says the stock was pretty much sold out by the late manager before he started.

The annual meeting of St. John's parish convened on Monday, and adjourned for one week.

Mr. Ike Bull, advance agent for Bishop's colored minstrels, was in town on Monday arranging for their appearance here on Friday and Saturday evenings. The company comprises some of the very best talent in that line in the country, including Tom McIntosh, "the man with the big mouth," Pete Devonear, Jim Grace, Roger Haycraft and many other well known performers.

The floral decorations at St. John's church, Easter Sunday, were about the same as last year. The elegant new cloths for the altar, lectern and pulpit, of white broadcloth trimmed with gold, were presented by one of the parishioners; the new book-marks, of white silk fringed with gold, were also presented to the church.

Orders were issued on the navy yard, Monday, that hereafter the workmen will muster at ten minutes before eight o'clock and ten minutes before one, instead of on the hours as previously, thus taking the mustering time out of the men's time instead of out of the government's.

Walter H. Staples was last week appointed postmaster at South Eliot.

Skating rink in Franklin hall on Wednesday and Thursday, afternoon and evening, just the place for beginners; G. H. Vittum manager.

Notice to Mariners.

The lighthouse board gives notice that as an act of Congress was passed March 3d, 1883, prohibiting any change in the character of the lights at Cape Elizabeth, Me, the previous orders of the board announcing a change are rescinded, and the lights will remain as at present, namely, "A fixed white light of the first order, and a light of the second order, fixed white, varied by a white flash every minute."

The Government Chemist Analyzes two of the Leading Baking Powders, and what he finds them made of.

I have examined samples of "Cleveland's Superior Baking Powder" and "Royal Baking Powder," purchased by myself in this city, and I find they contain:

"Cleveland's Superior Baking Powder."
Cream of Tartar,
Bicarbonate of Soda,
Flour.
Available carbonic acid gas 12.61 per cent, equivalent to 118.2 cubic inches of gas per oz. of Powder.

"Royal Baking Powder."
Cream of Tartar,
Bicarbonate of Soda,
Carbonate of Ammonia,
Tartaric Acid,
Starch.
Available carbonic acid gas 12.40 per cent, equivalent to 116.2 cubic inches of gas per oz. of Powder.

Ammonia gas 0.43 per cent, equivalent to 10.4 cubic inches per oz. of Powder.

NOTE.—The Tartaric acid was doubtless introduced as free acid, but subsequently combined with ammonia, and exists in the Powder as a Tartrate of Ammonia. E. G. LOVE, Ph. D.
NEW YORK, Jan'y 17th, 1881.

The above shows conclusively that "Cleveland's Superior" is a strictly pure Cream of Tartar Baking Powder. It has also been analyzed by Professor Johnson of Yale College; Dr. Genth of the University of Pennsylvania; President Morton of the Stevens Institute; Wm. M. Habirshaw, F. C. S., Analyst for the Chemical Trade of New York, and other eminent chemists, all of whom pronounce it absolutely pure and healthful.—Hall's Journal of Health for April, 1882.

THE Admiration OF THE WORLD. Mrs. S. A. Allen's WORLD'S Hair Restorer IS PERFECTION!

Public Benefactress. Mrs. S. A. ALLEN has justly earned this title, and thousands are this day rejoicing over a fine head of hair produced by her unequaled preparation for restoring, invigorating, and beautifying the Hair. Her World's Hair Restorer quickly cleanses the scalp, removing Dandruff, and arrests the fall; the hair, if gray, is changed to its natural color, giving it the same vitality and luxurious quantity as in youth.

COMPLIMENTARY. "My hair is now restored to its youthful color; I have not a gray hair left. I am satisfied that the preparation is not a dye, but acts on the secretions. My hair ceases to fall, which is certainly an advantage to me, who was in danger of becoming bald." This is the testimony of all who use MRS. S. A. ALLEN'S WORLD'S HAIR RESTORER.

"One Bottle did it." That is the expression of many who have had their gray hair restored to its natural color, and their bald spot covered with hair, after using one bottle of MRS. S. A. ALLEN'S WORLD'S HAIR RESTORER. It is not a dye.

SECRET!
SALICYLICA is known as a common-sense remedy, because it strikes directly at the cause of Rheumatism, Gout and Neuralgia, while so many so-called specifics and supposed panaceas only temporarily relieve the effects.
It has been conceded by eminent scientists that outward applications, such as rubbing with oils, ointments, liniments, and soothing lotions will not eradicate these diseases which are the result of the poisoning of the blood with Uric Acid.
SALICYLICA works with marvelous effect on this acid, and so removes the disorder. It is now exclusively used by all celebrated physicians of America and Europe. Highest Medical Academy of Paris reports 95 per cent. cures in three days.

MANHOOD

KNOW THYSELF.

A Book for Every Man! Young, Middle-aged and Old.

THE untold miseries that result from indiscretion in youth in early life may be alleviated and cured. Those who doubt these assertions should purchase the new medical work published by the PEABODY MEDICAL INSTITUTE, Boston, entitled THE SCIENCE OF LIFE; OR, SELF-PRESERVATION. Exhausted vitality, nervous and Physical debility, premature decline of man, or vitality impaired by the errors of youth, or too close application to business, may be restored and manhood regained.

Fifth edition, revised and enlarged, just published. It is a standard medical work, the best in the English language, written by a physician of great experience, to whom was awarded a gold and jewelled medal by the National Medical Association. It contains beautiful and very expensive engravings, 350 pages, more than 125 valuable prescriptions for all forms of diseases, acute and chronic, the result of many years of extensive and successful practice, either one of which is worth ten times the price of the book. Bound in beautiful French cloth, embossed, full gilt. Price only $1.25; by mail, postpaid, on receipt of price. Illustrated sample six cents. Send now.

HEART DISEASE

A NOTED BUT UNTITLED WOMAN.

[From the Boston Globe.]

Mount, Editors:—

The above is a good likeness of Mrs. Lydia E. Pinkham, of Lynn, Mass., who above all other human beings may be truthfully called the "Dear Friend of Woman," as some of her correspondents love to call her. She is zealously devoted to her work, which is the outcome of a life-study, and is obliged to keep six lady assistants, to help her answer the large correspondence which daily pours in upon her, each bearing its special burden of suffering, or joy at release from it. Her Vegetable Compound is a medicine for good and not evil purposes. I have personally investigated it and am satisfied of the truth of this.

On account of its proven merits, it is recommended and prescribed by the best physicians in the country. One says: "It works like a charm and saves much pain. It will cure entirely the worst form of falling of the uterus, Leucorrhœa, Irregular and painful Menstruation, all Ovarian Troubles, Inflammation and Ulceration, Floodings, all Displacements and the consequent spinal weakness, and is especially adapted to the Change of Life."

It permeates every portion of the system, and gives new life and vigor. It removes faintness, flatulency, destroys all craving for stimulants, and relieves weakness of the stomach. It cures Bloating, Headaches, Nervous Prostration, General Debility, Sleeplessness, Depression and Indigestion. That feeling of bearing down, causing pain, weight and backache, is always permanently cured by its use. It will at all times and under all circumstances, act in harmony with the law that governs the female system.

It costs only $1. per bottle, or six for $5., and is sold by druggists. Any advice required as to special cases, and the names of many who have been restored to perfect health by the use of the Vegetable Compound, can be obtained by addressing Mrs. P., with stamp for reply at her home in Lynn, Mass.

"Mrs. Pinkham's Liver Pills," says one writer, "are the best in the world for the cure of Constipation, Biliousness and Torpidity of the liver. Her Blood Purifier works wonders in its special line and bids fair to equal the Compound in its popularity.

All must respect her as an Angel of Mercy whose sole ambition is to do good to others.

A despatch from Denver, Col., says that in Lake Valley at daybreak last Thursday, Maj. Fountain's command surprised and captured Jack Watts and William Gillard, two notorious "Rustlers." When the soldiers had arrived at the camp and while they were unsaddling their horses the prisoners made a break for liberty. They had gained a lead of 200 yards when Fountain ordered his men to fire, and both the "Rustlers" fell dead, riddled with balls.

Naples is the name of the latest town on the line of the Oregon Short-line railroad. From ten to fifteen arrests are being made there daily on various charges, and the offenders are put into a hole in the ground, a guard being kept over them day and night to prevent them from climbing out. The only locks about this model jail are those on the Winchester rifles of the guards, and the orders are that any man seen sticking his head out of the hole intending to escape is to be made an object for rifle practice. The guard fires every time a prisoner shows his head, and there are no attempts to break jail.

On Friday, March 23d, Nick Walker, colored, was hanged in the jail yard of Palaski county, Ark., for murder; Jerome Holt, colored, was hanged at Graham, N. C., for rape; William Burks and George Cunningham were hanged at Lafayette, Ga., for murder; and Fred E. White was hanged at Franklin, Texas, for the murder of a jailer in May last, for complicity in which crime another man is now serving a life sentence, and still another is to be hanged April 23d.

The Oregon Railway & Transportation company has nearly completed a contract with the Goss Marine Iron works of Bath, Me., for building two steamers of about 1,200 tons each, the hulls to be built by Goss, Sawyer & Co., and work will probably be commenced on the machinery as soon as the works are in operation.

Hon. J. W. Bryant, the last surviving brother of William Cullen Bryant, was probably fatally hurt at Princeton, Ill., March 24th, by a scaffold falling upon him. An hour later his wife was thrown from her carriage and had her collar-bone broken, and was otherwise seriously injured. Her sister, Mrs. Elijah Dee, was also hurt.

After a four days' trial in the Washington county (Vt.) court, in the case of S. F. Gibbs and wife vs. Rev. H. W. Worthen, a Methodist preacher, charged with the attempted seduction of the female plaintiff at Northfield in 1881, the jury, who were out thirty-six hours, disagreed. They stood eight to four for the defendant.

Catarrh of the Bladder.

Schooner Samuel S. Gilman was totally wrecked near Rockport, Mass., March 24th; crew saved.

Dr. F. L. Ritter of Vassar college has nearly ready his long-looked-for work, "Music in England and America." It will be published by Charles Scribner's Sons.

Liver, Kidney and Bright's Disease.

A medicine that destroys the germ or cause of Bright's disease, diabetes, kidney and liver complaints, and has power to root them out of the system, is above all price. Such a medicine is Hop Bitters, and positive proof of this can be found by one trial, or by asking your neighbors, who have been cured by it.

The Gloucester fishing vessels which braved the Wiggins storm and stopped on the banks have all arrived home, with good fares.

IN MINNESOTA & DAKOTA

VARIOUS QUACKS.

Who—Each with his own Pet Scheme—

Cultivate the Field of Human Nature.

There have always been quacks:—legal quacks, theological quacks, scientific quacks and medical quacks. Some of them are bland, oily fellows who argue and smile the world into believing in their favorite bit of humbug. Others are pompous and pretentious parasites. But they make it pay. Men seem to love to be swindled, stipulating only that it shall be neatly done.

The dear public are equally fascinated to the electric and magnetic fraud. This fellow is a genius in his line. He will put a magnetic belt around your waist, a magnetic necklace under your chin, or fit you out with an entire suit of magnetic clothes, warranted to serve the purpose of ordinary garments, and at the same time to cure all diseases, from whooping-cough to hasty consumption.

Most of these have no more electric or magnetic power about them than resides in wooden blankets or in girdles of sackcloth. Only when applied by an expert in electricity of the slightest use as a medicinal agent, and even then its value is grossly over-stated. What is the strongest possible presumptive evidence in favor of a particular remedy? Clearly that it should have been prepared by responsible persons of acknowledged skill in the treatment of disease.

Squarely on this foundation stands BENSON'S CAPCINE POROUS PLASTER. Endorsed by 5,000 physicians, pharmacists, druggists and chemists, it needs no further apology nor introduction. It is the one and only true and tried external application. Quacks of all kinds pay the Capcine the compliment of their dislike, as Satan is said to hate holy water.

Herbert Spencer says, that a man's conversation is a sure index to his mental capacity; we therefore account for the numerous flattering commendations made by our most learned men of the merits of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup.

"The North American Review" for April contains nine articles. Prominent among them is the treatment of divorce, from the scriptural aspect by Rev. Theo. D. Woolsey, and from the legal aspect by Judge Jameson of Chicago. A Canadian view of annexation has much significance. Senator Logan writes on national aid to public schools; Rev. Dr. Howard Crosby of the "Dangerous Classes;" Prest. Welling of Columbia University, of "Race Education." The water supply of cities is an article (the treatise, we mean) which will be examined with attention. "Ethical systems," by Prof. Hedge, "Street beggars," by Rev. Dr. Chas. F. Deems, and "Criticism and Christianity," by O. B. Frothingham, complete this number.

Said a wise old doctor at Nordhoff
St. Jacobs Oil is very much bought of,
It's kept for the sake,
Of each pain and ache
That any one ever has thought of.

Rev. Rufus B. Tobey of Harwich, Mass., has received and accepted a unanimous call to the Oxford Congregational church.

You

will never regret sending two 3 cent stamps to pay postage, to A. P. Ordway & Co., Boston, Mass., for a copy of Dr. Kaufmann's great Medical Work; 100 pages, colored illustrations; of great value to every family.

Eugene O'Donnell of Brattleboro, Vt., was instantly killed, Friday, by a premature blast. He was thirty-eight years old, and leaves a wife and four children.

A pure, wholesome distillation of witch hazel, American pine, Canada fir, marigold, clover blossoms, etc., fragrant with the healing essences of balsam and pine. Such is Sanford's Radical Cure for catarrh. Complete treatment for $1.

The April "Atlantic," to which we have before referred, has among other good things "A New Parishioner" by Sarah Orne Jewett.—a story told in Mrs. Jewett's peculiar vein. The new things in the Atlantic for the coming month are numerous and interesting, and so much is promised in the future numbers that we must advise those of our readers who are not constant recipients of this excellent magazine, to become such.

Parents who allow their children to grow up with scrofulous humors bursting from every pore are guilty of a great wrong. Think of them pointed out as branded with a loathsome disease, and you will readily procure them the Cuticura Remedies.

Charles Mitchell, an English pugilist, has come to this country. He says he wants to fight Sullivan.

"I'm happy to say Dr. Benson's Skin Cure has cured my Eczema of the scalp, of four years standing." Jno. A. Andrews, att'y at law, Ashton, Ill. $1 at druggists. Endorsed by physicians.

In the United States court at Lynchburg, Va., Saturday, Emery Howks, a youth of fourteen years, was convicted of robbing the mails, and sentenced to three years in the house of correction.

The Physician's Advice.

"What shall I do?" old Aker cried,
"For this sharp anguish in my side,
"This dreadful rheumatism!
"I've tried all sorts of physic vile,
"Which certainly have cost a pile.
"And still I've paroxysm."

The doctor said: "My friend, eschew
"These noxious nostrums, or else you
"Will be too weak to kill a cur;
"Give up old physic, try the new,
"The very thing that's meant for you—
"The mighty Salicylic!"

John Dowling and Bill Martin, well-known gamblers of Chicago, had a duel shortly before daylight Saturday morning. Both fired twenty shots, but were so drunk that not a shot took effect.

Important to the Sick.

To those who have used Swedish Remedies, they know full well the value of them. To those who from prejudice have not used them, we can say that they are the very best medicines for the diseases for which they are recommended. Swedish Lung Balsam cures coughs, colds, and all diseases of the lungs. When taken together with Swedish Botanic Compound (the great blood purifier), it will cure consumption in the first and second stages.

John F. Burrill of Carlinville, Ill., ex-grand secretary of the grand lodge of Masons of Illinois, charged with embezzling $7,000 of the funds of the order, was found guilty Friday. He will go to prison for five years.

 Hood's Sarsaparilla

Is designed to meet the wants of those who need a medicine to build them up, give them an appetite, purify their blood, and oil up the machinery of their bodies. No other article takes hold of the system and hits exactly the spot like Hood's Sarsaparilla. It works like magic, reaching every part of the human body through the blood, giving to all renewed life and energy. $1 a bottle; six for $5.

Thomas Ryan has challenged any man in Fall River, Mass., to a match at horse shoeing for $100 a side, and John Conway accepts the challenge.

A truly alarming statement based upon unquestioned facts, and endorsed by the highest authorities has recently published. In a nut-shell it is that, one in three of all who die at an adult age, exhibit marks of recent or former attacks of heart disease of some kind. Mr. James Wells, of 360 Shroop ave., Brooklyn, writes: "My wife was suffering from a extreme debility, she used Wheat Bitters with the most satisfactory result and pronounces it the best remedy in the world."

NO USE FOR THEM.

Concerning Certain Relics of the Past --Dogs that have had Their Day.

George Stephenson's "Rocket," and the magnificent locomotives of to-day, are built upon the same general principle, yet the machine with which the great engineer astonished his age, is interesting now only as an illustration of the beginning of the invention. There were plasters with holes in them long before BENSON'S CAPCINE POROUS PLASTER surprised both the public and the physicians; and the triumph of the Capcine is founded upon the partial successes, or the utter failures of its predecessors. Everything of value in the old porous plaster is retained in the Capcine; but at this point all comparison ends, and contrast begins. For example:

The old plasters lacked the power to do more than to impart slight, temporary relief in cases easy of treatment; the Capcine penetrates the system and permanently cures the troubles for which it is recommended.

The old plasters depended for any good results they might attain, upon an accident of their makers and the naked faith of their wearers; the Benson's reaches its ends by means of the scientific combination of the rare medicinal ingredients which it contains.

In brief, the old plasters, like Stephenson's discarded engine, are switched off the track, while the Benson goes on its way winning golden opinions from all sorts of people.

Yet is this very fact lies the leading danger to the people who buy and use this reliable and scientific remedy. "Hypocrisy is the tribute vice pays to virtue." Imitation is the concession failure makes to success. Benson's Plasters are paraded in name and style.

Beware of swindles. The genuine have the word CAPCINE cut in the center. Price 25 cents. Seabury & Johnson, Chemists, New York.

A YOUNG OLD LADY.

"Yes, Sir! I'm Younger than any of my Children now," said Mrs. Sarah M. Robinson, of 61 William St., New Haven, Conn.--We read about this kind of Noble Ladies, but Seldom See them in Society.

"Yes, sir; I'm younger than any of my children now. I keep up with the times, I read the papers, applaud the victories of old Yale, and don't grow old," were the words of Mrs. Robinson to your reporter when he called at her home. Mrs. Robinson is one of the earnest, go-ahead sort of aged ladies, of whom you read, but whom you so rarely find in modern society. "Good for my share of trouble," she said, "for all my life I've been a sufferer from erysipelas. From this has resulted diseased stomach and inaction of the digestive organs. I've been troubled with dyspepsia, and have had such a weakness of the stomach it has seemed as if I needed something artificial and strengthening. I attribute this to erysipelas, which is constitutional with me. I've been under the physician's care a great deal during my life, but I never received any permanent benefit I think until I began taking Dr. Kennedy's FAVORITE REMEDY, which has proved a perfect restorative in my case. My health is better now than it has been for a long time. I consider Dr. Kennedy's FAVORITE REMEDY an excellent medicine. It is used extensively in this city. I keep it as a family medicine, and rely upon it for I know of the good results of using it."

Your reporter I ft Mrs. Robinson rejoicing in health and renewed youth, and bestowing merited praise on that which is the source of happiness to thousands, viz; Dr. Kennedy's FAVORITE REMEDY. Ask your druggist for it. Kennedy's FAVORITE REMEDY has become a household word. Every body, sooner or later, gets sick, and sickness is both wearisome and costly. FAVORITE REMEDY stops in at this point. It is not expensive and it is efficient. For all diseases of the Blood, Bilious Disorders, Kidney Complaints, Constipation, and the aches and ills which make the domestic life of women a cross so hard to bear.

They Ran For The Doctor.

Some people are always running for the doctor when the least thing is the matter with themselves or their children. Of course, the doctor likes this, for he gets well paid for it: But there are many occasions when the judicious use of Perry Davis's Pain Killer will do all the doctor can. Mr. R. V. Miller, of Syracuse, N. Y., says he has for twenty years used Pain Killer for miscellaneous family sicknesses; and that it is so valuable that it ought to be kept in every house.

Five feet and nine inches of snow have fallen at Weare this winter.

I am pleased to say that two bottles of your valuable Adamson's Cough Balsam has entirely cured me of a cough of nearly a year's standing. I have tried many mixtures during that time without success.

The annual convention of the Catholic Total Abstinence union of New Hampshire will be held in Manchester on Fast day, April 5th.

In certain cases of sickness it is important to obtain pure whiskey. Such is the "G. O. Taylor Old Bourbon," bottled by Chester H. Graves & Sons, Boston. Ask your druggist or grocer for it.

The "59th" Reports.

The Journal says the 59th New Hampshire Supreme Court Reports are now ready for delivery. This will be news to the lawyers who have waited for several years for a volume of these reports. The last previous volume, the 57th, was issued in 1877. It must be the 58th which our neighbor refers to, because after so many years waiting, the discovery of this volume was graphically described at a banquet of the Coos bar recently enjoyed, on which occasion a bright member of a leading law firm in the upper part of the state, in response to the toast "The 58th N. H. Reports," gave the story in a well considered and authentic narrative of some of the legal questions reported, and the reasons which were advanced for some of the decisions in the volume.

Advance sheets of a part of the 58th volume have for some time been in the hands of lawyers, but the volume itself only appeared last week. It contains 607 pages, and the decisions are of a very large number of cases, extending from the December term of 1876 to March, 1879. The opinions are noted for their brevity, and are quite in contrast with the opinion in the case of Hale vs. Everett in the 53d volume, of whose pages 227 were required before the judges could land upon a decision, one judge compressing his learned knowledge of the law into 84 pages, while a dissenter from the theories of the then chief justice covered 143 pages in recording his views, which formed interesting reading for lovers of religious controversies, which may have full as much vigorous fight in them as any other species of litigation. The cases of this kind, in the 58th, have been disposed of with more compactness in the opinion than was the fashion when Hale vs. Everett was decided.

AROUND HOME.

The stock of groceries in the store lately occupied by Wm. Downs & Son will be sold at auction to-day, in one lot, on a percentage of the appraisal; also the fixtures, horses, wagons, etc. Sale at nine o'clock. See advertisement.

A very enjoyable entertainment, which was a success financially as well, was given in Hampton on the 23d inst. by the "Amateur glee club," for the benefit of the Sabbath school connected with Rev. Wm. H. Cutler's society. The club is composed of a select company of young people belonging to that parish, who have been greatly benefitted by the careful rehearsals under the leadership of Mr. B. Rowand, a talented and popular singer of the place.

Mr. Frank Hidden, of Star island, Isles of Shoals, brought in on Tuesday in the schooner Albert Woodbury, two barrels of lobsters. He has twenty lobster pots set. John Handy Robinson and Charles Robinson, who recently went to the Shoals to engage in lobster fishing, have one hundred and twenty-eight lobster pots set. Other parties who have regularly engaged in lobster fishing at the Shoals are making preparations to commence work, which will make the business boom.

The United States monitor Terror was successfully launched in Philadelphia at two o'clock last Saturday afternoon, in the presence of a large concourse of spectators. Upon reaching the water the vessel was christened by Miss Martha Hichborn, daughter of Naval Constructor Phillip Hichborn, U. S. N., who has had supervision of the extensive repairs (amounting virtually to a rebuilding) of the vessel. Constructor Hichborn was several years stationed at this navy yard, and when ordered to another place carried with him an abiding interest in our city, where he left many warm friends. Mrs. Hichborn (nee Franklin) is well remembered as at one time the accomplished teacher of music in the public schools, and the soprano of the Middle street church choir.

A large and elegant photograph of Margaret Mather, who appears in the character of Pauline in the "Lady of Lyons" on Monday evening next, is on exhibition in the window of Mercer Goodrich's store, corner of Daniel and Market streets.

The fishing schooner Fleur de Lis has recently been purchased by K. M. Green and others in this city, from parties in Gloucester, and is fitting out for spring fishing. The schooner Celia, Capt. Thomas Jarvieson, will resume fishing as soon as the necessary repairs are made.

The schooner E. A. Williams, Caswell master, owned by Mr. W. B. Keen of Malden, Mass., has been thoroughly repaired and tastefully painted; no expense has been spared to make her complete in every detail, and she is at present the finest-looking fishing vessel that sails from this port.

Mr. Peter Emery, who is ninety years of age, is seriously ill.

The steamer "City of Bangor" will leave Comey's wharf, Boston, for this city, at half-past eight o'clock Friday morning, weather permitting.

The advance sale of tickets to the "Lady of Lyons" has opened well, indicating a large audience at Music hall next Monday evening.

Bishop's minstrels, who are to appear in Music hall on Friday and Saturday evenings of this week, were called Callender's colored minstrels until recently, when they were enjoined from using the name. There are some excellent performers in the company.

The St. Mary's Benevolent society gave a very successful dance in Congress hall on Monday evening, and will give another on Wednesday evening, April 11th.

Mr. James M. Robertson, late manager of the Central oyster house, who was reported on Monday as having left the city in a manner not creditable, was on the streets Tuesday, not having been out of the city at all. The accounts of the saloon had been settled weekly, and Mr. Robertson says that on Sunday evening he sent the keys to the proprietor, with word that he should not open the place again; and the accounts of the last week will be squared up as soon as they are arranged.

The metal which Clarence A. Jeaness attempted to carry off the navy yard on the 23d inst., for which he was taken to Portland and bound over to answer before the Circuit court of the United States in April, we are informed was a piece of composition (a bolt) about eight inches long.

The sale of tickets for Margaret Mather's entertainment in Bangor commenced on Tuesday morning at eight o'clock, and the whole house was sold before eleven. In Portland and Augusta the sale was unprecedented in late years.

The "monkey" of Littlefield's pile driver, employed in the rebuilding of Jones' wharf, went to the bottom about one o'clock Tuesday afternoon. Mr. Sylvester, the driver, went down and made a rope fast to it, and it was soon recovered.

The Maine Central postal car "Augusta," running between Bangor and Boston, passed through this city on Monday looking quite spruce in a new suit of red paint with gilt lettering and trimmings.

A Lucky Merchant in Louisville, Ky.

Yesterday Mr. Crittenden T. Collings, teller of the Second Nat'l Bank, who collected it, admitted that a well known and highly respected wholesale merchant on Main street had been the lucky man, and that the money had been paid over to him, he having held one-fifth of ticket 27,012, the first capital prize of $75,000, in the Feb'y 13th drawing of The Louisiana State Lottery at New Orleans. The merchant prohibited Mr. Collings from allowing the use of his name for publication, not desiring for reasons of his own to have any notoriety on the subject.—Louisville (Ky.) Commercial, Mch. 1.

SCROFULA.

A remedy that can destroy the germs of scrofula, and when once settled has the power to root it out, must be appreciated by those afflicted. The remarkable cures of young children and the more wonderful cures of those of middle age and late in life, as illustrated by our printed testimonials, prove Hood's SARSAPARILLA to be a reliable remedy, containing remedial agents which do positively cure scrofula and eradicate it from the blood.

WARNER, N. H., Jan. 21, 1879.

MESSRS. C. I. HOOD & CO., Lowell, Mass.: Gentlemen—For ten years previous to the early part of 1877 I had been a constant sufferer from scrofulous ulcers or sores, which had finally reduced me to a helpless condition, as described in my letter to you in September of that year. The continued excellent health which enables me to keep house for my aged father and to enjoy life, keeps alive my intense personal interest in Hood's SARSAPARILLA, and I cannot refrain from expressing my gratitude for the permanent cure this wonderful medicine effected in my case nearly two years ago, while living in Lowell, when all my physicians gave me up as being in an incurable condition. One thing before I close. I have recommended your Sarsaparilla to hundreds, and I think more than a thousand cases, and my faith in its invincibility in curing scrofula has become absolute by the wonderful cures it has effected aside from my own. I trust you will not be slow in making the merits of HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA known everywhere, for it is a duty you owe to mankind. With best wishes I remain very truly yours,

SARAH C. WHITTIER

Public Benefactress. Mrs. S. A. Allen has justly earned this title, and thousands are this day rejoicing over a fine head of hair produced by her unequaled preparation for restoring, invigorating, and beautifying the Hair. Her World's Hair Restorer quickly cleanses the scalp, removing Dandruff, and arrests the fall; the hair, if gray, is changed to its natural color, giving it the same vitality and luxurious quantity as in youth.

COMPLIMENTARY. "My hair is now restored to its youthful color; I have not a gray hair left. I am satisfied that the preparation is not a dye, but acts on the secretions. My hair ceases to fall, which is certainly an advantage to me, who was in danger of becoming bald." This is the testimony of all who use Mrs. S. A. ALLEN'S WORLD'S HAIR RESTORER.

"One Bottle did it." That is the expression of many who have had their gray hair restored to its natural color, and their bald spot covered with hair, after using one bottle of Mrs. S. A. ALLEN'S WORLD'S HAIR RESTORER. It is not a dye.

"RAILROAD DAY."

The stockholders of the Eastern railroad in Massachusetts (and of that railroad only, stock of the Eastern in New Hampshire not being good for a free ride) were on Monday, the 26th inst., notified by handbill that if they wished free transportation to Boston on Wednesday, the day of the meeting of the stockholders to take action upon the proposed lease of the road to the Boston & Maine, they must take a special train leaving the station in this city at five minutes before seven o'clock in the morning; and returning, must leave Boston by special train at a quarter before five in the afternoon, as certificates of stock would not be received for free passage on the regular passenger trains.

The numerous lady stockholders who propose going to Boston this morning to vote on the lease question will do well to govern themselves accordingly.

Stockholders on the Boston & Maine railroad will be carried only to Lawrence, the place of meeting of the Boston & Maine corporation.

EXECUTIONS OF WOMEN.

A Boston paper says that Mrs. Emeline Meaker of Waterbury, Vt., who is to be hung on Friday, March 30th, for the commission of one of the most atrocious and cold-blooded murders recorded in the annals of human depravity, will be the first woman executed in New England. This is a mistake, for acording to the records at least three women were hanged in this city in the last century—Sarah Simpson and Penelope Kenney in 1739, for the murder of a child, and Ruth Blay in 1768, for concealing the birth of her illegitimate child. The latter unfortunate was hanged near what is now the south cemetery, and a reprieve arrived a few minutes after her death, the sheriff having hanged her at the earliest possible moment in order not to have to eat a cold dinner, for which he came near being mobbed by the populace, whose sympathies were with the wretched girl. Ruth Blay belonged in South Hampton, and was well educated, having been a school teacher; and it was subsequently shown that her child was probably still born, and hidden by her beneath the floor of her schoolhouse in a vain hope of concealing her shame.

"ESMERELDA."

"Esmerelda," which is to be played in Music hall on Tuesday evening of next week by the Madison Square Theatre Co., is the story of how a young North Carolina girl, whose parents are suddenly made rich by the discovery of valuable mines on their farm, is separated by her ambitious mother from her lover, and taken to Paris to be sold to a fortune-hunting marquis for his title, which fate is averted by the discovery that the mines are on the lover's farm instead of on the land of the girl's parents. On the occasion of its first presentation in Boston the Post critic said of it: "It is a pure, sweet, pathetic, almost poetic story of true love, illuminated at times by flashes of genuine wit and humor; and it not only holds the attention of the beholders, but touches their hearts as well. There are some faults in the construction of the play, but they are far from serious, and are wholly lost to sight in the deep interest which it awakens. It is certainly far superior to its predecessor, 'Hazel Kirke,' and is indeed one of the most thoroughly delightful dramatic works presented in Boston for many a day."

INFORMATION WANTED.

In the preparation of the "Centennial Catalogue of Phillips Academy" at Andover, Mass., the committee want certain information concerning students at the institution many years ago, from Portsmouth. If this should strike the eye, as they say across the water, of any of our older readers in town or out, they will confer a favor by sending to this office or to Rev. C. C. Carpenter of Mont Vernon, N. H., any facts relative to the following-named students from Portsmouth: Green K. Spence, in 1806; David T. Harris, 1817; Richard Sutton, 1823; Albert W. Shaw and James L. Bell, 1828; and also of Nathaniel Porter of Rye, 1802. It is desired to obtain some account of their places of birth, college or professional education, official title if any, public services or other career after leaving the academy, date of deaths, and any other information that can be given concerning their several histories.

WANTS TO KNOW.

KITTERY, ME., March 27th.

Some things which we would like to know over here, and need, viz:

When we shall have any other moderator for town meetings excepting the one we have had for so long that the memory of most republicans runneth not back to the contrary—and in case he should die, or become disabled, where we shall obtain another;

When we shall have a town clerk who resides within a mile or so of any other inhabitant of the town, and not at Spruce creek;

When we shall have a treasurer who will not reside at Kittery Point;

When we shall have a chairman of the board of selectmen who will have majesty enough not to call a citizen who differs from him in opinion, "a liar," in a public meeting;

A board of auditors who will not class under the head of "available means" all the worthless odds and ends, for the purpose of showing how small the town debt is, thereby annually requiring the longest-winded man in town whom the democrats can muster, to use up two hours of valuable time in trying to explain its falsity, by giving the history of every article under that head, and leaving everybody in doubt as to where it should be classed;

A superintending school committee who can conceive or harbor the idea that a Free High school under the laws of Maine is for any purpose except the pecuniary advantage of the teacher; and that in the selection of that teacher some regard should be had to the needs of the scholars, or the community in which they reside, as well as to the duties and qualifications contemplated by the law appertaining to the instruction of the young—and that in the observance of these things they will not consider that they violate their oaths of office;

Also nine more citizens (who don't expect a job on the navy yard) who have courage enough not to vote for a thing which they do not want. REPUBLICAN.

GOSSIPS SAY

That the dock at Mason's mill, which has been filled with ice since the middle of last December, was cleared on Monday, thus releasing 300,000 feet of lumber, some of which has long been needed by Major Urch and others.

That a neat row of iron hitching posts, a dozen in number, have been set in the curbstones along the Congress street front of the Franklin building.

That James R. Yeaton & Co.'s new store in Franklin block is splendidly located and adapted for the grocery business.

That Secretary Chandler is being importuned by certain naval officials to have the receiving-ship Constitution, when fitted up, taken to the Washington navy yard, where it is claimed the historic associations connected with the vessel would render her more of an object of interest among the "culchawed" and antiquated fossils of the Federal city, than among the common sense people of the Piscataqua region.

That the secretary sometimes, but not always, accedes to the demands of the naval junta.

That crocuses were in bloom in front of the residence of A. W. Haven, Esq., on the 27th inst.

That the Sage of Croyden has been in Boston, and expressed himself as thinking that there will be a great legislative fight over the railroad consolidation scheme, but he has not yet given the subject much attention, and does not at this time know on which side lies the interest of the state and himself.

That City Treasurer Hadley proposes taking vigorous measures to make delinquent tax-owers become tax-payers.

That Wm. Wallace Downs will be his own successor in the grocery and ship's provisions business on Ceres street.

That "Pedaling on the Piscataqua" is the title of a handsomely illustrated article which appears in the April number of the "American Wheelman."

That the man who has not more regard for the eyes of his neighbors than to paint his house a glaring white, does not deserve their patronage or esteem.

That while young Jenness, a feeble-minded civilian, was being examined in Portland before a United States commissioner for the crime of endeavoring to carry off the navy yard a couple of pounds of copper belonging to the government, six laborers paid by the government were engaged in sawing and splitting wood belonging to the government, for the use during the coming summer of a naval officer of high rank on the yard.

That the skating carnival on Thursday night promises to be a "big thing on wheels," over a hundred tickets having been sold up to Tuesday evening.

Skating rink in Franklin hall on Wednesday and Thursday, afternoon and evening, just the place for beginners; G. H. Vittum manager.

The ladies of the Universalist society will have an "International Tea Party," with an illustrated lecture on tea, in their vestry on Thursday and Friday evenings of this week; also sale of aprons and fancy work. Refreshments will be on sale Thursday evening, and supper served Friday evening from 6:30 to 7:30 o'clock. Admission, adults fifteen cents, children ten cents; doors open at six, stage entertainment at eight. First appearance in this city of the "Automatic Warblers."

[For other local matter see second page.]

The Government Chemist Analyzes two of the Leading Baking Powders, and what he finds them made of.

I have examined samples of "Cleveland's Superior Baking Powder" and "Royal Baking Powder," purchased by myself in this city, and I find they contain:

"Cleveland's Superior Baking Powder."
Cream of Tartar,
Bicarbonate of Soda,
Flour.

Available carbonic acid gas 12.61 per cent, equivalent to 118.2 cubic inches of gas per oz. of Powder.

"Royal Baking Powder."
Cream of Tartar,
Bicarbonate of Soda,
Carbonate of Ammonia,
Tartaric Acid,
Starch.

Available carbonic acid gas 12.40 per cent, equivalent to 116.2 cubic inches of gas per oz. of Powder.

Ammonia gas 0.43 per cent, equivalent to 10.4 cubic inches per oz. of Powder.

NOTE.—The Tartaric acid was doubtless introduced as free acid, but subsequently combined with ammonia, and exists in the Powder as a Tartrate of Ammonia. E. G. LOVE, Ph. D.
NEW YORK, Jan'y 17th, 1881.

The above shows conclusively that "Cleveland's Superior" is a strictly pure Cream of Tartar Baking Powder. It has also been analyzed by Professor Johnson of Yale College; Dr. Genth of the University of Pennsylvania; President Morton of the Stevens Institute; Wm. M. Habirshaw, F. C. S., Analyst for the Chemical Trade of New York, and other eminent chemists, all of whom pronounce it absolutely pure and healthful.—Hall's Journal of Health for April, 1882.

SECRET!
SALICYLICA is known as a common-sense remedy, because it strikes directly at the cause of Rheumatism, Gout and Neuralgia, while so many so-called specifics and supposed panaceas only treat locally the effects.
It has been conceded by eminent scientists that outward applications, such as rubbing with oils, ointments, liniments, and soothing lotions will not eradicate these diseases which are the result of the poisoning of the blood with Uric Acid.
SALICYLICA works with marvelous effect on this acid, and so removes the disorder. It is now exclusively used by all celebrated physicians of America and Europe. Highest Medical Academy of Paris reports 95 per cent. cures in three days.

THE ART OF DISSEMBLING

A NOTED BUT UNTITLED WOMAN.

[From the Boston Globe.]

Messrs. Editors:—

The above is a good likeness of Mrs. Lydia E. Pinkham, of Lynn, Mass., who showed other women the things may be truthfully called the "Dear Friend of Woman," as some of her correspondents love to call her. She is mainly devoted to her work, which is the outcome of a lifestudy, and is obliged to keep six lady assistants, to help her answer the large correspondence watch daily pour in upon her, each bearing its special burden of suffering, or joy at release from it. Her Vegetable Compound is a medicine for good and not evil purposes. I have personally investigated it and am satisfied of the truth of this.

On account of its proven merits, it is recommended and prescribed by the best physicians in the country. One says: "It works like a charm and saves much pain. It will cure entirely the worst form of falling of the uterus, Leucorrhœa, Irregular and painful Menstruation, all Ovarian Troubles, Inflammation and Ulceration, Floodings, all Displacements and the consequent spinal weakness, and is especially adapted to the Change of Life."

It permeates every portion of the system, and gives new life and vigor. It removes faintness, flatulency, destroys all craving for stimulants, and relieves weakness of the stomach, indigestion, Dyspepsia, Headache, Nervous Prostration, General Debility, Sleeplessness, Depression and Indigestion. That feeling of bearing down, causing pain, weight and backache, is always permanently cured by its use. It will at all times, and under all circumstances, act in harmony with the law that governs the female system.

It costs only $1. per bottle, or six for $5., and is sold by druggists. The re-issue of Dr. S. Wells Williams' standard and important work, "The Middle Kingdom," which has been announced by Charles Scribner's Sons, will make practically a new book. The text of the old edition has been largely re-written, and the work expanded so as to include a vast amount of new material collected by Dr. Williams during the later years of his residence in China, and the most recent information regarding all the departments of the empire. Many new illustrations are to be added to the best of the old engravings which will be retained. An important feature of the edition will be a large map of the Chinese empire from the best modern authorities, more complete and accurate than any map of the country hitherto published.

IN MINNESOTA & DAKOTA

VARIOUS QUACKS.

Who--Each with his own Pet Scheme--

Cultivate the Field of Human Nature.

There have always been quacks:—legal quacks, theological quacks, scientific quacks and medical quacks. Some of them are bland, oily fellows who argue and smile the world into believing in their favorite bit of humbug. Others are pompous and pretentious parasites. But they make it pay. Men seem to love to be swindled, stipulating only that it shall be neatly done.

The dear public are equally liberal to the electric and magnetic fraud. This fellow is a genius in his line. He will put a magnetic belt around your waist, a magnetic necklace under your chin, or fit you out with an entire suit of magnetic clothes, warranted to serve the purpose of ordinary garments, and at the same time to cure all diseases, from whooping-cough to hasty consumption.

Most of these have no more electric or magnetic power about them than resides in woolen blankets or in girdles of sackcloth. Only when applied by an expert is electricity of the slightest use as a medicinal agent, and even then its value is grossly over-stated. What is the strongest possible presumptive evidence in favor of a particular remedy? Clearly that it should have been prepared by responsible persons of acknowledged skill in the treatment of disease.

Squarely on this foundation stands BENSON'S CAPCINE POROUS PLASTER. Endorsed by 5,000 physicians, pharmacists, druggists and chemists, it needs no further apology nor introduction. It is the one and only true and tried external application. Quacks of all kinds pay the Capcine the compliment of their dislike, as Satan is said to hate holy water.

The Kitchen Garden.

Asparagus.—However the season may be prolonged by supplies from the south, the market is never glutted with the home crop. As a plantation must be made three years before it gives returns, the home supply does not keep up with the increased demand. Farmers seldom have an asparagus bed. Let them begin this spring to prepare for one by sowing the seeds, in order to have plants ready to set out next spring. The seeds may be planted in rows fifteen inches apart, dropping them about an inch apart in the row. When well up, thin to about four inches, and keep the plants clean all summer. Plants can be bought, but they are not usually so good as those one can raise. In setting out the plants, make the rows four feet apart, and set the plants every thirty inches, forking in a shovelful of good manure for each. This will allow the work to be done by horse cultivation.

Cabbages and Cauliflower.—The earliest crop is from plants wintered in cold frames or raised in hot-beds. In either case they must be prepared by proper exposure to harden them. They are set out as soon as the land is dry enough, giving heavy manuring, making the rows twenty-four inches apart, and setting the plants every eighteen inches.

Peas.—Plant early and cover deep—at least two inches. The tall kinds may be in double rows, six inches apart with the brush between, or they may be scattered thickly in a broad drill, three inches wide, and the brush stuck on each side of the row. Dwarf kinds, like the "American Wonder," may be in rows a foot apart. Cut brush before it is in leaf, and pile it, with some logs or other weight on top to flatten it. If each piece is fan-shaped, it goes much further. Stick the peas before they fall.

Tomatoes.—Every care should be given to secure stocky plants. On the small scale, it will pay to protect with paper or other screens against an unexpected frost. In the garden, tomatoes should have a trellis or other support. Individual plants may have three barrel hoops, held in place by tacking them to stakes.—American Agriculturist for April.

"I have been married now," boasted a prosy old fellow, "more than thirty years and have never given my wife a cross word; nor have I ever been without a bottle of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup in case of a cold or cough."

If You are Ruined

in health from any cause, especially from the use of any of the thousand nostrums that promise so largely, with long fictious testimonials, have no fear. Resort to Hop Bitters at once, and in a short time you will have the most robust and blooming health.

Catherine McCann, a boarding-house keeper of Chicopee, Mass., has sued Father P. Healy of that place for $10,000 for libel. The priest denounced her place some time ago, and she claims it ruined her business.

Said a sick young man from Fauquier,
Can St. Jacobs Oil be boughtier?
Yes, for rheumatic pains,
Neuralgia and chilblains,
'Tis indeed sir, very much soughtier.

Charles A. Payson, aged twenty-four years, of Putnam Heights, Conn., hung himself March 24th. He was well situated, financially and socially. Other members of the family have died by their own hands, and the present case is probably due to hereditary causes.

The Hop Plasters have a wonderful sale, and why? because they cure back ache, stiff joints, pain in the side and all soreness in any part. People appreciate them. Any druggist, 25cts.

Test a man's profession by his practice. Physician, heal thyself!" Physicians not only heal themselves with Kidney-Wort, but prescribe it for others for the worst cases of biliousness and constipation, as well as for kidney complaints. If you feel out of sorts and don't know why, try a package of Kidney-Wort and you will feel like a new creature.

*Druggists say that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the best remedy for female complaints they ever heard of.

Miss Eliza A. Berry, who for more than twenty years had been a teacher in the public schools of Lynn, Mass., died very suddenly March 25th.

Terrible Sufferings.

Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.:—I have a friend who suffered terribly. I purchased a bottle of your "Favorite Prescription," and as a result of its use, she is perfectly well. J. Bailey, Burdett, N. Y. Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery" and "Pleasant Purgative Pellets" purify the blood and cure constipation.

At Lawndale, Ill., March 25th, two children of John Hershty were fatally shot by one of their brothers. At Racine, Wis., March 25th, two children of John May, a boy aged eleven years and a girl aged five, were shot dead with a rifle by a twin brother of the elder victim.

"I'm happy to say Dr. Benson's Skin Cure has cured my Eczema of the scalp, of four years standing." Jno. A. Andrews, att'y at law, Ashton, Ill. $1 at druggists. Endorsed by physicians.

The New York Truth, a paper which won fame by lying about Gen. Garfield, has passed into the editorial control of A. Oakey Hall, who was mayor of New York during the reign of the Tweed ring.

Extreme Tired Feeling.

A lady tells us "the first bottle has done my daughter a great deal of good, her food does not distress her now, nor does she suffer from that extreme tired feeling which she did before taking Hood's Sarsaparilla." A second bottle effected a cure. No other preparation contains such a concentration of vitalizing, enriching, purifying and invigorating properties as Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Rev. Mr. Hicks of Washington, D. C., Guiteau's spiritual adviser, on March 27th entered suit in the city court of Baltimore, Md., against the American of that city, for $35,000 damages for a publication asserting that Mr. Hicks disposed of Guiteau's bones for a money consideration. Hicks is almost as much of a nuisance as Guiteau was.

Katie Rogers, a four-months-old babe of Mary Rogers, was found smothered in bed in Boston, March 26th. One of the older children went to the bed to play with the baby, and accidentally threw the bed clothes over the head of the little one.

A Uniontown, Pa., despatch says N. L. Dukes arrived there Sunday night, March 25th, and a committee of citizens waited on him and presented him with resolutions adopted at the indignation meeting lately held. They also gave him notice that he would have twenty-four hours to transact business and leave town, and if he attempted to remain there would be trouble. Dukes is the lawyer and politician who murdered Capt. Nutt after seducing his daughter.

"Trying to do business without advertising," remarks an exchange, "is like winking at a girl in the dark. You may know what you are doing but nobody else does." Trying to cure catarrh by the use of snuffs and irritating liquid injections is the height of folly also. The disease will never be cured by such treatment. Moreover, the delicate lining membranes of the nasal organs will, sooner or later, become inflamed and diseased by such irritants. Ely's Cream Balm is not a snuff or liquid, and is easily applied. It's effects are pleasant, rapid and thorough. No case of catarrh or cold in the head can withstand its effects. "I could scarcely speak," says J. O. Tichenor, dealer in boots and shoes, Elizabeth, N. J., "It was almost impossible to breathe through my nostrils, on account of catarrh. Ely's Cream Balm cured me in a short time." All druggists sell it at fifty cents.

Henry A. Gooding of Yarmouth, Me., on March 24th returned from hunting. As he entered his yard he was met by Josiah S. Loring, and Gooding let Loring inspect his gun. Loring handed it back and it was accidently discharged, killing Gooding instantly. He leaves a widow and one child.

NO USE FOR THEM.

Concerning Certain Relics of the Past --Dogs that have had Their Day.

George Stephenson's "Rocket," and the magnificent locomotives of to-day, are built upon the same general principle, yet the machine with which the great engineer astonished his age, is interesting now only as an illustration of the beginning of the invention. There were plasters with holes in them long before BENSON'S CAPCINE POROUS PLASTER surprised both the public and the physicians; and the triumph of the Capcine is founded upon the partial successes, or the utter failures of its predecessors. Everything of value in the old porous plaster is retained in the Capcine; but at this point all comparison ends, and contrast begins. Forexample:

The old plasters lacked the power to do more than to impart slight, temporary relief in cases easy of treatment; the Capcine penetrates the system and permanently cures the troubles for which it is recommended.

The old plasters depended for any good results they might attain, upon an accident of their makers and the naked faith of their wearers; the Benson's reaches its ends by means of the scientific combination of the rare medicinal ingredients which it contains.

In brief, the old plasters, like Stephenson's discarded engine, are switched off the track, while the Benson goes on its way winning golden opinions from all sorts of people.

Yet is this very fact lies the leading danger to the people who buy and use this reliable and scientific remedy. Hypocrisy is the tribute vice pays to virtue." Imitation is the concession failure makes to success. Benson's Plasters are parodied in name and style.

Beware of swindles. The genuine have the word CAPCINE cut in the center. Price 25 cents. Seabury & Johnson, Chemists, New York.

A YOUNG OLD LADY.

"Yes, Sir! I'm Younger than any of my Children now," said Mrs. Sarah M. Robinson, of 61 William St., New Haven, Conn.--We read about this kind of Noble Ladies, but Seldom See them in Society.

"Yes, sir; I'm younger than any of my children now. I keep up with the times, I read the papers, applaud the victories of old Yale, and don't grow old," were the words of Mrs. Robinson to your reporter when he called at her home. Mrs. Robinson is one of the earnest, go-ahead sort of aged ladies, of whom you read, but whom you so rarely find in modern society. "I've had my share of trouble," she said, "for all my life I've been a sufferer from erysipelas. From this has resulted diseased stomach and inaction of the digestive organs. I've been troubled with dyspepsia, and have had such a weakness of the stomach it has seemed as if I needed something artificial and strengthening. I attribute this to erysipelas, which is constitutional with me. I've been under the physician's care a great deal during my life, but I never received any permanent benefit I think until I began taking Dr. Kennedy's FAVORITE REMEDY, which has proved a perfect restorative in my case. My health is better now than it has been for a long time. I consider Dr Kennedy's FAVORITE REMEDY an excellent medicine. It is used extensively in this city. I keep it as a family medicine, and rely upon it for I know of the good results of using it."

Your reporter left Mrs. Robinson rejoicing in health and renewed youth, and bestowing merited praise on that which is the source of happiness to thousands, viz: Dr. Kennedy's FAVORITE REMEDY. Ask your druggist for it. Kennedy's FAVORITE REMEDY has become a household word. Every body, sooner or later, gets sick, and sickness is both wearisome and costly. FAVORITE REMEDY stops in at this point. It is not expensive and it is efficient. For all diseases of the Blood, Biliousness, Dyspepsia, Kidney Complaints, Constipation, and the aches and ills which make the domestic life of women a cross so hard to bear.

They Ran For The Doctor.

Some people are always running for the doctor when the least thing is the matter with themselves or their children. Of course, the doctor likes this, for he gets well paid for it. But there are many occasions when the judicious use of Perry Davis's Pain Killer will do all the doctor can. Mr. R. V. Miller, of Syracuse, N. Y., says he has for twenty years used Pain Killer for miscellaneous family sicknesses; and that it is so valuable that it ought to be kept in every house.

Congress having voted two hundred and fifty thousand dollars for the completion of the Washington movement, it is believed that the cap stone can be placed during the next season, so that it can be formally dedicated on Independence day, two years hence. It will be five hundred and fifty feet high, the highest structure in the world.

The herring catch in Maine this season has been smaller than usual, but prices have averaged ninety cents a hundred against forty cents last season. From Eastport were shipped this winter 17,240,000, herring, a decrease of 13,410,000 from last winter, and just one-half the number shipped in the winter of 1880-81.

A bright little twelve-years-old girl died in Buffalo, N. Y., from the effects of Wiggins' prophecy. She was a great reader and very nervous about storms, and became intensely excited as the time for the great blow drew near. The family tried to divert her thoughts, but it was impossible, and after a few days' illness the poor child died of meningitis, brought on, the doctor and her parents say, by excitement over the idle words of the Canadian fraud.

The grand jury in Washington returned indictments against Thomas J. Crook telegraphed as follows: "I agree with you that the renegade band must be subjugated or destroyed. The interest of the whites and peaceable Indians alike demand this."

Mr. Elvin S. Newton will have charge of the Manchester branch of the company's business. Mr. Elvin Newton will in about three weeks proceed to "Lungiag" island, Isles of Shoals, with a gang of men, to prosecute the fishing and fish-curing business there during the summer; and will send fish from the island to Manchester direct, by steamer and railroad, via this city.

There are in York county seventy lawyers, an average of one lawyer to every 889 inhabitants. Of this number Biddeford furnishes twenty-two, and Saco twelve, or one for about every 500, of their populations. Alfred is the most prolific town in the county, furnishing six, or one lawyer for every 183 inhabitants. South Berwick comes next with six, or one for every 446 of its population. Kennebunk has five, and Sanford four. Four towns have two each, and seven towns but one each; while Acton, Eliot, Kennebunkport, Lyman, Waterborough and York are lawyerless, but their inhabitants indulge in the luxury of law-suits, all the same.

There is a barn in Hampton, three sections or "joints" of which were built in 1793. When it was shingled, as the workmen came from dinner one day they saw sitting astride the ridgepole a neighbor's little daughter, who was two years and five months old. She had climbed the ladder, over two or three stagings, reached the highest point, and then seated herself. The owner of the barn seeing the little one, who was a special pet among them all, in such a frightful position, started for the top of the barn, without uttering a sound until he had taken her down safely. He said afterward that it seemed as if his hair stood on end in his fright. That child lived, married, reared children, and died in a good old age; and to-day her descendants can be numbered in the third and four generations. The barn still stands, is in good repair, and is likely to last through another generation.

A recent issue of the Gazette of Washington, D. C., says: "The National Jockey Club spring meeting will be held in May, and bids fair to be the most successful ever had in this city. It is understood that Mr. Al. Pierce will have charge of the club house. If there is a gentleman in the city or the country who knows how to cater to the wants of the inner man, it is Al. Pierce, a gentleman in every sense of the word, as well as a jovial Boniface. The association, as well as the public, are to be congratulated that at last we are to have a host at the club house who knows how to entertain the multitude." This refers to Mr. Alfred K. Pierce, formerly of this city, and for some years landlord of the American house (now the Gibson house) on Vaughan street.

SCROFULA.

A remedy that can destroy the germs of scrofula, and when once settled has the power to root it out, must be appreciated by those afflicted. The remarkable cures of young children and the more wonderful cures of those of middle age and late in life, as illustrated by our printed testimonials, prove HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA to be a reliable remedy, containing remedial agents which do positively cure scrofula and eradicate it from the blood.

FARMER, N. H., Jan. 21, 1879.

Messrs. C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.: Gentlemen—For ten years previous to the early part of 1877 I had been a constant sufferer from scrofulous ulcers or sores, which had finally reduced me to a helpless condition, as described in my letter to you in September of that year. The continued excellent health which enables me to keep house for my aged father and to enjoy life, keeps alive my intense personal interest in HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA, and I cannot refrain from expressing my gratitude for the permanent cure this wonderful medicine effected in my case nearly two years ago, while living in Lowell, when all my physicians gave me up as being in an incurable condition. One thing before I close. I have recommended your Sarsaparilla to hundreds, and I think more than a thousand cases, and my faith in its invincibility in curing scrofula has become absolute by the wonderful cures it has effected aside from my own. I trust you will not be slow in making the merits of HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA known everywhere, for it is a duty you owe to mankind. With best wishes I remain very truly yours,

SARAH C. WHITTIEF

CON-SOL-I-DA-TION.

The Dover Democrat will probably not be furious in its opposition to the consolidation of the Eastern and Boston & Maine railroads, if we may judge from the following, which we clip from its issue of March 27th:

WHAT, O WHAT WOULD THEY SAY?—In case the lease of the Eastern to the Boston & Maine railroad shall be completed and go into effect, and the Portsmouth & Dover railroad stock owned by the city of Dover should on that account go up in the market to $125 or $130 per share, what, O what would our people say? Especially those who oppose the said lease? And in case the city should then sell out all of its railroad stock, at say $125, and with the proceeds pay off all the railroad bonded debt and have remaining from the proceeds sixty-five thousand dollars to go into the city treasury, what, O WHAT WOULD the people say? Yet just that thing is liable to happen.

WONDER IF IT WOULDN'T.—Wouldn't it be a good thing for Dover to have the old passenger rookery of the Portsmouth & Dover road torn down, and all the old rubbish out round there annihilated out of sight? Wouldn't it be a good thing for Dover to have the traffic of the Eastern to Portland and the mountains all coming this way over the Portsmouth & Dover road, constituting this as a grand junction for making up and dispatching trains in all directions? Wouldn't it make things rather more lively than now, and tend to make the dry bones rattle round? Wonder if the proposed con-sol—i—da—tion wouldn't do it? Guess so.

Charles Francis Adams, Jr., has written a long letter favoring the lease of the Eastern to the Boston & Maine railroad. The letter seems to have more about C. F. A., Jr., than the matter at issue, and if it had been less lengthy and less verbose it would have come nearer a practical view of the question.

At the Eastern railroad stockholders' meeting in Boston, March 28th, it was voted to ratify the action of the directors in leasing the road to the Boston & Maine; but though this result was a foregone conclusion, the lease was strongly opposed and denounced by Col. Jonas H. French, a director of the road, Mr. Parsons of Rye, Col. Seth J. Thomas, Mr. Palmer of Swampscott, Mass., and Col. Peter Sanborn. The Boston & Maine stockholders' meeting, at Lawrence, Mass., on the same day, voted to ratify the lease "only when and in the event that said lease shall be duly authorized by the laws of the state of New Hampshire," the vote standing 42,563 in favor of ratification, to 953 against it.

Gen. Alfred Hoitt and seven other prominent business men of Dover have published a notice that they will ask the next legislature for a charter for a railroad from Dover to some point on the Nashua & Rochester railroad in Barrington or Lee. This movement has been brought forward on account of the intended consolidation of the Boston & Maine and Eastern railroads.

MARGARET MATHER.

In Portland, Monday evening, Miss Margaret Mather played Juliet to one of the largest audiences ever assembled in the theatre there, and won a great success, being called before the curtain at the end of every act but one, and two or three times in the midst of a scene. The Advertiser thus describes her:

Miss Mather is not above the medium height, and her form is slender. She looked frail, but her recent severe illness doubtless was the principal cause of her delicate appearance. Although she is in her twenty-first year she hardly seemed so old as that. Her face is extremely beautiful in repose, and her smile is arch and winning. Her voice is pleasant, although never strong. She was dressed entirely in white throughout the evening, appearing at first in a tight-fitting costume, and afterwards in looser drapery. Her attire in every scene was simply elegant.

Miss Mather will appear in Music hall next Monday evening; the sale of tickets is already large, and all who desire to see this talented young actress should secure their seats promptly.

THE CITY LOAN.

The bids for the $19,500 city loan were opened at the mayor's office on Wednesday, March 28th, at noon.

Brewster, Cobb & Esterbrook offered par; Blake Brothers, par, and thirty cents on a thousand premium; George W. Ballou & Co., par, and three-quarters of one per cent premium; Perkins, Dupee & Co., par, and 77-100 of one per cent premium. The award was made to Perkins, Dupee & Co., who have just taken the $75,000 city of Lowell sewerage four per cent bonds. The amount of $19,500 of city debt will be paid at the Globe bank, Boston, April 2d.

GOSSIPS SAY

That the silver-plate industry proposing to establish in this city languisheth only because of the indifference and "hanging off" disposition of certain Portsmouth capitalists.

That as soon as Hon. Frank Jones arrives home an effort will be made to secure this industry, which would pay out to its workmen alone about $90,000 annually.

That a Marine Bicycle club is being talked of in this city, with boat house, floating stage and other conveniences.

That great numbers of beautifully-colored sea-anemones are being hauled up on the old piles from under the third Newcastle bridge.

That at about eleven o'clock on Wednesday forenoon of this week, "railroad day," some two hundred Portsmouth ladies were shopping in Jordan, Marsh & Co.'s store, Boston, purchasing articles they didn't need, and about the same number in R. H. White's.

That plaice and flounder fishing from the Newcastle bridges is at present very good, and as no tolls are now being taken at the gate, quite a large number of persons daily indulge in this pastime.

The "stockholders'" train from this city for Boston on Wednesday morning, the 28th inst., consisted of thirteen cars drawn by two engines, and had about 600 persons on board at the start.

Editor Chronicle: In your issue of March 27th you speak of the condition of the Franklin school house on Christian Shore, in regard to the means of escape for the children in case of fire. I have had occasion many times to go into this building, and must say that the stair accommodation is entirely insufficient for egress of the scholars should a fire occur, there being but one stairway, and that very narrow and crooked. Every school and public building should have on each story a strong balcony running entirely around it, the several balconies being connected with each other by well protected stairs at several points, so that even the most timid persons could in case of necessity descend in safety.

PARENT.

The number of persons who took the free ride from this city to Boston on the 28th inst. was small in comparison with the crowds on previous "railroad days."

The Boston Transcript of March 27th said that on the previous evening "a sociable and reception to Rev. James De-Normandie, the new pastor of the First Religious Society of Roxbury, was given in the Putnam chapel, and was attended by more than three hundred members and friends of the church. Among those present were Rev. Mr. Lyon of the Mt. Pleasant church, and Rev. Mr. Patterson of the Roxbury street church."

The flag on the custom house was half-masted on Wednesday, the 28th inst., as a mark of respect to the memory of the late Postmaster General Howe, whose funeral took place that day. The post-office was closed from two to five o'clock in the afternoon, by order of the department, for the same reason.

Two gentlemen from the country, who stopped at one of the hotels in this city on Tuesday night of this week, were puzzled over the putting out of the gas light in their bedroom, and after failing—luckily for themselves—in an attempt to blow it out, had to call the clerk to show them how the thing worked.

The Portsmouth and Dover wheelmen gave an exhibition in the Dover city hall on Tuesday evening of this week. Master George Girard of this city was the youngest performer of the evening, and the favorite.

James Hehir was before the police court on Wednesday, the 28th inst., for taking a horse not belonging to him, and was fined $10, costs $7.90. As the story goes, Hehir and one Stoddard of Salmon Falls on the 10th of November last took a horse at the Plains hotel belonging to Pat. Quill, of Greenland, and after driving the animal around the city in a furious manner for some time left him on Bow street, where he was afterwards found in a used up condition. Both men left the city, and when Hehir returned he was soon arrested. The horse was valued at $50.00, and has since died from the ill usage received at the time.

The warm weather is coming, when kerosene stoves will be wanted. John P. Sweetser advertises the Adams & Westlake oil stove, and his well-earned reputation for selling the very best of everything in the stove and general house-furnishing line gives weight to his claim that this is "the best in the world." He also advertises baby carriages, and children's velocipedes and tricycles; and he keeps almost everything you can think of in his line. Look into his store, No. 46 Market street.

The stock of groceries, store fixtures, and other articles in or belonging to the store lately kept by Wm. Downs & Son, were sold at auction on Wednesday, March 28th, by C. M. Gignoux, the assignee, in one lot, for sixty per cent of the appraised value. Mr. Thomas H. Rider bid off the lot, as was reported on behalf of friends of Wm. Wallace Downs, who will continue the business.

Acting under imperative orders from the management, the advance agent of the Camilla Urso concert company, Mr. E. T. Wetter, has cancelled the company's date in this city, and the splendid musical entertainment which our people had anticipated for the evening of Fast day will not be given. Had the concert taken place a large audience would unquestionably have attended.

The ladies of the Universalist society will have an "International Tea Party," with an illustrated lecture on tea, in their vestry on Thursday and Friday evenings of this week; also sale of aprons and fancy work. Refreshments will be on sale Thursday evening, and supper served Friday evening from 6:30 to 7:30 o'clock. Admission, adults fifteen cents, children ten cents; doors open at six, stage entertainment at eight. First appearance in this city of the "Automatic Warblers."

The "railroad day" excursionists who failed to take the special train provided for them from Boston, had a long trip down, a freight train which was derailed at Salisbury so delaying the Pullman that it did not arrive here until half past eleven o'clock that night.

[For other local matter see second page.]

The Government Chemist Analyzes two of the Leading Baking Powders, and what he finds them made of.

I have examined samples of "Cleveland's Superior Baking Powder" and "Royal Baking Powder," purchased by myself in this city, and I find they contain:

"Cleveland's Superior Baking Powder."
Cream of Tartar,
Bicarbonate of Soda,
Flour.
Available carbonic acid gas 12.61 per cent, equivalent to 118.2 cubic inches of gas per oz. of Powder.

"Royal Baking Powder."
Cream of Tartar,
Bicarbonate of Soda,
Carbonate of Ammonia,
Tartaric Acid,
Starch.
Available carbonic acid gas 12.40 per cent, equivalent to 116.2 cubic inches of gas per oz. of Powder.
Ammonia gas 0.43 per cent, equivalent to 10.4 cubic inches per oz. of Powder.

NOTE.—The Tartaric acid was doubtless introduced as free acid, but subsequently combined with ammonia, and exists in the Powder as a Tartrate of Ammonia. E. G. LOVE, Ph. D.
NEW YORK, Jan'y 17th, 1881.

The above shows conclusively that "Cleveland's Superior" is a strictly pure Cream of Tartar Baking Powder. It has also been analyzed by Professor Johnson of Yale College; Dr. Genth of the University of Pennsylvania; President Morton of the Stevens Institute; Wm. M. Habirshaw, F. C. S., Analyst for the Chemical Trade of New York, and other eminent chemists, all of whom pronounce it absolutely pure and healthful.—Hall's Journal of Health for April, 1882.

THE Admiration OF THE WORLD. Mrs. S. A. Allen's WORLD'S Hair Restorer IS PERFECTION!

Public Benefactress. Mrs. S. A. ALLEN has justly earned this title, and thousands are this day rejoicing over a fine head of hair produced by her unequaled preparation for restoring, invigorating, and beautifying the Hair. Her World's Hair Restorer quickly cleanses the scalp, removing Dandruff, and arrests the fall; the hair, if gray, is changed to its natural color, giving it the same vitality and luxurious quantity as in youth.

COMPLIMENTARY. "My hair is now restored to its youthful color; I have not a gray hair left. I am satisfied that the preparation is not a dye, but acts on the secretions. My hair ceases to fall, which is certainly an advantage to me, who was in danger of becoming bald." This is the testimony of all who use Mrs. S. A. ALLEN'S WORLD'S HAIR RESTORER.

"One Bottle did it." That is the expression of many who have had their gray hair restored to its natural color, and their bald spot covered with hair, after using one bottle of Mrs. S. A. ALLEN'S WORLD'S HAIR RESTORER. It is not a dye.

SECRET!
SALICYLICA is known as a common-sense remedy, because it strikes directly at the cause of Rheumatism, Gout and Neuralgia, while so many so-called specifics and supposed panaceas only treat locally the effects.
It has been conceded by eminent scientists that outward applications, such as rubbing with oils, ointments, liniments, and soothing lotions will not eradicate those diseases which are the result of the poisoning of the blood with Uric Acid.
SALICYLICA works with marvelous effect on this acid, and so removes the disorder. It is now exclusively used by all celebrated physicians of America and Europe. The Medical Medical Academy of Paris reports 95 per cent. cures in three days.

HEART DISEASE

A NOTED BUT UNTITLED WOMAN.

[From the Boston Globe.]

Messrs. Editors:—

The above is a good likeness of Mrs. Lydia E. Pinkham, of Lynn, Mass., who above all other human beings may be truthfully called the "Best Friend of Women," as some of her correspondents love to call her. She is zealously devoted to her work, which is the outcome of a life-study, and is obliged to keep six lady assistants, to help her answer the large correspondence which daily pours in upon her, each bearing his special burden of suffering, or joy at release from it. Her Vegetable Compound is a medicine for good and not evil purposes. I have personally investigated it and am satisfied of the truth of this.

On account of its proven merits, it is recommended and prescribed by the best physicians in the country. One says: "It works like a charm and saves much pain. It will cure entirely the worst form of falling of the uterus, Leucorrhœa, irregular and painful Menstruation, all Ovarian Troubles, Inflammation and Ulceration, Flooding, all Displacements and the consequent spinal weakness, and is especially adapted to the Change of Life."

It permeates every portion of the system, and gives new life and vigor. It removes faintness, flatulency, destroys all craving for stimulants, and relieves weakness of the stomach. It cures Bloating, Headaches, Nervous Prostration, General Debility, Sleeplessness, Depression and Indigestion. That feeling of bearing down, causing pain, weight and backache, is always permanently cured by its use. It will at all times, and under all circumstances, act in harmony with the law that governs the female system.

It costs only $1. per bottle or six for $5., and is sold by druggists. Any advice required in special cases, and the names of many who have been restored to perfect health by the use of the Vegetable Compound, can be obtained by addressing Mrs. P., with stamp for reply, at her Lynn, Mass.

For Kidney Complaints of either sex this compound is unsurpassed as abundant testimonials show.

"Mrs. Pinkham's Liver Pills," says one writer, "are the best in the world for the cure of Constipation, Biliousness and Torpidity of the liver. Her Blood Purifier works wonders in its special line and bids fair to equal the Compound in its popularity."

All must respect her as an Angel of Mercy whose sole ambition is to do good to others.

Nashua, N. H. (3) Mrs. A. M. C.

Preserving Potatoes.

Preserving potatoes for the table in the summer by slightly heating the surface and thus destroying the eyes, was recently suggested in the New England Farmer as a method worthy experiment. Mr. J. G. Adams, of Green county, Penn., writes the New York Tribune that the plan is practiced in his county to a considerable extent. "The eyes are destroyed by simply pouring scalding water over the tubers, which are then immediately dried and put away, when they will keep indefinitely." Mr. Adams says he knows whereof he speaks, for being engaged in the grocery business he has bought and sold potatoes treated by this process, repeatedly. It is not too late for housekeepers to give the germ-destroying process a trial.

The case of Russell Brown, who, while on a spree in January, 1882, robbed and murdered his aged grandmother, the wife of General Dorris, was called in St. Louis, Mo., March 26th, and that of McGlew, a companion indicted for the same offence. The district attorney said that he did not believe the young men intended to murder their victim, and proposed to accept a plea of manslaughter, to which the penalty of ten years imprisonment is attached. The judge expressed great surprise at this proposition, and after deliberation refused to allow the plea. The trial was then begun. Brown has very influential connections, who no doubt would be glad to save the worthless young cur from the gallows.

A bill has passed both houses of the Tennessee legislature allowing pools to be sold on all races, but confining that privilege to blood horse associations and fairs. It prohibits selling to minors or intoxicated persons. The law has heretofore forbidden the selling of pools on any races run outside of the state.

At Hyde Park, Mass., March 27th, an engine and tender broke apart, letting the fireman, Frank H. Sturgis, fall between; both legs and one arm were cut off, and his body cut in two above the waist. He was twenty-two years old, and unmarried.

Mother Swan's Worm Syrup.

Nashua has a sensation in the shape of a report that Mrs. Michael Winn, a respectable woman, is dead from the effects of having her head kicked in by her husband.

The Dover Democrat says: "The husband of Mrs. Carlton, who was so mysteriously murdered in Watertown a few days since, was here last summer and ran a variety show under canvas on Fourth street, near where the Nute shoe shop stood. While here he had a disagreement with an Italian about the ownership of some trained birds."

Bright's Disease, Diabetes, Kidney, Liver or Urinary Diseases.

Have no fear of any of these diseases if you use Hop Bitters, as they will prevent and cure the worst cases, even when you have been made worse by some great puffed up pretended cure.

The supreme court has appointed as members of the state board of equalization, William Butterfield of Concord, John M. Parker of Goffstown, Edwin W. Drew of Stewartstown and Charles A. Dale of Lebanon—all re-appointed, except the latter, who succeeds E. S. Cutter of Nashua.

In certain cases of sickness it is important to obtain pure whiskey. Such is the "G. O. Taylor Old Bourbon," bottled by Chester H. Graves & Sons, Boston. Ask your druggist or grocer for it.

The trustees of the State Normal school at Plymouth held a meeting in the state house, March 26th, Rev. George B. Spalding, D. D., the president, presiding. H. P. Warren, principal of the school, gave a detailed report of its condition, which showed the institution to be in a flourishing state. Prof. Warren's resignation, which was made several days ago, was accepted, and the appointment of a successor postponed until the next session of the board.

Much distress and sickness attributed to dyspepsia and chronic diarrhœa is occasioned by humor in the stomach. Hood's Sarsaparilla is the remedy.

The coroner's jury at Nashua found that Mrs. Michael Winn was beaten to death by her husband.

MINNESOTA & DAKOTA

VARIOUS QUACKS.

Who—Each with his own Pet Scheme—

Cultivate the Field of Human Nature.

There have always been quacks—legal quacks, theological quacks, scientific quacks and medical quacks. Some of them are bland, oily fellows who argue and smile the world into believing in their favorite bit of humbug. Others are pompous and pretentious parasites. But they make it pay. Men seem to love to be swindled, adjudgingly only that it shall be neatly done.

The dear public are equally liberal to the electric and magnetic fraud. This fellow is a genius in his line. He will put a magnetic belt around your waist, a magnetic necklace under your chin, or fit you out with an entire suit of magnetic clothes, warranted to serve the purpose of ordinary garments, and at the same time to cure all diseases, from whooping-cough to hasty consumption.

Most of these have no more electric or magnetic power about them than resides in wooden blankets or in girdles of sackcloth. Only when applied by an expert is electricity of the slightest use as a medicinal agent, and even then its value is grossly over-stated. What is the strongest possible presumptive evidence in favor of a particular remedy? Clearly that it should have been prepared by responsible persons of acknowledged skill in the treatment of disease.

Squarely on this foundation stands BENSON'S CAPCINE POROUS PLASTER. Endorsed by 5,000 physicians, pharmacists, druggists and chemists, it stands on its merits, and does its work. It is the one and only true and tried external application. Quacks of all kinds pay the Capcine the compliment of their dislike, as Satan is said to hate holy water.

Look in the middle of the plaster for the word "CAPCINE." Price 25 cents.

Daily Chronicle.

"Ice Pack and Tundra," Mr. W. H. Gilder's recent book, has attracted much attention in England, and a firm of publishers in London have just issued the volume there by arrangement with the Messrs. Scribner.

For an appetizer, nothing is better than cabbage or the tops of turnips; but for a stubborn cough or cold, don't forget, the best thing is a bottle of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup.

Very many readers of the brilliant and scholarly reviews of books printed in the Sunday issue of the New York Sun, will be glad to know that their author, Mr. Mayo W. Hazeltine, is to publish a collection of his essays in a volume of "Chats About Books." In this book he has collected his notable papers on George Eliot, Victor Hugo, Swinburne, Longfellow, Whittier, Zola, Henry James, Jr., Charles Reade, Bret Harte, and "Jules Verne's Didactic Fiction," among others.

A pain-stricken farmer of Worcester,
Who couldn't walk as he useter

And this man of toil
Now kicks sky-high if he chouseter.

—At the cafe: "Waiter, take away this soup! it's as cold as ice." "Oh, you must be mistaken sir! I tasted it as I was bringing it, and it's nice and hot, sir!" "I tasted it!" "Oh, no, sir! Beg pardon, sir, I wouldn't think of doing such a thing, sir! I only just put my finger into it, sir!"

If You are Ruined

in health from any cause, especially from the use of any of the thousand nostrums that promise so largely, with long fictitious testimonials, have no fear. Resort to Hop Bitters at once, and in a short time you will have the most robust and blooming health.

—This is the time of year when the average wealthy citizen begins to bow very respectfully to the assessor of his ward.

Important to the Sick.

To those who have used Swedish Remedies, they know full well the value of them. To those who from prejudice have not used them, we can say that they are the very best medicines for the diseases for which they are recommended. Swedish Lung Balsam cures coughs, colds, and all diseases of the lungs. When taken together with Swedish Botanic Compound (the great blood purifier), it will cure consumption in the first and second stages.

—A scissors-grinder was ringing his bell "to grind" on the street, when a young man called to him and asked: "Say, can you sharpen everything?" "Yes, eafery-thing." "Can you sharpen my wits?" "Your vits? Vhell, I guess you haf to go und get a new handle und backspring put in first! I must haf sometings to hang on py!"

Beware of Swindlers.

We have exposed during the last year, many swindlers who advertise under the name of medicine, vile compounds which only increase human suffering. To all who need a pure medicine and blood purifier, we can honestly recommend Sulphur Bitters.—Editor Sun.

—The tramp is not, as a general thing, wealthy, but he can afford to spend his summer in the country.

—A young child in Oregon has died from the effect of swallowing the leaves of an almanac. Dates should be eaten in small quantities.

Human Blood.—On the purity and vitality of the blood depend the vigor and health of the whole system. Disease of various kinds is often only the sign that nature is trying to remove the disturbing cause. A remedy that gives life and vigor to the blood, eradicates scrofula and other impurities from it as Hood's Sarsaparilla undoubtedly does, must be the means of preventing many diseases that would occur without its use. Sold by dealers.

—When a man is excited he is very apt to talk without thinking. An Austin landlord called on his tenant the tenth time for the rent, "I haven't got any money," was the response. "Well, if you have't got money enough to pay rent you ought to build yourself a house."

Mr. James Wells, of 360 Shroop ave., Brooklyn, writes: "My wife was suffering from extreme debility, she used Wheat Bitters with the most satisfactory result and pronounces it the best remedy in the world."

—An Iowa City clergyman has 158 hives of bees, which are arranged around his hen house, and when he hears a thief fooling around the establishment in the darkness, he just lies still and waits to hear a hive upset and then laughs at the sound of wild yells gradually dying away in the distance.

Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.: Dear Sir:—For many months I was a great sufferer. Physicians could afford me no relief. In my despair I commenced the use of your "Favorite Prescription." It speedily effected my entire and permanent cure. Yours thankfully, Mrs. Paul R. Baxter, Iowa City, Ia. b

—"My dear," said a Philadelphia husband the other morning, "we must reduce the expenses. Instead of buying a new Easter bonnet, see if you can't fix over the old one; and, by the way, don't forget to have George take the demijohn around to-day to be filled. It is about empty."

"Buchu-Paiba."

—A man was quietly munching on a piece of pie in a saloon Friday morning when a look of distress suddenly displaced the serene expression on his face. Taking something from between his teeth, and looking at it, he cried to the waiter; "Here, you, there's a stone I found in this pie!" The waiter took it, glanced at it critically, and handing it back briefly said: "It's no good to us; you can have it."

The Physician's Advice.

"What shall I do?" old Aker cried,
"For this sharp anguish in my side,
"This dreadful rheumatism!
"I've tried all sorts of physic vile,
"Which certainly have cost a pile.
"And still I've paroxysm"

The doctor said: "My friend, eschew
"These noxious nostrums, or else you
"Will be too weak to kill a cur;
"Give up old physic, try the new,
"The very thing that's meant for you—
"The mighty Salicylica!"

—Rough on rising talent: Brown—"Don't think you are doing so well as you were last year, old man." Robinson—"But I was not painting at all last year." Brown—"Exactly so! That is just it!"

Mr. A. J. Severance, 115 Broadway, N. Y., writes: "I have used Wheat Bitters for malaria and it cured me. My wife who was in a feeble state of health has been very much benefitted by using it. I think it an excellent remedy."

—We often hear the expression that "the fire has gone out." And it is said in some of our large places you can actually see the fire escape.

—A Kansas church deacon said in prayer-meeting: "Brethren and sisters, let us pray for G. M. Smith, and make a better man of him." G. M. Smith sued the deacon for slander, and was awarded $500 by a jury.

A truly alarming statement based upon unquestioned facts, and endorsed by the highest authorities has recently published. In a nut-shell it is that, one in three of all who die at an adult age, exhibit marks of recent or former attacks of heart disease of some kind. Dr. Graves' Heart Regulator is a certain cure—and the only one—for all kinds of heart diseases, nervousness and sleeplessness.—The Pioneer Sun.

—A New England daily, which surely can't be edited by a horny-handed farmer, puts down among the items of farm work for March the care of fences. A man would have an interesting time driving stakes and reconstructing old fences in March, now wouldn't he?

Coughs, Colds, &c.

New York, Dec. 18, 1880.

I suffered greatly from hoarseness caused by preaching every night. I was advised to try Hale's Honey of Horehound and Tar, and can most cheerfully recommend the same as a most excellent remedy for colds, coughs, &c. Yours respectfully, &c., David W. Couch, pastor Eggleston square church, Boston, Mass. In bronchial affections it is also specially useful.

—A book just published is entitled 'How to make $500 Yearly Profit with Twelve Hens.' During the past few years some persons have asked such a high price for eggs that an impression prevailed that they wanted to make a profit of $500 a year with one hen.

NO USE FOR THEM.

Concerning Certain Relics of the Past --Dogs that have had Their Day.

George Stephenson's "Rocket," and the magnificent locomotives of to day, are built upon the same general principle, yet the machine with which the great engineer astonished his age, is interesting now only as an illustration of the beginning of the invention. There were plasters with holes in them long before BENSON'S CAPCINE POROUS PLASTER surprised both the public and the physicians; and the triumph of the Capcine is founded upon the partial successes, or the utter failures of its predecessors. Everything of value in the old porous plaster is retained in the Capcine; but at this point all comparison ends, and contrast begins. For example:

The old plasters lacked the power to do more than to impart slight, temporary relief in cases easy of treatment; the Capcine penetrates the system and permanently cures the troubles for which it is recommended.

The old plasters depended for any good results they might attain, upon an accident of their makers and the naked faith of their wearers; the Benson's reaches its ends by means of the scientific combination of the rare medicinal ingredients which it contains.

In brief, the old plasters, like Stephenson's discarded engine, are switched off the track, while the Benson goes on its way winning golden opinions from all sorts of people.

Yet is this very fact lies the leading danger to the people who buy and use this reliable and scientific remedy. "Hypocrisy is the tribute (fee pays to virtue." Imitation is the concession failure makes to success. Benson's Plasters are parodied in name and style.

Beware of swindles. The genuine have the word CAPCINE only in the center. Price 25 cents. Seabury & Johnson, Chemists, New York. fe23t,w,s,&eod183

A YOUNG OLD LADY.

"Yes, Sir! I'm Younger than any of my Children now," said Mrs. Sarah M. Robinson, of 61 William St., New Haven, Conn.--We read about this kind of Noble Ladies, but Seldom See them in Society.

"Yes, sir; I'm younger than any of my children now. I keep up with the times, I read the papers, applaud the victories of old Yale, and don't grow old," were the words of Mrs. Robinson to your reporter when he called at her home. Mrs. Robinson is one of the earnest, go-ahead sort of aged ladies, of whom you read, but whom you so rarely find in modern society. "I've had my share of trouble," she said, "for all my life I've been a sufferer from erysipelas. From this has resulted diseased stomach and inaction of the digestive organs. I've been troubled with dyspepsia, and have had such a weakness of the stomach it has seemed as if I needed something artificial and strengthening. I attribute this to erysipelas, which is constitutional with me. I've been under the physician's care a great deal during my life, but I never received any permanent benefit I think until I began taking Dr. Kennedy's FAVORITE REMEDY, which has proved a perfect restorative in my case. My health is better now than it has been for a long time. I consider Dr. Kennedy's FAVORITE REMEDY an excellent medicine. It is used extensively in this city. I keep it as a family medicine, and rely upon it for I know of the good results of using it."

Your reporter left Mrs. Robinson rejoicing in health and renewed youth, and bestowing merited praise on that which is the source of happiness to thousands, viz; Dr. Kennedy's FAVORITE REMEDY. Ask your druggist for it. Kennedy's FAVORITE REMEDY has become a household word. Everybody, sooner or later, gets sick, and sickness is both wearisome and costly. FAVORITE REMEDY stops it at this point. It is not expensive and it is efficient. For all diseases of the Blood, Bilious Disorders, Kidney Complaints, Constipation, and the aches and ills which make the domestic life of women a cross so hard to bear.

They Ran For The Doctor.

Some people are always running for the doctor when the least thing is the matter with themselves or their children. Of course, the doctor likes this, for he gets well paid for it. But there are many occasions when the judicious use of Perry Davis's Pain Killer will do all the doctor can. Mr. R. V. Miller, of Syracuse, N. Y., says he has for twenty years used Pain Killer for miscellaneous family sicknesses; and that it is so valuable that it ought to be kept in every house.

Numerous despatches have been sent from points in the Indian country during the past few days, giving details of alleged outrages by the red men; one report said a band raiding in southeastern Oregon is drawing from the reservations, and increasing in numbers daily, and that twenty-one people were murdered and buried in seven days. Despatches from San Francisco say it is believed the rumors of Indian movements are circulated for the purpose of bringing on a commission which would result in their removal, throwing open their reservation to land sharks.

The Finest and Purest

Portsmouth Chronicle.

FRIDAY, MAR. 30, 1883.

☞ Copies of the GAZETTE and of the DAILY CHRONICLE can be had of Moses Brothers, at their Newspaper Store in Congress Block.

GOSSIPS SAY

That workmen were engaged in setting hitching posts along the curbstone on Vaughan street, near Congress, on Thursday, but were stopped by the city authorities, as the street was considered too narrow to allow the hitching of teams to thus nearly blockade the most travelled thoroughfare in the city.

That $5000 is the amount estimated as having been spent in Boston by Portsmouth ladies on Wednesday, the 28th inst., one lady purchasing goods to the amount of $200 at R. H. White's.

That there being no suitable hall in Dover, Margaret Mather will not play in that city.

That there will be a general cut-down in the pay of navy yard employees from April 1st.

That the conductors on the Eastern railroad are to be sworn in as special police officers for duty on trains.

That the managers of the skating carnival in Franklin hall sold nearly four hundred tickets for their splendid entertainment on Thursday evening.

That the Eastern railroad directors' car passed over that road to Portland on Thursday.

That the citizens of the south end desire a male principal in the Haven school, as was the case formerly.

AROUND HOME.

In Chelsea, Mass., March 28th, about half-past ten o'clock in the forenoon, a widow named Mary Armstrong, aged eighty-one years, while crossing the track in front of the Eastern railroad station was struck by an express train bound for Boston, and instantly killed, the force of the blow being so great as to throw her gaiter boots off her feet.

The Eastern railroad stockholders who went to Boston on the 28th inst. in the special train provided for them, and returning on the evening Pullman train, having missed the special train from Boston, had a good deal of riding for their money, counting the length of time they were at it. The trip to Boston occupied about three hours and a half, one of the two engines which left this city with the train breaking down not far from Newburyport. The return trip of the special train was made without any special incident taking place; but the many stockholders left behind in Boston, and who took passage on the Pullman at seven o'clock, were over four and one-half hours in reaching this city owing to an accident to a freight train at Salisbury, which made about eight hours enjoyed by them in the cars that day. Men who were hanging around the station in this city until near midnight, awaiting the arrival of lady friends and relatives, were heard to make numerous uncomplimentary remarks about "railroad day."

The winter term of twenty-two weeks in school district No. 4, of Seabrook, taught by Miss Nellie Pickering of this city, closed March 23d. Seabrook correspondent says: "She is a teacher of rare ability and wonderful tact in governing a school, and has given entire satisfaction."

We are informed that a young man who was calling from house to house in the south part of the city on Thursday of this week, peddling "prize packages" of needles, developed a large amount of insolent cheek in several instances where he found no man in the house.

Reserved seat tickets for "Esmeralda," which is to be performed in Music hall next Tuesday evening by the Madison Square Theatre Co. of New York, go on sale at Goodrich's to-day. That the play will be presented in the most attractive manner, by superior actors and with special scenery, the public need not be told, all this being assured by the name of the company. The play ran over a year in the theatre at New York.

Thomas Elwyn, son of Rev. Alfred Elwyn of Philadelphia, had a fall in the barn at the Elwyn place on Lafayette road, on the 27th inst., and broke his right arm, besides being severely shaken up.

About 800# lbs. of fish came in on Thursday, March 29th. The schooner Addie & Hattie sailed to the eastward on Thursday, on her first trip this year after lobsters for Randall & Caswell. Smelts are now brought into market in good quantities, from Newmarket.

The tug Ann on the 29th inst. towed to Dover a scow loaded with 120 tons of coal, the second load to go up this season.

The gross earnings of the Eastern railroad for the month of February, as officially reported, were $271,430.16, against $206,218.34 for the corresponding month in 1882, an increase of $65,-211.92.

It is said that twenty freight trains are daily passing over the Eastern railroad, to four regular trains over the Boston & Maine road.

The schooner Elm City, with 973 tons of coal, and the Dreadnaught with 740 tons, arrived on Thursday last, both to J. Albert Walker.

Several of the aldermen attended the calico ball in the south wardroom on Thursday evening.

The Dover Republican is informed by Hon. Z. S. Wallingford that "arrangements have been entered into between the managers of the Boston & Maine railroad and the directors of the Cocheco Mfg. Co., by which the latter will get such reasonable terms of freights as it desires, and Dover will be made the great shipping point of this section of the state. That means, furthermore, that Dover is to be the leading city in New Hampshire within the space of a very few years, if the people, the leading men, take hold and make proper use of the grand opportunities which will open before them, if the two roads should be united, as seems probable they will. March on, march on, all hearts resolved on victory and success."

Nobody seems to be surprised that the stock vote of the Boston & Maine railroad was so nearly unanimous in favor of swallowing the Eastern; the only wonder appears to be that any stockholders of the former should vote against the consummation of a bargain by which it gets the turkey while the Eastern gets the crow, or allows the Eastern the crow while contenting itself with the turkey.

HINTS TENDERED.

KITTERY, ME., March 20th.

"Republican" wants to know, in your paper of the 28th inst., when we shall have a change in our town officers. A democratic friend suggests it will be soon after the November election in '84. It would be better for the republican party if the change came sooner, and that the patronage of the navy yard was not used to force upon the people men and measures that they would repudiate if they were not coerced to vote against their will.

The day is drawing near when people will have something to say about who shall be their servants, not their masters, and the wishes of the people be respected; and they will not vote to perpetuate in a good job on the navy yard a few, while the many starve on six or eight days per month, and some who think for themselves not get a day's work, though many of them are life-long republicans. There is heavy thunder in the air, and lightning may strike when not expected. Hope it will not strike the republican party, but only those who wish to rule or ruin. ANOTHER REPUBLICAN.

Schooner Hildergarde has returned to Gloucester, Mass., from haddocking, having lost Simon Landry, one of her crew, who was capsized in a dory, and drowned. He belonged in Nova Scotia.

The central police station in Philadelphia received word shortly after midnight on March 28th saying that 300 men, supposed to be acting under the direction of the Philadelphia & Reading railroad company, were destroying the new bridge of the Pennsylvania railroad company at Second and Venango streets.

Walter Stone, a colored lad, fell from a horse he was riding in Providence, R. I., March 28th, struck on his head, and was taken to the hospital. It is thought his skull is fractured.

A suit has been begun in the court of common pleas in New York city, by Henry Morgan, a holder of $250,000 of Union Pacific income bonds, to ascertain what has become of the net earnings since 1880, and requesting an injunction restraining the payment of interest and dividends until the demands of income bondholders have been satisfied.

The dry goods store of George Inness & Co., at Lawrence, Kan., was robbed, Tuesday night, of about $8,000 worth of silks. There is no clew to the perpetrators.

Frank Byrne and his wife, who were implicated by Carey, the informer, during his examination in Kilmainham (Ireland) jail, and whom Carey swore were members of the assassination society, have arrived in New York from Havre by the steamship L'Amerique. Mrs. Byrne is the woman whom Carey testified brought arms and knives from London to Dublin, to be used in murdering government officials.

Thomas Hughes, a Dover hoodlum eighteen years old, has been held for trial for knocking down with a stone the doorkeeper at the city hall, who refused to admit him and a crowd of other young roughs without tickets.

The funeral of Rev. Stephen Murphy was held in Dover March 29th, Bishop Healey and thirty priests being present.

—Jay Gould "thinks he has his share of life's pleasant things." He doesn't say anything about the share of pleasant things in his possession which belongs to other folks.

—A New Yorker has been fined $800 for giving tobacco to a giraffe in Central Park. That's right; give tobacco to boys as much as you like, but don't try to poison our giraffes.

Ladies are the Best Judges

On all matters connected with the toilet. They have decided that SOZODONT is what they will have. "When a woman will, she will, you may depend on't; and when she wont, she wont, there's an end on't." This accounts for the popularity of SOZODONT.

SCROFULA.

A remedy that can destroy the germs of scrofula, and when once settled has the power to root it out, must be appreciated by those afflicted. The remarkable cures of young children, and the more wonderful cures of those of middle age and late in life, as illustrated by our printed testimonials, prove HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA to be a reliable remedy, containing remedial agents which do positively cure scrofula and eradicate it from the blood.

WARNER, N. H., Jan. 21, 1879.

MESSRS. C. I. HOOD & CO., Lowell, Mass.: Gentlemen—For ten years previous to the early part of 1877 I had been a constant sufferer from scrofulous ulcers or sores, which had finally reduced me to a helpless condition, as described in my letter to you in September of that year. The continued excellent health which enables me to keep house for my aged father and to enjoy life, keeps alive my intense personal interest in HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA, and I cannot refrain from expressing my gratitude for the permanent cure this wonderful medicine effected in my case nearly two years ago, while living in Lowell, when all my physicians gave me up as being in an incurable condition. One thing before I close. I have recommended your Sarsaparilla to hundreds, and I think more than a thousand cases, and my faith in its invincibility in curing scrofula has become absolute by the wonderful cures it has effected aside from my own. I trust you will not be slow in making the merits of HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA known everywhere, for it is a duty you owe to mankind. With best wishes I remain very truly yours,

SARAH C. WHITTIER

Under the heading "Patronize Home Industry," the Times in a recent issue, after giving a couple of incidents related by a leading dry goods dealer of this city to emphasize the often-repeated statement that little if anything can be saved by the purchase of dry goods in Boston instead of from local dealers, remarked:

As a general thing we think it is better for people to purchase goods in small lots of local dealers, for it is very easy for Boston dealers to tell whether their customers are strangers in the city or not, and they often take advantage of this knowledge. Of course people who have acquaintances in Boston, and who make large purchases, can strike sharp trades and sometimes get better bargains than in this city. They have a decided advantage over those who are not acquainted. The Boston dealer who is selling goods to an out-of-town person * * sells at a good profit, and the customer thinks it a good trade, unless by after comparison it is found that the same might have been bought in this city at the same, or even a less price. There is no person can make a great deal by buying in Boston, unless they buy large quantities, that is, if their sole object in visiting the city is to make purchases, for the fare of three dollars they have to pay, more than offsets the discount they get on their goods. We should advise all persons to purchase their dry goods of dealers in this city.

A lady sent to Boston by express for half a dozen towels, and paid 12 1-2 cents each, with express charges. After she got them home she was dissatisfied and brought them to the local dealer, who exchanged them for a much better towel, which he was selling for 12 1-2 cents. He exchanged with her in order to have some of the towels to show to some of his customers who think goods can be bought cheaper in Boston than in this city.

In this case it is evident that the Boston merchant, who had towels to dispose of at a certain price, had informed the lady thereof through some effective advertising medium; while the Portsmouth merchant, who had better towels to sell at the same price, had kept his information to himself. The lady knew she could get towels at 12 1-2 cents each in Boston, and did not know she could get better ones for 12 1-2 cents each right at home.

Many of our Portsmouth merchants seem to reason something in this way: "Everybody in the city and vicinity knows where my store is, and that I keep a big stock of goods in my line; there is no use in my spending money to advertise my wares—when the people want them they will come for them." The big Boston houses, whose capture of Portsmouth patronage is sometimes a matter of much concern to the dealers here, go on a very different plan. Jordan, Marsh & Co., R. H. White & Co., Houghton & Dutton, are all familiar names all over New England, and many thousands of ladies living in places from ten to a hundred miles away from Boston, when in that city can go from one to the other of their stores without a guide; yet they do not think they can do business on their reputations alone, and are constantly proclaiming through means of extensive and costly advertisements, the special bargains they are prepared to offer to Bostonians as well as to the people of other cities. And persons in other cities, thus learning of the great bargains to be obtained in Boston, invest therein, paying no attention to the equally good bargain to be had at home, but of whose existence they have not been informed.

CHRIST CHURCH.

Christ church parish was organized Wednesday evening, March 28th, by the election of John H. Slater and Howe Call as wardens, Edwin B. Prime and William Bates as vestrymen, Frank J. Philbrick as treasurer, and John H. Knox clerk; Rev. Henry C. Hovey was chosen rector.

MUNICIPAL AFFAIRS.

The Board of Mayor and Aldermen, Thursday evening, March 29th, Mayor Treat in the chair:

Present the full board.

The records of the last meeting were read and approved.

Salaries of fire department, amounting to $1452.09, were ordered to be paid.

An invitation from J. T. Adams to attend the calico ball was accepted.

Alfred Stavers asked permission to place hitching posts in the curb-stones on Congress, Fleet and Vaughan streets, near the Franklin buildings. The request was granted as to Congress and Fleet streets. Ald. Martin called for the yeas and nays, stating that the city in granting Mr. Stavers permission to set the posts assumed the liability in case of accident, and he wished the vote to go on record. On the call of the yeas and nays, Ald. Martin's vote was the only negative.

Ald. Sampson moved that the nine men attached to the relief engine Sagamore be discharged, which would save the city $370 a year, and it was so voted.

On motion of Ald. Martin, it was voted to hire the inspectors of checklists to take the vital statistics of the city.

B. F. & C. E. Russell asked for license to sell petroleum and its products; granted.

Voted that the city clerk be empowered to grant petroleum licenses when asked for by dealers, it being stated in the board that all licenses previously issued expired April 1st.

Adjourned for two weeks.

MINSTRELS--TWO NIGHTS.

This evening, at Music hall, Bishop's colored minstrels will give a variety entertainment. The company comprises thirty performers, a large proportion of whom are noted specialists; and that the manager is confident that he gives a first-class show of the kind is proved by the fact that that the company will appear again in Music hall to-morrow evening. Tickets at Goodrich's.

MARGARET MATHER.

Margaret Mather played "Leah, the Forsaken," in Portland on the evening of Tuesday, March 27th, and according to the Advertiser "took a firmer hold of her listeners than she did as 'Juliet,' and the enthusiasm was much greater than on Monday night. The applause was very hearty at all times, and at the end of the two acts in which she appears to the best advantage she was twice called before the curtain."

Miss Mather has been on the stage only seven months. She has played in the principal cities of the west, and in New York and Boston. Her success has been phenomenal, for wherever she has appeared she has been greeted by immense audiences. There is no case on record in this country in which an actress has gained so wide a popularity in so short a time.

Without exception, the Boston papers warmly praised the young actress, and one of them, after her illness, thus spoke of her success:

Boston audiences entertain the wholesome habit of judging for themselves, and the reputation which an actress may have acquired in distant cities goes for little in determining her success at the critical Hub. She must win her way on her own merits, precisely as if she were making her actual debut. The brilliant heralding which preceded Miss Mather when she came to this city went for little or nothing in the minds of people whose opinions upon the drama are sound and valuable. But, happily, she conquered at the outset, and Boston had only to indorse the encomiums of its neighbors. Miss Mather's temporary absence from the Park theatre afforded to her critics an opportunity to look back upon these recent efforts and to reflect upon their value; the result of this reflection is decidedly to Miss Mather's advantage.

The sale of reserved seats progresses rapidly, and persons having choice of chairs will do well to call at the Congress block bookstore without further delay, and secure their seats for Monday evening in Music hall, when and where she will appear as "Pauline."

AN OLD DOCUMENT.

A gentleman of this city, an antiquarian so far as the gathering together of autographs of personages who have figured prominently in history is concerned, has added to his splendid collection an official order to the French army issued and signed by Louis XVI as king of France, and dated Jan. 23d, 1777, seven years after his marriage with the unfortunate Marie Antoinette. The document also bears the signature of St. Germain, the king's private secretary, who also was a conspicuous figure in the French history of that time. The parchment and writing are well preserved, the signatures being especially bold and distinct.

"Hazel Kirke" and "Esmeralda," while totally unlike in plot and portrayal, nevertheless possess an equal power to please audiences.

On Wednesday evening of this week a horse belonging to Valentine Hett took fright at the stamping of some boys on the platform in front of Gerrish's saloon, opposite the Eastern station, and ran up Deer street and then by way of the Concord railroad track to the foot of Cornwall street, where he was stopped without having done any damage.

Letters have been received from James R. Eaton, who recently left this city for the west, stating that he has obtained work in Dunkirk, Ind., and directing his family to join him at that place.

A steamer from the Mediterranean landed over a thousand Italians in New York on Saturday. The came from the vicinity of Naples to help swell our population, and some of them we may expect to see in tuneful sweetness on our streets, giving us the opera by aid of a crank turning the barrel.

The New Hampshire Grand Lodge of Good Templars hold their semi-annual session in this city, at Golden Cross hall, on Wednesday and Thursday of next week.

The fair of the Court street Christian society in Congress hall on the evening of March 28th was a very pleasant affair, and the net receipts amounted to nearly ninety dollars.

The ladies of the Universalist society will have an "International Tea Party," with an illustrated lecture on tea, in their vestry on Thursday and Friday evenings of this week; also sale of aprons and fancy work. Refreshments will be on sale Thursday evening, and supper served Friday evening from 6:30 to 7:30 o'clock. Admission, adults fifteen cents, children ten cents; doors open at six, stage entertainment at eight. First appearance in this city of the "Automatic Warblers."

The Government Chemist Analyzes two of the Leading Baking Powders, and what he finds them made of.

I have examined samples of "Cleveland's Superior Baking Powder" and "Royal Baking Powder," purchased by myself in this city, and I find they contain:

"Cleveland's Superior Baking Powder."
Cream of Tartar,
Bicarbonate of Soda,
Flour.

Available carbonic acid gas 12.61 per cent, equivalent to 118.2 cubic inches of gas per oz. of Powder.

"Royal Baking Powder."
Cream of Tartar,
Bicarbonate of Soda,
Carbonate of Ammonia,
Tartaric Acid,
Starch.

Available carbonic acid gas 12.40 per cent, equivalent to 116.2 cubic inches of gas per oz. of Powder.

Ammonia gas 0.43 per cent, equivalent to 10.4 cubic inches per oz. of Powder.

NOTE.—The Tartaric acid was doubtless introduced as free acid, but subsequently combined with ammonia, and exists in the Powder as a Tartrate of Ammonia. E. G. LOVE, Ph. D.
NEW YORK, Jan'y 17th, 1881.

The above shows conclusively that "Cleveland's Superior" is a strictly pure Cream of Tartar Baking Powder. It has also been analyzed by Professor Johnson of Yale College; Dr. Genth of the University of Pennsylvania; President Morton of the Stevens Institute; Wm. M. Habirshaw, F. C. S., Analyst for the Chemical Trade of New York, and other eminent chemists, all of whom pronounce it absolutely pure and healthful.—Hall's Journal of Health for April, 1882.

SECRET!

SALICYLICA is known as a common-sense remedy, because it strikes directly at the cause of Rheumatism, Gout and Neuralgia, while so many so-called specifics and supposed panaceas only treat locally the effects.

It has been conceded by eminent scientists that outward applications, such as rubbing with oils, ointments, liniments, and soothing lotions will not eradicate those diseases which are the result of the poisoning of the blood with Uric Acid.

SALICYLICA works with marvelous effect on this acid, and so removes the disorder. It is now exclusively used by all celebrated physicians of America and Europe. Highest Medical Academy of Paris reports 85 per cent. cures in three days.

HEART DISEASE

A NOTED BUT UNTITLED WOMAN.

[From the Boston Globe.]

Messrs. Editors—

The above is a good likeness of Mrs. Lydia E. Pinkham, of Lynn, Mass., who above all other human beings may be justly called the "Benefactor and Friend of Woman," as some of her correspondents love to call her. She is zealously devoted to her work, which is the outcome of a life-study, and is enlisted to keep six lady assistants, to help her answer the large correspondence which daily pours in upon her, each bearing its special burden of suffering, or joy at release from it. Her Vegetable Compound is a medicine for good and not evil purposes. I have personally investigated it and am satisfied of the truth of this.

On account of its proven merits, it is recommended and prescribed by the best physicians in the country. One says: "It works like a charm and saves much pain. It will cure entirely the worst form of falling of the uterus, leucorrhœa, irregular and painful Menstruation, all Ovarian Troubles, Inflammation and Ulceration, Floodings, all Displacements and the consequent spinal weakness, and is especially adapted to the Change of Life."

It permeates every portion of the system, and gives new life and vigor. It removes faintness, flatulency, destroys all craving for stimulants, and relieves weakness of the stomach. It cures Dyspepsia, Headache, Nervous Prostration, General Debility, Sleeplessness, Depression and Indigestion. That feeling of bearing down, causing pain, weight and backache, is always permanently cured by its use. It will at all times, and under all circumstances, act in harmony with the law that governs the female system.

It costs only $1. per bottle or six for $5., and is sold by druggists. Any advice required as to special cases, and the names of many who have been restored to perfect health by the use of the Vegetable Compound, can be obtained by addressing Mrs. P., with stamp for reply at her home in Lynn, Mass.

"Mrs. Pinkham's Liver Pills," says one writer, "are the best in the world for the cure of Constipation, Biliousness and Torpidity of the liver. Her Blood Purifier works wonders in its special line and bids fair to equal the Compound in its popularity.

A despatch of March 28th, from Halifax, N. S., was as follows: "A man said to be Herbert W. Eaton, who discharged a revolver at his brother and partner in business, Joseph Eaton, and Samuel Kelly, Jr., in a livery stable at Calais, Me., a few days ago, wounding both men, was on the Quebec express, coming toward Halifax, to-day. Somewhere between Spring Hill and Truro, when in the Pullman car attached to the train, Eaton, whether accidentally or purposely cannot be learned, shot himself in the head with a pistol. At Truro he was carried from the train and placed under the care of a doctor. Particulars cannot be ascertained to-night."

IN MINNESOTA & DAKOTA

VARIOUS QUACKS.

Who—Each with his own Pet Scheme—

Cultivate the Field of Human Nature.

There have always been quacks:—legal quacks, theological quacks, scientific quacks and medical quacks. Some of them are bland, oily fellows who argue and smile the world into believing in their favorite bit of humbug. Others are pompous and pretentious parasites. But they make it pay. Men seem to love to be swindled, stipulating only that it shall be neatly done.

The dear public are equally liberal to the electric and magnetic fraud. This fellow is a genius in his line. He will put a magnetic belt around your waist, a magnetic necklace under your chin, or fit you out with an entire suit of magnetic clothes, warranted to serve the purpose of ordinary garments, and at the same time to cure all diseases, from whooping-cough to hasty consumption.

Most of these have no more electric or magnetic power about them than resides in wooden blankets or in girdles of sackcloth. Only when applied by an expert is electricity of the slightest use as a medicinal agent, and even then its value is merely over-stated. What is the strongest possible presumptive evidence in favor of a particular remedy? Clearly that it should have been prepared by responsible persons of acknowledged skill in the treatment of disease.

Squarely on this foundation stands BENSON'S CAPCINE POROUS PLASTER. Endorsed by 5,000 physicians, pharmacists, druggists and chemists, it needs no further testimony for its merit. It is the one and only true and tried external application. Quacks of all kinds pay the Capcine the compliment of their dislike, as Satan is said to hate holy water.

Daily Chronicle.

A Miserable Wretch.

Many people may think that Dukes, the murderer of Capt. Nutt and seducer of his daughter, finds himself worse off after his acquittal for murder than if the jury had brought in a verdict of guilty. Dukes is at present cooped up in a room of a hotel at Uniontown, Pa., his home, with the door locked, and one friend alone stays with him. A committee of citizens of Uniontown have warned him to leave the place. So widespread is the aversion to such a man that the hotels at Harrisburg were obliged to assure their guests that Dukes should not be received in case he fled thither. The Pennsylvania legislature, of which he was an elected member, has declared his seat vacant. Dukes himself declined to take the seat. No man wishes to barbor him, or associate with him, or see him. Possibly some one of reckless indignation may try to kill him.—N. Y. Sun.

The twelve jurymen, of the same political stripe as the Sun, who acquitted Dukes in defiance of law and evidence for the reason that he was a prominent wire-puller of their political party, soon learned that their infamous act was disapproved even by their party friends; they were hooted out of the town by the entire populace immediately after rendering their verdict, and their client, Dukes, was hung in effigy; and an evening or two later one of them was assaulted and beaten almost to death in the street of his native village, by a brother democrat.

The man that succeeds nowadays is the live man, who is up to the times; and no better evidence of this is needed than the fact that every go-ahead housekeeper is never without Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup.

In the police court at Nashua, March 28th, Michael Winn, the alleged wife murderer, waived an examination. He has been taken to jail to await the action of the grand jury at the May term of the supreme court to be held in Nashua.

A little boy living in Maine,

When the cane broke in two,
He was bruised black and blue,
But St. Jacobs Oil cured all his pain.

John S. Glover of Concord hung himself at the asylum for the insane Wednesday night, March 28th.

A syndicate of Washington capitalists, of which Stilson Hutchins is a member, has purchased Davis island in Lake Winnipesaukee. The price paid was $25,000, and the property will be improved immediately.

"Trying to do business without advertising," remarks an exchange, "is like winking at a girl in the dark. You may know what you are doing but nobody else does." Trying to cure catarrh by the use of snuffs and irritating liquid injections is the height of folly also. The disease will never be cured by such treatment. Moreover, the delicate lining membranes of the nasal organs will, sooner or later, become inflamed and diseased by such irritants. Ely's Cream Balm is not a snuff or liquid, and is easily applied. It's effects are pleasant, rapid and thorough. No case of catarrh or cold in the head can withstand its effects. "I could scarcely speak," says J. O. Tichenor, dealer in boots and shoes, Elizabeth, N. J., "it was almost impossible to breathe through my nostrils, on account of catarrh. Ely's Cream Balm cured me in a short time." All druggists sell it at fifty cents.

Ray Boyd, sixteen years old, son of Mrs. Mary Emily Boyd of South Seabrook, met with an accident March 27th which caused the loss of one eye. He at first said he fell from a scaffold in a barn, but afterward told that his little brother unintentionally destroyed the eye with a stick, while at play.

A pure, wholesome distillation of witch hazel, American pine, Canada fir, marigold, clover blossoms, etc., fragrant with the healing essences of balsam and pine. Such is Sanford's Radical Cure for catarrh. Complete treatment for $1.

Parents who allow their children to grow up with scrofulous humors bursting from every pore are guilty of a great wrong. Think of them pointed out as branded with a loathsome disease, and you will readily procure them the Cuticura Remedies.

The Hop Plasters have a wonderful sale, and why! because they cure back ache, stiff joints, pain in the side and all soreness in any part. People appreciate them. Any druggist, 25cts.

Charles F. Ware, an alleged horse thief confined in jail at Kennebec, Me., for several days, was taken to Nashua, on a requisition from the governor of this state on Thursday evening, March 29th. He is wanted to answer to a long list of crimes.

Catarrh.

The remarkable results in a disease so universal and with such a variety of characteristics as catarrh, prove how effectually Hood's Sarsaparilla, acting through the blood, reaches every part of the human system. A medicine, like anything else, can be fairly judged only by its results. We point with pride to the glorious record Hood's Sarsaparilla has entered upon the hearts of thousands of people it has cured of catarrh.

The Second Congregational society at Keene has just purchased a new bell from the C. H. Meneely foundry, weighing 1,500 pounds, and will have it in position by the latter part of May.

Concerning Certain Relics of the Past --Dogs that have had Their Day.

George Stephenson's "Rocket," and the magnificent locomotives of to day, are built upon the same general principle, yet the machine with which the great engineer astonished his age, is interesting now only as an illustration of the beginning of the invention. There were plasters with holes in them long before BENSON'S CAPCINE POROUS PLASTER surprised both the public and the physicians; and the triumph of the Capcine is founded upon the partial successes, or the outer fail ures of its predecessors. Everything of value in the old porous plaster is retained in the Capcine; but at this point all comparison ends, and contrast begins. For example:

The old plasters lacked the power to do more than to impart slight, temporary relief in cases easy of treatment; the Capcine penetrates the system and permanently cures the troubles for which it is recommended.

The old plasters depended for any good results they might attain, upon an accident of their makers and the naked faith of their wearers; the Benson's reaches its ends by means of the scientific combination of the rare medicinal ingredients which it contains.

In brief, the old plasters, like Stephenson's discarded engine, are switched off the track, while the Benson goes on its way winning golden opinions from all sorts of people.

Yet is this very fact lies the leading danger to the people who buy and use this reliable and scientific remedy. "Hypocrisy is the tribute vice pays to virtue." Imitation is the concession failure makes to success. Benson's Plasters are parolled in name and style.

Beware of swindles. The genuine have the word CAPCINE CUT in the center. Price 25 cents. Seabury & Johnson, Chemists, New York.

A YOUNG OLD LADY.

"Yes, Sir! I'm Younger than any of my Children now," said Mrs. Sarah M. Robinson, of 61 William St., New Haven, Conn.--We read about this kind of Noble Ladies, but Seldom See them in Society.

"Yes, sir; I'm younger than any of my children now. I keep up with the times. I read the papers, applaud the victories of old Yale, and don't grow old," were the words of Mrs. Robinson to your reporter when he called at her home. Mrs. Robinson is one of the earnest, go-ahead sort of aged ladies, of whom you read, but whom you so rarely find in modern society. "I've had my share of trouble," she said, "for all my life I've been a sufferer from erysipelas. From this has resulted diseased stomach and inaction of the digestive organs. I've been troubled with dyspepsia, and have had such a weakness of the stomach it has seemed as if I needed something artificial and strengthening. I attribute this to erysipelas, which is constitutional with me. I've been under the physician's care a great deal during my life, but I never received any permanent benefit I think until I began taking Dr. Kennedy's FAVORITE REMEDY, which has proved a perfect restorative in my case. My health is better now than it has been for a long time. I consider Dr. Kennedy's FAVORITE REMEDY an excellent medicine. It is used extensively in this city. I keep it as a family medicine, and rely upon it for I know of the good results of using it."

Your reporter i ft Mrs. Robinson rejoicing in health and renewed youth, and bestowing merited praise on that which is the source of happiness to thousands, viz: Dr. Kennedy's FAVORITE REMEDY. Ask your druggist for it. Kennedy's FAVO ITE EMEDY has become a household word. Everybody, sooner or later, gets sick, and sickness is both wearisome and costly. FAVORITE REMEDY stows in at this point. It is not expensive and it is efficient. For all diseases of the Blood, Bilious Disorders, Kidney Complaints, Constipation, and the aches and ills which make the domestic life of women a cross so hard to bear.

They Ran For The Doctor.

Some people are always running for the doctor when the least thing is the matter with themselves or their children. Of course, the doctor likes this, for he gets well paid for it. But there are many occasions when the judicious use of Perry Davis's Pain Killer will do all the doctor can. Mr. R. V Miller, of Syracuse, N. Y., says he has for twenty years used Pain Killer for miscellaneous family sicknesses; and that it is so valuable that it ought to be kept in every house.

News and Notes.

Mrs. Emeline Meaker was hanged at the Vermont state prison on Friday, March 30th, for the atrocious murder of Alice Mesker, the child of her husband's deceased brother. The murder of the child was the least of the she-devil's crimes against the helpless girl; in fact, death was a merciful release to the poor creature, who had for years been starved and beaten, and otherwise ill-treated by the woman, in a manner too sickening to recapitulate.

The governor and other state officers of Minnesota have signed a petition urging the appointment of Mark H. Dunnell as postmaster general.

Daniel Clark of Bangor, Me., who has gained some notoriety by suing a young lady for breach of promise to marry, one day recently entered the office of the Bangor Commercial and made an assault upon one of the reporters of that paper. Other members of the staff held Clark while a policeman was telephoned for, and in a few moments he was in custody at police headquarters. He was fined $5, and put under $200 bonds to keep the peace.

Wednesday night, March 28th, George Depugh, son of a colored preacher, and Tom Anderson, a companion, were found in bed at Alton, Ill., with their brains beaten out.

The Boston Post of March 30th, in mentioning the probable hanging on that day of Mrs. Meaker, the Vermont murderess, remarks that that sanctimonious and whining old humbug, the "Rev." Burnham Wardwell, "has been hanging around the executive mansion pouring forth his soul in Mrs. Meaker's behalf, and, it is probable, has spoiled whatever chance of prolonged life the wretched woman had."

Wright Damie, a negro convicted at Greenville, N. C., of burglary, was on Thursday last sentenced to be hanged July 6th.

A despatch of March 24th from Truro, N. S., says: "Eaton, the Calais, Me., murderer, supposed to be fleeing from justice, who shot himself on the Quebec train yesterday between Truro and Amherst, evidently intending to commit suicide, was brought to Truro and taken to the Prince of Wales hotel, where he was attended by two doctors. He had shot himself in the head five times. All the bullets have been extracted except one, which lodged in the head, back of the left ear. This is a very serious wound. The other wounds are not very bad ones. He was arrested last night, and as soon as he is sufficiently recovered to be moved will be taken back to Calais to stand his trial. Eaton feels his position very keenly and says he had no motive for shooting either his brother or Kelly. He admits that he was under the influence of liquor at the time, and did not know what he was doing." Another despatch says he was drunk when he shot himself.

"In the Shadow of the Pyrenees," a new book by Dr. Marvin R. Vincent, pastor of the church of the Covenant, New York city, is announced by his publishers, Charles Scribner's Sons. The volume gives a pleasantly written account of two visits in and about the Pyrenees region, on both the Spanish and French side of the mountains. It will be issued in a dainty duodecimo form, and will contain original etchings by R. Swain Gifford, J. D. Smillie and Dr. Leroy M. Yale.

The late Sidney Lanier had prepared and delivered a short time before his death, a series of lectures on "The English Novel and the Principle of its Development," as a part of his regular course on English literature, addressed to the students of the Johns Hopkins University. The papers have a peculiar value in that they are the last literary work accomplished by Mr. Lanier; they were left complete and only the slightest textural revision was necessary for final printing in book form. Charles Scrniber's Sons have the volume in press.

The report made some weeks ago that Mr. Silas Philbrick had sold his stock of marble and the marble-working branch of his business, and would in the future confine his trade and work to granite only, was incorrect; he will continue, as heretofore, to conduct the stone-cutting business in all branches at his premises on Water street.

The condition of the north pond is much improved since the gates were lashed open to allow the water free exit,—so the dwellers near its banks say, but they had best wait until July or August before assuming that the nuisance is effectually abated. Large flocks of gulls have been having a good time in the bed of the pond at low tide for a number of days past.

At the annual town meeting in York the republicans elected the following officers for the ensuing year: Moderator, Geo. W. S. Putnam; clerk, Joseph Bragdon; selectmen and assessors, Geo. W. Currier, Rufus A. Moody, Willard A. Grant; treasurer, Samuel W. Junkins; town agent, John B. Fernald; overseers of the poor, Lemuel Mitchell, Eastman Hutchins, Wilber F. Norton; collector of taxes, J. C. Stewart; school committee, C. C. Barrell; auditor, Geo. W. S. Putnam.

The American Manufacture Leads.

"LINOLEUM," a remarkably durable article for a floor covering, has now reached such perfection of manufacture in this country as confessedly to be superior to that of any foreign make. The imperfection of the best article of the kind manufactured in England has been abandoned for some time, and only the inferior or second grades now find a market here.

In matters of style, coloring and finish the American manufacturers know well how to cater to the tastes of our people, and the requirements of our climate. While the imported cloth, shortly after being placed on the floor, will look increasingly dirty and dingy, that of our own make will appear bright, clean and pleasing.

To protect themselves, American manufacturers print the Walton Trade Mark and the word "LINOLEUM" on the back of every square yard of their make. All carpet dealers keep the goods.

Mr. Andrews, the contractor for removing the ledge off Badger's island point, arrived in this city on Friday, and will at once make ready to resume operations. The sloop got here on Friday, and workmen were engaged at getting in readiness for use the snow which has wintered on Badger's island.

The Florida State Journal, of Cedar Key, Fla., under date of March 24th announces the arrival on the previous Wednesday night of the yacht Tarpon, from southern Florida, having on board Mr. L. B. Parsons and Mr. Stephen Decatur. In another place the same paper says: "Mr. L. B. Parsons, who has been spending a couple of weeks at Bayport, dropped in to see us on Thursday. He reports having had a pleasant time killing deer, alligator and other game, which abound very largely in that section. Like all others who have visited Bayport, Mr. Parsons was charmed with the beauty and grandeur of the place."

SCROFULA.

A remedy that can destroy the germs of scrofula, and when once settled has the power to root it out, must be appreciated by those afflicted. The remarkable cures of young children and the more wonderful cures of those of middle age and late in life, as illustrated by our printed testimonials, prove HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA to be a reliable remedy, containing potential agents which do positively cure scrofula and eradicate it from the blood.

WARNER, N. H., Jan. 21, 1879.

MESSRS. C. I. HOOD & CO., Lowell, Mass.: Gentlemen—For ten years previous to the early part of 1877 I had been a constant sufferer from scrofulous ulcers or sores, which had finally reduced me to a helpless condition, as described in my letter to you in September of that year. The continued excellent health which enables me to keep house for my aged father and to enjoy life, keeps alive my intense personal interest in HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA, and I cannot refrain from expressing my gratitude for the permanent cure this wonderful medicine effected in my case nearly two years ago, while living in Lowell, when all my physicians gave me up as being in an incurable condition. Only thing before I close. I have recommended your Sarsaparilla to hundreds, and I think more than a thousand cases, and my faith in its invincibility in curing scrofula has become absolute by the wonderful cures it has effected aside from my own. I trust you will not be slow in making the merits of HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA known everywhere, for it is a duty you owe to mankind. With best wishes I remain very truly yours,

Public Benefactress. Mrs. S. A. ALLEN has justly earned this title, and thousands are this day rejoicing over a fine head of hair produced by her unequaled preparation for restoring, invigorating, and beautifying the Hair. Her World's Hair Restorer quickly cleanses the scalp, removing Dandruff, and arrests the fall; the hair, if gray, is changed to its natural color, giving it the same vitality and luxurious quantity as in youth.

COMPLIMENTARY. "My hair is now restored to its youthful color; I have not a gray hair left. I am satisfied that the preparation is not a dye, but acts on the secretions. My hair ceases to fall, which is certainly an advantage to me, who was in danger of becoming bald." This is the testimony of all who use Mrs. S. A. ALLEN'S WORLD'S HAIR RESTORER.

"One Bottle did it." That is the expression of many who have had their gray hair restored to its natural color, and their bald spot covered with hair, after using one bottle of Mrs. S. A. ALLEN'S WORLD'S HAIR RESTORER. It is not a dye.

INJUNCTION DENIED.

Judge Lowell on Friday last gave his decision in the equity case of the city of Portsmouth vs. Norton, asking that Norton be enjoined from prosecuting his suits at law against the city of Portsmouth and other cities in this state, for reasons stated in the bill. The opinion is against the positions assumed by the defendants.

ROCKINGHAM COUNTY TEMPERANCE ASSOCIATION.

A meeting of this association was held in the Congregational church at North Hampton, on Thursday March 29th, commencing at ten o'clock A. M. The morning service was devoted to prayer and remarks, and was very interesting. This session was conducted by Rev. Mr. Haines of North Hampton.

At twelve o'clock a recess was taken in order to refresh the inner man, and all hands adjourned to the dining rooms connected with the Centennial hall to see what the good people of North Hampton had provided for them. It is needless to tell of the abundance and excellent quality of eatables with which the tables were spread; suffice it to say everybody was well satisfied, and all well filled.

At 1:30 P. M. the association again assembled, Vice Pres. B. F. Thorndike of Portsmouth in the chair. After the devotional exercises an address was given by Rev. Mr. Buzzell of Seabrook, upon the topics "Why not let this temperance question alone? What are the obstacles, and how are we to overcome them?" The speaker proceeded to answer these questions in a very forcible and pleasing manner, "showing it to be the duty of every Christian man and woman to work for the cause of temperance so long as the demon of intemperance invades the privacy of our homes and the sacredness of our churches, and renders society unsafe not only for the weak and giddy, but for even the strong and intellectual. When this evil will let us alone, then will we desist from the battle. Among the obstacles in the way of victory is the difficulty of getting a grand jury that will indict or a petit jury that will convict, even with good evidence. The average juryman is not a temperance man! To overcome the obstacles, we must work to purify the jury box; we must lay the pledge of total abstinence at the door of the church, and require every one who seeks membership there to sign it. We must give more attention to pledging the children than we have in the past. Notwithstanding the obstacles and the difficulty of overcoming them, we are not losing ground in this work, but are constantly and surely advancing."

After the address, remarks were made by a large number of persons, among whom may be mentioned Rev. W. A. Rand of South Seabrook, Rev. Mr. Spaulding and Rev. Mr. Morey of Hampton, Rev. G. C. Noyes of Great Falls, J. T. French and C. T. Wiggin of Portsmouth, G. D. Dodge of Hampton Falls and Peter Sanborn of Hampton.

A vote of thanks was extended to the people of North Hampton for their hospitality.

The executive committee reported the time of the next meeting to be the last Thursday in April, the place not yet decided upon.

The meeting was very successful and pleasant, and much credit is due the people of that locality, our genial friend Dea. J. R. Leavitt and Rev. Mr. Haines appearing particularly anxious to make the occasion as agreeable as possible.

ERRATIC TEETH.

A lady resident of Hampton, by the treachery of a bit of ice on a sidewalk fell prostrate and broke some of her front (false) teeth, early in the winter. She was assured by a dentist of Portsmouth whom she subsequently consulted that they could be easily replaced by others, and rather than she should be subjected to the inconvenience of doing without her false molars and cuspids any longer than was necessary, he advised her to wear them home and return them by mail for repairs, and he would send them all right in a short time.

Alas! for human calculations. She waited one, two, three days, sending a postal each day, for the longed-for grinders. At the close of the fourth day they came, but on placing them in their hollow cavity and trying to masticate something a little harder than spoon-food they dropped apart, and came near going to a region below. On examination she found they had been sent only for trial, to be returned next mail.

Then there came another period of waiting, and at last word was brought that they had not been received by the dentist. Waiting another four days, and not receiving them nor getting reply to postals, she decided that the dentist had given it up as a bad job and had settled down on his cash and indifference as to the result. She took the cars to see if she could get any trace of their meanderings.

She found that the dentist was sorry, and he stated that they in the first instance went to Boston, and after delay came back; and on the second trip went to Portland, and were returned; he had received them at last, put them in order, and had sent them to her address several days before, but where they had wandred since he did not know.

A telephone office was put in requisition, and after an hour or two of waiting it was announced that they were held in safety at the North Hampton post-office. Orders were given that they be forwarded to Hampton at once, and the lady hastened home, thinking that she had caught them at last; but alas! mail after mail came without the desired package, the post-master giving his mail-bag an extra shake each time without avail.

After more time, by sending a special messenger to North Hampton the missing teeth were received, and much good may they do the owner.

As the mail-agents are expected to deliver all packages (as well as letters) promptly, and it was for the interest of the dentist, as well as his duty, to fulfill all promises made if possible, the fault must all have been in some unaccountable inclination of the teeth to wander from the direct line of duty.

SUNDAY SERVICES.

Rev. Minot G. Gage, of Cambridge, Mass., will preach for the South Parish on Sunday, forenoon and evening.

Elder McLellan will preach for the Advent church.

A good audience assembled in Music hall on Friday evening, and were treated to a good variety entertainment by Bishop's colored minstrels, some parts of the performance being of extra merit, and all of it amusing. The company will play again this evening, with change of programme.

Have you got your tickets for "Esmeralda?" If not you can now get them at Goodrich's. Next Tuesday evening is the only chance you will have this year to witness this great play, of which it is said that while wholly different in scene and situation from "Hazel Kirke," it nevertheless possesses equally that tender interest which has made both plays great dramatic successes.

Mrs. Joseph E. Adams and three children have arrived in this city from Aiken, S. C., where they spent the winter, and will stop here for some weeks before leaving for their home in Minneapolis, Minn. It is with much pleasure that we record what very many people will be pleased to read,—that Mr. Adams' health has undergone a marked improvement since he went south last autumn, though his medical adviser would not listen to any suggestion as to his coming north to face a New England spring.

Says the Boston Journal: "It was apparent at the meeting of the Eastern stockholders on Wednesday that nineteen-twentieths of the stockholders were against the lease, but when it came to testing their voting power it was all the other way. It was also noticeable that quite a number of people who held stock in both corporations voted 'yes' at the Boston & Maine meeting and 'no' at the Eastern."

The steamer City of Bangor arrived at this port between five and six o'clock Friday afternoon from Boston, having made the trip in about seven hours. Among the passengers who came around in her were Col. Charles H. Sawyer of Dover, S. C. Forsaith, Esq., president of the steamboat company, City Solicitor Patten and John B. Varick of Manchester, and other men of note in that city. Some of the Manchester men took passage for home on the coal train over the Concord & Portsmouth railroad, the rest remaining in this city over night.

The schooner Sarah Hill, Robinson master, arrived at this port on Thursday last from Camden, Me., with 700 barrels of lime.

Mr. Lewis E. Staples in another column makes an announcement of interest to the ladies.

The schooner Chilion, Call master, went up the river on Friday to load with bricks for Boston. The schooner Triton came down the river on the same day, loaded—the first of the brickers to get fairly under way this season.

The steamer Acushnet will not run between Boston and this city the coming summer. It is probable that her place will be taken by a much faster steamer, a side-wheeler which can make a round trip each day; such a boat would be liberally patronized by passengers during the warm months, and if kept running throughout the year would build up a good freight trade.

City Marshal Jenkins of Manchester, and Marshal Hunt and Mr. R. M. Whittemore of Nashua, arrived in this city on the morning Pullman train, Friday, having in charge Charles Ware for stealing a horse from Mr. Whittemore. Ware was arrested in Bangor, Me., and taken to Augusta on suspicion of having stolen a horse there; but not being identified, he was delivered up to the New Hampshire authorities. He is said to be an old hand at the business of horse stealing.

[For other local matter see second page.]

The Government Chemist Analyzes two of the Leading Baking Powders, and what he finds them made of.

I have examined samples of "Cleveland's Superior Baking Powder" and "Royal Baking Powder," purchased by myself in this city, and I find they contain:

"Cleveland's Superior Baking Powder."
Cream of Tartar,
Bicarbonate of Soda,
Flour.

Available carbonic acid gas 12.61 per cent, equivalent to 118.2 cubic inches of gas per oz. of Powder.

"Royal Baking Powder."
Cream of Tartar,
Bicarbonate of Soda,
Carbonate of Ammonia,
Tartaric Acid,
Starch.

Available carbonic acid gas 12.40 per cent, equivalent to 116.2 cubic inches of gas per oz. of Powder.

Ammonia gas 0.43 per cent, equivalent to 10.4 cubic inches per oz. of Powder.

NOTE.—The Tartaric acid was doubtless introduced as free acid, but subsequently combined with ammonia, and exists in the Powder as a Tartrate of Ammonia. E. G. LOVE, Ph. D.
NEW YORK, Jan'y 17th, 1881.

The above shows conclusively that "Cleveland's Superior" is a strictly pure Cream of Tartar Baking Powder. It has also been analyzed by Professor Johnson of Yale College; Dr. Genth of the University of Pennsylvania; President Morton of the Stevens Institute; Wm. M. Habirshaw, F. C. S., Analyst for the Chemical Trade of New York, and other eminent chemists, all of whom pronounce it absolutely pure and healthful.—Hall's Journal of Health for April, 1882.

THE NEW BLOOD PURIFIER
Resolvent

Mr. Albert Kingsbury, Keene, N. H., troubled with bad humor on hands and neck, caused by lead poisoning. (He's a painter.) At times it would break out, crack open, and the skin separate from the flesh in large pieces, suffering great continual itching and stinging. Purchased your remedies, used Cuticura Resolvent internally, and Cuticura and Cuticura Soap externally, and in less than three months effected a complete cure, as it has not been troubled since. Corroborated by Bullard & Foster, Druggists, Keene, N. H.

MOTHER DIED FROM IT.

J. W. Adams, Newark, Ohio, says: "Cuticura Remedies are the greatest medicine on earth. Had the worst case salt rheum in this county. My mother had it twenty years, and in fact died from it. I believe Cuticura would have saved her life. My arms, breast and head were covered for three years, which nothing relived or cured until I used the Cuticura Resolvent (blood purifier) internally, and Cuticura and Cuticura Soap externally.

PSORIASIS.

H. E. Carpenter, Esq., Henderson, N. Y., cured of Psoriasis or Leprosy, of twenty years' standing, by the Cuticura Resolvent internally, and Cuticura and Cuticura soap externally. The most wonderful cure on record. Cure certified to before a justice of the peace and prominent citizens. All afflicted with Itching and scaly diseases should send to us for this testimonial in full.

SALT RHEUM.

Those who have experienced the torments of Salt Rheum can appreciate the agony I endured for years, until cured by the Cuticura Resolvent internally and Cuticura and Cuticura Soap externally.

SECRET!
SALICYLICA is known as a common-sense remedy, because it strikes directly at the cause of Rheumatism, Gout and Neuralgia, while so many so-called specifics and supposed panaceas only treat locally the effects.
In has been conceded by eminent scientists that outward applications, such as rubbing with oils, ointments, liniments, and soothing lotions will not eradicate these diseases which are the result of the poisoning of the blood with Uric Acid.
SALICYLICA works with marvelous effect on this acid, and so removes the disorder. It is now exclusively used by all celebrated physicians of America and Europe. Highest Medical Academy of Paris reports 95 per cent. cures in three days.

THE ART DISEASES

A NOTED BUT UNTITLED WOMAN.

[From the Boston Globe.]

Messrs. Editors:—

The above is a good likeness of Mrs. Lydia E. Pinkham, of Lynn, Mass., who above all other human beings may be truthfully called the "Dear Friend of Woman," as some of her correspondents have to call her. She is zealously devoted to her work, which is the outpouring of a life study, and is obliged to keep six lady assistants, to help her answer the large correspondence which daily pours in upon her, each bearing its special burden of suffering, or joy at release from it. Her Vegetable Compound is a medicine for good and not evil purposes. I have personally investigated it and am satisfied of the truth of this.

On account of its proven merits it is recommended and prescribed by the best physicians in the country. One says: "It works like a charm and saves much pain. It will cure entirely the worst form of falling of the uterus, Leucorrhœa, Irregular and painful Menstruation, all Ovarian Troubles, Inflammation and Ulceration, Floodings, all Displacements and the consequent spinal weakness, and is especially adapted to the Change of Life."

It permeates every portion of the system, and gives new life and vigor. It removes faintness, flatulency, destroys all craving for stimulants, and relieves weakness of the stomach. It cures Bloating, Headaches, Nervous Prostration, General Debility, Sleeplessness, Depression and Indigestion. That feeling of bearing down, causing pain, weight and backache, is always permanently cured by its use. It will at all times, and under all circumstances, act in harmony with the law that governs the female system.

It costs only $1. per bottle or six for $5., and is sold by druggists. Any advice received as to special cases, and the names of many who have been restored to perfect health by the use of the Vegetable Compound, can be obtained by addressing Mrs. P., with stamp for reply at her home in Lynn, Mass.

"Mrs. Pinkham's Liver Pills," says one writer, "are the best in the world for the cure of Constipation, Biliousness and Torpidity of the liver. Her Blood Purifier works wonders in its special line and bids fair to equal the Compound in its popularity."

All must respect her as an Angel of Mercy whose sole ambition is to do good to others.

Married the Coachman.

On Thursday, March 23d, Miss Mary Brooker, daughter of John Brooker, one of the most influential citizens of Farmington, Conn., left her home to visit New York. On her return trip she did not come home as it was expected she would, but at Bridgeport took a train on the Housatonic road and went to Ashley Falls, Mass. Here she met her affianced and they proceeded to Sheffield, where they were married. Her husband is a full-blooded negro, and is named Joe Bradley. He has been in the employ of Mr. Brooker for about three years, acting as coachman and man of all work about the house. Mr. Brooker, by some means, discovered his daughter's abode and condition and went to Ashley Falls, accompanied by his son, and endeavored to persuade her to return home. This she absolutely refused to do, declaring that she was contented and happy in her present state. Miss Brooker, now Mrs. Bradley, is a handsome blonde, about twenty-four years of age, accomplished, and has always been surrounded with all the luxuries of an elegant home. She is the youngest of six daughters, and has only one brother. Her mother has been dead for some time. The family are almost distracted at the misalliance.

The "Art Amateur" for April contains working designs of oak-leaves for a vase, wild roses for a dessert plate, and aristolochia vine for a panel; a variety of ecclesiastical and South Kensington embroidery designs, and a second page of monograms in "A." The frontispiece is a fine drawing of the superb silver cup and tray presented by Ogden Goelet to the New York yacht club. An interesting biography of Alma Tadema is accompanied by numerous illustrations of that artist's work. A group of clever sketches from the Paris Water Color exhibition, and a pen-and-ink drawing by C. G. Bush, "The Gardener's Favorite," are also noticeable among the full-page illustrations. There are also valuable articles on book cases, china painting, flower painting, portrait drapery, portiere embroideries, fancy ball costumes, dining rooms and other practical topics; and in every respect this number well maintains the high standard which the Art Amateur has set for itself. Price, thirty-five cents; $4 a year. Montague Marks, publisher, No. 23 Union square, New York.

Nature.

There have always been quacks:—legal quacks, theological quacks, scientific quacks and medical quacks. Some of them are bland, oily fellows who argue and smile the world into believing in their favorite bit of humbug. Others are pompous and pretentious parasites. But they make it pay. Men seem to love to be swindled, stipulating only that it shall be neatly done.

The dear public are equally liberal to the electric and magnetic fraud. This fellow is a genius in his line. He will put a magnetic belt around your waist, a magnetic necklace under your chin, or fit you out with an entire suit of magnetic clothes, warranted to serve the purpose of ordinary garments, and at the same time to cure all diseases, from whooping-cough to hasty consumption.

Most of these have no more electric or magnetic power about them than resides in wooden blankets or in girdles of sackcloth. Only when applied by an expert in electricity of the slightest value as a medicinal agent, and even then its virtue is grossly over-stated. What is the strongest possible presumptive evidence in favor of a particular remedy? Clearly that it should have been prepared by responsible persons of acknowledged skill in the treatment of disease.

Squeezed out of this position stands BENSON'S CAPCINE POROUS PLASTER. Endorsed by 5,000 physicians, pharmacists, druggists and chemists, it needs no further apology nor introduction. It is the one and only true and tried external application. Quacks of all kinds pay the Capcine the compliment of their dislike, as Satan is said to lace holy water.

Wise Words.

To learn much we must learn a little at a time, and learn that well.

A lover has all the virtues and all the defects that a husband has not.

The wheel of fortune turns incessantly round, and who can say within himself, "I shall to-day be uppermost."

There are many vices which do do not deprive us of friends; there are many virtues which prevent our having any.

What makes many persons discontented with their own condition is the absurd idea they form of the happiness of others.

Mental pleasures never cloy. Unlike those of the body, they are increased by repetition, approved of by reflection, and strengthened by enjoyment.

What a woman should demand of a man in courtship, or after it, is, first—respect for her as she is a woman; and next to that, to be respected by him above all other women.

Such as have virtue always in their mouth, and neglect it in practice, are like a harp, which emits a sound pleasing to others, while its own body is wholly insensible to the music produced.

True joy is a serene and sober emotion, and they are miserably out that take laughing for rejoicing; the seat of it is within, and there is no cheerfulness like the resolution of a brave mind.

We should no more lament that we have grown old than the husbandman, when the bloom and fragrance of spring have passed away, should lament that summer or autumn has come.

A leading New York physician says, that three-fourths of the deaths during this trying weather are due to diseases of the lungs. Take warning and secure at once a bottle of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup, a sure cure for all lung troubles.

Quite a struggle occurred in filling the offices of the city government of Lewiston, Me. Monday evening, March 26th, Mayor Garcelon made nominations to fill four vacancies on the police force, and the aldermen, five of whom were democrats, rejected each. An adjournment was effected till Friday, when twenty-three nominations were rejected as fast as made. Finally a compromise was effected and the vacancies filled.

If You are Ruined

in health from any cause, especially from the use of any of the thousand nostrums that promise so largely, with long fictious testimonials, have no fear. Resort to Hop Bitters at once, and in a short time you will have the most robust and blooming health.

Two counterfeiters have been arrested in New York with $1,000 in counterfeit five-cent pieces, several bogus half dollars, and tools for coining spurious metal, in their possession.

If you experience bad taste in mouth, sallowness or yellow color of the skin, feel stupid and drowsy, appetite unsteady, frequent headache or dizziness, you are "bilious," and nothing will arouse your liver to action and strengthen up your system equal to Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery." By druggists. a

Petitions have been filled with the president and the secretary of war by the laborers on the Washington monument and the public buildings and grounds in Washington, asking for the enforcement of the eight-hour law.

"I would'nt be without Dr. Benson's Celery and Chamomile pills if they cost $1 a pill. They cured me of neuralgia, of nine years standing." Joseph Snyder, Paxions, Pa. 50 cts. per box at druggists.

—A woman arrested for begging in New Orleans had $170 on her person. When the money was discovered she was honorably discharged, with profuse apologies.

Important to the Sick.

To those who have used Swedish Remedies, they know full well the value of them. To those who from prejudice have not used them, we can say that they are the very best medicines for the diseases for which they are recommended. Swedish Lung Balsam cures coughs, colds, and all diseases of the lungs. When taken together with Swedish Botanic Compound (the great blood purifier), it will cure consumption in the first and second stages.

—"I work from six in the morning to a quarter past eleven at night, and all the rest of the day I have to myself," remarked the driver of a horse car.

The Physician's Advice.

"What shall I do?" old Aker cried,
"For this sharp anguish in my side.
"This dreadful rheumatism!
"I've tried all sorts of physic vile,
"Which certainly have cost a pile.
"And still I've paroxysm"

The doctor said: "My friend, eschew
"These noxious nostrums, or else you
"Will be too weak to kill a cur;
"Give up old physic, try the new,
"The very thing that's meant for you—
"The mighty Salicylica!"

—"And what, in the name of goodness, is this?" asked Mrs. David Davis, as the senator lugged something into the room and dropped it at her feet. "This is my shirt, darling, and I will be greatly obliged if you will sew on a button for me." "David Davis," said the lady sternly, "when you bring your shirt I will sew on a button for you, with pleasure, as becomes a fond and dutiful wife; but just now, sir, I must insist upon your removing this circus canvas from my apartment."

No female should attempt the toil and drudgery of washday, when it can be obviated by the use of James Pyle's unrivalled Pearline.

—A friend asked Mr. Biggar, just after the court had condemned him to pay £2,000 to Miss Hyland: "Why did you kiss her foot?" "Because," growled the member of parliament for Cavan, "it was handsomer than her face."

First a cold; then bronchitis. Check the first with Hale's Honey of Horehound and Tar. Pike's Toothache Drops cure in one minute. Dyspeptic, nervous people, "out of sorts," Colden's Liquid Beef Tonic will cure. Ask for Colden's. Of druggists.

—There is a natural sequence in the titles of Robert Grant's books. His "Frivolous Girl" is followed by "An Average Man," That is very much the way the masculine average runs.

"Buchu-Paiba."

—They are introducing the Roman pronunciation of Latin at a number of the young ladies' schools. The other day one of the fair pupils characteristically read jubet vicessim "you bet we kiss 'em," to the confusion of the youthful professor.

Humor in the Stomach.

Much of the distress and sickness attributed to dyspepsia, chronic diarrhœa and other causes is occasioned by humor in the stomach. Several cases, with all the characteristics of these complaints, have been cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla. Other cures effected by this medicine are so wonderful that the simplest statement of them affords the best proof that it combines rare curative agents and when once used secures the confidence of the people.

—A young physician informed a pretty lady patient, who was suffering from chronic sore throat, that the only cure for it was a beard. "That's of no interest to me," she replied; "I've got no beard." "True," he replied, gallantly; "but you can use mine as often as you want to." They were married a few months later.

"Rough on Rats."

—A man in Winthrop, Me., plays the piano, organ, violin banjo, cornet, fife, xylophone, bones and guitar, and whistles like a nightingale. How he could discourage a hand-organman trying to do business in his town!

Mr. James Wells, of 360 Shroop ave., Brooklyn, writes: "My wife was suffering from extreme debility, she used Wheat Bitters with the most satisfactory result and pronounces it the best remedy in the world."

—De Lesseps is in Africa on his mission of flooding the Sahara. If this man lives long enough the geographers will say "the earth's surface is one part land and all the rest water."

Beware of Swindlers.

We have exposed during the last year, many swindlers who advertise under the name of medicine, vile compounds which only increase human suffering. To all who need a pure medicine and blood purifier, we can honestly recommend Sulphur Bitters.—Editor Sun.

—"What county do you represent, sir?" asked one individual of another in front of a saloon in St. Paul, Minn., one day last week. "I'm not a member of the legislature," was the reply; "I'm only a private citizen on a drunk."

Mr. A. J. Severance, 115 Broadway, N. Y., writes: "I have used Wheat Bitters for malaria and it cured me. My wife who was in a feeble state of health has been very much benefitted by using it. I think it an excellent remedy."

TERRIBLE SUFFERING.

"His word is as good as a bank note at any bank in Lowell, and I know it," was the opinion of a well known citizen in speaking of City Assessor Francis Gomard. Your reporter found Mr. Gomard at his pleasant home, which, with many others, adorns Sumner street and fronts the charming park of South Common. Mr. Gomard said, "I had been, as many of my friends in Lowell know, a great sufferer from kidney and urinary troubles for a long time. My physician said it was the result of diseased kidneys and enlargement of the prostrate gland. I had suffered terribly, and although my doctor's treatment had been the best which this city afforded, I got no better. I said finally, 'Doctor, it's no use. You have done all that is in your power to do, I know that; but I must get help from some other source or die.' Finally I was induced to try Dr. Kennedy's FAVORITE REMEDY, a medicine which had been recommended very highly for kidney diseases. I received help at once. It has acted like a charm with me. Why so? Dr. Kennedy's FAVORITE REMEDY is an honest preparation, and I know it. I didn't think anything would help me, but this has given me better health than any medicine ever prescribed for me. I have recommended it to ever so many of my friends in the city of Lowell, and with the same result. They think there is nothing like Dr. Kennedy's FAVORITE REMEDY."

What Mr. Gomard says can be depended upon, as any one acquainted with the gentleman knows.

Don't Step on a Rolling Stone :

That's what Captain Allen of the fire department of Worcester did, and that was how he hurt his ankle so badly. After the doctor set the broken bone, Captain Allen used Perry Davis's Pain Killer as a liniment. The suffering was soon over, and the captain was well in a short time. Knowing the accidents to which firemen are constantly subject, Captain Allen advises everybody connected with a fire department to keep a bottle of Pain Killer always on hand.

AROUND HOME.

There was a very small audience at Music hall on Saturday evening, and the show was of about the same size as the audience.

On Saturday last Mr. Daniel Sullivan, who was assisting in unloading coal from a vessel at the Concord railroad wharf, was stepping across the keelson of the vessel when a tub which was being lowered struck him and knocked him down. He received severe bruises on his back and legs, but made out to finish his day's work.

Mr. J. Prentice Locke, formerly of this city but later a resident of Kittery, died very suddenly on Friday night of last week, at the age of about fifty-five years. He had attended a school meeting in his district that evening, and while pulling off his boots shortly after arriving home, fell dead, probably from disease of the heart. He leaves a widow and one son.

Mr. Melvin Gould, mate of the steamer City of Bangor, in going aboard the vessel Saturday evening made a miscalculation in regard to the distance, and fell into the dock. Mr. Beaumont, who was with him at the time, with the assistance of some of the crew of the schooner Mary Eleanor rescued him after some difficulty. Mr. Gould is falling struck his leg against the guard of the steamer, causing a severe lameness.

The steam dredge on Wednesday, March 28th, commenced operations in the river at Newmarket back of the Newmarket Manufacturing company's No. 5 mill, the water at that point being entirely clear of ice.

"Methodism in Portsmouth," by Hon. Thos. L. Tullock, will be published in the April number of the Granite Monthly. Mention will be made of all the ministers who have been connected with the Methodist church in this city.

The April term of the Supreme court for Rockingham county begins at Exeter on the 10th inst. Hon. A. P. Carpenter is to preside. The number of actions on the civil list is 171; the equity docket has forty-five cases, and the sessions docket seven.

James Hehir was taken to Brentwood on Friday for not paying the fine and costs imposed on him for improperly taking a horse belonging to Patrick Quill of Greenland in November last.

The schooner Nettie B. Dobbin, which has been laid up for the winter at Dover, it is said has only once or twice been frozen in, the warm water from the mills preventing the formation of ice save in the most intensely cold weather, for the distance of a mile or so below the point at which it flows into the river.

John Handy Robinson on Saturday brought in from the Shoals two hundred lobsters; the crustaceans are reported to be much scarcer than it was supposed they would be, in the vicinity of the islands.

The lower end of Water street, where it curves around the cove just this side of the first Newcastle bridge, needs considerable work laid out upon it. The road-bed itself is not in a very bad condition, but the sidewalk along the cove is uneven and in some places badly gullied out, and the stones of the bank wall protecting the walk have many of them been displaced by the frost. The wall appears to have been well built, but the frost of a dozen New England winters will make any kind of a wall look erratic, if it can only get a fair chance at the structure; the only way to keep such a wall in repair is to repair it when needed.

The party of ladies and gentlemen from this city who have been spending several weeks at the Hot Springs, Arkansas, will start to-day for home. They will stop in New York for a day or two, arriving home on Saturday if all goes well.

A cambric needle which was set floating in a globe of water in a Market street saloon some time ago, sank on Saturday last, after having rested on the surface of the water fifty-two days. The needle was nearly rusted out before sinking.

Mrs. Maria Bragdon, widow of Capt. James Bragdon of York, died in that town on Friday, the 30th ult., at the advanced age of ninety-one years. Mrs. Bragdon was left a widow fifty years ago, with six children, four of whom survive her. Being possessed of an excellent memory, many persons have been entertained as she recounted events that transpired in her youth. She lost the use of her limbs about a year ago, but retained her powers of mind until within a few days of her death.

The schooner Albert Woodbury, Capt. Levi Downs, carried into Boston on Friday, the 30th ult., eighteen hundred pounds of fish, for which seven cents a pound was received. The schooner Mary S. Hontvet, Capt. Peter Anderson, arrived in Boston on Thursday, the 29th, from Georges, with 47,000 lbs. of fish; she will make one more Georges trip, and then fit for the Grand banks.

The friends of Mr. Edward S. Smart, to the number of about seventy-five, gave him a surprise party on Friday evening, in honor of his twenty-first birthday; games and social converse were indulged in for a while, after which supper was served from bountifully laden tables. During the evening Mr. Smart was presented with an elegant bouquet, and also a silver cake-basket with a very handsome loaf of cake thereon; and the party broke up at a reasonably late hour. Mr. Smart has for some time been foreman of the CHRONICLE office, in which responsible situation he has given marked satisfaction; he has also for several years been quite prominent in the working of the local temperance societies, and is past chairman of one of the lodges.

On Friday night of last week as three of the crew of the fishing schooner Champion were going down one of the ladders at Commercial wharf, the breaking of a round caused all three to drop into the water, from which they escaped with no worse result than an involuntary cold bath.

The frame for the extension of the Peperell house at Kittery Point arrived on the ground last Friday, and work upon the structure will commence to-day.

Mr. George W. Flanders, of Nashua, it is reported has leased a lot of land at Kittery Point for ninety-nine years, and will erect a residence thereon.

The Oriental Way.

A certain eastern city having exhausted all its funds, and knowing of no way to raise more, the mayor laid the case before the governor of the place.

"Have you doubled the taxes?"

"We have."

"Have you borrowed from the rich?"

"Every dollar that they will lend."

"Have you issued bonds?"

"We have, but no one will buy them at any price."

"Have you stolen all the school money?"

"Months ago, illustrious ruler."

"Pawned the city seal?"

"Yes, verily."

"Mortgaged the city hall?"

"Yes, five times over."

"It is indeed a serious case," mused the governor, as he scratched his ear; "the only way is to go home and announce an era of reform."

"But we tried that and failed."

"Then I see nothing for you but to organize a canal company, and spoil those unbelieving dogs of English again; go hence and plan a ditch sixty feet wide and 800 miles long."

Unexpected Criticisms.

One of the most eloquent and popular clergymen of Austin, Texas, being about to ascend the steps leading to his church a few Sundays ago, was asked by a partially blind old lady, who did not recognize him, to help her up the steps. With his usual urbanity he complied with her request. Just as they reached the top steps she asked him who was going to preach.

"Parson Smith," he replied, that being his own name.

"O Lord!" exclaimed the old lady; "help me down again. I'd rather listen to a man sawing wood. Please help me down again. I don't care to go in."

At first the clergyman was inclined to refuse, but, on reflection, he gently assisted her down the steps again, remarking as they reached the bottom: "You are quite right, madam, about not going into the church. I would not go in either if I was not paid for it."

—Satire can no further go than when Sam Johnson said to a booby, "If I have said anything that you understand, sir, I humbly crave the pardon of the rest of the company."

—Missouri is about to spend $50,000 in geological researches, with a view to discovering more about her mineral wealth.

THE WONDER

Is becoming universal as to how such an immense sale could be created in Lowell for HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA. But, my friend, if you could stand behind our counter a week and hear what those say who are using it, the reason would appear as clear as the noon-day sun. The real curative power of HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA demonstrates itself in every case where our directions are faithfully regarded. We would that we might get before the people a fractional part of the confidence that is expressed to us every day in this medicine by those who have carefully noted (without prejudice) its effects upon the blood and through that upon the whole system, stimulating all the functions of the body to perform the duties nature requires of them. Try a bottle and satisfy yourself.

Cold Hands and Feet.

LOWELL, Feb. 3, 1879.

Messrs. C. I. HOOD & CO.: Gentlemen—About one year ago my daughter commenced taking your Sarsaparilla. At that time she had very little appetite; could take no long walks, and her face was badly broken out with a humor. She was low-spirited; troubled with cold hands and feet; her blood seemed to be poor, and she was in a condition which caused us great anxiety. After taking one bottle of your Sarsaparilla she began to improve; and she now has a good appetite and can take much longer walks. Her humor is nothing compared with what it was one year ago. She is in better spirits, is not troubled with cold hands and feet as previously. And I attribute this improvement in her condition largely to your Sarsaparilla. She has taken six bottles, and intends to continue its use. I was inclined to oppose the trial of it at first. I now have great faith in it as a blood purifier. Very truly yours,

A. L. HINCKLEY,

Public Benefactress. Mrs. S. A. ALLEN has justly earned this title, and thousands are this day rejoicing over a fine head of hair produced by her unequaled preparation for restoring, invigorating, and beautifying the Hair. Her World's Hair Restorer quickly cleanses the scalp, removing Dandruff, and arrests the fall; the hair, if gray, is changed to its natural color, giving it the same vitality and luxurious quantity as in youth.

COMPLIMENTARY. "My hair is now restored to its youthful color; I have not a gray hair left. I am satisfied that the preparation is not a dye, but acts on the secretions. My hair ceases to fall, which is certainly an advantage to me, who was in danger of becoming bald." This is the testimony of all who use MRS. S. A. ALLEN'S WORLD'S HAIR RESTORER.

"One Bottle did it." That is the expression of many who have had their gray hair restored to its natural color, and their bald spot covered with hair, after using one bottle of MRS. S. A. ALLEN'S WORLD'S HAIR RESTORER. It is not a dye.

RICE PUBLIC LIBRARY OF KITTERY.

The annual meeting of the trustees of the Rice Public Library of Kittery, Me., was held on Saturday last, Moses A. Safford, Esq., presiding. The report of the treasurer was as follows:

Principal fund and accretions	$31,625.00
Unexpended income balance to Dec. 31, 1882	5,550.09
Total	$37,175.09
Investments
Bonds at par or cost	$17,950.00
Loans	17,300.00
Cash in Savings Bank	1,925.60
	$37,175.60
Due treasurer at end of year	.51
	37,175.09

Income for the year 1882 has been from

Interest on bonds	$ 967.64
" " loans	1,006.00
Fines	3.21
		$1,976.85
Expenditures
For Books	$131.98
" Periodicals	50.30
" Rooms	32.82
" Salaries	325.00
" Incidentals	3.75
" Trustees Expenses	8.38
		552.23
Net income for the year		$1,424.62

Interest is payable on investments in bonds as follows:

$4000	at 7 3-10	per cent
4000	at 7	" "
5000	at 6	" "
5000	at 5	" "
200	at 4	" "

$18,200 at par, with an average interest of about six and one-quarter per cent.

The loans are all at five per cent interest.

None of the bonds held by the trustees mature during the present year, 1883, but $4000 will mature Jan. 1st, 1884, $1000 on Feb. 1st, 1884, and $1000 on July 1st, 1884—or $6000 during the year 1884.

All interest on securities and loans has been promptly met.

Of the balance of unexpended income, it will be perhaps as well to carry $5375 to principal or to building fund, which would make the principal $37,000, or an increase since January, 1875, when the fund came into the trustees' hands, (including the first interest on the legacy) of seven thousand dollars.

The report of the committee on the conduct of the library showed the number of books on hand, and the number purchased and given to the library during the year ending Dec. 31st, 1882. This report was accepted, and laid upon the table.

The committee upon site for library building made a report, showing that several sites had been examined and prices ascertained. There appeared to be, at present, no lot suited for the purpose which can be bought for such sum as the trustees deem ought to be paid, considering the sum at their disposal for this purpose. There is one lot to which, at present, a perfect title cannot be given. In view of all the circumstances, no further immediate action in the premises is recommended by the committee. The report was accepted.

Ephraim C. Spinney was re-elected treasurer, and William H. Hackett secretary.

The meeting then adjourned to April 13th, instant.

PORTSMOUTH SCHOOLBOYS.

MT. VERNON, N. H., March 30th.

Editor of the Chronicle: Since the publication in your issue of March 28th, of inquiry about Portsmouth boys in Phillips Andover academy, information has been received as to one of them, which may be of interest to some of your readers, and will save necessity of further research so far as he is concerned. Nathaniel Sargent Porter, of Rye, at the academy in 1802, aged thirteen years, was the son of Rev. Huntington and Mrs. Susanna (Sargent) Porter, and was born at Rye on May 29th, 1789. He taught school, and later became a merchant in Lexington, Ky., where he died on Aug. 30th, 1827. He married Elizabeth Comstock of Lexington, and had seven children. One of them, I think, married Mr. Charles K. Dillaway, the well known master of the Boston Latin school. Mrs. Louisa Porter Weeks, a sister of the pupil, is still living at Greenland, aged seventy-nine years. C. C. C.

FIRE.

About three o'clock Sunday morning fire broke out in a small barn on Water street, in rear of a house near liberty bridge owned by David Flynn, and it was destroyed, three tons of hay stored in it being partly consumed. The fire spread to some sheds and outbuildings near by, and they too were burned. The rear of a block of buildings on Mechanic street, belonging to Henry Peyser, was badly damaged; the occupants, Chris. Killenbeck, the Quinn brothers and M. S. Langdon, removed their effects with slight loss. The barn it is said was insured $125, which probably covers the loss. The damage to Mr. Peyser's building is estimated at $300; insured. A resident of Water street saw an unknown man running from the direction of the barn shortly before the discovery of the fire, which is supposed to have been incendiary. Ald. A. K. W. Green supplied the firemen with well appreciated refreshments.

POOL TOURNAMENT.

On Saturday evening last a large number of pool players assembled in the Eureka pool rooms, No. 31 Congress street, to see the finish of the tournament which had for a month been in progress there. The best two scores made during the month was thirteen balls each, and the tie was played off, best three games in five; the first, second and fourth games were captured by one of the players, and of course decided the contest.

Mr. Preble announces that for the best scores made on his table during the month of April prizes will be distributed as follows: For the highest, an order for a spring hat of the latest style, to be selected by the winner; for the second highest, an order for a nice cane; third prize, a handsome silk handkerchief. The room is as popular, and the watch-spring cushions give as much satisfaction, as ever.

GOSSIPS SAY

That Mr. Thomas S. Nowell will shortly come to this city with his family, and occupy his fine house on Miller avenue as a summer residence.

That Sam Lee, the Chinese laundryman, has put out a new sign which is the reddest thing in the city.

That the warmth and brilliancy of the sun has forced the storekeepers to put out their awnings, giving the streets a summerish appearance.

That a loon was shot in the north millpond on Friday last.

That Master George Girard of this city has been astonishing the Dover people by his wonderful feats on the bicycle.

That Mr. Howard H. Hanscom, a wealthy shipbuilder of New Haven, Conn., formerly of Portsmouth, has been in town a day or two, visiting friends.

That but one flock of wild geese had been seen in the vicinity of Great bay up to Friday of last week, though other water fowl were plenty.

That during the last five months five persons well advanced in years have died on that portion of Vaughan street between Hanover and Deer streets.

That the secretary of the navy was strongly urged by prominent Portsmouth politicians to order Carpenter George Anderson of this city to succeed Carpenter Leonard Hanscom at this navy yard, but that Maine influence was more potent.

That in the discharges and suspensions of employees on the navy yard the New Hampshire men do not fare as well as do the Maine workmen.

That J. Albert Walker has leased of the Eastern railroad for a term of six years two acres of land on Noble's island, where he will build immense coal-pockets, an automatic railway and other appliances to facilitate the handling and storing of coal, at an estimated expense of $30,000.

That the railroad company will to-day send a civil engineer to define the boundary lines in accordance with a survey made by Mr. A. C. Hoyt last Thursday.

That Hon. Frank Jones has bought of Mr. John W. Wood a large large tract of land on the Wentworth house road, at the westerly end of the bridge, for $10,500.

The masquerade party in Congress hall on the evening of April 5th is under the management of young men who will make it a success. The tickets are limited in number, and most of them disposed of. The dancers will be in character, and every effort will be made to make this one of the pleasantest events of the season.

About 8000 lbs. of fish came in on Friday of last week. On Saturday there was brought in 40,000 lbs., mostly cod, the largest amount received on any one day this season. The vessels will have to lay over for two or three days, owing to the scarcity of bait.

In the cross suit brought by the Northern railroad against the Ogdensburg & Lake Champlain road, pending in the United States Circuit court for this district, the defendant railroad has filed a demurrer.

Intense interest has everywhere been manifested in the appearance of Margaret Mather, and her courage in attempting to gain at once the heights of her profession, aided by the intelligence and energy of her manager, can but excite one's admiration. Mr. Hill sees no reason why the strength, youth and beauty of a young girl should be exhausted by plodding through the minor details of stage training year after year, when, possessing exceptional talent and the "divine spark," she is able to tread to the front; he acts on the theory that the greater contains the less, and that one who is capable of grappling with the high conceptions of Shakespeare has brains enough to learn the necessary rules of stage requirements. When Miss Mather presents us with a beautiful picture of the creation of great minds, we care not through what gradations she reached the art.

During the fire of Sunday morning Mr. Fred B. Haraden, a member of engine company No. 2, was knocked down and had one foot badly hurt by the hose carriage. The full extent of the injury could not be told on Sunday.

The world moves. Who would have anticipated, a few years ago, that the Times would ever have occasion to rebuke the Journal for "a disregard for the old-time respectability" of the latter paper. Sometimes when our staid brother on the corner becomes unduly enthusiastic over some fancied wrong, it seems as if he might have borrowed some old dictionary which may have been in use in the Times office when the vigorous Foster plied his vocation at that model establishment.

The Government Chemist Analyzes two of the Leading Baking Powders, and what he finds them made of.

I have examined samples of "Cleveland's Superior Baking Powder" and "Royal Baking Powder," purchased by myself in this city, and I find they contain:

"Cleveland's Superior Baking Powder."
Cream of Tartar,
Bicarbonate of Soda,
Flour.

Available carbonic acid gas 12.61 per cent, equivalent to 118.2 cubic inches of gas per oz. of Powder.

"Royal Baking Powder."
Cream of Tartar,
Bicarbonate of Soda,
Carbonate of Ammonia,
Tartaric Acid,
Starch.

Available carbonic acid gas 12.40 per cent, equivalent to 116.2 cubic inches of gas per oz. of Powder.

Ammonia gas 0.43 per cent, equivalent to 10.4 cubic inches per oz. of Powder.

NOTE.—The Tartaric acid was doubtless introduced as free acid, but subsequently combined with ammonia, and exists in the Powder as a Tartrate of Ammonia. E. G. LOVE, Ph. D.
NEW YORK, Jan'y 17th, 1881.

The above shows conclusively that "Cleveland's Superior" is a strictly pure Cream of Tartar Baking Powder. It has also been analyzed by Professor Johnson of Yale College; Dr. Genth of the University of Pennsylvania; President Morton of the Stevens Institute; Wm. M. Habirshaw, F. C. S., Analyst for the Chemical Trade of New York, and other eminent chemists, all of whom pronounce it absolutely pure and healthful.—Hall's Journal of Health for April, 1882.

SECRET!

SALICYLICA is known as a common-sense remedy, because it strikes directly at the cause of Rheumatism, Gout and Neuralgia, while so many so-called specifics and supposed panaceas only treat locally the effects.

In has been conceded by eminent scientists that outward applications, such as rubbing with oils, ointments, liniments, and smoking poisons will not eradicate these diseases which are the result of the poisoning of the blood with Uric Acid.

SALICYLICA works with marvelous effect on this acid, and so removes the disorder. It is now exclusively used by all celebrated physicians of America and Europe. Highest Medical Academy of Paris reports 95 per cent. cures in three days.

HEART DISEASE

IS YOUR HEART SOUND?

Now people think themselves sick and doctor for kidney or liver troubles, or dyspepsia, while if the truth were known, the real cause is at the heart.

The Pneumogastric Nerve, distinguished surgeon says "one-third of my patients show signs of heart disease."

The heart weighs about nine ounces, and yet man's twenty-pounds of blood passes through it once in a minute and a-half, resting not day or night! Surely this subject should have careful attention.

Dr. Graves a celebrated physician has prepared a specific for all heart troubles and kindred disorders. This known as Dr. Graves' Heart Regulator It is sold at your druggists, $1, per bottle, six bottles for $5 by express. Send stamp for Dr. Graves' thorough and exhaustive treatise. (1)

—He stood on the postoffice stoop, and everybody knew him as a newly married man. He had a far away look in his eyes and a bit of yarn on each of the last two fingers of his hand, and kept muttering to himself: "Chopping bowl, eggs, clothes-line—that is the thumb and the first two fingers. VARIOUS QUACKS.

Who—Each with his own Pet Scheme—

Cultivate the Field of Human Nature.

There have always been quacks:—legal quacks, theological quacks, scientific quacks and medical quacks. Some of them are bland, oily fellows who argue and smile the world into believing in their favorite bit of humbug. Others are pompous and pretentious parasites. But they make it pay. Men seem to love to be swindled, stipulating only that it shall be neatly done.

The dear public are equally liberal to the electric and magnetic fraud. This fellow is a genius in his line. He will put a magnetic belt around your waist, a magnetic necklace under your chin, or fit you out with an entire suit of magnetic clothes, warranted to serve the purpose of ordinary garments, and at the same time to cure all diseases, from whooping-cough to hasty consumption.

Most of these have no more electric or magnetic power about them than resides in wooden blankets or in girdles of sackcloth. Only when applied by an expert is electricity of the slightest use as a medicinal agent, and even then its value is grossly over-stated. What is the value of any possible presumptive evidence in favor of a particular remedy? Clearly that it should have been prepared by responsible persons of acknowledged skill in the treatment of disease.

Squarely on this foundation stands BENSON'S CAPCINE POROUS PLASTER. Endorsed by 5,000 physicians, pharmacists, druggists and chemists, it needs no further apology nor introduction. It is the one and only true and tried external application. Quacks of all kinds pay the Capcine the compliment of their dislike, as Satan is said to hate holy water.

"Ten years ago the name of Lydia E. Pinkham was scarcely known outside of her native state. "Trying to do business without advertising," remarks an exchange, "is like winking at a girl in the dark. You may know what you are doing but nobody else does." Trying to cure catarrh by the use of snuffs and irritating liquid injections is the height of folly also. The disease will never be cured by such treatment. Moreover, the delicate lining membranes of the nasal organs will, sooner or later, become inflamed and diseased by such irritants. Ely's Cream Balm is not a snuff or liquid, and is easily applied. It's effects are pleasant, rapid and thorough. No case of catarrh or cold in the head can withstand its effects. "I could scarcely speak," says J. O. Tichenor, dealer in boots and shoes, Elizabeth, N. J., "It was almost impossible to breathe through my nostrils, on account of catarrh. Ely's Cream Balm cured me in a short time." TERRIBLE SUFFERING.

"His word is as good as a bank note at any bank in Lowell, and I know it," was the opinion of a well known citizen in speaking of City Assessor Francis Gomard. Your reporter found Mr. Gomard at his pleasant home, which, with many others, adorns Sumner street and fronts the charming park of South Common. Mr. Gomard said, "I had been, as many of my friends in Lowell know, a great sufferer from kidney and urinary troubles for a long time. My physician said it was the result of diseased kidneys and enlargement of the prostrate gland. I had suffered terribly, and although my doctor's treatment had been the best which this city afforded, I got no better. I said finally, 'Doctor, it's no use. You have done all that is in your power to do, I know that; but I must get help from some other source or die.' Finally I was induced to try Dr. Kennedy's FAVORITE REMEDY, a medicine which had been recommended very highly for kidney diseases. I received help at once. It has acted like a charm with me. Why not? Dr. Kennedy's FAVORITE REMEDY is an honest preparation, and I know it. I didn't think anything would help me, but this has given me better health than any medicine ever pres ribed for me. I have recommended it to ever so many of my friends in the city of Lowell, and with the same results. They think there is nothing like Dr. Kennedy's FAVORITE REMEDY."

What Mr. Gomard says can be depended upon, as any one acquainted with the gentleman knows.

Knowing the accidents to which firemen are constantly subject, Captain Allen advises everybody connected with a fire department to keep a bottle of Pain Killer always on hand.

The Railroad Lease.

The Concord Monitor, in reference to the statement of Agent Wallingford of the Cocheco Manufacturing Co., published in Foster's Democrat, suggests that the legislation of the state is not to be shaped to conform to the selfish desires of any factory corporation or its agent.

The agent of the Cocheco, who has more or less in times past gone off prematurely in the newspapers, ought to be the last man either personally or as a representative of his company to object to the lease, which in its results must prove a great benefit to Dover. He ought to remember when the citizens of Dover and Portsmouth had subscribed for stock in the Portsmouth & Dover railroad, and when the projectors of that enterprise relied upon the anticipated business to be derived from the carriage of the Cocheco Mnfg. Co.'s freight and were ready to lay the rails in the yard of the company, as they have been laid for years in the yard of the Great Falls Mnfg. Co. and ought to have been at Dover, what the course of this company was. It simply went over to the Boston & Maine managers, and said: "The Eastern road is ready to deliver our freight in our yard at Dover. Now if you want our business you may have it at our terms, or we will contract with your new competitors." The Boston & Maine managers concluded it was better for them to at once embrace well the opportunity, and they made a contract for a term of years; and perhaps it is the fear that as this contract expires by limitation, the great corporation at Dover may have to pay in proportion to other freighters, which causes the agent with stock of the B. & M. R. R. to "first consider the welfare of his company." The Monitor in regard to Mr. Wallingford's interview remarks:

The rule that Mr. Wallingford lays down is the rule of self interest. It will be the guide to individual action, and no one ought to complain if it is. Out of the conflict and clashing of these individual interests will come the broader view that shall govern the legislature. Fortunately, that is composed of representatives from all sections, who can look on all sides of the question. The interests of the whole state should be carefully considered. This takes into account both the railroad and the manufacturing company. The result to be secured is the greatest good to the greatest number. We want all interests to be successful, but not one at the expense of the other.

Above all things it must not be forgotten that we are legislating for New Hampshire. There should be no injustice done to other states. We are always glad to have the citizens of other states aid by their capital in developing our resources. When they have done so, they should receive the same protection as our own citizens. But when it comes to creating corporations and giving increased powers to railroads or others, we must be sure that we do not tie our hands nor create a master instead of a servant. The corporations must be and remain New Hampshire corporations, obedient and subject to New Hampshire laws.

The mere fact that the lease is a virtual consolidation of rival lines does not of itself condemn it. The policy of the state has not been to forbid all such unions. It has sanctioned it in the case of the Northern and the Concord & Claremont. It has allowed the union of the Boston, Concord & Montreal system. The Eastern, itself, has been allowed to absorb all the roads connected with it. It has rather been the policy of our state, as expressed by general laws and special action, to say that each case shall be judged on its own merits. Nothing shall be done by any road beyond what it was chartered to do, except by express sanction.

A Concord correspondent of the Boston Traveller sent to that paper on Saturday a long article, from which we extract the following:

There is no doubt that so far as New Hampshire is concerned, there is a general feeling of opposition to the creation of any monopoly either by the consolidation of railroads or otherwise, that would be detrimental to the interests of the people of the state, but so far as I can learn there is no popular feeling against the proposed lease of the Eastern by the Boston & Maine. In fact, it is felt that New Hampshire has really but a very little interest in the matter. * * Whatever interest the people of New Hampshire have in these roads is a local one, and the feeling is growing that it is not improbable that the Rockingham county people will obtain a better service by the union of these two roads than they have at present. * * It is well known that for several years railroad legislation in our state has been influenced to a large extent by the wishes of the Boston, Concord & Montreal, and I think I am safe in saying that there will be no opposition on the part of this road to the union of the interests of the Boston & Maine and Eastern. * * Our New Hampshire press exerts, as is well known, but little influence on the legislation of the state, especially as regards railroad matters. I have made pretty extensive inquiries in order to get at the truth if possible, and I find that there is a general indifference among the people in all sections of the state, with the possible exception of Portsmouth and the adjoining towns, as to the proposed lease, and I hazard the prediction that any legislation which may be needed to carry it into effect will be given in June without serious opposition.

The Newburyport Herald says: "It is rumored that in case of the consolidation of the Boston & Maine and Eastern railroads, Newburyport will be made the coal port of the road. With good wharf accommodations vessels save more in coming to this port on account of quick discharge."

The last rumor in cabinet matters is that Mr. Chandler is to take the office of postmaster-general, and that a new man is to be made secretary of the navy. Mr. Robeson is suggested in certain quarters as a gentleman whose experience would enable him to administer the affairs of the navy "without fear and without reproach;" others insist that he might feel "cramped" in the office. We venture to assert that the only man who knows about the coming appointment is Chester A. Arthur, and he will not tell until he is ready to promulgate it.

AROUND HOME.

Mr. David Welsh, who left this city recently for the west, has located in Springfield, Missouri, and gone into the bakery business.

A horse belonging to Mr. Henry R. Stoddard died on Sunday from what was supposed to be pink-eye.

Mr. Frank W. Rand of this city, for some months past employed in Boston, was knocked down by a team on a street of the latter place on Saturday, and had his head badly cut, face bruised, and other injuries inflicted. He had a narrow escape from instant death.

Mr. Harry Harding, a civil engineer in the employ of the Eastern railroad, was on Monday taking measurements for the projected improvements and buildings on Noble's island.

A new engine has been placed on board the steamer Three Brothers, and Capt. Upton hopes to have her ready to make a trial trip down the harbor in a few days.

The steamer Fearless, which was hauled out at the Raynes shipyard last fall, and housed over for the winter, having been repainted and generally overhauled will be launched to-day.

The schooner Active, Hontvet master, will be ready for sea the latter part of this week. It is reported that she is chartered to make three trips with lumber between a port in the British provinces and ports on the Potomac river.

The schooner E. A. Creed, belonging to Laighton Bros. of the Isles of Shoals, had a narrow escape from serious damage if not destruction on Sunday morning. She has been hauled up for the winter at a wharf near Liberty bridge, close by the barn that was burned on the morning mentioned, and when the fire broke out she was fast aground; had the wind been blowing toward her from the fire she would have had a hard chance, but as it was she escaped with a scorched masthead.

The steamer City of Bangor, which arrived at this port from Boston last week, will undergo extensive alteration and improvement before commencing her regular trips between this city and York. The boxing between the main and upper decks will be removed, which will add materially to her appearance; the inside wood work and furnishings of the upper and lower cabins will be replaced with something new and handsomer, and the furniture will be upholstered in plush. The company owning the boat have ample means, and intend making her attractive and convenient in every respect. Before starting on her trips her name will be changed to City of Portsmouth. She will be in charge of Mr. R. B. Beaumont.

THE WONDER

Is becoming universal as to how such an immense sale could be created in Lowell for Hood's Sarsaparilla. But, my friend, if you could stand behind our counter a week and hear what those say who are using it, the reason would appear as clear as the noon-day sun. The real curative power of Hood's Sarsaparilla demonstrates itself in every case where our directions are faithfully regarded. We would that we might get before the people a fractional part of the confidence that is expressed to us every day in this medicine by those who have carefully noted (without prejudice) its effects upon the blood and through that upon the whole system, stimulating all the functions of the body to perform the duties nature requires of them. Try a bottle and satisfy yourself.

Cold Hands and Feet.

MESSRS. C. I. HOOD & CO.: Gentlemen—About one year ago my daughter commenced taking your Sarsaparilla. At that time she had very little appetite; could take no long walks, and her face was badly broken out with a humor. She was low-spirited; troubled with cold hands and feet; her blood seemed to be poor, and she was in a condition which caused us great anxiety. After taking one bottle of your Sarsaparilla she began to improve; and she now has a good appetite and can take much longer walks. Her humor is nothing compared with what it was one year ago. She is in better spirits, is not troubled with cold hands and feet as previously. And I attribute this improvement in her condition largely to your Sarsaparilla. She has taken six bottles, and intends to continue its use. I was inclined to oppose the trial of it at first. I now have great faith in it as a blood purifier. Very truly yours,

A. L. HINCKLEY,

Public Benefactress. Mrs. S. A. ALLEN has justly earned this title, and thousands are this day rejoicing over a fine head of hair produced by her unequaled preparation for restoring, invigorating, and beautifying the Hair. Her World's Hair Restorer quickly cleanses the scalp, removing Dandruff, and arrests the fall; the hair, if gray, is changed to its natural color, giving it the same vitality and luxuriant quantity as in youth.

COMPLIMENTARY. "My hair is now restored to its youthful color; I have not a gray hair left. I am satisfied that the preparation is not a dye, but acts on the secretions. My hair ceases to fall, which is certainly an advantage to me, who was in danger of becoming bald." This is the testimony of all who use Mrs. S. A. ALLEN'S WORLD'S HAIR RESTORER.

"One Bottle did it." That is the expression of many who have had their gray hair restored to its natural color, and their bald spot covered with hair, after using one bottle of Mrs. S. A. ALLEN'S WORLD'S HAIR RESTORER. It is not a dye.

CHAIN 'EM UP.

The "bird dogs" which some weeks ago made themselves objectionable to the superintendent of the city farm and other fowl raisers on Christian Shore and at the Creek, have been operating in another quarter of the city. A gentleman living on South street had four hens killed last week, the remainder of his flock being so frightened that they have stopped laying and almost stopped feeding, the least noise or movement sending them helter-skelter for their coop; Mr. Wm. P. Gardner, of Gates street, had a fine rooster in his yard so maimed that he had to be killed; and several other persons report having had their fowls harassed. The dog which invaded Mr. Gardner's premises was seen, and the description leaves no doubt that the culprit was a red Irish setter, of which animals there are quite a number in the city. Owners of such dogs, if they prize them, would do well to keep them confined; it is their nature to hunt birds, and they will hunt tame ones when wild ones do not offer; and while their owners may value them highly, for sporting purposes, another man who is not a sportman may set a much higher value on a choice hen,—particularly when he owns the hen, and does not own the dog,—and if his hen is killed may seek to retaliate with the loud-mouthed shot-gun or the silent poison.

FAST DAY.

There will be services in the North church on Fast day, April 5th, at 10:30 o'clock A. M.; sermon by Rev. W. A. McGinley; subject, "Fasting." Other churches of the city having no services, and the public generally, are cordially invited to unite in the services of the day.

THE SHIP "PORTSMOUTH."

A picture placed in a window of Montgomery's music and art store last week has attracted much attention. It represents the former ship Portsmouth of this port, Capt. Herman A. Tarlton, as she appeared when hauling to the wind off the Western islands to signal the bark Anglo Saxon of Portland, Me., the latter desiring to correct her longitude. The Portsmouth was a vessel of about a thousand tons, and though not a clipper was anything but a dull sailer; on the trip when the incident represented occurred, she made the passage from New York to Cadiz, Spain, in sixteen days, and the return trip to New York in nineteen, the crew on the ship's arrival in the latter port being in debt two days' wages, not having worked out the two months' advance received on shipping. The picture was painted in 1862 by M. Conti of Naples, from a sketch taken on board the ship, the vessel being carefully measured by men sent by the painter, so that her proportions might be exact.

The end of the Portsmouth was a tragic one, her last voyage being made under command of Capt. Robert Boardman; she went into the island of Navassa, near Jamaica, W. I., loaded with guano, sailed for Queenstown, Ireland, for orders, and was never afterward heard from. A hurricane prevailed a few days after the Portsmouth sailed, and a number of other vessels which left Navassa about the same time all suffered severely, at least four of them being finally put down in that terrible list, "missing;" and no doubt was entertained that the ill-fated Portsmouth went down in that gale.

"AGAMENTICUS" alias "TERROR."

The iron-clad Terror, recently launched from Cramp's shipyard in Philadelphia, is one of those peculiar results of the manipulation of naval ships. The Agamenticus, built on the railway at the navy yard near this city, was launched in 1864; she was 1564 tons, old measurement, and went to sea from this port, going down the river under her own steam and "working like a top," as a spectator informs us; after a few years she was laid up at the Boston navy yard. Whether the old Agamenticus was ever broken up to be replaced by the present Terror we are not informed, but we think not, for unless our memory is greatly at fault the Terror was one of the vessels ordered to get ready in a hurry to proceed to Cuba at the time of the Virginius trouble; that Terror must have been the renamed Agamenticus, and the new Terror is most likely the old craft "thoroughly repaired." The name of the Agamenticus was changed to "Terror" by David D. Porter at the time when, in his anxiety to make the United States navy as servile a copy as possible of the British navy, he discarded for a number of vessels on the stocks and for several vessels afloat their distinctively American names, and gave to them names which it was presumed would be more satisfactory to the high-toned naval critics of Europe. He probably would have called the Constitution the Destroyer, or some similar name, had he thought it safe to do so.

A RELIC.

In making some repairs to the roof of the old Raynes mansion last week the workmen had occasion to remove a board near the eaves, and found snugly stowed away behind it the wreck of an ancient umbrella, which the master carpenter thought could not have been disturbed for a century, he judging that the board had been in place as long as that at least, and the umbrella having evidently been boarded in by workmen who probably long since passed on. The brass slide which runs on the stick, and the brass spreaders attached to the slide, are very much heavier than those now in use; and any one of the eight whalebone ribs, (which were evidently split from a big slab of whalebone with some simple implement, following the grain of the whalebone without any attempt to avoid crooks,) would make about four ribs to a modern umbrella. The covering was of a coarse, strong linen cloth, well suited to its purpose. With a new covering, and a ferule on the end of the stick, the ancient umbrella would be good for a lifetime's wear.

GOSSIP'S SAY

That the water in the north millpond ran out lower on Monday than for many months.

That the roads leading out of this city in any direction, for a distance of eight or ten miles, are fast drying up, and in good condition for travelling.

That it will take about five weeks to finish the work on the Newcastle bridges, and get them open to public travel.

That a special train from Dover will bring two hundred roller-skaters to town Thursday night.

That Mr. George A. Mudge has leased a part of Salter's island, down the Little harbor way, and will go into the business of chicken-raising, commencing with fifty hens.

That Carpenter Henry R. Philbrick, U. S. N., of Kittery, now stationed at New London, Conn., has been notified by the government that $2500 will shortly be paid him for services rendered during the war.

That the family of Captain Robert L. Davis, of the fishing schooner Addie & Hattie, moved to Salem on Monday of this week.

That a large majority of the people who thronged Christ church on Sunday night, did so to hear the new surpliced choir sing—and that the choir didn't sing.

This evening, at Music hall, the Madison Square Theatre Co. will present "Esmeralda," with the original cast and scenery so far as they can be utilized on a smaller stage than the one they first appeared on. There is no need to remind play-goers that a company sent out by the Madison Square theatre is sure to be a first-class one; the play, which like those other Madison Square specialties, the "Banker's Daughter" and "Hazel Kirke," has had an almost interminable run in New York, is said to be the equal of those plays in dramatic interest, and superior to them in many points. Tickets can be procured at Goodrich's.

The city pump near the south wardroom, which has been frozen up all winter, has lost its winter grip and is in going order again.

There were standing on Bow street last Saturday, in the vicinity of Mr. Ira C. Seymour's blacksmith shop, a large and varied assortment of lame carriages awaiting repairs; where so many different kinds came from was a mystery, as they seemed to comprise all sorts, sizes and patterns.

The quassia cups advertised by Dr. Ordway, and for sale by him at the Gibson house, are made from genuine quassia wood, and water poured into them is immediately impregnated with the medicinal properties of the wood, furnishing an inexpensive but excellent tonic. They are good things to have in the house, and last for years.

The late Capt. Matthew B. Vennard was one of the old shipmasters of Portsmouth. His first command was the ship Henry, of 333 tons, built at Durham, and owned by James Shapley, Titus Salter and Henry Salter; this was in 1819, when Capt. Vennard was about twenty years of age. In 1822 he commanded the schooner Victor, owned by Isaac D. Parsons, Theodore F. Jewett and himself, trading to Jamaica and St. Domingo; and in 1827 he commanded the schooner Albion, owned by Andrew W. Bell, Jonathan M. Tredick and himself. He followed the sea successfully until about thirty years ago.

Eight farm wagons in the yard, and a milk cart and one farm wagon outside the fence, made quite a show at Gardner J. Greenleaf's carriage-repairing establishment on State street, Monday forenoon.

A large and fashionable audience gathered in Music hall on Monday evening to witness the performance of Bulwer's play "The Lady of Lyons," with Miss Margaret Mather as Pauline, and the general verdict seemed to be that the merits of this young actress have not been overrated by the dramatic critics. The applause was liberal to be given by a Portsmouth audience, and Miss Mather was several times called before the curtain. The support was good.

A hand-organ was sounding on the streets Monday evening—the first of the season. It played "St. Patrick's Day in the Morning," but we are happy to say it did not play "Spring, Spring, Gentle Spring."

The Government Chemist Analyzes two of the Leading Baking Powders, and what he finds them made of.

I have examined samples of "Cleveland's Superior Baking Powder" and "Royal Baking Powder," purchased by myself in this city, and I find they contain:

"Cleveland's Superior Baking Powder."
Cream of Tartar,
Bicarbonate of Soda,
Flour.
Available carbonic acid gas 12.61 per cent, equivalent to 118.2 cubic inches of gas per oz. of Powder.

"Royal Baking Powder."
Cream of Tartar,
Bicarbonate of Soda,
Carbonate of Ammonia,
Tartaric Acid,
Starch.
Available carbonic acid gas 12.40 per cent, equivalent to 116.2 cubic inches of gas per oz. of Powder.
Ammonia gas 0.43 per cent, equivalent to 10.4 cubic inches per oz. of Powder.

NOTE.—The Tartaric acid was doubtless introduced as free acid, but subsequently combined with ammonia, and exists in the Powder as a Tartrate of Ammonia. E. G. LOVE, Ph. D.
NEW YORK, Jan'y 17th, 1881.

The above shows conclusively that "Cleveland's Superior" is a strictly pure Cream of Tartar Baking Powder. It has also been analyzed by Professor Johnson of Yale College; Dr. Genth of the University of Pennsylvania; President Morton of the Stevens Institute; Wm. M. Habirshaw, F. C. S., Analyst for the Chemical Trade of New York, and other eminent chemists, all of whom pronounce it absolutely pure and healthful.—Hall's Journal of Health for April, 1882.

HEART DISEASE

Now IS YOUR HEART SOUND?

Many people think themselves sound and do not for kidney or liver trouble, or dyspepsia, while if the truth were known, the real cause lies at the heart.

Dr. Graves a celebrated physician has prepared a specific for all heart troubles and heart disorders. It is known as Dr. Graves' Heart Regulator *and can be obtained at your druggists, $1, per bottle, six bottles for $5 by express. A Reverend April Fool.

In Washington, D. C., on the 1st inst., Rev. Jonathan Blanchard, president of Wheaton college in Illinois, was engaged to preach the funeral sermon of a young man who was buried from a church. The deceased had been prominent as a member of the Grand Army, the Knights of Pythias and the Independent Order of Mechanics, and the reverend gentleman launched forth into a tirade against secret societies. A sister of the deceased fainted, and her husband requested the clergyman to discontinue his remarks, which he refused to do unless requested to do so by the deceased's father; the father told him he had "better quit," and gathering up his manuscript he left the church. Another clergyman was procured, and the services proceeded. The affair was all the more unpleasant from the fact that by special request of the family, the obsequies were being conducted with society honors. It would have been better had the person who engaged the clergyman to officiate, ascertained beforehand whether the Rev. Jonathan Blanchard of Wheaton college possessed common sense or not.

A rescuing party was sent down, who succeeding in removing a large quantity of rock and earth and thus releasing the party, some of whom were in an exhausted condition. The men who were down declare that they will never enter the mine again, and the search for the remaining dead will have to be abandoned.

VARIOUS QUACKS.

Who--Each with his own Pet Scheme--

Cultivate the Field of Human Nature.

There have always been quacks—legal quacks, theological quacks, scientific quacks and medical quacks. Some of them are bland, oily fellows who argue and smile the world into believing in their favorite bit of humbug. Others are pompous and pretentious parasites. But they make it pay. Men seem to love to be swindled, stipulating only that it shall be neatly done.

The dear public are equally liberal to the electric and magnetic fraud. This fellow is a genius in his line. He will put a magnetic belt around your waist, a magnetic necklace under your chin, or fit you out with an entire suit of magnetic clothes, warranted to serve the purpose of ordinary garments, and at the same time to cure all diseases, from whooping-cough to hasty consumption.

Most of these have no more electric or magnetic power about them than resides in wooden blankets or in girdles of sackcloth. Only when applied by an expert is electricity of the slightest use as a medicinal agent, and even then its value is grossly over-stated. What is the strongest possible presumptive evidence in favor of a particular remedy? Clearly that it should have been prepared by responsible persons of acknowledged skill in the treatment of disease.

Squarely on this foundation stands BENSON'S CAPCINE POROUS PLASTER. Endorsed by 5,000 physicians, pharmacists, druggists and chemists. It needs no further apology nor introduction. It is the one and only true and tried external application. Quacks of all kinds pay the Capcine the compliment of their dislike, as Satan is said to have paid virtue.

To those who have used Swedish Remedies, they know full well the value of them. To those who from prejudice have not used them, we can say that they are the very best medicines for the diseases for which they are recommended. A Much Married Woman.

Mrs. Fowler, of this city, was married last January to her sixth husband, and strange as it may seem, five of them died exactly two years from their marriage-day. Her present husband has been sick for the last four months with chronic jaundice, and was given up by four of our best physicians; as a last resort he began using Sulphur Bitters, and yesterday told our reporter that they had saved his life, smilingly saying that he guessed Mrs. Fowler would be unable to take a seventh better half for some time to come.—Exchange.

NO USE FOR THEM.

Concerning Certain Relics of the Past --Dogs that have had Their Day.

George Stephenson's "Rocket," and the magnificent locomotives of to-day, are built upon the same general principle, yet the machine with which the great engineer astonished his age, is interesting now only as an illustration of the beginning of the invention. There were plasters with holes in them long before BENSON'S CAPCINE POROUS PLASTER surprised both the public and the physicians; and the triumph of the Capcine is founded upon the partial successes, or the utter failures of its predecessors. Everything of value in the old porous plasters is retained in the Capcine; but at this point all comparison ends, and contrast begins. Forexample:

The old plasters lacked the power to do more than to impart slight, temporary relief in cases easy of treatment; the Capcine penetrates the system and permanently cures the troubles for which it is recommended.

The old plasters depended for any good results they might get in, upon an accident of their makers and the naked faith of their wearers; the Benson's reaches its ends by means of the scientific combination of the rare medicinal ingredients which it contains.

Yet is this very fact less the leading danger to the people who buy and use this reliable and scientific remedy. "Hypocrisy is the tribute vice pays to virtue." Imitation is the concession failures make to success. Benson's Plasters are parroted in same general style.

Beware of imitations; be genuine have the word CAPCINE cut in the center. Price 25 cents. Seabury & Johnson, Chemists, New York.

"His word is as good as a bank note at any bank in Lowell, and I know it," was the opinion of a well known citizen in speaking of City Assessor Francis Gomard. Your reporter found Mr. Gomard at his pleasant home, which, with many others, adorns Sumner street and fronts the charming park of South Common. Mr. Gomard said, "I had been, as many of my friends in Lowell know, a great sufferer from kidney and urinary troubles for a long time. My physician said it was the result of diseased kidneys and enlargement of the prostrate gland. I had suffered terribly, and although my doctor's treatment had been the best which this city affords, I got no better. I said finally, 'Doctor, it's no use. You have done all that is in your power to do, I know that; but I must get help from some other source or die.' Finally I was induced to try Dr Kennedy's FAVORITE REMEDY, a medicine which had been recommended very highly for kidney diseases. I received help at once. It has acted like a charm with me. Why not? Dr. Kennedy's FAVORITE REMEDY is an honest preparation, and I know it. I didn't think anything would help me, but this has given me better health than any medicine ever pres ribed for me. I have recommended it to ever so many of my friends in the city of Lowell, and with the same result. They think there is nothing like Dr. Kennedy's FAVORITE REMEDY."

What Mr. Gomard says can be depended upon, as any one acquainted with the gentleman knows.

Don't Step on a Rolling Stone :

That's what Captain Allen of the fire department of Worcester did, and that was how he hurt his ankle so badly. After the doctor set the broken bone, Captain Allen used Perry Davis's Pain Killer as a liniment. The suffering was soon over, and the captain was well in a short time. Knowing the accidents to which firemen are constantly subject, Captain Allen advises everybody connected with a fire department to keep a bottle of Pain Killer always on hand.

Col. Mapleson, of Her Majesty's Opera company, was robbed in New York of a sum of money in banknotes and checks, late on Saturday night or early Sunday morning, which he estimates at $21,500, of which about $5000 is negotiable. He was much pleased over the fact that the thieves overlooked $2,500 in gold and bank notes, which was in another box in the safe, and which was found intact.

Mr. A. J. Severance, 115 Broadway, N. Y., writes: "I have used Wheat Bitters for malaria and it cured me. My wife who was in a feeble state of health has been very much benefitted by using it. I think it an excellent remedy."

Mr. Dorman B. Eaton, the grand mogul of the civil service commission, is said to be almost as much of an exquisite in his dress as the attorney general. The tastes of his companions in this direction are also said to border on the utter, and the applicant for a government job, no matter what his mental attainments may be, will hardly pass examination unless he appears in a swallow-tail coat and a white tie.

Doctor Yourself

and save money, and perhaps your life, send two 3-cent stamps to pay postage to A. P. Ordway & Co., Boston, Mass., and receive a copy of Dr. Kaufmann's great medical work, 100 pages, elegant colored plates.

Several thousand people passed over the Brooklyn bridge Sunday afternoon, the 1st inst., including 500 hoodlums, whom the police were obliged to drive back to New York on account of their throwing planks, stones, etc., on to the ferry boats in the river and into the streets under the land approaches.

Delay is dangerous. Do not longer cling to the old method of curing coughs and colds with rum and molasses, it is a dangerous remedy. Adamson's Botanic Balsam is a sure cure every time, pleasant to take and works like a charm.

George W. Conkling, Jr., indicted for manslaughter in the first degree on the charge of killing Wilburn H. Haverstick, his sister's paramour, was called to the bar in the court of general sessions at New York, April 2d, and trial was set down for Friday next.

News and Notes.

Thomas Burns was arrested in Newburyport, Sunday evening, the 1st inst., for an assault committed Dec. 30th upon Mr. Joseph Moulton, a leading business man of that city. Burns was conveyed to the jail; he conversed freely on the assault, and gave the names of Albert W. Bartlett (who robbed Mr. Fowle last June) and Harry Shephardson as being concerned in the assault on Mr. Moulton. Burns will be confined in the jail until the session of the superior court at Newburyport in May next, indictments having already been found against him by the grand jury. All three of the persons named as engaged in the murderous assault on Mr. Moulton are young men of the genus hoodlum.

P. Joyce, a clerk of the Soldiers' Home at Hampton, Va., shot Thomas Phillips dead in the bar-room of the Barnes hotel, Sunday night, April 1st. Joyce was arrested and a guard protects the jail, as lynching is threatened.

The American Legion of Honor council at North Buffalo, N. Y., is excited over the disclosure of the fact that a policy has been issued to a supposed member, of whom nobody ever heard. The policy was made payable to John Hamtz, brother of the supposed Martin Hamtz, and the authorities in Boston state that the $5,000 was paid to a party representing himself to be John Hamtz. An order has been sent from Boston to sift the matter.

A Dublin, Ga., paper says that Mr. J. C. Blaine of Columbia, Ga., is a relative of J. G. Blaine, but notes this difference: While the plumed knight was whooping up the boys to crush the "rebellion" his cousin of Columbus was engaged in building gunboats to protect the southern coast and shatter Yankee commerce on the high seas.

The liquor in a bonded warehouse in Liverpool, Eng., was spilled on the 2d inst., the bungs having been removed from the casks; preparations had been made for firing the place, which if it had been done would have resulted in a disastrous conflagration, as the warehouse is in close connection with many others. The outrage is laid to the Irish Invincibles, or the Fenians. It is also charged that packages of clothing infected with smallpox have been sent through the mails to a number of ladies whose husbands have made themselves obnoxious to the Irish nationalists.

The prisoners in the jail at Portland, Me., struck work on the 2d inst., because, as they claimed, they were not given enough to eat.

Capt. John Spurling of Portland, Me., was struck in the eye by a piece of steel, March 31st, and his eye was injured so that it had to be removed.

Mr. John Fogg of Harrison, Me., was shot, but not fatally, Sunday afternoon, the 1st inst., by the accidental discharge of a revolver in the hands of his son.

John G. Murchie, republican, was elected mayor of Calais by 469 majority, and the republicans elected the full board of aldermen, April 2d.

New Hampshire Items.

Hiram Hoitt, a painter, was at work painting a chimney on the residence of Daniel Niles in Dover on the 2d inst., when the staging gave way and precipitated him to the ground, a distance of fifty feet, inflicting injuries that it was feared would prove fatal. He is aged fifty-two years, and has a family.

Dr. Nathaniel Low of Dover died on the 2d inst., at the age of ninety-one years. He was born in North Berwick, Me., was graduated at Dartmouth in 1813, and the same year commenced the practice of medicine in South Berwick. He was a member of the Maine legislature in 1825, and moved to Portland in that year; edited a political paper for three year, was secretary of the Maine senate in 1827, and postmaster of Portland in 1829. He moved to Dover in 1831, and represented that town in the New Hampshire legislature in 1846 and '47; and was postmaster of Dover from '63 to '65. He was a fellow of the New Hampshire Medical society, and a member of the Strafford Medical society. Six children survive him.

AROUND HOME.

Daniel Haley caught ninety lobsters in his pots on Tuesday, off the Rye shore. Mr. Frank Hidden brought in from the Shoals on Tuesday two hundred lobsters.

The schooner Hattie Lewis, Brewster master, went up river on the 2d inst. to load bricks for Boston. Since she come out of winter quarters she has had her bottom, bends, centre-board-box and deck calked by Spinney & Jenkins; has had a new rudder, chocks and winch put in, and part of her quarter deck renewed, by Warren Keen; her cabin grained and varnished by F. T. Cate of Kittery; her bottom coated with copper paint, and a new coat of paint put on inside and out, by Wendell of Portsmouth and Anderson of Ellsworth; in short, she has had a grand overhauling from stem to stern, and is now in first-class condition for the season's work.

Mr. Thomas O. Norton, a native of this city who has for five years past been in the employ of the Eastern railroad, has charge of the workmen engaged in painting the office and inner walls of the station in this city.

It was reported on Tuesday that orders had been received on the navy yard to pay the workmen on the basis of eight hours for a full day, according to the law of the United States, instead of counting eight hours as four-fifths of a day, as has been done for many years in open defiance of the law.

Mr. John Malone and family left this city on Tuesday for Donnelly, Minn. Mr. F. Rollins has moved his family and household goods to Concord, N. H.

A hand-organ and a bagpipe were rivals for public favor on the streets last Tuesday. The hand-organ man would play until the listener would even wish that he—the hand-organ man—were dead, and as soon as he had gone the bag-piper would come along; then the listener would repent of his evil thoughts toward the hand-organ man, and hope for his return with many others worse than himself, to disturb the bag-piper.

Mr. David Rhoades, a young man who left this city for the west three years ago, and has lately been making a visit to his former home, returned to his business in Minneapolis, Minn., on Tuesday of this week.

A monstrosity called the man-bear, which was on exhibition in this city Saturday and Monday, was on Tuesday taken to some other place by the proprietor; those who missed seeing it suffered no loss.

At the close of the recent term of Bates college, the last speaker at the senior exhibition was Mr. G. L. Frisbee, who took as his subject "The Functions of the Legal Profession," and was complimented by the Lewiston Journal as follows for his oration: "It was a fine production, and perhaps we could give its key-note no better than to repeat his closing sentence: 'Thus you see the legal profession is the founder of nations, the protector of social and political rights, the builder of that mighty Temple of Justice, the grand agent of civilization, the guardian angel of a hundred generations yet to come.'" Mr. Frisbee is a native of Kittery Point, and will graduate from Bates in June as class orator; he has for several years been bookkeeper at the Appledore house, which position he will again fill during the season now near at hand.

A six-years-old daughter of Charles Arnois of Biddeford broke through the ice on Saco river while crossing, Monday afternoon, and was drowned.

The schooner Flying Eagle was taken on the marine railway at Kittery on Tuesday.

On all matters connected with the toilet. They have decided that SOZODONT is what they will have. "When a woman will, she will, you may depend on't; and when she wont, she wont, there's an end on't." This accounts for the popularity of SOZODONT.

Spring Come Again.

The weather here is now at last Spring-like, but away down South the Crescent City journalists are complaining of excessive heat, and the buzz of the mosquito compels them to admit that Summer is at hand. The leading affair discussed there is who was the winner in the last, and who will be the fortunate man in the next Monthly (the 154th) Grand Drawing of The Louisiana State Lottery at New Orleans, on April 10th, when $265,500 will be scattered among the holders of the 100,000 tickets, costing Five Dollars each, of which all information may be had on application to M. A. Dauphin, New Orleans, La. The sole supervision is under Gen'ls G. T. Beauregard of La., and Jubal A. Early of Va. In June the Firm Capital Prize will be $150,000, which should satisfy the avarice of any moderate person.

THE WONDER

Is becoming universal as to how such an immense sale could be created in Lowell for HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA. But, my friend, if you could stand behind our counter a week and hear what those say who are using it, the reason would appear as clear as the noon-day sun. The real curative power of HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA demonstrates itself in every case where our directions are faithfully regarded. We would that we might get before the people a fractional part of the confidence that is expressed to us every day in this medicine by those who have carefully noted (without prejudice) its effects upon the blood and through that upon the whole system, stimulating all the functions of the body to perform the duties nature requires of them. Try a bottle and satisfy yourself.

Cold Hands and Feet.

LOWELL, Feb. 3, 1879.

MESSRS. C. I. HOOD & CO.: Gentlemen—About one year ago my daughter commenced taking your Sarsaparilla. At that time she had very little appetite; could take no long walks, and her face was badly broken out with a humor. She was low-spirited; troubled with cold hands and feet; her blood seemed to be poor, and she was in a condition which caused us great anxiety. After taking one bottle of your Sarsaparilla she began to improve; and she now has a good appetite and can take much longer walks. Her humor is nothing compared with what it was one year ago. She is in better spirits, is not troubled with cold hands and feet as previously. And I attribute this improvement in her condition largely to your Sarsaparilla. She has taken six bottles, and intends to continue its use. I was inclined to oppose the trial of it at first. I now have great faith in it as a blood purifier. Very truly yours,

A. L. HINCKLEY,

Public Benefactress. Mrs. S. A. ALLEN has justly earned this title, and thousands are this day rejoicing over a fine head of hair produced by her unequaled preparation for restoring, invigorating, and beautifying the Hair. Her World's Hair Restorer quickly cleanses the scalp, removing Dandruff, and arrests the fall; the hair, if gray, is changed to its natural color, giving it the same vitality and luxurious quantity as in youth.

COMPLIMENTARY. "My hair is now restored to its youthful color; I have not a gray hair left. I am satisfied that the preparation is not a dye, but acts on the secretions. My hair ceases to fall, which is certainly an advantage to me, who was in danger of becoming bald." This is the testimony of all who use Mrs. S. A. ALLEN'S WORLD'S HAIR RESTORER.

"One Bottle did it." That is the expression of many who have had their gray hair restored to its natural color, and their bald spot covered with hair, after using one bottle of Mrs. S. A. ALLEN'S WORLD'S HAIR RESTORER. It is not a dye.

"NICK OF THE WOODS."

An old-time and well recognized attraction is to be presented at Music hall on Friday evening, April 6th. Mr. Proctor has enjoyed for many years a widespread reputation as an actor of great merit, and his powerful assumption of the wierd and mysterious character of the "Jibbenainosay" is a performance that once seen is not forgetten, so impressive are its various phases of interpretation. The thrilling drama of "Nick of the Woods," by Dr. Bird, the renowned novelist and dramatist, will be given in all its startling effects, with Miss Annie E. Proctor as "Tellie Doe," and the other characters fittingly represented by the members of the dramatic combination. The novel feature of the Indian characters being performed by real Indians will give realistic effects to the exciting situations of the drama. The entertainment will conclude with the laughable comedy entitled "My Neighbor's Wife," in which Miss Annie E. Proctor, Mrs. Harrison, Mrs. Treville, Messrs. Walter Benn, George Coots and A. J. Leavitt will appear.

SCHOOL ENTERTAINMENT IN NEWINGTON.

NEWINGTON, April 2d.

The town school, which has been under the charge of G. W. Libbey, Esq., of Nottingham, during the past sixteen weeks, gave an entertainment Tuesday evening to quite a large house. The exercises all showed a thorough drill by the teacher. The recitations, "Curfew," by Miss Lizzie Hoyt, "Hiawatha," by Miss Sophia Hoyt, and "Dollie's Lesson," by Miss Dollie Coleman, were finely rendered; also the songs by Misses Mamie and Martie Coleman, Miss Mamie Frink and Miss Lillie Carkin. The enactment of the dramas "Down by the Sea" and "Thirty Minutes for Refreshments" was excellent; the performance of the scholars would have done credit to old actors, showing a thorough drill by the teacher. The music discoursed by Miss Fannie Hoyt and Mrs. Clarence deRochement was soul-stirring, and we could listen to it again with much pleasure. By those present this was considered the best entertainment that has been given in the hall since it was built, and we hope to see them repeat it.

We learn the names of the following young ladies and gentlemen, many of whom live over a mile from the schoolhouse, who have been present every day for the sixteen weeks of the winter term: Sarah Beane, Corinne Nutter, Sophia Hoyt, Ruth Greenough, Fannie Hoyt, Eva Pickering, Amelia deRochemont, Abbie Beane, Willie Furber and Marcus Hoyt. The prizes in penmanship were taken by Miss Edith Whidden and Master Marcus Hoyt; the other prizes have not yet been awarded. The school at present ranks high, and the discipline is well nigh perfect. OCCASIONAL.

POLICE COURT--BATCHELDER, J

TUESDAY, April 3d.

Thomas Smith, for drunkenness, was fined $10, with $6.90 costs. The size of the fine was not on account of the extra size of his drunk, but because he was before the court some weeks ago for the same offence, and was then let off on probation. Brentwood in default of payment.

Another sinner, whose name we suppress at the request of a reputable relative, was assessed $9.90 for drunkenness. Paid.

FIRE DEPARTMENT ELECTIONS.

The annual elections of officers by the fire engine, extinguisher and hook and ladder companies were held on Monday evening, April 2d, and resulted as follows:

Miss Fannie Wadleigh of Haverhill, Mass., and Miss Mollie A. Putney, of Manchester, are visiting in this city.

The light-house steamer Iris came into this harbor on Tuesday, and sailed again the same day.

Ladies having any dyeing to be done will be interested in the announcement made in another column by Mr. Morris C. Foye, who is agent for the Old Staten Island Dyeing Establishment, and will furnish price-lists free, the list prices covering all charges.

On Saturday the schooner Nellie M. Rowe, Captain Lewis, arrived at New York with from seventy-five to one hundred barrels of fresh mackerel, the first catch of the season. It is reported that they sold for twenty cents each. The Nellie M. Rowe is a Gloucester craft.

Congress having appropriated condemned cannon for a soldiers' monument in this city, two howitzers weighing 2900 lbs. have been selected at the Brooklyn navy yard for the purpose, and will be forwarded to this city by the U. S. S. Tallapoosa, probably on her next trip to this navy yard.

The audience at Music hall on Tuesday evening was not so large as ordinarily greets the Madison Square Theatre Co., the appearance of Margaret Mather on the previous evening no doubt having much to do with it; still the audience was fair. The play, "Esmeralda," was acted with the care and ability looked for from this company, and was received with much apparent favor, the attention being close and the applause liberal.

The John Welsh reported as having gone from Portsmouth to Springfield, Mo., and started a bakery there, is not the John Welsh who has for some years conducted the baking business in this city; the latter has no intention of making any change of location or business.

The masquerade in Congress hall on the evening of Fast day will probably wind up the dancing for this season. The floor tickets, limited in number, are all disposed of, and arrangements for a first-class affair are perfected. A few gallery tickets will be sold to unobjectionable parties.

The Woman's Temperance League will hold no meeting on Thursday, on account of it being Fast day.

The tug Ann towed two vessels loaded with coal to Dover on Tuesday of this week,—the first cargoes to go up the river this year.

There will be an entertainment at the Advent church on Hanover street, Thursday evening, with singing, recitations and other attractions; admission free.

Rev. E. Q. S. Osgood, of Plymouth, Mass., will preach in the Unitarian church on Sunday next.

Mr. Wm. C. Robinson, formerly clerk of the Portsmouth Brewing Co., who went to Philadelphia recently, has accepted a situation in Dun's Mercantile Agency in that city.

John Sise, Esq., is to start this week on a visit to Bermuda.

Lotta and Janaushek are announced to appear in Music hall before the season closes.

The brick-carrying schooners have got fairly under way, and from now until the close of up-river navigation next fall they will have little rest. The Triton, Capt. Freeman, the first of the fleet to start, arrived in Boston on Sunday, the 1st inst. The Hattie Lewis, Capt. Brewster, went up river to load on the 2d, and the George W. Raitt on the 3d; and the Chilion, Capt. Call, and Satellite, Capt. Aderton, both sailed for Boston on the 3d. The schooner H. Prescott, Capt. Davis, with a load of wood from Kittery, also sailed for Boston on the 3d inst.

Twenty-five sailing vessels and five steamers entered at the custom house in March. Seventeen of these vessels brought a total of 15,375 tons of coal, against 3851 tons in February; one cargo (700 barrels) of lime was brought in, and one foreign vessel brought a cargo of 2700 railroad ties from a port in the British provinces.

Mr. Edward White, for some time past flagman at the Concord railroad wharf, has changed his base of operations, and goes as steward of the schooner George W. Raitt. Mr. White has during the past winter amused himself in his leisure hours by making coffee, chowders, etc., for the hands employed on the coal vessels in that vicinity, and now proposes to utilize in another direction the experience thus gained, hoping by perseverance to make himself a reputation in his new business.

Mr. Edward Larrabee, son of Mr. John T. Larrabee, met with a severe and painful accident on Monday evening in the machine shop at South Newmarket, where he has for the past eight months been engaged in learning the machinist's trade, the middle and third fingers of his left hand being caught in a gearing, and so badly jammed that their ends had to be amputated. Mr. Larrabee has the sympathy of many friends in his misfortune, which will cause him to lie by for several months, though it is hoped no serious permanent injury will result.

Application has been made to have the old Gangway rock buoy removed; it is alleged that it does not show except at certain stages of the tide, that it is a great nuisance to the small river steamers, and that it would be of no use anyway even if it showed all the time, as there is now good water where the shoalest part of the rock used to be.

A most commendable order has been issued by the Eastern railroad management, to the effect that all quack medicine advertisements painted on the fences or other property of the road be obliterated; and work in this direction has already commenced. Some years ago the advertisements with which the Noble's island and Portsmouth bridges were disfigured were painted over, and notices posted prohibiting their renewal, which was an excellent thing as far as it went. It is to be hoped that the paint-pot fiend will be squelched.

The Government Chemist Analyzes two of the Leading Baking Powders, and what he finds them made of.

I have examined samples of "Cleveland's Superior Baking Powder" and "Royal Baking Powder," purchased by myself in this city, and I find they contain:

"Cleveland's Superior Baking Powder."
Cream of Tartar,
Bicarbonate of Soda,
Flour.
Available carbonic acid gas 12.61 per cent, equivalent to 118.2 cubic inches of gas per oz. of Powder.

"Royal Baking Powder."
Cream of Tartar,
Bicarbonate of Soda,
Carbonate of Ammonia,
Tartaric Acid,
Starch.
Available carbonic acid gas 12.40 per cent, equivalent to 116.2 cubic inches of gas per oz. of Powder.
Ammonia gas 0.43 per cent, equivalent to 10.4 cubic inches per oz. of Powder.

NOTE.—The Tartaric acid was doubtless introduced as free acid, but subsequently combined with ammonia, and exists in the Powder as a Tartrate of Ammonia. E. G. LOVE, Ph. D.
NEW YORK, Jan'y 17th, 1881.

The above shows conclusively that "Cleveland's Superior" is a strictly pure Cream of Tartar Baking Powder. It has also been analyzed by Professor Johnson of Yale College; Dr. Genth of the University of Pennsylvania; President Morton of the Stevens Institute; Wm. M. Habirshaw, F. C. S., Analyst for the Chemical Trade of New York, and other eminent chemists, all of whom pronounce it absolutely pure and healthful.—Hall's Journal of Health for April, 1882.

SECRET!

SALICYLICA is known as a common-sense remedy, because it strikes directly at the cause of Rheumatism, Gout and Neuralgia, while so many so-called specifics and supposed panaceas only treat locally the effects.

It has been conceded by eminent scientists that outward applications, such as rubbing with oils, ointments, liniments, and soothing lotions will not eradicate those diseases which are the result of the poisoning of the blood with Uric Acid.

SALICYLICA works with marvelous effect on this acid, and so removes the disorder. It is now exclusively used by all celebrated physicians of America and Europe. Highest Medical Academy of Paris reports 85 per cent. cures in three days.

that SALICYLICA is a certain cure for Rheumatism, Gout and Neuralgia. The most acute pains are subdued almost instantly. Give it a trial. Relief guaranteed or money refunded.

Vennor's and Tice's Predictions for April.

Vennor predicts as follows:

1 and 2—This month will probably enter with snow-falls and colder weather in northern sections.

3 and 4—Cold and frosty.

8—Fine and spring-like weather,—favorable.

9 and 10—Possibly snow in lower St. Lawrence and gulf ports. Stormy and colder period of brief duration.

11, 12, 13 and 14—Fine, warm, seasonable weather, with the usual fluctuations of an April month. Some warm to hot days. Close of week windy and rather stormy.

17, 18 and 19—Warm to sultry weather, with local thunder showers and hail storms.

20 and 21—Very favorable weather, with showers and cool nights. Damage done in western sections by storms. Possibly a cool change in northern areas.

23—Cloudy and cooler weather, warm days.

24 and 25—Cloudy and cooler, with cold showers and probably colder nights. Local frosts.

26—Still cool and showery in many sections.

27 and 28—Warm and sultry weather, again, and very favorable to crops generally. Rains.

29 and 30—Wet and rather cool weather, with some sharp relapses. Cold rains.

General remarks—The indications are that the month will be an advanced and generally favorable one, with, however, reports and complaints, possibly, of scarcity of rain in some northern localities. There will be more rain in Ontario than in Province of Quebec or Canada. Precipitation about the average in United States districts, so far as we can judge from this early date of writing (Jan. 16th).

There is just a possibility of a severe relapse in proximity to the 20th of the month, but the indications are not marked.

Professor Tice says: 1—clear or fair; 2 to 5—severe storms; 6 and 7—clear and frosty; 8 to 11—cloudy, attended with terrible storms; 12 and 13—clear, with frost; 14 to 17—cloudy, with local storms; 18 and 19—clear or fair; frost, if severe storms have occured; 20 to 22—clouding weather, with heavy rain storms; about the 22d, 23d, and 24th—clear or fair; 25 to 28—severe storms; 29 and 30—clear and fair. The warmer days will be about the 4th, 9th, 15th, 22d, and 26th. The cooler spells will be about the 6th, 12th, 18th, 22d, and 28th.

Dr. Benson's Skin Cure is without a peer. It consists of both external and internal treatment and costs only $1, per package, at druggists.

Delicate Females.

The exactions of society, added to the cares of maternity and the household, have tested beyond endurance the frail constitutions which have been granted the majority of women. To combat this tendency to premature decline, no remedy in the world possesses the nourishing and strengthening properties of Malt Bitters. They enrich the blood, perfect digestion, stimulate the liver and kidneys, arrest uterative weaknesses, and purify and vitalize every function of the female system.

The Atlantic squadron left New Orleans on the 2d inst. The fleet will separate at Tortugas, the Tennessee and Vandalia sailing direct to Hampton roads, the Kearsarge going first to Matanzas and Charleston and thence to Hampton roads, and the Yantic going in search of an abandoned wreck.

Lotteries originated in Florence in 1530. Most proprietary medicines are a lottery. This is not true of Wheat Bitters. It is a rare and recognized pharmaceutical preparation and is a certain cure for dyspepsia, all types of kidney and liver troubles—in fact a household necessity.

IN MINNESOTA & DAKOTA

VARIOUS QUACKS.

Who--Each with his own Pet Scheme--

Cultivate the Field of Human Nature.

There have always been quacks—legal quacks, theological quacks, scientific quacks and medical quacks. Some of them are bland, oily fellows who argue and smile the world into believing in their favorite bit of humbug. Others are pompous and pretentious parasites. But they make it pay. Men seem to love to be swindled, stipulating only that it shall be neatly done.

The dear public are equally liberal to the electric and magnetic fraud. This fellow is a genius in his line. He will put a magnetic belt around your waist, a magnetic necklace under your chin, or fit you out with an entire suit of magnetic clothes, warranted to serve the purpose of ordinary garments, and at the same time to cure all diseases, from whooping cough to hasty consumption.

Most of these have no more electric or magnetic power about them than resides in wooden blankets or in girdles of sackcloth. Only when applied by an expert is electricity of the slightest use as a medicinal agent, and even then its value is grossly overrated. But is the strongest positive and negative evidence in favor of a particular remedy? Clearly that it should have been prepared by responsible persons of acknowledged skill in the treatment of disease.

Squarely on this foundation stands BENSON'S CAPCINE POROUS PLASTER. Endorsed by 5,000 physicians, surgeons, druggists and chemists. It needs no further apology nor introduction. It is the one and only true and tried external application. Quacks of all kinds pay the Capcine the compliment of their dislike, as Satan is said to have holy water.

Spitting in Senator Voorhees's Hat.

One day, near the end of the last session of Congress, some one spat in Senator Voorhees' hat, which he had placed on the floor by the side of his desk and between his own and Senator Garland's. When the Indiana senator discovered that some one had been using his hat for a cuspidor, it made him very angry, and he exhibited his feelings by talking rather louder than is usual for a senator who is not addressing the senate.

David Davis, who was presiding, noticing the confusion near his right, asked some one passing by what was agitating Voorhees, and thereby heard that some one had spit in Voorhees' hat. Mr. Davis, motioning Colonel Bright to his desk, said:

"See here, colonel, it is your duty, as sergeant-at-arms, to help me preserve order. Now, there is Senator Voorhees over there making a good deal of noise; go to him and tell him that he is out of order and that his loud talking is annoying me very much, and ask him if he won't please talk lower; also tell him that I am glad that some one spit in his hat."

The message was delivered almost in the same language as uttered by Mr. Davis, but the answer that the Wabash statesman directed to be returned never reached the presiding officer's ears.

Concerning Certain Relics of the Past --Dogs that have had Their Day.

George Stephenson's "Rocket," and the magnificent locomotives of to-day, are built upon the same general principle, yet the machine with which the great engineer astonished his age, is interesting now only as an illustration of the beginning of the invention. There were plasters with holes in them long before BENSON'S CAPCINE POROUS PLASTER surprised both the public and the physicians; and the triumph of the Capcine is founded upon the partial successes, or the utter failures of its predecessors. Everything of value in the old porous plaster is retained in the Capcine; but at this point all comparison ends, and contrast begins. For example:

The old plasters lacked the power to do more than to impart slight, temporary relief in cases easy of treatment; the Capcine penetrates the system and permanently cures the troubles for which it is recommended.

The old plasters depended for any good results they might get in, upon an accident of their makers and the naked faith of their wearers; the Benson's reaches its ends by means of the scientific combination of the rare medicinal ingredients which it contains.

In brief, the old plasters, like Stephenson's discarded engine, are switched off the track, while the Benson goes on its way winning golden opinions from all sorts of people.

Yet is this very fact lies the leading danger to the people who buy and use this reliable and scientific remedy. "Hypocrisy is the tribute vice pays to virtue." Imitation is the concession failure makes to success. Benson's Plasters are purchased in name and style.

TERRIBLE SUFFERING.

"His word is as good as a bank note at any bank in Lowell, and I know it," was the opinion of a well known citizen in speaking of City Assessor Francis Gomard. Your reporter found Mr. Gomard at his pleasant home, which, with many others, adorns Sumner street and fronts the charming park of South Common. Mr. Gomard said, "I had been, as many of my friends in Lowell know, a great sufferer from kidney and urinary troubles for a long time. My physician said it was the result of diseased kidneys and enlargement of the prostrate gland. I had suffered terribly, and although my physician's treatment had been the best which this city afforded, I got no better. I said finally, 'Doctor, it's no use. You have done all that is in your power to do, I know that; but I must get help from some other source or die.' Finally I was induced to try Dr Kennedy's FAVORITE REMEDY, a medicine which had been recommended very highly for kidney diseases. I received help at once. It has acted like a charm with me. Why so? Dr. Kennedy's FAVORITE REMEDY is an honest preparation, and I know it. I didn't think anything would help me, but this has given me better health than any medicine ever prescribed for me. I have recommended it to ever so many of my friends in the city of Lowell, and with the same result. They think there is nothing like Dr. Kennedy's FAVORITE REMEDY."

What Mr. Gomard says can be depended upon, as any one acquainted with the gentleman knows.

An Escape from the Alabama.

The large number of war premium claims already presented to the Court of Commissioners of Alabama Claims, shows how extensive was our foreign commerce twenty years ago, as well as what consternation the rebel privateers caused by their appearance, and how generally our shipowners hastened to protect their property on the high seas by insurance against war risks.

Among the narrow escapes from the clutches of the rebel privateers, was that of a fine ship owned by the late Micajah Lunt in the neighboring city of Newburyport, called the Blondel. The Blondel was under the command of Capt. Moses J. Milliken of Newburyport, and had sailed at Calcutta for Philadelphia in Dec., 1863. After being a short time at sea, on the homeward passage, on one evening the Blondel was overhauled by a war steamer, with ports open, lanterns lighted and men at quarters. The stranger ran alongside, hailed the Blondel, and asked "What ship is that?" The captain answered "The Blondel." "Where from?" The answer was "Calcutta." "Where bound?" "To Liverpool," shouted back the Yankee captain. This seemed to be all that the steamer wanted, and she moved on. The man at the wheel said to the captain, "That's the Alabama, sir." "How do you know?" asked Capt. Milliken. "Because," said the seaman, "I saw her in Liverpool before she went to sea." This was confirmed the next day, when Capt. Milliken spoke an English ship whose captain reported to him that he just before met the Alabama.

Perhaps the enquiry may suggest itself why did the commander of the Alabama permit the Blondel to go without boarding the vessel and satisfying himself as to her nationality? It was for this reason: While the Blondel was in Calcutta the British ship Blonden was in port, and advertised for charter; the American captain did not have his ship advertised, either because his vessel was engaged or for other sufficient reason, and Semmes did not know of her being at that port. In the night the ship could not be distinctly seen, and the reply to the hail sounded perhaps as much like Blonden as Blondel; at least, going down the alphabet a couple of letters seems to have saved the Blondel. As the captain told us the story recently, we remarked that we presumed he thought that the slight deviation as to the port of destination was justifiable under the circumstances; "I thought," said the webfoot, "that I was fully justified in telling such a fib as that."

The Blondel had on board a large amount of saltpetre, which was afterward safely delivered at her port of destination, and was doubtless used for good purposes in the putting down of the rebellion. The captain is now one of the retired shipmasters of Newburyport, and the recent movement as to reimbursements for his war premiums paid was the occasion of the revival of this story.

A Fallen Star.

San Antonio, Texas, people are excited over the flight of Rev. W. H. H. Murray, formerly of Boston, who left that town suddenly on Saturday evening, March 31st. For some time past he has been deeply involved in debt, and has been from time to time putting off his creditors with specious promises. On Wednesday, March 28th, several of them got together and talked over Mr. Murray's financial affairs, finally sending for him. He then promised to meet them again Saturday afternoon, and in the meantime to consider some definite proposition for settlement and have it ready to submit. Instead of keeping this agreement, he apparently began at once to make arrangements for flight.

Murray occupied most of his time on Thursday and Friday in packing up his few remaining household goods. On Saturday about noon he was seen to drive out through a back street and take the road to Seguin; he had a pair of horses attached to an army wagon, and in the wagon were two trunks, two or three small boxes and some small articles, all that remained of his once elegant lot of personal property. Driving eastward about eight miles, he forded the Cibolo river and proceeded ten miles further to Seguin station, on the Galveston, Harrisburg & San Antonio railway; here he waited for the express east-bound, and, leaving the team, put the baggage on the train and was out of the state by noon on Sunday, and in New Orleans on Sunday evening. Here all trace of him was lost.

It is supposed that his intimate female friend went from Marshall to Longview by rail, and there took a Red River steamer which would have taken her into New Orleans about the same time that Mr. Murray got there.

Murray's indebtedness in and about San Antonio will aggregate something over $12,000. None of his creditors will suffer very heavily, for the individual claims are small. One man holds Murray's notes, long overdue, to the amount of $2,500. He is, probably, the largest creditor.

Murray's female amanuensis joined him soon after his arrival in Texas, and has lived with him ever since. His persuasive powers in the money-borrowing line proved as successful there as in Boston, and, after all his other failures, he raised capital and built a sawmill. But this did not pay. He then essayed the pulpit again, but his adherents soon learned his past history, and he was invited to step down and out. Last fall he became so much impoverished that he had to resort to hauling wood for a living. He was then a very different-looking man, dressed in brown overalls, tucked into coarse cowhide boots, and a blue-and-white-checked shirt, from the sleek, well-fed, handsomely clad and happy whilom pastor of the largest congregation in Boston.

The navy department has received from Rear Adm. Clitz, commanding the Asiatic squadron, a letter dated Feb. 28th, giving the particulars of the loss of the U. S. S. Ashuelot, so far as they were at that time known—and all that is ever likely to be known of the affair was known then. From the report of Comdr. Horace E. Mullan, who commanded the Ashuelot at the time of the disaster, it appears that she left Amoy at two o'clock in the afternoon of the 17th of February, with fine weather; at eight o'clock in the evening the weather became foggy, and the engines were slowed. It was the intention to change the vessel's course at four o'clock in the morning on the 18th, and the navigator at that hour was in the chart-room consulting with the commanding officer, when land was reported on the starboard bow. The helm was put hard a starboard and the engines stopped, but too late to clear an outlying rock, and the ship struck on the East Lamocks, filled rapidly, and was abandoned; she sank in twelve minutes from the time the order to abandon ship was given; it was impossible to beach her, as the nearest point available was five miles distant. A court of inquiry to investigate the circumstances of the loss was ordered on board the Richmond, and was in session at the time the admiral's report was written. The wreck was then lying in an upright position in about seventeen fathoms of water, with nothing showing but her topmasts, and the admiral reported that work could not well be begun upon her until April or May, after the change of the monsoons. Lieutenant D. H. Mahan and five men from the Richmond were detailed to remain in the vicinity of the wreck and protect it from pillage. Paymaster Whitehouse, of the Ashuelot, was ordered to take special charge of the final disposition of the wreck.

Drew $15,000.

Ticket No. 8,564 drew the $15,000 prize in the last monthly drawing of The Louisiana State Lottery, and the Allentown papers say the ticket is held by J. Allen Schaeffer, a bookseller and a well-known business man on Seventh street, that city, who invested a dollar in the scheme, thinking never to hear from it again. Mr. Schaeffer received his first information through the newspapers, which published the numbers winning prizes on Wednesday.

The Item says: "This is probably the best investment he ever made. We have heard of no one yet who begrudges him the bonanza which he has suddenly acquired, only most people regret that they are not privileged to enjoy a like fortune. Mr. Schaeffer has persevered and struggled in his business, frequently against adverse circumstances, but he kept pushing along and succeeded in building up a prosperous trade, which, with a little more capital, will be placed on a very substantial basis."

It is probable that the good luck of the Allentown man will have the effect of stirring up the interest in The Louisiana State Lottery already felt in this vicinity. We frequently hear of small gains, and these have kept alive the desire on the part of many to invest. Such a prize as that drawn by Mr. Schaeffer will give a new impetus to business. Whatever may be the objectionable principles of a lottery, whatever a man wins on a Louisiana State Lottery ticket he is as sure to get his full as the cash on a good check on a good bank.—Easton (Pa.) Free Press, March 16.

Schaeffer, the book man, who made the big hit in The Louisiana State Lottery the other day, got his money yesterday per Central Express Company. It wasn't much of a package, the amount consisting of three five thousand dollar bills. Mr. Schaeffer will continue in business, and says he will not allow his good fortune to spoil him one bit. On the contrary, he avows his intention never to purchase another lottery ticket and to put all his energies and all his fortune into the business which, thus far, he has made a great success out of a small beginning through hard work.—Allentown (Pa.) Chronicle and News, March 28.

THE WONDER
Is becoming universal as to how such an immense sale could be created in Lowell for HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA. But, my friend, if you could stand behind our counter a week and hear what those say who are using it, the reason would appear as clear as the noon-day sun. The real curative power of HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA demonstrates itself in every case where our directions are faithfully regarded. We would that we might get before the people a fractional part of the confidence that is expressed to us every day in this medicine by those who have carefully noted (without prejudice) its effects upon the blood and through that upon the whole system, stimulating all the functions of the body to perform the duties nature requires of them. Try a bottle and satisfy yourself.

Cold Hands and Feet.

LOWELL, Feb. 3, 1879.

MESSRS. C. I. HOOD & CO.: Gentlemen—About one year ago my daughter commenced taking your Sarsaparilla. At that time she had very little appetite; could take no long walks, and her face was badly broken out with a humor. She was low-spirited; troubled with cold hands and feet; her blood seemed to be poor, and she was in a condition which caused us great anxiety. After taking one bottle of your Sarsaparilla she began to improve; and she now has a good appetite and can take much longer walks. Her humor is nothing compared with what it was one year ago. She is in better spirits, is not troubled with cold hands and feet as previously. And I attribute this improvement in her condition largely to your Sarsaparilla. She has taken six bottles, and intends to continue its use. I was inclined to oppose the trial of it at first. I now have great faith in it as a blood purifier. Very truly yours,

A. J. HINCKLEY,

Public Benefactress. Mrs. S. A. ALLEN has justly earned this title, and thousands are this day rejoicing over a fine head of hair produced by her unequaled preparation for restoring, invigorating, and beautifying the Hair. Her World's Hair Restorer quickly cleanses the scalp, removing Dandruff, and arrests the fall; the hair, if gray, is changed to its natural color, giving it the same vitality and luxurious quantity as in youth.

COMPLIMENTARY. "My hair is now restored to its youthful color; I have not a gray hair left. I am satisfied that the preparation is not a dye, but acts on the secretions. My hair ceases to fall, which is certainly an advantage to me, who was in danger of becoming bald." This is the testimony of all who use Mrs. S. A. ALLEN'S WORLD'S HAIR RESTORER.

"One Bottle did it." That is the expression of many who have had their gray hair restored to its natural color, and their bald spot covered with hair, after using one bottle of Mrs. S. A. ALLEN'S WORLD'S HAIR RESTORER. It is not a dye.

GOOD TEMPLARS' MEETING.

The semi-annual meeting of the Grand Lodge of New Hampshire, Independent Order of Good Templars, was held in this city on the 4th inst., the meeting being called to order at eleven o'clock in the forenoon.

The grand officers present were Grand Worthy Chief Templar George A. Batley, of Manchester; Grand Vice Templar Etta E. Elliot, of Laconia; Grand Worthy Secretary Emma P. Whittier, of Lake Village; Grand Chaplain J. M. Buffum, of Concord; Grand Marshal Charles F. Larrabee, of Portsmouth.

Seventy-five members, representing over twenty lodges, were present from out of town; twenty-three persons were initiated at this session. The total membership of the order in the state on the 1st of February, 1883, was reported at 3380, a gain of about 300 since the annual session of the grand lodge in October, 1882.

At the afternoon session Chief Templar Ceylon Spinney, of Rockingham Lodge, was presented with a grand lodge regalia, District Deputy Charles T. Wiggin making the presentation speech; and Grand Worthy Chief Templar Bailey, on behalf of Strawberry Bank Lodge, presented a similar regalia to Lodge Deputy Annie E. Leach.

The reports showed the order to be in a more prosperous condition than at any previous time since 1870, eleven new lodges having been instituted during the past year.

The next annual session will be held in Keene on the first Wednesday in October next.

"NICK OF THE WOODS."

To-morrow (Friday) evening, in Music hall, Mr. Joseph Proctor and his dramatic company, including some genuine Indians, will present the long-time-favorite border drama "Nick of the Woods," Mr. Proctor taking six different characters, including that of the "Jibbenainosay." The evening's entertainment will conclude with the laughable farce "My Neighbor's Wife." Tickets at Goodrich's; see advertisement.

GOSSIPS SAY

That Rev. J. F. McKenney, of Manchester, Department Chaplain of the G. A. R. of New Hampshire, has been engaged by Storer Post to deliver the Memorial address in this city on the 30th of May.

That Mr. Willmore Twombley, of Christian Shore, has a bantam fowl sixteen years old.

That several hundred new books are being added to the public library.

That the most valuable microscope in New Hampshire is in the possession of a retired sea captain of this city; it magnifies 10,000 times.

That the government property at Fort Constitution is to be enclosed this spring by an attractive and substantial fence.

That at this season of the year, when ice is so plenty on the Newfoundland banks, thereby endangering the safety of steamers and the lives of their passengers, Secretary Chandler might station one or more men-of-war to notify steamers coming from the east, and at the same time experiment with the fish torpedo in blowing up the ice bergs; it would be a healthy change for officers whose physical condition is suffering from a long residence in Washington.

That during the past ten days the Marine Bicycle company have received three hundred letters calling for circulars and information respecting their novel crafts.

That the company's first shipment this season is through a New York exporting house to Melbourne, Australia.

That James H. Dow, formerly of this city and recently a popular dry goods clerk of Concord, has been tendered a similar position in Lowell, Mass., and has accepted it.

That Mr. Fred B. Haraden, the injured fireman, should be the recipient of a portion of the fund of the Fireman's Relief association.

That when our citizens contributed to that fund, they did so with the understanding that when any fireman became injured or sick when in the line of duty this would be a source from which he might receive some assistance, and not that when the accumulations had aggregated to quite extensive proportions, the fund should belong to a close corporation of a dozen or more persons, some of whom are not members of any fire company or of the department.

That the driving of the poles for the Harding weir, near Pocahontas point, commenced on Tuesday morning of this week, and was finished on Wednesday.

That the Times man is so much interested in our report of what the "Gossips say" that when they miss talking for a single day he announces the fact in his paper.

SCHOONER BURNED.

The schooner Governor Goodwin, formerly of this port, McCormiskey master, while on the way from Gloucester to the Grand banks put into Pubnico, Nova Scotia, on the 25th ult., to take in some of the crew, who reside there. That night, while the vessel was at anchor in the harbor, fire broke out in the forecastle, and spread so rapidly that in a short time she was enveloped in flames; all attempts to save her proved futile, and she was burned to the water's edge. No life was lost. The Governor Goodwin registered 96.2 tons, and was built in Kennebunk, Me., for service as one of the fishing fleet of Valentine Doane, late of this city; at the time of her destruction she was owned by Boston parties.

No paper will be issued from this office to-morrow morning, to-day being Fast day.

The pool tournaments at Preble's rooms on Congress street and White's saloon on Fleet street, will progress to-day.

There will be a roller skating party in Franklin hall this afternoon and evening.

The post-office hours to-day are from eight to 10:30 o'clock A.M. and from six to 6:30 P. M.

Mr. Samuel Lamprey intending to be absent from the city during a portion of the spring and summer, will not commence his dancing class until September; due notice of the opening will be given.

The internal revenue receipts for this district during the month of March, 1883, were $22,152.23, against $23,609.66 for the corresponding month in 1882.

Most of the fishing vessels out of this port have gone to Provincetown for bait.

The schooner Grace Choate has temporarily hauled up, to fit out for spring fishing.

Mr. John S. Whidden has hired the store in Franklin block occupied by Alfred Stavers and Wilbur J. Plummer, opposite his present place of business. Mr. James W. Robertson will open a saloon on Vaughan street, in the last store of Franklin block.

The bids for printing the city book were opened Tuesday evening of this week at the city clerk's office. There was three bids put in, by Oliver M. Knight, Richard I. Walden and Lewis W. Brewster respectively. The contract was awarded to Mr. Brewster, whose bid was $237 for the job. There was a difference of $13 between the highest and lowest bids. The book was printed last year by Mr. Walden for $150. This bid does not include extra copies of the school report, which are printed separately.

At Haverhill, Mass., on the morning of April 3d, Andrew Ward, a brakeman on the Boston & Maine railroad, was killed by falling from a car while shifting. The deceased belonged in Wells, was aged thirty years, and leaves a wife and one child. He was formerly a resident of this city, and left here some three years ago when he took the position of brakeman on the Boston & Maine road. He was much respected by his associates.

One hundred and fifty barrels of mackrel were carried into Norfolk, Va., April 2d, by the Gloucester fishing schooner Lizzie W. Hannum; this is the second fare of the season, the first one having been landed in New York.

A Colorado correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette tells a good story of how Joseph Proctor scared a marauding party of Utes into fits by appearing among them in his "Jibbenainosay" rig as they crawled toward his camp one night, and shouting in the Ute tongue "Beware the Jibbenainosay!" The hostile red-skins, of whose proximity Proctor was unaware, supposing the intruders to be of his own party, started off in terror, leaving the astonished actor and his people unharmed.

—Instead of having written on his tombstone, "He never told a lie," the greatest man of modern times will probably prefer the words, "He never stole an umbrella."

—It is claimed that the Indians are not a "Perishing race," the increase of this special population being about 1,000 annually. It seems that there are stomachs proof against Missouri whiskey.

The Government Chemist Analyzes two of the Leading Baking Powders, and what he finds them made of.

I have examined samples of "Cleveland's Superior Baking Powder" and "Royal Baking Powder," purchased by myself in this city, and I find they contain:

"Cleveland's Superior Baking Powder."
Cream of Tartar,
Bicarbonate of Soda,
Flour.
Available carbonic acid gas 12.61 per cent, equivalent to 118.2 cubic inches of gas per oz. of Powder.

"Royal Baking Powder."
Cream of Tartar,
Bicarbonate of Soda,
Carbonate of Ammonia,
Tartaric Acid,
Starch.
Available carbonic acid gas 12.40 per cent, equivalent to 116.2 cubic inches of gas per oz. of Powder.
Ammonia gas 0.43 per cent, equivalent to 10.4 cubic inches per oz. of Powder.

NOTE.—The Tartaric acid was doubtless introduced as free acid, but subsequently combined with ammonia, and exists in the Powder as a Tartrate of Ammonia. E. G. LOVE, Ph. D.
NEW YORK, Jan'y 17th, 1881.

The above shows conclusively that "Cleveland's Superior" is a strictly pure Cream of Tartar Baking Powder. It has also been analyzed by Professor Johnson of Yale College; Dr. Genth of the University of Pennsylvania; President Morton of the Stevens Institute; Wm. M. Habirshaw, F. C. S., Analyst for the Chemical Trade of New York, and other eminent chemists, all of whom pronounce it absolutely pure and healthful.—Hall's Journal of Health for April, 1882.

CATARRH

Sanford's Radical Cure.

A single dose instantly relieves the most violent Sneezing or Head Colds, clears the head as by magic, stops watery discharges from the nose and eyes, prevents ringing noises in the head, cures Ne vous Headache and subdues Chills and Fever. In Chronic Catarrh it cleanses the nasal passages of foul mucus, restores the senses of smell, taste and hearing when affected, frees the head, throat and bronchial tubes of offensive matter, sweetens and purifies the breath, stops the cough and arrests the progress of catarrh towards consumption. SECRET!
SALICYLICA is known as a common-sense remedy, because it strikes directly at the cause of Rheumatism, Gout and Neuralgia, while so many so-called specifics and supposed panaceas only treat locally the effects.
It has been conceded by eminent scientists that outward applications, such as rubbing with oils, ointments, liniments, and soothing lotions will not eradicate these diseases which are the result of the poisoning of the blood with Uric Acid.
SALICYLICA works with marvelous effect on this acid, and so removes the disorder. It is now exclusively used by all celebrated physicians of America and Europe. Highest Medical Academy of Paris reports 95 per cent. cures in three days.

that SALICYLICA is a certain cure for Rheumatism, Gout and Neuralgia. The most intense pains are subdued almost instantly. Give it a trial. Relief guaranteed or money refunded.
